

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

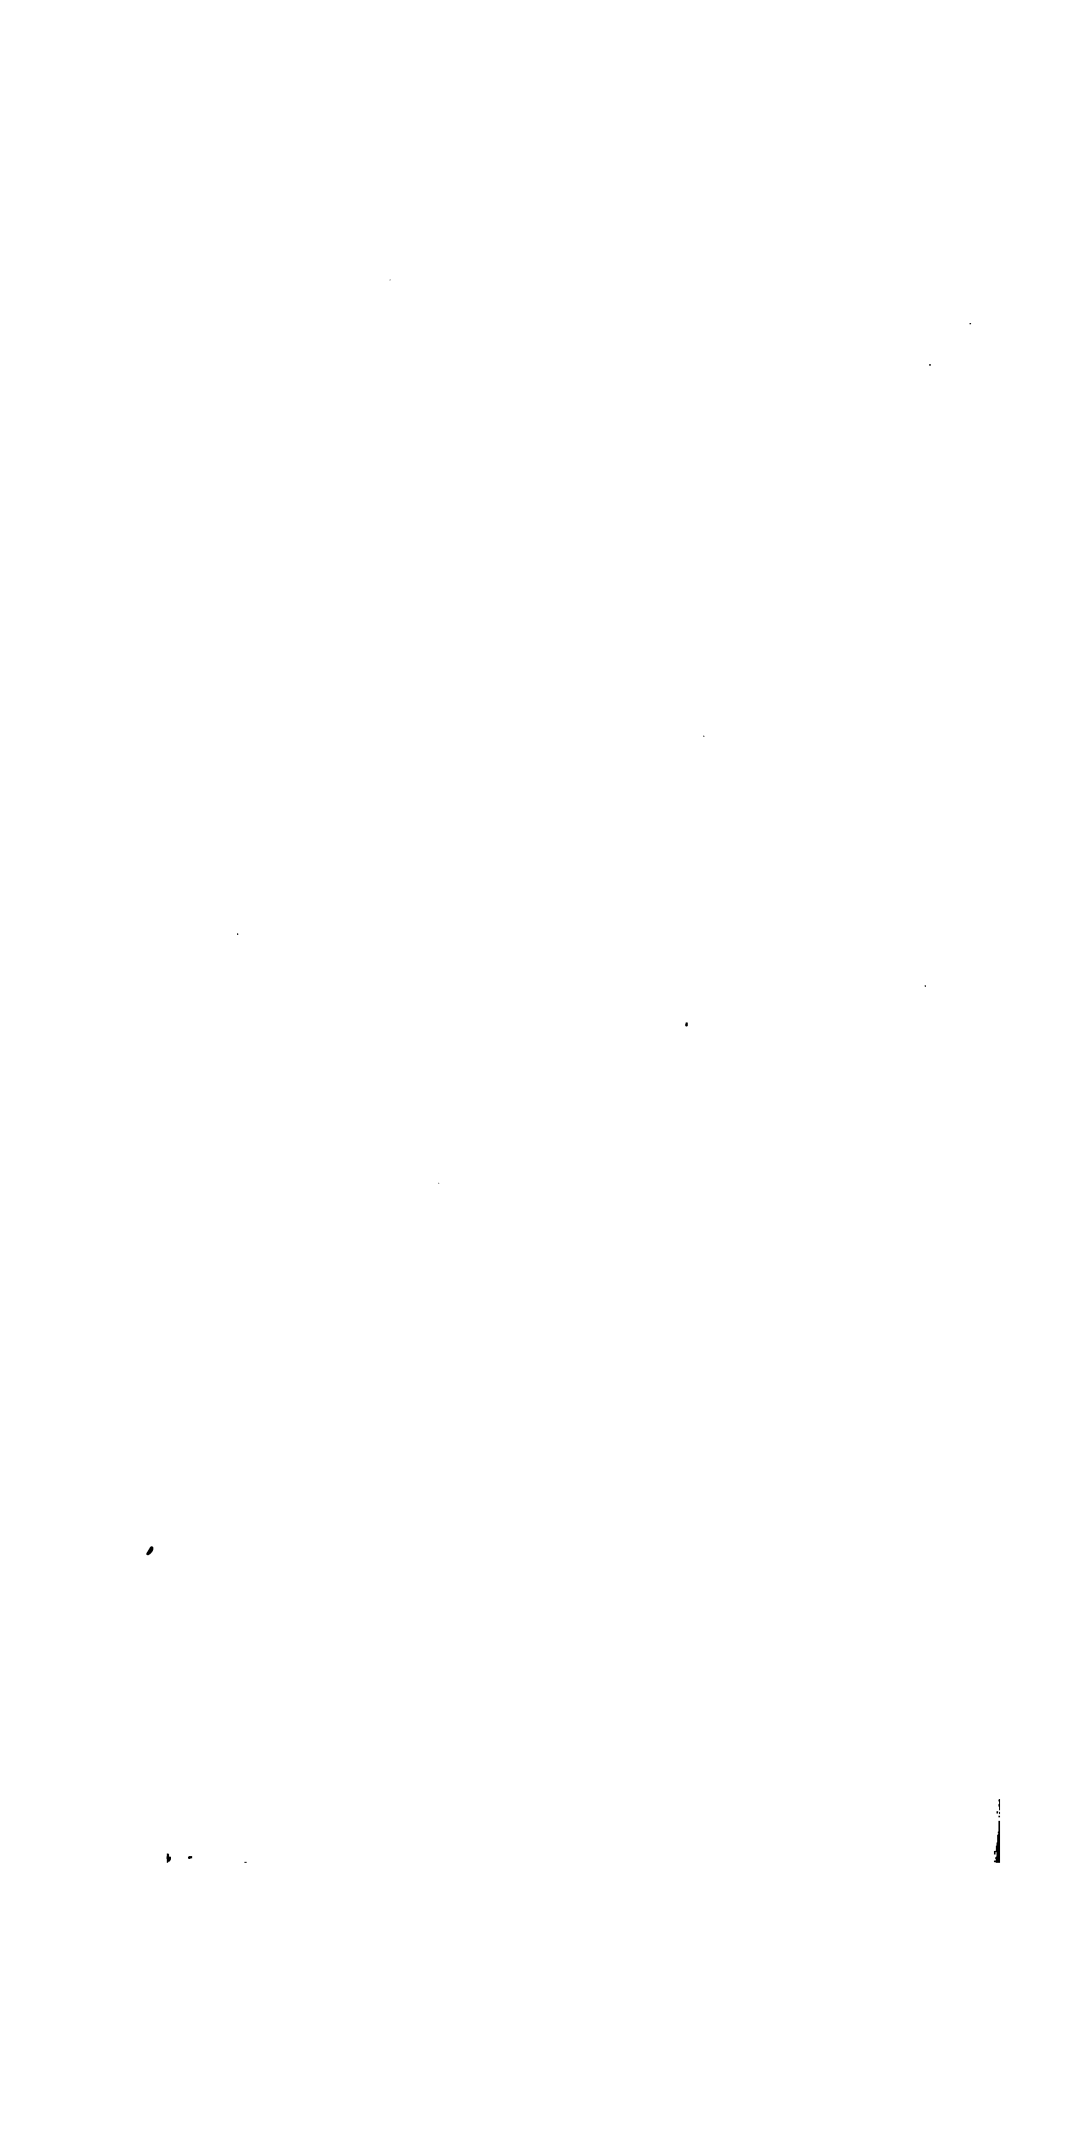

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. You can search through the full text of this book on the web at <http://books.google.com/>

Journal.

On motion the Rev. W. R. McKim was appointed a member of the Deaf Mute Commission.

The Rev. Dr. Coddington, from the Special Committee appointed to consider the merging of the Christmas Fund with the General Clergy Relief Fund presented the following report, which, on motion, was referred to the Committee on the Constitution and Canons.

Report of the Diocesan Committee on General Clergy Relief.

The Diocesan Committee on General Clergy Relief was appointed by the Bishop at the request of the Trustees of the General Clergy Relief Fund and in pursuance of the policy recommended by the General Convention of the Church. It respectfully presents the following report:

The Church has a national organization called The General Clergy Relief Fund. "It applies no tests, attaches no conditions, requires no payment of membership dues, admits of no forfeiture, but offers its benefits to all Clergymen of the Church who may be disabled, whether by age or infirmity, and to the families of all Clergymen who die in the Communion of the Church." When sufficient funds have been secured it will provide a pension for every Clergyman of the Church who has reached the age of 64 years.

In addition to this General Fund there are many Diocesan Funds. The existence of these numerous funds entails confusion and inconvenience, if not loss. About fifty of these funds have been or are about to be merged with the General Fund.

Your committee is unanimously of the opinion that it would be well for the Diocese of Central New York to join in this movement, and merge its Relief Fund with the General Relief Fund.

Among the chief reasons for such action are the following:

FIRST—The Clergy are called to the whole Church, therefore a general pension system seems to be required. The National Government does not require each State to look after the pensioning of its soldiers.

SECOND—Annuities or pensions should be paid to the officers of the Church, without regard to local restrictions or any requirements of previous pecuniary payments. Active service and a life of honorable devotion to duty have earned this.

THIRD—It is not right that a Clergyman's old age and disability support or pension (or that of his family) should be imperilled by reason of his call to serve at any time in any part of the Church, but especially in the hard places. A premium should not be placed upon mere sojourn in opulent dioceses. Local funds are forfeitable and so restrain and discourage aggressive missionary effort in less favored places. The great body of the Clergy are ineligible to local funds by reason of unwilling removals or local requirements.

FOURTH—A General Fund is of necessity more equitable and just. There is no reason why a man who belongs to the same Church and is doing hard, self-denying work should have less chance of a pension or less of a pension in one diocese than another.

FIFTH—A pension from a General Board of the Church can be administered more nearly as a right, by a formal appropriation; and with greater delicacy because of less personal contact.

SIXTH—An uniform fund and effort puts an end to the confusion caused in the minds of many by reason of different funds and methods and sub-divisions of authority and appeal.

SEVENTH—The merging of funds puts an end to the accumulation of local funds which may, and do in some cases, lie idle and unused, the income being added to the principal.

EIGHTH—The General Fund presents to the whole Church a clear, simple, business-like system such as the United States Government and great corporations and some other churches have adopted.

NINTH—The General Fund comprehends the Family unit. It cares for the young disabled Clergyman, the old disabled Clergyman, the aged Clergyman, the widow, the orphan; and provides for an old age pension at 64 when sufficient money has been accu mulated, and it does this no matter in what part of the world the man or his family happen to be.

TENTH—A more complete record of all Clergy relief in the Church, and, therefore, a more equitable and sufficient distribution can be made by means of the General Fund. Instead of a "series of bureaus of unequal and insufficient and uncertain doles the General Fund establishes an uniform system and lifts the work out of what now seems to be a fragmentary, uncertain and inequitable condition."

ELEVENTH—Local interest is advantaged by merging. Beneficiaries on Diocesan lists are transferred to the General Fund and paid the same amounts they have been receiving, and in addition the Bishop can ask for an appropriation from the General Fund, and in addition can designate out of any surplus funds amounts for his Clergy, and all this without extra canons or legislation.

Two methods of merging the Diocesan Relief Fund with the General Relief Fund are suggested by the Trustees of the latter organization. In view of certain legal objections which have been urged against the first of these methods your committee favors the second method, and offers the following resolutions:

Resolved, That the Bishop of the Diocese and the Trustees of the Christmas Fund be and are hereby empowered to enter into an agreement with the Trustees of the General Clergy Relief Fund whereby shall be created a merger of the two funds without a transfer of the properties now held by the Trustees of the Christmas Fund, such agreement to be in the following form:

MEMORANDUM OF AGREEMENT entered into this..... day of..... A. D., 19..... by the Bishop of the Diocese of Central New York and the Trustees of the Christmas Fund of the Diocese of Central New York acting herein by the authority of a resolution of the Convention of said Diocese, parties of the first part, and the Trustees of the Fund for the Relief of Widows and Orphans of Deceased Clergymen and of Aged, Infirm and Disabled Clergymen of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, parties of the second part.

WHEREAS, It is desirable, in the judgment of the parties hereto, to sytematize as far as possible the work of Clergy Relief throughout the Church to the end that uniformity of policy and economy of administration may prevail; and

WHEREAS, The parties of the first part have received (from the Convention of the Diocese of Central New York or as the case may be) the authority necessary to enter into this agreement; and

WHEREAS, Consistently with the charter of the parties of the second part, it is provided by Title III, Canon VIII, Section 6 of the Canons of the General Convention that the said parties of the second part "may enter into relations with all kindred funds and societies in the Church, and so far as may be practicable secure their co-operation to the end that there may be a complete record of all Clergy Relief in the Church, and that such relief may be distributed wisely, equitably and efficiently."

Now, therefore, This Agreement Witnesseth:

I. That the parties of the first part will hereafter semi-annually on the first days of.....and..... (unless different dates shall be from time to time agreed upon by the parties hereto; and in the event of such agreement then upon such dates.) remit to the Treasurer of the parties of the second part all income theretofore collected or received by the parties of the first part from moneys, invested funds and property of every description held by them or by others for the purposes of Clergy Relief; the said income so paid over to the parties of the second part to be applied by the said parties of the second part under and subject to the trusts and conditions hereinafter set forth.

II. That the said parties of the second part, in consideration of the premises, will, when such names are furnished to them, enter upon their records, the names of all beneficiaries now on the list of the said parties of the first part, and will, unless and until otherwise directed by the Bishop of the said Diocese, regularly and punctually pay to each of the said beneficiaries the sum which such beneficiary would be entitled to receive from parties of the first part if this agreement had not been made: PROVIDED that the parties of the second part shall not be liable under this paragraph except to the extent of the income received from the parties of the first part, supplemented by such other funds as may hereafter be paid to the parties of the second part for the use of said beneficiaries.

III. That the said parties of the second part will, in addition to the payments above specified, pay to each of the said beneficiaries whose name now is or may hereafter be upon the list of the parties of the second part the same annuities or pensions as are granted by the parties of the second part to all other beneficiaries of the same class in dioceses and missionary jurisdictions throughout the Church.

IV. That in consideration of the premises, the parties of the second part shall be entitled to apply to their general corporate uses such income from invested funds and such undesignated contributions as together shall exceed in any year the amount needed to provide for the beneficiaries now on the list of the parties of the first part.

V. That the said parties of the first part, and their successors, will send promptly to the Treasurer of the parties of the second part all contributions and offerings received for the purposes of Clergy Relief and will use their best endeavors to procure the collection in all Churches and Missions in said Diocese an annual offering for the said purpose; and will cause to be printed annually in the JOURNAL of said Diocese the name and object of the parties of the second part and the name and address of their Treasurer.

VI. That in case at any time hereafter the parties of the first part, or their successors, shall desire under proper authority to assign and transfer the invested funds in their hands to the parties of the second part, the said parties of the second part agree that they will accept an assignment thereof substantially upon the terms of the agreement designated as "Form A," and of which a copy is hereby annexed.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the parties hereto have hereunto set their hands and seals the day and year first above written.

Dr. W. H. Watson presented the following resolutions, which, on motion, were adopted:

WHEREAS, The religious corporation existing under the name of the Rector, Wardens and Vestrymen of St. John's Church in the Village of Clayville, Oneida County, N. Y., has failed for two consecutive years prior to this date to maintain regular religious services according to the discipline, customs and usages of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Central New York and has less than thirteen resident attending members paying annual pew rent or making annual contributions towards its support, and

WHEREAS, The Church building and premises in the Village of Clayville, N. Y., belonging to said religious corporation have not been used for Church purposes for many years and are now unsuitable therefor; and

WHEREAS, The Clayville Knitting Company has offered the sum of sixteen hundred (1,600) dollars for said Church building and premises and it being deemed for the best interests of those connected with said Church to sell the said premises and real estate and to erect a more suitable Church edifice upon another lot to be furnished for that purpose; but action by the Vestry of said religious corporation authorizing the proper proceedings for the sale of the said Church building and premises cannot be taken by reason of an insufficient number of the members of the Vestry of said religious corporation and the inability to fill vacancies existing in said Vestry, therefore be it

Resolved, That it is hereby decided that the Church, Parish or Society existing under the name of the Rector, Wardens and Vestrymen of St. John's Church in the Village of Clayville, Oneida County, N. Y., has become extinct and the Trustees of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Central New York are hereby authorized to dispose of the property belonging to such Church in pursuance of the provisions of law relating to the disposition of real property by religious corporations as provided by section fifteen (15) of the Religious Corporations Law and to apply the proceeds of such sale to the erection of a suitable church edifice upon such lot as shall be conveyed to the Trustees of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Central New York for the purpose; the said lot, however, after the church edifice has been completed shall be transferred by the said Trustees either to the Rector, Wardens and Vestrymen of St. John's Church in the Village of Clayville, Oneida County, N. Y., whenever a Vestry legally constituted is enabled to accept and does accept title thereto, or to such new religious corporation as the members of the Church or congregation using the said Church edifice on such lot shall duly and legally organize under the provisions of law relating to the incorporation of Protestant Episcopal Churches or Parishes.

The Rev. Dr. Coddington offered the following resolution, which was adopted by a rising vote:

Resolved, That this Convention extends its heartiest congratulations to the Rev. John H. Egar, D. D. on his completion, on Trinity Sunday last, of fifty years in the Ministry of the Church.

The Convention then proceeded to the election of the Standing Committee of the Diocese. The Chair appointed as Tellers to receive the votes of the Clergy, the Rev. F. T. Henstridge, and Mr. W. S. Crocker, and to receive the votes of the Laity Mr. Nelson Morrow, and the Rev. A. R. B. Hegeman.

The Rev. John R. Harding, from the Special Committee appointed to consider the proposed changes in Canon X presented the following.

REPORT.

The Committee recommend the following changes in Canon X.

I SECTION III §1. At the next meeting of the Board of Managers after the Convention of this diocese held in June, 1906, or as soon thereafter as Convenient, and every succeeding fourth year, an Archdeacon shall be appointed by the Bishop, with the advice and consent of the Board of Managers.

He shall be in Priest's orders and shall hold his office for four years, unless his incumbency be terminated sooner by resignation or otherwise.

Journal.

He shall under the direction of the Bishop, give his entire time to the missionary work of the Diocese. He shall receive a stated salary, together with his travelling expenses; the amount of said salary and expenses to be determined by the Board of Managers, and to be paid by the Treasurer of the Board of Missions from the missionary fund.

II §2. Same as old 1st.

III §3. " " " 2d.

IV §4. " " " 3d.

V SECTION IV. §1. Insert the words, "of the Archdeacon. the Secretary of the Board" after the words, "together with the Bishop." Strike out last clause and insert the following: "The Bishop shall preside at the meetings and in his absence the Archdeacon shall preside."

VI §5. After the words, "or in a vacancy of the Episcopate" strike out the words, "of four Deans," and insert "of the Archdeacon."

VII SEC. V. §8. Every Clergyman receiving a stipend from the Board of Missions shall make in writing, according to a form prescribed by the Board, a quarterly report of his work to the Dean.

VIII §9. No missionary shall receive his quarterly stipend until he has made the required report to the Dean, and has forwarded to the Treasurer the stated offerings for Diocesan Missions, unless the Convocation by a three-fourths vote should otherwise order.

IX SEC. VI. Strike out the offering for "Deficiency in Income from Episcopate Fund."

On motion it was resolved to consider the recommendations contained in the Report separately.

On motion it was resolved that in the debate on the Canon now under consideration, speeches be limited to three minutes.

The Rev. Dr. Bellinger offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Journal.

Resolved, That Section 5, Subsection 9 of the proposed amendments to Canon X be so amended, that the words following "to the Dean"—be stricken out, and that the aforementioned Section 5, subsection 9 shall read: "No missionary shall receive his quarterly stipend until he has made the required report to the Dean."

On motion the recommendations in the report of the Committee numbered I, II, III, IV, V, VI, VII and IX and VIII as amended by the Convention, were adopted.

On motion, the changes in Canon X, as amended, were finally adopted.

The Tellers presented their report, from which it appeared that the following named persons had received a majority of all the votes given, and they were therefore duly elected members of the

STANDING COMMITTEE:

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON, 3:00 o'clock.

The Convention re-assembled, the Rt. Rev. the Bishop in the chair.

Mr. G. M. Weaver offered the following resolution, which was referred to the Committee on the Constitution and Canons.

Resolved, That Canon XIII, be amended, so as to read as follows:

Journal.

Sec. 3. The salary of the Bishop shall be paid quarterly, by the Treasurer of the Diocese, on the first days of July, October, January and April, in each fiscal year, and the Trustees of the Episcopate Fund shall remit the amount thereof to such Treasurer quarterly, out of the income of the fund, and the receipt of said Treasurer shall be a proper voucher for said Trustees in rendering their annual report to the Convention of this Diocese. Any excess of income over and above the amount of such salary, shall be held and invested by said Trustees as an auxiliary and supplementary fund, and applied as occasion may require; first, to make good any deficiency of income in succeeding years; and second, to make good any losses or deficiencies in the principal should any such occur; or third, to augment the principal should the Convention so order.

The Rev. Dr. Duff, from the Committee on the Constitution and Canons, presented the following report:

The Committee on the Constitution and Canons report, that they are in favor of the addition to Canon XIII, offered by Mr. Geo. M. Weaver, and recommend the proposed change.

On motion the amendments to Canon XIII, as recommended by the Committee were adopted:

The Rev. A. L. Byron-Curtiss offered the following resolution, which was adopted.

Resolved, That the balance of $873.75 of the Episcopate Fund, be returned to the Trustees of the Episcopate Fund, for re-investment.

The Rev. G. A. Shaw, from the Committee on Unfinished Business, reported that they had examined the Journal of 1905, and found no unfinished business.

tion, which was referred to the Committee on the Constitution and Canons:

Resolved, That the question raised by the Bishop in regard to Canon XXI be referred to the Committee on the Constitution and Canons for their immediate consideration, and that they reframe the Canon, if in their judgment, they deem it necessary.

The Rev. H. S. Longley offered the following resolution, which was referred to the Committee on the Constitution and Canons.

Resolved, That Canon XIV be amended by striking out, "and" in the title and adding, "and reports of Special Committees."

Add as Section 4. All special Committees appointed by one Convention to report to the next Convention, shall send their report to the Secretary of the Convention, two weeks before the date of Convention, and the Secretary shall cause such reports to be printed, and each line to be numbered, and four copies sent to every clergyman, one week before the meeting of the Convention. If any Committee shall fail to send its report to the Secretary in due time to have it printed, such report shall not be presented to the Convention without the consent of a two-thirds vote of the members present.

The Rev. Dr. Reed, from the Committee on the Constitution and Canons, presented the following:

REPORT.

The Committee on the Constitution and Canons, to whom has been referred the resolution appended to the Report of the Special Committee on the General Clergy Relief Fund approves the same with one exception; and recommends its adoption by the Convention, with the insertion in Section 2, after the word Christmas day "or Quinquagesima Sunday."

R. M. DUFF,
W. DE L. WILSON,
J. SANDERS REED.

On motion the report of the Committee was accepted, and the recommendations contained therein were adopted.

Journal.

The Rev. Dr. Bellinger requested that his vote on the adoption of the Committee's report be recorded in the negative.

The Rev. W. DeL. Wilson, from the Committee on the Constitution and Canons, presented the following report, which was adopted.

Resolved, That the Committee on the Constitution and Canons be instructed to report to the Annual Convention of 1907 on the Memorial from the Joint Committee of the General Convention on the Canon on Special Missionary Bishops.

The Rev. W. DeL. Wilson from the Committee on the Constitution and Canons, to whom was referred the proposed amendment to Article I of the Constitution, presented the following report:

Resolved, That the word "first" be substituted for the word "second" in Article I, line 2, of the Constitution.

On motion the proposed amendment was approved, to lie over for the consideration and final action of the next Annual Convention.

Mr. W. P. White offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That a Committee of three be appointed by the Bishop to make from time to time, prior to the next Convention, reports on the general financial condition of the Diocese, to the Standing Committee, looking towards the adoption of a system of apportioning the Diocesan Expense Fund and other assessments more equitably, on the respective parishes, and more according to their ability to pay, and that the joint report so agreed upon, be submitted to the next Convention for its action.

Under this resolution the Bishop appointed the following committee: Messrs. W. P. White, C. W. Andrews and the Rev. E. W. S phore.

On motion the vote by ballot was dispensed with and Messrs. H. P. Bellinger and Henry Burden, 2nd, were elected Trustees of the Parochial Fund.

On motion the Rev. Dr. Duff was elected a Trustee of the General Theological Seminary.

Mr. A. C. Coxe, from the Committee on the Constitution and Canons, to whom was referred the consideration of Canon XXI, reported that the Committee recommended that in Canon XXI, line 4, after the word "Bishop" the following words be inserted, "if in his judgment such Clergyman shall be in need of such pension," so that the Canon will read as follows:

CANON XXI,

Of the Retirement of a Minister from the Active Duties of his Office.

Any Clergyman of this Diocese, in good standing who has reached the age of sixty-five years, and desires to retire from the active duties of the Ministry by reason of disability shall, on the recommendation of the Bishop, if in his judgment such Clergyman shall be in need of such pension, be entitled upon his retirement to receive a pension of $500 per annum, payable quarterly by the Treasurer, provided he has been engaged twenty years in the work of the Ministry in this Diocese. The amount needed for such pension shall be added to the Diocesan Expense Fund.

On motion the report was accepted and the proposed amendment was adopted.

Relief Fund, reported that they still adhered to their original recommendation that hereafter the Fund be called the Relief Fund of the Diocese.

On motion the recommendation of the Committee was adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Beauchamp offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That we congratulate the Rev. O. E. Herrick, D. D., an early priest of this Diocese, ordained by the Rt. Rev. W. H. DeLancey, D. D., Trinity Sunday, 1851, on a long and useful life and ministry and a happy old age.

The Rev. James J. Burd offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the sum of $11,700 be appropriated for the Missionary Work of the Diocese for the ensuing year, and that the sum of $11,000 be assessed upon the districts.

The Rev. W. R. McKim offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That 1,300 copies of the JOURNAL of this Convention, together with the Constitution and Canons, and various forms and legislative acts of incorporation, be printed under the direction of the Secretary and distributed as directed by Canon V.

The Rev. J. R. Harding offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the amount for the salary and travelling expenses of the Archdeacon, for the current year, as decided by the Board of Managers shall be assessed upon the Diocesan Missions Fund, in addition to the $11,000 already assessed.

The Chair appointed the following

The Bishop's Address

To the Thirty-Ninth Annual Convention.

Brethren of the Clergy and of the Laity:—

Grace be unto you and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ!

My official acts since the last convention have been as follows: Baptized two adults and two infants; confirmed 1,294 persons, and received 11, making a total of 1,305 added to the Communicants of the Church in the Diocese; officiated at two marriages and six funerals; ordained eight to the Diaconate and six to the Priesthood; deposed one Presbyter from the Ministry; consented to the Consecration of five Bishops; received four Postulants and four Candidates for Holy Orders; consecrated three Churches, and opened one, and also opened with formal service of benediction St. Luke's Home and Hospital in Utica, the munificent gift of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick T. Proctor.

The Candidates ordained to the Diaconate were Messrs. Chas. K. Gilbert, G. Ashton Oldham, Edw. W. Parmelee, Chas. W. Hakes, M. D., Harry Idle, Geo. C. Wadsworth, Howard C. Ackerman and Harrison W. Foreman. The Deacons ordained to the Priesthood were the Rev. Messrs. Walter E. Cook, John B. Pitcher, Frederick W. Feary, Harold E. Ford, Arthur J. Schrader and Edward W. Parmelee. Messrs. Oliver Kingman, Luther Leslie Weller, David Henry Weeks and Franklin Lee Metcalf have been admitted as Candidates, and Messrs. Johnson

Bishop's Address.

Alfred Springsted, Frank O. Hokerk, Chas. W. Arthur and Levi Wilburt Lunn as Postulants for Holy Orders.

I have transferred Sister Leonora, Deaconess, to the Diocese of Missouri.

The Bishops to whose consecration consent was given were the Rt. Rev. Frederick F. Johnson, Coadjutor of South Dakota ; Edw. M. Parker, Coadjutor of New Hampshire ; Chas. D. Williams, D. D., Bishop of Michigan ; John N. McCormick, D. D., Coadjutor of W. Michigan ; and William W. Webb, D. D., Coadjutor of Milwaukee.

I have transferred the Rev. Messrs, L. G. Morris to Los Angeles, W. N. Hawkins to Pittsburg, G. A. Oldham and C. K. Gilbert to New York, and have received into the Diocese the Rev. Messrs. H. E. Ford, from New York, J. O. Ward from Fon du Lac, and R. H. Gesner from Connecticut.

Twenty-five Lay Readers have been licensed.

It is my sad duty to record the death of four of our faithful Clergy during the year, the Rev. Drs. Synnott, Lockwood and McKnight, and the Rev. E. L. Tanner.

The Rev. Stephen H. Synnott, D.D., had been rector of St. John's Church, Ithaca, for twenty years. His health began to fail some time before his death, and after trying to keep up his work with the help of an assistant, he finally resigned and removed to his former home in Cooperstown, where, having lingered a few months he died September 3rd, 1905.

Dr. Henry R. Lockwood was ministering in this Diocese when it was organized in 1868, and having served for a time at Clayton he became Rector of St. Paul's, Syracuse, in 1873. He had been an unusually strong and vigorous man, until the illness came upon him in the spring of 1904, which disabled him for several months; but when that had passed away his friends were hoping that he would be ready for more years of usefulness among us. It was not God's will, however, to leave him here. A cold contracted at his camp in the woods led to an attack of pneumonia, from which he died September 20th, 1905, and he was buried from his parish Church on the 22nd of that month. For many years he was Secretary of the Standing Committee of the Diocese, and I am sure we shall greatly miss his presence, and his voice as he read the reports of that body to the Convention. No one who knew Dr. Lockwood could fail to be attracted by the sweetness of his temper and the geniality of his disposition, while at the same time he impressed every one with his sincerity and dignified manliness. He was cheerful, but never trivial either in his speech or bearing.

The Rev. Edwin L. Tanner had been in the ministry but three or four years, having entered it in middle life from another profession. His work was first at Homer, and afterwards at Aston and Harpursville, where he was greatly beloved by his people. His health had not been good for some time, and his patience and cheerfulness under suffering were remarkable. He died on the day of Dr. Lockwood's funeral, and was buried near his old home in Virginia.

Dr. Geo. H. McKnight was another of the Clergy who had been identified with the Diocese during practically the whole of its independent existence. He was received into it and became Rector of Trinity Church, Elmira, in August, 1869, and although he had reached his 85th year, he still retained that position at the time of his death in December, 1905. He carried on the work of that parish without an assistant to within three or four months of the end, and his erect figure, his agile movements, his physical endurance, and the activity of his intellect were certainly very striking. One could not but be impressed at the time of his funeral with the hold that he evidently had upon the interest and affection of his people, and indeed of the whole community—a phenomenon not too common in this age, which is disposed to be relentless in emphasizing the “dead line” for those whose lot it is to pass it.

Among the faithful laity, too, who have been active in promoting the interest of the Church, we have a long list of deaths to record both of men and women: Mrs. Candee, Dr. Puckey and Mr. Utley, of Waterville; Mrs. Brainard and Mrs. Titus, of Auburn; Mrs. Storrs, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Plumb and Miss Palmer, of Utica; Mr. C. H. Butler, of Oswego; Mr. Baldwin and Mrs. Amos, of Baldwinsville; Mr. Merchant, of Sherburne; Mr. John Anderson, of Binghamton; Mr. Rouse and Mr. Doolittle, of Paris Hill; Mrs. Herrick, of Watertown; and Mrs. Clark, of Guilford. We have also lost two of the Bishops of the Church during the year, the Rt. Rev. Thos. F. Davies, of Michigan, and the Rt. Rev. Benj. W. Morris, of Oregon. We may well thank God for the good examples of all these His servants, and pray for grace to follow in their footsteps, and that both we and they may find a place at His right hand, when the conflicts are all passed and the victories are won.

The retrospect of work accomplished during the year is quite encouraging. The number of persons confirmed is larger by 186 than it was last year.

But the item which calls, perhaps, for most congratulation is the paying of debts and the Consecration of Churches. There has been no very great increase in the number of buildings, only two having been newly erected, but the advance has been in the removal of heavy incumbrances from those already in use. Three of our prominent city parishes have thus secured for the perpetual worship of God the houses which were built from ten to twenty years ago; from which we may justly conclude, not only that the Church is having some share in the general prosperity of the country, but also that both Clergy and Laity have been engaged in such works and labor of love as alone can accomplish these results. The little Church at Dryden, having on its walls a memorial tablet to Bishop Huntington, was the first one to be consecrated after his death, and was appropriately dedicated to his memory. At St. Paul's, Watertown, consecrated on St. Paul's day, January 25th, and at Trinity Memorial Church, Binghamton, consecrated on Whitsunday, June 3rd, debts of $12,000 and $16,000 respectively were paid shortly before the service in each case; while at St. Paul's, Syracuse, the indebtedness of $31,000 has been canceled, and its consecration will take place, God willing, in the near future. Besides these, the people of Grace Church, Elmira, have erected and nearly paid for a beautiful stone Church, of great dignity and impressiveness, which was formally opened by the Bishop on June 2nd, and the Vestry of St. Andrew's, Utica, have the money in hand for a new and larger building, for which the ground has been already broken, and Trinity Church, Seneca Falls, has rebuilt, at a cost of several thousand dollars, its stone tower, which had been taken down because of defective construction.

In the Mission fields of the Diocese also the work is progressing with encouraging prospects. A new Mission has been opened at Trenton, Oneida County, in a building formerly used by the Welsh Congregationalists, bought at a very low price and fitted over for our use, in which regular services are held by the Rector of St. Paul's, Holland Patent. The Mission at Phoenix, Onondaga County, has secured a dwelling house, the first floor of which has been made into a commodius chapel, and the usual services are continued there under the charge of the Rector of Grace Church, Syracuse.

The plan proposed at the last Convention of adopting the Archdeaconry system in our Diocese has been discussed during the interim by the Committee having it in charge, and also to some extent by the Convocations, and the Committee will present its report to this Convention. Let me say that, while I do not believe any mere machinery goes far towards accomplishing spiritual results, unless "the spirit be in the wheels;" still I imagine no one will deny that some machinery is better than other, and that improvements may be made in it. As time goes on and ideas change, it would seem wise to alter our methods in accordance with such changes. Most of our American Dioceses now use the Archdeaconry system in one form or another, and my disposition would lead me to suppose that they find it satisfactory, as human things go, and to desire a reasonable conformity to the judgment and the methods of the majority of the brethren, especially if they have been patterned after well established precedents. It would seem to me wise, therefore, not to reject a scheme altogether because of certain possible objections, but to remove the objectionable features and to retain those that are useful. In my opinion the chief practical advantage to be derived from this proposition is the securing of one or more non-parochial Clergymen, who can help the Bishop in the missionary work of the Diocese, supplying temporary vacancies, holding occasional services in places not yet occupied, assisting the already over-worked missionaries in their extensive fields and arousing fresh interest and enthusiasm throughout the Diocese such as will result in a more adequate remuneration for their grievously underpaid services. Names may seem to be of little consequence, but if the name "Archdeacon" will attract the man who is to bear it, and the name "General Missionary" will repel the people whom he wishes to reach, surely it would be the part of wisdom to use the more attractive title.

There is a matter concerning the property of decayed parishes, which requires attention by the Convention. It is illustrated in the case of St. John's Church, Clayville, which is now pressing for settlement. Years ago it was quite a flourishing parish, having two Wardens and eight Vestrymen, and a large brick Church built and presented by a Mr. Hollister, one of the prominent manufacturers of the place. To-day the congregation has dwindled to a very small number, only about ten communicants remain, and not more than three men attend the services with any regularity or contribute to the support of the Church. The building is fast going to decay because it cannot be maintained, and there is an opportunity to dispose of it by sale, but there is no Vestry to give title to the purchaser. It will be necessary, therefore, for the Convention to authorize the Trustees of the Diocese to secure the sanction of the Courts for the transference of the property to the person or persons who desire to buy it. And if it be possible I should be glad to have the Trustees empowered to act in other similar instances which are likely to occur, so that it will not be necessary to wait for the meeting of the Convention before taking action in each particular case.

One can hardly avoid at such a time making some allusion to the earthquakes that have taken place within the past twelve months, moral and spiritual as well as physical earthquakes. The event of April 18th in California was probably the most extensive natural catastrophe that we have ever had in this country since it became a nation, and has called forth the sympathies of the whole world. I do not know precisely what we have done in this Diocese to alleviate the sufferings there, but I have no doubt that we have given, or will give, our due share of the large sums that will be needed, both for the relief of present distress and for the rebuilding of ruined Churches in San Francisco. It is always a hopeful sign for human nature to see how hearts are warmed and the pockets are opened by calamities like that; and surely it is encouraging to our efforts in extending the principles of Christ that even Japan should have stretched out her hand across the great sea to aid the people of a foreign land.

The moral earthquakes that have occurred in the commercial and financial world have doubtless caused much suffering to those who stood on the line of their action, but the effect of them will unquestionably be wholesome in the end. Nothing but such a "rough shaking" could bring to the surface the faults that lie beneath, and nothing but publicity will prevent their continuance in the future. And is it not time for the Church to speak plainly about these things? It is not wise to be rash or hysterical in our utterances concerning this or any other matter. There is a good deal of excuse, undoubtedly, for a feeling of pessimism as one thing after another is disclosed, showing that men can be just as cruel, just as relentless, just as ready to despoil their fellowmen as they ever were; and that the only difference between these days and the savage days of the past is a difference of method rather than of principle. The robber-barons of the past lived in their castle fortresses and openly ravaged their neighbor's goods with fire and sword. The "barons" of the present day live in their peaceful villas and quietly ravage whole communities by methods known to the trade, which the law finds it difficult to prevent. And it is hard to keep from being discouraged sometimes when we see the strong tendency to corruption still existing in our Christian civilization. But certainly the events of the past year, while they have demonstrated the strength of that tendency, have also manifested very plainly that characteristic of the Christian religion which Dean Church calls "the power of recovery," constantly working against the evil, and constituting the hope of our civilization. It is the hope introduced into society by the Resurrection of Christ that there will always be a rising again from the death and corruption of social unrighteousness. The outcry and the indignation of the past year show that that hope still lives, so that we need not become pessimistic about it. But we do need some plain words on the subject. The Church of Jesus Christ should not be in alliance either with individuals or with corporations whose principles and methods are known to be illegal and corrupt. All the talk about "tainted money" seems to me to be beside the mark. Money itself, I suppose, cannot be tainted, but it may at times represent a tainted partnership; and it is not well for the Church to have her tongue tied by any such coalition, because it is her duty to be ready to denounce wickedness in high places as well as in low places. The Church can never gain by getting wealth which paralyzes her proper functions.

We have had something of a shaking also in the religious sphere. A matter in one sense scarcely deserving the wide publicity it has attained, yet touching the fundamental verities of the Christian faith has been under trial in a neighboring Diocese. I cannot see how it would have been possible to avoid such a trial nor how any other verdict could have been rendered. The case is plain enough to everyone who is not affected by what has been well called "the new casuistry;" a sophistical sort of reasoning by which black is called white, no is said to mean yes, and erroneous and strange doctrines are to be banished by telling the man who teaches them that he must go on as he is going. The fact is, that if the contention of the accused in this case is to be allowed, not only the Prayer Book, but the Bible also, will have to be made over. The vows of Ordination must be omitted, the Te Deum, Collects, Epistles, Gospels and Proper Prefaces will have to be altered or given up; large portions of the Gospels and certain whole Books of the New Testament as well as of the Old Testament will have to be stricken out. Because the Church can never consent to have her ministers declare that they believe those Scriptures to be the Word of God, and at the same time deny that they are true; nor can she consent that they shall stultify themselves by the use of words in her solemn offices of worship, the natural meaning of which they proclaim to be false and misleading when they go into the pulpit. Imagine a man reading the first chapter of St. Luke as a lesson in Advent, or as the Gospel on the feast of the Annunciation, and then saying in his sermon that the story he had read was not only not historical, but that it had done great harm to the Church; or imagine him reading the Epistle for Christmas Day, or the still more solemn Epistle for Good Friday, both taken from the Epistle to the Hebrews, and then asserting that that Epistle is a writing of no value, that it teaches false doctrine, and, by way of throwing contempt upon it, suggesting that "it was probably written by a woman" Such a violent contradiction between the attitude of the priest at the Altar solemnly reading what is supposed to be the Word of God, and of the preacher in the pulpit flouting the things that he has read, upsets the foundations of morality, and is simply intolerable.

Of course, the only possible conclusion is, that the man who attempts to assume such an attitude cannot remain in the Ministry of the Church, while the Prayer Book remains as it is; and the only wonder is that such conclusion is not patent to every sane and honest mind.

And yet this does not begin to touch the deeper question of the maintenance of "the faith once for all delivered to the saints." Some one has boasted, I believe, that in ten years the majority of the Clergy of this Church will come around to the heretical position. I do not believe it for an instant. But even if it were so, it would be only a repetition of history, and would no more indicate the overthrow of the faith than did the far greater triumph of Arianism in the early centuries. This modern heresy is only another form of Arianism, which has always had a fascination for certain minds, and you will observe, too, that they have always regarded their own as "the best minds." But be sure that it will have an Athanasius to withstand it, though it gain the rest of the world, and after its little day has run it will once more take its place on the dusty shelf of history, while the faith of the Incarnation, of the Holy Nativity, and of the glorious Resurrection, shall still abide for the salvation of the generations that are yet to come!

Bishop's Address.

APPENDIX I.

Report of Officers and Committees.

With Accompanying Papers.

A. Report of the Standing Committee.

FOR THE CONVENTIONAL YEAR 1905-06.

The Standing Committee respectfully report that during the Conventional year, 1905-1906, there have been six meetings, of which the first was held in Grace Church, Utica; the second and third in St. Paul's Church, Syracuse; the fourth in Calvary Rectory, Utica; the fifth in Trinity Parish House, Utica, and the Sixth in Trinity Parish House, Syracuse.

At the first meeting, held June 14th, 1905, all the clerical members, excepting Dr. Brainard, were present, with Mr. Jack and Mr. Dunning of the laity. The Committee was organized for the year, by the election of Dr. Brainard as President and Dr. Lockwood as Secretary. Mr. J. M. Tilden of Watertown was present by invitation, and gave reasons for a request which he made on behalf of Trinity Church, Watertown, for the consent of the Committee to the sale of the church property, owned by Trinity Parish at Glen Park, Jefferson County, New York. Immediate action not being asked for, and the attendance at this meeting being a bare majority, the matter, after discussion, was postponed for further consideration at the next meeting of the Committee. At the second meeting, held September 25th, 1905, Rev. E. H. Coley and Rev. J. R. Harding of the clergy, and Messrs. John R. Van Wagenen, W. D. Dunning, George T. Jack, and Edgar C. Emerson of the laity were present. The Rev. Mr. Coley was elected temporary Chairman, and the Rev. Mr. Harding temporary Secretary. Consent was given to the election of a Bishop Coadjutor in the diocese of Southern Virginia, and to the consecration of the Rev. Frederick Foote Johnson to be a Missionary Bishop, as assistant to the Bishop of South Dakota. On motion it was resolved that the vestry of Christ

Report of the Standing Committee.

Church, Binghamton, be allowed the privilege of selling a portion of their church lot to the Young Men's Christian Association of that city. On motion of the Hon. E. C. Emerson, it was resolved that consent be and is hereby given to the Rector, Wardens, and Vestrymen of Trinity Church, Watertown, N. Y., to sell and dispose of the property at Glen Park, N. Y., known as St. Andrew's Church or Mission, and to make application therefor to court. The Rev. John R. Harding was elected Secretary of the Standing Committee.

The Committee appointed to draft resolutions concerning the death of the Rev. Henry R. Lockwood, S. T. D., consisting of Rev. John Brainard, D. D., Rev. John R. Harding, and Mr. W. D. Dunning, presented the following minute: The Standing Committee of the diocese of Central New York, meeting in St. Paul's Church, Syracuse, for the first time after the lamented departure of our associate and brother, the Rev. Henry R. Lockwood, S. T. D., desire to place on record this expression of our deep sorrow, and this testimony to his long and faithful service. Dr. Lockwood was elected a member of the Standing Committee of this diocese, February 24, 1885, and became its Secretary September 14, 1886, from which date he has served continuously in that office. His long experience on the Committee, his accurate knowledge of canonical law, and his thorough familiarity with the affairs of the whole church and of the diocese, fitted him most admirably for the important office which he so acceptably and wisely filled. He was a man of genial and equable temperament, good judgment, broad scholarship, and fine administrative qualities. To him were often referred those questions requiring knowledge and discretion, and his decisions were almost invariably those which were accepted. His hospitable home was always open to his associates with that warm welcome which betokened the indwelling Christian spirit. To his brethren of the clergy throughout the diocese and in the city of Syracuse, of which he was for thirty-three years a citizen, he was ever single minded, affable, and approachable. His high position in the diocese in the many offices so willingly bestowed upon him, in no way affected the gentle and modest demeanor of his character, nor his friendly and sympathetic attitude toward men in all conditions of life.

He was a strong preacher, an ideal pastor, a faithful priest, and a friend and brother in both joy and sorrow. Stricken down when scarcely beyond the prime of usefulness, he has left behind a void which is deeply felt and will be most difficult to supply.

We regret and mourn his departure at a time when, in our deliberations, we most sorely need his counsel, his companionship, and his devoted, unselfish loyalty to the diocese and to the church at large. To his family, his parishioners, and his many friends we extend our most sincere sympathy.

God has indeed blessed us in the noble and manly qualities of which his life was such a notable expression, and we accept with Christian resignation the great loss which we have sustained. We desire that this minute be forwarded to his family, and be printed in the local press, The Gospel Messenger, and the general periodicals of the church.

On motion, the Rev. William DeLancey Wilson, rector of St. Mark's Church, Syracuse, was unanimously elected a member of the Standing Committee to fill the place vacated by the death of the Rev. Dr. Lockwood.

At the third meeting, held December 14, 1905, all the members being present except Dr. Brainard of the clergy and Judge Emerson of the laity, the Rev. E. H. Coley was called to the chair. Unanimous consent was given to the consecration of the Very Rev. Charles David Williams, D. D., to be the Bishop of Michigan, and of the Rev. Edward Melville Parker to be the Bishop Coadjutor of the diocese of New Hampshire. On presentation of the required testimonials, the Rev. John B. Pitcher and the Rev. Walter E. Cook were recommended to be ordered priests.

Mr. Harry Idle's time of candidateship being, by motion, shortened to six months, he was recommended to be ordered deacon. Mr. George C. Wadsworth's candidateship being shortened to two years, he was recommended to be ordered deacon. Mr. Oliver Kingman, Postulant, desiring to be received as a candidate, and his papers being correct, he was so recommended. The following dispensations were granted: Rev. Walter E. Cook, from Hebrew; Rev. Frederick W. Feary and Messrs. Harry Idle and George C. Wadsworth, from the languages, it being understood that the Messrs. Idle and Wadsworth shall pass in Latin and Greek before their ordination to the priesthood.

A letter having been received from the Rev. John Brainard, D. D., stating his inability to be present on account of continued physical weakness, the Committee moved a resolution of sympathy, expressing their regret that Dr. Brainard's state of health prevented him from attending the meetings.

The fourth meeting was held on February 26th, 1906. All the members were present except the Rev. John Brainard, D. D. The Rev. Edward H. Coley was elected temporary Chairman. The testimonials consenting to the consecration of the Rev. John Newton McCormick, D. D., to be the Bishop Coadjutor of the diocese of Western Michigan, having been signed individually by the members of the Standing Committee since the last meeting, that action was now ratified.

The papers relating to the consecration of the Rev. William Walter Webb, D. D., as Bishop Coadjutor of the diocese of Milwaukee, having reached the Committee too late for the December meeting, consent was now unanimously given, though at the time of this meeting Dr. Webb had already been consecrated. This action was taken at such a late day so as to place the Committee on record as having consented to Dr. Webb's consecration.

Proper testimonials having been presented, the Rev. Frederick W. Feary and the Rev. Harold E. Ford were recommended for Priest's Orders, and Mr. Luther Leslie Weller, to be a candidate for Holy Orders.

It was moved that the Treasurer of the diocese, Mr. Frank L. Lyman, by his own request be asked to give a bond for $5,000. The Bishop then consulted the Committee on a matter in which he desired counsel.

At the fifth meeting, held June 7th, 1906, all the members were present except Doctor Brainard of the clergy and Mr. John R. Van Wagenen of the laity. The Rev. Mr. Coley was called to the chair. A letter was read from the President, Rev. Dr. Brainard, regretting his inability to be present. A bond from Mr. Frank L. Lyman, Treasurer of the diocese, for $5,000 was received and ordered to be placed on file.

The budget or estimate of the amount required for expenses of the diocese during the current year, payable from the Diocesan Expense Fund, was submitted, as follows: General Convention, $200; Diocesan Convention, $250; Retired Clergy Fund, $500; Secretary's salary, $200; Assistant Secretary's salary, $50; Treasurer's salary, $300; printing and delivery of the diocesan Journal and miscellaneous printing, $600; expenses of Secretary and Treasurer, postage, bonds, etc., $100; Bishop's traveling expenses, $300; Registrar, $25; interest on loan from Trustees of the Christmas Fund, $240; total, $2,765. To raise this amount, it was voted to recommend to the convention an assessment upon the several parishes and missions, equal in each case to a uniform per cent. upon their last reported current expenses, including Rector's salary, and in case that the amount assessed upon the diocese should be at all changed by the convention, that the rate per cent. be changed accordingly.

It was resolved, "It is the sense of the Standing Committee that missions of the diocese, though not in union with the diocese, should be charged with the assessments for the Diocesan Expense Fund, as the tax is small and they all share in the benefits of the said fund."

On presentation of their testimonials, duly signed, the Rev. Edward W. Parmelee and the Rev. Arthur J. Schrader were recommended to Priest's Orders; Messrs. Howard C. Ackerman and Harrison W. Foreman to Deacon's Orders, and Messrs. Franklin Lee Metcalf and David Henry Weeks to be candidates for Holy Orders.

The sixth meeting was held in Trinity Church, Syracuse, June 12th, 1906. There were present, Rev. Messrs. E. H. Coley, W. DeLancey Wilson, and J. R. Harding of the clergy, and Messrs. W. D. Dunning and George T. Jack of the laity. The Rev. Mr. Coley was called to the chair. The Secretary read the record of the Committee's meetings during the year, which, on resolution, was approved and ordered reported to the convention.

Respectfully submitted,

Report of the Board of Managers—First District.B. Missions of the Diocese.(I.) Report of the Board of Managers.

The Board of Managers for Diocesan Missions of the Diocese of Central New York respectfully submits the following report:

At a meeting of the Board in the Chapel of Grace Church, Utica, on Wednesday evening, June 14th, 1905, at the close of the Thirty-Seventh Annual Convention of the Diocese, the Convention having authorized the appropriation of $11,700 for the missionary work of the diocese for the current year, on motion, the assessments and appropriations for the districts were made as follows:

	Assessed.	Apportioned.
First District	$1,350.00	$1,900.00
Second District	2,650.00	2,400.00
Third District	1,500.00	1,500.00
Fourth District	2,400.00	2,000.00
Fifth District	1,000.00	1,700.00
Sixth District	1,100.00	2,000.00

In addition, the sum of $200 was appropriated for the Church Missions to the Deaf Mutes of the diocese.

At a meeting of the Board of Managers in Trinity Parish House, Syracuse, on Tuesday, June 12th, 1906, the following reports were read, and the next day were presented to the Convention:

FIRST DISTRICT.

(Jefferson and Lewis Counties.)

The officers of the District are: The Very Rev. Edwin Warren Saphore, Dean; The Rev. Charles Noyes Tyndell, Secretary; Mr. John M. Tilden, Treasurer; The Rev. Thomas Duck and Mr. W. H. Boyer, members of the Board of Managers.

The Parishes and Missions receiving stipendary aid are: In Jefferson County, Adams, Alexandria Bay, Antwerp, Brownville, Cape Vincent (for work at Pineview), Champion, Clayton, Dexter, Evans Mills, Ellisburg, Frederick's Corners, Lafargeville, Church of the Redeemer in Watertown, Redwood, Sackett's and Theresa. In Lewis County: Constableville, Copenhagen, Greig, and Port Leyden.

Missions of the Diocese—First District.

The work of the District is, in general, in a healthful condition. The Church in Adams reorganized, and the members are energetic and enthusiastic. They have been regularly supplied for some months and are looking forward with bright hope, expecting soon to have a resident Rector.

Alexandria Bay is served by the Rev. Thomas Duck in connection with his work at Theresa and Redwood. The reports are very encouraging. At Theresa keen interest is manifested. The Parish is on a firm business basis, and the work done in a systematic manner. A branch of the Junior Auxiliary has been formed. At Alexandria Bay the young people also contributed to Junior Auxiliary work, though they are not organized.

Brownville is worked in connection with the Church of the Redeemer, Watertown. In both places a fine work is being done. The historic old stone Church at Brownville is to be renovated and made more inviting. The Church of the Redeemer has had extensive improvements during the past year, and is now prepared to do a large work in a most interesting and important field. With these evidences of material welfare, the spiritual advance has been commensurate.

The Mission Chapel at Glen Park was for many years under Trinity Church, Watertown, but about a year ago was offered for sale and purchased by the Rev. Dr. Herrick, who presented it to the Pastoral Charge of the Rector of the Church of the Redeemer. It is a settlement about midway between Watertown and Brownville, made up of workers in the paper and pulp mills, which form almost a connected chain along the Black River from Watertown to Dexter. The dry bones have taken on life, and the work at the present writing is very promising. After only a few months of work, we are informed that a large number have been baptized and a goodly class presented to the Bishop. Here also we understand quite extensive improvements are contemplated.

Constableville, since the last annual report, has been again placed with Port Leyden and Greig, with the Rev. E. W. Parmelee in charge.

At Cape Vincent, a new heating apparatus and a new pipe organ have been installed, and a cement walk is soon to be laid. A class of twenty-seven was presented to the Bishop this spring, making a total of one hundred and eleven (111) during the incumbency of the present Rector. The Sunday School on Carleton Island has opened for the summer and promises to be as helpful as last year, when it was inaugurated. The school supports itself, and the church people contribute regularly and generously to the Parish. The Rector visits the Island on alternate Sunday afternoons in the summer months. There are also several church families from Rome, Ithaca, and Utica with summer homes on the Island. The people at Riverview are active and appreciative. Here, owing to the "Union" character of the congregation, very little initial effort can be made, but the work is in a hopeful state.

Our assessment for Diocesan Missions has been met in full—the reason for the apparent delinquency being that the Treasurer of the District makes his computation annually, saving the trouble of two reports, and our assessment was raised last year. Hence the amount reported paid was computed for six months at the old rate.

At Antwerp and Evans Mills, renewed life is manifest, and the outlook for the future is bright. It is to be hoped that a resident clergyman will remain with them. The results of the present consecrated ministration show what can be expected from the "weaker places" with efficient leadership.

Dexter and Sackets, under the devoted leadership of their Rector, show continued activity. At the close of this conventional year, only THREE out of the twenty-seven Parishes and Mission Stations of our District have failed to meet their Diocesan Mission's assessments in full. And of those three, two are self-supporting. And, still more encouraging, the Mission, which has been for some time without regular ministrations, means to pay its small arrearage at an early date. The arrearages from the two delinquent Parishes have been more than offset by the generous response from several places which have overpaid—notably among them being Trinity Parish, Watertown. At Copenhagen and Champion there is now a resident Missionary in the person of Mr. Metcalf, a former Methodist minister, who is now a candidate for Holy Orders.

We herewith embody a report submitted by the Treasurer.

EDWIN WARREN SAPHORE, Dean.

CHARLES NOYES TYNDELL, Secretary.

SECOND DISTRICT.

(Oneida County and part of Madison County.)

The officers of the District are: The Rev. William Cooke, Dean;

Missions of the Diocese—Second District.

The Rev. J. W. Clarke, Secretary; Mr. J. Francis Day, Treasurer; The Rev. W. W. Bellinger, D. D., and Mr. George M. Weaver, members of the Board of Managers.

The Mission Parishes and Stations are: In Oneida County—Augusta, Oriskany Falls, Boonville, Forestport, Bridgewater, Chadwicks, Clayville, Camden, Whitesboro, Paris Hill, New York Mills, Oriskany, Durhamville, Holland Patent, Trenton, Westmoreland, Deerfield and St. Joseph's, Rome. In Madison County—Brookfield and Earlville.

Four meetings of the Convocation have been held during the year, two in Utica, one in Waterville, and one in New York Mills.

The Dean reports that during the year he has held the following services: Westmoreland, Holy Communion, nine times; other services, four times; Boonville, Holy Communion, twice; Forestport, two services; Camden, Holy Communion twice; other services, twice; Trenton, six services; Holland Patent, Holy Communion, twice; other services, four times; Chadwicks, Holy Communion, twice; other services, three times; Bridgewater, Holy Communion, once; Clayville, one service; Brookfield, Holy Communion, six times; other services, six times, and one funeral.

The Rev. Wm. Cooke reports that regular services, with increased attendance, have been held in St. John's Church, Whitesboro, on Sundays, Fridays, and Holy Days, and special services during Lent. The assessment for Diocesan Missions was paid in full.

The Rev. J. B. Wicks, Rector of St. Paul's Church, Paris Hill, reports that regular services have been held, with good attendance. The income of the Parish has fallen off on account of death of members and the loss of interest from some of the trust funds of the Parish. Notwithstanding the losses, all the Parish expenses and Diocesan assessments have been met.

The Rev. J. B. Pitcher reports that in Trinity Church, Camden, all regular services have been held. During Lent fifteen additional services were conducted, including sermons by visiting clergymen. All current expenses, salary and assessment for Diocesan Missions have been paid in full. There has been some increase in Church attendance, and an excellent Confirmation Class is being prepared.

Missions of the Diocese—Second District.

The Rev. A. L. Byron-Curtiss, Rector of St. Joseph's Church, Rome, reports that the past winter has seen the work advance along positive lines of spiritual awakening. Services have been held as usual on Sundays and Holy Days, with an eight-day Mission by the Rev. William Wilkinson. The congregation during the winter, up to the time of the Mission, had been better than ever before. The Mission accomplished much good, and brought the Church to the favorable attention of the public. The Bishop favored the Parish with a special visitation to confirm a small class, representing six families brought into the Church, the direct result of the Mission. Financially, the status of the work is constantly improving, and repairs and improvements have been made to the buildings. The obligations to the Diocese and Convocation have been paid in full.

The Rev. G. C. Wadsworth reports that services have been held regularly in Gethsemane Church, Westmoreland, and Lenten services were held on Saturday evenings, Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. The Good Friday service, with the consent of the Bishop, was a union service, at which addresses were made by the Missionary in charge and the Congregational minister. The assessment for Diocesan Missions has been paid in full.

St. Paul's Chapel, Deerfield, is under the charge of the Rev. John R. Harding, Rector of Trinity Church, Utica, and is ministered to by Rev. G. C. Wadsworth, Assistant, who reports that services have been held every Sunday and special services during Lent. There has been great interest manifested in the services. The Rev. Mr. Wadsworth is canvassing the territory, calling at every house, and is soon to reside in Deerfield, hoping thereby to get in closer touch with the people. The assessment for Diocesan Missions has been paid in full.

The Rev. E. B. Doolittle, who has been in charge of St. Paul's, Holland Patent and St. Andrew's, Trenton, since the first of January, reports that regular Sunday and special Lenten services have been held in both places. While the attendance at the Sunday services in St. Paul's has not been large at any time, there has been a steady increase during the past six weeks. The Parish is free from debt and the Rector is paid a month or more in advance. Efforts are being made to make some needed repairs on the interior of the Church. The outlook is quite encouraging. In St. Andrew's Mission, Trenton the attendance at nearly all the services has been very good. The Chapel has a new roof recently completed, and the next need to be met is the seating, which it is earnestly hoped may be in place and paid for before the close of the summer. All seem very much interested and truly alive. There is much to encourage the Missionary, and he and the Mission will be most grateful for any aid that may be offered toward the purchasing of suitable seating. The assessment for Diocesan Missions has been paid in full in both places.

The Rev. B. T. Stafford, Rector of St. Andrew's Parish, Augusta, and in charge of the Mission of the Good Shepherd, Oriskany Falls, reports that regular services have been held in both places. The population of Augusta is diminishing. One family and one confirmed person have been added to the Church. There is manifested kinder appreciation, on the part of some, of the doctrines and teaching of the Church. In the Mission of the Good Shepherd at Oriskany Falls, the Sunday School has grown a little; attendance at the services is in advance of the last year, and Lent was observed by a much larger number in attending the services than two years previous. An Altar rack and book and a Litany desk have been consecrated and placed in the Church as memorials. During the past three years something over $425 has been expended in betterments and additions to the property. There is no debt. The Rector's salary has been paid, and the assessment for Diocesan Missions has been promptly met. The Ladies' Aid and the Auxiliary Society during the year have done a most advantageous work socially as well as financially.

The Rev. W. R. McKim reports that services have been held every Sunday in St. Andrew's, Durhamville. The Lay services have been in charge of Mr. A. D. Hamblin, on the first, third and fifth Sundays. The Rev. Mr. McKim has conducted the services on the other Sundays, and celebrated the Holy Communion on the first Sunday in each quarter. The attendance at all the services has been extremely satisfactory, and the interest does not lag. A slight decrease is noted in the amount given for current expenses, etc., but there has been an increase in Sunday School and extra parochial contributions. The financial possibilities are of necessity limited, the glass factory and interests are permanently dead, so there seems no future for growth in the population in this respect.

The Rev. C. J. Lambert, in charge of Grace Church, Earlville, reports that regular services have been held every Sunday, and the Holy Communion celebrated about one each month. A week day service was held each week during Lent, and two services held on Easter Day. The assessment for Diocesan Missions has been paid in full, and an offering was taken at the week day service in Lent for Missions of the Diocese—Second District.

General Missions. Congregations have been good and especially so at Easter and at the Bishop's visitation.

Regular monthly services have been held on Sundays by the Dean and the Rev. R. M. Duff, S. T. D., in St. Timothy's Church, Brookfield.

No written reports have been received from the other Mission Parishes and Stations in the District.

The Rev. F. C. Smith, assisted by the Rev. E. W. Parmelee, is in charge of Trinity Church, Boonville, and Christ Church, Forestport.

The Rev. A. W. Allen is in charge of St. James' Church, New York Mills, and St. Peter's Church, Oriskany.

The Rev. George E. Edgar will soon take charge of St. George's, Chadwicks, St. John's, Clayville, and Christ Church, Bridgewater.

JAMES WINSLOW CLARKE, Secretary.

(Broome and Chenango Counties.)

The officers of the District are: The Rev. George G. Perrine, Dean; The Rev. Christopher J. Lambert, Secretary; Mr. William J. Russell, Treasurer; The Rev. Harry S. Longley, member of the Board of Managers; The Rev. A. R. B. Hegeman, Mr. William H. Shaw, Mr. Joseph E. Packard, members of the Finance Committee.

There are eighteen Parishes and Missions in the District, of which the following have received assistance from the Board during the past year: Harpursville and Afton, Chenango Forks and Whitney's Point, Endicott and Union, Bainbridge, Guilford, Mount Upton and Windsor.

Missions of the Diocese—Third District.

There have been three meetings of the Convocation within the year; namely, in St. Ann's Church, Afton; Church of the Good Shepherd, Binghamton, and St. Andrew's Church, New Berlin.

Afton, St. Ann's Church:—The Rev. Edwin Lee Tanner died September 22, 1905. Since that time this Parish has been under the charge of the Rev. Wilson E. Tanner, in connection with the Church in Bainbridge. Services are held every Sunday afternoon with an average attendance of about half the number of communicants. The Sunday School is also well attended, and financial obligations fully met. A new bell and pulpit have lately been placed in the Church; the pulpit being of quartered oak, from designs left by the late Rector, Rev. Edwin Lee Tanner, and paid for by his friends and parishioners; the bell was obtained by subscription chiefly through the efforts of Mrs. S. M. Seely, and is inscribed to commemorate the services of the Rev. William Allen Johnson, founder of the Parish in 1858: "Praise Him upon the well tuned cymbals, praise Him upon the loud cymbals."

Bainbridge, St. Peter's Church:—Under the care of the Rev. Wilson E. Tanner, this Church is having a steady growth and improvement. Five adults and two infants have been added to it by baptism, and eight confirmed. The Church property has been newly painted and repaired, and is now in excellent condition. The funds for this work, $500, have, with the exception of one generous gift from without, been provided by the offerings of the people, given at the time of service as an act of worship. The Sunday School and Auxiliary are active and growing, and all financial obligations fully met.

Harpursville, St. Luke's Church:—This Church for about three months after the death of its lamented Rector, was without regular services, but occasional services were given by the Rector of Bainbridge and the Dean, and the Sunday School was kept up. On the third of October the Bishop visited the Parish and ordained Mr. Charles W. Hakes, M. D., to the Diaconate. The candidate was presented by the Rev. Messrs. Longley and Hegeman, and the sermon was by the Dean. At the beginning of December the Rev. George H. Kirkland, whom we are glad to welcome again as a member of the Third District, by the Bishop's appointment, took charge of this Parish, where he is doing excellent service, and the people, who appreciate their minister, cheerfully assist him in his work. During the Rev. Mr. Tanner's ministry a fund for repairing the Church was started, and has since been increased to about $170. Some improvements have been made in the rectory, and the Parish has met all its financial obligations.

Missions of the Diocese Third District.

Chenango Forks, St. John's Church:—For nine months of the past year services were held in this Church nearly every Sunday by the Rev. Dr. Duff and Lay readers appointed by the Bishop. Since the first of March the Rev. C. W. Hakes has been going there for service every Sunday afternoon, also on four week days during Lent.

Whitney's Point, Grace Church:—Until the first of November this Church was supplied with services nearly every Sunday by the Rev. Dr. Duff and the Dean, and by Mr. R. A. Young and Mr. Harry S. Pierce, Lay readers. The Rev. C. W. Hakes began his work there on the 5th of November, and has had regular services there once on every Sunday and on many week days.

Endicott and Union:—The Rev. C. W. Hakes began work in these places the first week in November. Endicott is a prosperous and growing place a little west of Binghamton, and offers an attractive field for missionary work, where it was hoped the Church might secure a footing. The chief obstacle seems to be in finding a suitable place for holding services. At Union, a village one mile west of Endicott and connected with it by electric road, suitable accommodations have been obtained and regular services held since November 12th. There are four or five Church families here.

Guilford, Christ Church:—The condition of the Church in Guilford does not vary much from year to year. There is satisfactory evidence here of a healthy spiritual growth and good financial condition. At the Bishop's visitation last year, twenty-two were confirmed and their names added to the list of communicants, but owing to losses by death and removals, neither the numerical or financial strength of the Church in Guilford is much increased by what it gains.

The Endowment Fund, which has been slowly and steadily accumulated from Birthday and Thank Offerings, is at present $1,611.28, and is invested for the benefit of the Parish by the Trustees of the Parochial Funds of the Diocese.

Mount Upton, Grace Church:—The services here are being held at present in the Methodist Church twice a month on Sunday afternoons, and are highly prized by the few members of other congregations, who seem much interested in the Church's service. The attendance fluctuates from fifteen to fifty.

Windsor, Zion Church:—Notwithstanding some unusual losses by removal, this Parish has met its financial obligations at home and in the diocese, besides contributing according to its means to the various agencies of the Church for its missionary and charitable work. The Parish branch of the Women's Aid is doing good work. Some repairs have been made in the Church and rectory, adding much to the appearance of the Church property, which is also covered by insurance.

Chenango County Mission:—The Rev. R. M. Duff, D. D., Missionary for Chenango County, is doing faithful and valuable work for the Church in not only visiting and holding services in places where it is little known and only a few Church members can be found, but also in assisting some parishes and missions which are temporarily without regular services. This has been done at McDonough, Chenango Forks and at Brookfield in Madison County, and perhaps other places. The result of such services has sometimes been most encouraging. The Easter offering in McDonough was $87, and some improvements have been made in the Church at Brookfield.

FOURTH DISTRICT.

(Onondaga, Oswego, Cortland Counties, and the Townships of Madison County Not Included in the Second District.)

The officers of the District are: The Rev. William DeLancey Wilson, Dean; The Rev. Julian E. Ramsdell, Secretary; Mr. J. H. H. Young, Treasurer. These officers and the Rev. John T. Rose and the Rev. H. G. Coddington, D. D., constitute the Executive Committee.

The Secretary and Treasurer are the elected members of the Board of Managers.

Missions of the Diocese—Fourth District.

The Mission Stations in the Fourth District are: Altmar, Chittenango, Cleveland, Constantia, East Onondaga, East Syracuse, Jamesville, Lacona, Manlius, Marcellus, Memphis, Mexico, Onondaga Reservation, St. John's, Oswego, Phoenix, Pulaski, Redfield, St. Luke's, Syracuse; St. Philip's, Syracuse; St. Thomas', Syracuse, Warner.

The Good Shepherd, Onondaga Reservation, St. John's, Oswego, and St. Thomas', Syracuse, receive no aid from the District.

Meetings of Convocation have been held three times during the year, at the Reservation, July 7th; at Cortland, October 24th and 25th, and conjointly with the District B. W. A. at St. Mark's Church, Syracuse, May 8th and 9th.

St. John's, Altmar, has again secured the ministrations of the Rev. B. E. Whipple, who gave up the work last year because of advancing age. The Mission was never in a better state and condition than now. One service is held each Sunday.

St. James' Church, Cleveland, is under the ministry of the Rev. Thomas Stafford, who reports that Church work in that Parish has been successful and prosperous. Much good work has been done by the various Parish organizations, which has resulted in extensive improvements to the Church property. Thirteen have been confirmed and seven baptized during the year. The outlook is very hopeful.

Matters at Constantia are in statu quo, waiting for developments as to the certainty of what the trolley company is going to do.

St. Andrew's, East Onondaga:—Rev. Wm. D. Manross reports many removals and consequent shortage in meeting the ordinary running expenses of the Mission. Nothing can be paid toward a stipend. The services have been kept up without intermission through the assistance of Mr. Leslie Lord, Lay reader. The Sunday School is most promising and answers a real need in the community.

The Rev. Frederick T. Henstridge, besides his labors at Calvary and St. Luke's, Syracuse, and Emmanuel, East Syracuse, has begun mission work in the north portion of the city, sometimes known as Salina. The work is most encouraging.

The Rev. Daniel Daly reports that he has been able only to conduct the services at Lacona this winter, as his infirmities have prevented his visiting in the Mission.

Missions of the Diocese—Fourth District.

He concludes his report: "I am now 73 years old and nearly 20 years working for the Lord in this Mission. It will soon be over, thank God."

Christ Church, Manlius, is doing splendidly under the ministry of the Rev. George D. Ashley. It is expected to become a self-supporting Parish in the near future.

St. Mark's, Jamesville, is under the care of the Rev. Ernest Melville, who reports slow but steady improvement. The average of the congregation is larger than heretofore. "I am hopeful that next year we can get through the work with a smaller grant from the Convocation."

The Rev. E. B. Mott continues his faithful and effective service at St. John's, Marcellus.

A mission was held by the Rev. Frederick T. Henstridge that contributed much to the enthusiasm of Church life. A class of sixteen was confirmed this month. Mr. Mott has held several services at nearby points, and has begun a Sunday School four miles south of Marcellus.

Emmanuel Church, Memphis:—The Rev. J. Hamilton Stirling reports regular services with a celebration of the Holy Communion at 10:30 A. M. on the second Sunday of the month. All assessments paid, and about the usual attendance, with some evidence of increased interest in the services.

No reports have been received from Mexico and Pulaski, but it is known that the Church is showing signs of growth and new interest at these points. It is proposed to repair the Church property at Pulaski in the near future.

The Mission to the Onondaga Indians, under the Rev. W. S. Hayward, continues as heretofore. The Missionary's wife and daughters have been most arduous in their labors, and their assistance has been invaluable.

The Sunday School has increased its membership and a slight increase in the offerings of the Indians towards the support of the Church has been noticed.

St. John's Mission, Oswego, is unusually prosperous under the efficient care of the Rev. H. S. Sizer of the Church of the Evangelists.

St. Paul's, Chittenango, continues to be served by the Rev. George A. Ottaway of Canastota.

St. John's, Phoenix, is under the care of the Rev. H. G. Coddington, D.D., of Grace Church, Syracuse. The Rev. K. G. Heyne, in charge since January 1st last, reports that a house purchased from a communicant at a very moderate price has been converted into a comfortable chapel. Three adults have been baptized and a class presented for confirmation. Holy Communion was celebrated bi-monthly and week night services were held during Lent with good attendance.

St. Philip's, Syracuse, ministered to by the Rev. K. G. Heyne, does its work effectively among the colored people. There is an ever increasing interest in the Church services, which seems to prove that the Liturgy appeals to colored people.

The Sunday School has doubled during the last six months under the good management of Mr. James Leonard. The Lenten offerings for Missions was unusually large. Five were confirmed in March.

St. Thomas', Syracuse, Rev. David C. Huntington, reports services held regularly every Sunday afternoon since September, at No. 827 Cortland Avenue. He has been assisted by Mr. Howard Clark, Lay reader, who has also assisted at the Sunday School service. Offerings have paid expenses. Six children and one adult have been baptized.

St. Paul's, Warner, is a growing Mission with increased offerings and attendance at Church services. Extensive repairs of the Church property are being prepared for. The members of the Church have already contributed $250, and more is in sight.

Several families have moved to the city, but those remaining in the church are courageous and will find others to take the vacant places.

As will be seen by the Treasurer's report, the following Parishes have paid their assessment to Diocesan Missions in full: Cazenovia, Chittenango, Baldwinsville, East Syracuse, Jamesville, Manlius, Marcellus, Memphis, Onondaga Castle, Skaneateles; Syracuse, All Saints', Grace, St. Mark's, St. Paul's, St. Philip's, Trinity and Calvary; Warner, Altmar, Cleveland, Fulton.

Missions of the Diocese—Fifth District.

St. Paul's, Syracuse, and St. James', Skaneateles, have paid in excess of assessments.

Canastota, Cortland, Fayetteville, Homer, Jordan, Lacona, Pulaski, Christ's Church and Evangelist's, Oswego; The Church of the Saviour, and St. John's, Syracuse, have paid in part only.

East Onondaga and Redfield have paid nothing.

FIFTH DISTRICT.

(Counties of Seneca and Cayuga.)

The officers of the District are: The Rev. Wm. Bours Clarke, Dean; The Rev. Chas. W. MacNish, Secretary; Mr. A. N. Hollister, Treasurer; the two latter being also members of the Board of Managers.

The Mission Parishes and Stations are: In Cayuga County—Aurora, Cayuga, Moravia, Northville, Port Byron, Union Springs, and Weedsport; in Seneca County—Dey's Landing, Hayt's Corners, Kendaia, Kidders, Romulus, Willard, and Willowdale.

Three meetings of Convocation have been held during the current year. viz.: At Cayuga Lake Park, July 3d, 1905; St. Paul's Church, Waterloo, November 7th and 8th, 1905; and May 1st and 2d, 1906, at Seneca Falls.

The Dean reports that during the year he has celebrated the Holy

Missions of the Diocese—Fifth District:

Communion at Romulus four times; at Kidders once, and has held one service at Northville.

Aurora, Cayuga, and Union Springs are under the charge of the Rev. W. H. Casey, who reports his arduous labors in holding services in the three Parishes, but gives no statistics, neither account of his official acts.

From the report of the Treasurer of the District it appears that Aurora has contributed $55 for Diocesan Missions, as against $65 assessed. As to Cayuga, nothing appears to its credit. Union Springs was assessed $25, and appears to have paid $20.

The Rev. G. P. Sommerville is in charge of St. Matthew's Church, Moravia, and reports that he has held 142 services during the year, has celebrated the Holy Communion 15 times, has baptized eight souls into the Kingdom of God, two of these being adults, and has presented a class of seven persons to the Bishop for confirmation.

The Treasurer's report shows that $75 were assessed upon this Parish for Diocesan Missions, and that of this amount $62.50 have been paid.

Weedsport and Port Byron have been served part of the year by Lay readers. Mr. George C. Wadsworth served at both Stations until the beginning of winter. Since then no services have been held at Port Byron. No contributions have been made toward Diocesan Missions, and the outlook is not very encouraging, although it is hoped that at least occasional services may be resumed there soon.

The prospect at Weedsport is much brighter. Mr. Frank O. Hokerk has been serving the mission there since January first, and speaks of the work as being encouraging. Eight dollars were assessed upon this Mission for Diocesan Missions, and the full amount has been paid.

It is to be regretted that Calvary Church, Northville, is still without any regular ministrations. By arrangement of the Dean, three services were held there during the month of August, one of these by himself.

As a good indication that the oil of God's grace is not wanting, and that their lamp is still burning, $4.75 have been contributed for Diocesan Missions, though nothing has been assessed upon the struggling Mission.

Missions of the Diocese - Fifth District

At Dey's Landing, twenty-one services had been held previous to the setting in of the severe weather of winter, since which time the services were omitted until Easter Day. Since then, by the Bishop's appointment, services have been resumed regularly, for a time, anyway, and it is hoped that the interest manifested may be such as to warrant their continuance with some sort of permanence. At present they are being served by a Lay reader. Nothing contributed for Diocesan Missions.

Kendaia may be called a new Mission. Though a number of services were held at this point some years ago, and some interest manifested, yet it was not until of late that a general request from the people thereabouts was made to the Bishop that Church service and a Sunday School might be established there.

In accordance with this request, a room has been rented and furnished, and the services begun with a most encouraging outlook.

The attendance, both at Church services and Sunday School, is excellent, and the offerings are sufficient to provide for all the expenses. The opening service was held by the Rev. Henry E. Hubbard, Rector of St. Paul's Church, Waterloo, and have since been conducted by a Lay reader.

Hayt's Corners and Willard are in charge of the Secretary of the District, by whom they were also established several years ago. Though Hayt's Corners is a smaller and weaker Parish, it receives the same care and attention as its larger and stronger sister. Sixty-four Sunday services have been held, and fourteen week day services.

Holy Baptism has been administered once, and the Holy Communion has been celebrated thirteen times. The Church has been kept in a good state of repairs, and no debts have been allowed to accumulate. The assessment upon the Mission for Diocesan Missions was $6. and has been fully paid.

Christ Church, Willard, continues in its wonted ways of work and faithfulness. Though there have been many losses by removal, yet an effort has been made to more than make these good through other gains. And if this is done, it is because the people have a mind to work. The number of services held has been 106. Attendance usually good.

Missions of the Diocese—Fifth District.

Holy Baptism has been administered seven times, and the Lord's Supper has been administered fourteen times. Six were confirmed. The assessment upon the Parish for Diocesan Missions was $48, and the full amount has been paid.

The Church at Kidders provides ministrations during the summer only to the people who frequent that summer resort on Cayuga Lake. Though the people seem glad to have the clergy of the Church come and minister to them, yet they seem to overlook the duty that is laid on every Parish and Mission Station to contribute something toward Diocesan and General Missions.

Nothing seems to appear to the credit of Kidders in this direction.

Romulus and Willowdale have since last October been in charge of Mr. Harry Idle, who came there as a candidate for Holy Orders, and has since been ordained to the Diaconate. Romulus has always sustained a good reputation for zeal and good works, but since having regular pastoral care has exceeded her former fair fame. The usual Sunday services have been regularly held, and with good attendance. Special services were also held during Lent, with a three hour service on Good Friday.

The assessment for Diocesan Missions has been met in full, $6 50 have been contributed for General Missions, $6 for the San Francisco sufferers, and $2 for the Bishop's Relief Fund.

A Boys' Club has been recently organized, with 25 enthusiastic members. A Social Club with 15 members has just been organized also. The King's Daughters continue in their usefulness. Two have been baptized and seven confirmed during the ministrations of the present incumbent.

Willowdale continues up to its wonted reputation in ministering to the souls for whom Jesus died, and the people appreciate having regular pastoral care, though they have never suffered for the want of religious ministrations. Fifty-three Sunday services have been held, and six week day services. Fifteen infants and two adults have been baptized. Four have been confirmed. There have also been twelve celebrations of the Holy Communion. The assessment for Diocesan Missions was $30, and has been paid in full.

The financial summary of the District is as follows, viz.:

Amount assessed by the District.....	1,096 00

SIXTH DISTRICT.

(Counties of Chemung, Tioga, and Tompkins.)

The officers of the District are: The Rev. N. S. Boardman, Dean; The Rev. Theodore Haydn, Secretary; Mr. H. V. Bostwick, Treasurer; The Rev. A. B. Rudd (the Rev. C. H. McKnight, alternate), and Mr. H. V. Bostwick, representatives on the Board of Managers.

The Missions of the District are: Emmanuel, Elmira, Big Flats, Millport, Horseheads, Wellsburg, Van Etten, Candor, Spencer, Waverly, Smithboro, Trumansburg, McLean, Dryden, Slaterville Springs, and Speedsville.

Three meetings of Convocation have been held during the year, as follows: In Grace Church, Waverly, June 20th and 21st; in St. John's Church, Ithaca, October 10th and 11th; and in Trinity Church, Elmira, February 11th and 12th.

At the present time all the Missions of the District have ministers in charge. Seven clergymen care for the fifteen Missions.

Emmanuel Church, Elmira, and St. Mark's, Millport, are under the care of Dean Boardman. The latter place has lost heavily the past year by removals and death—five families by removal and nine people by death. The Dean also maintained the services at Big Flats and Horseheads, with the aid of laymen, until October 1st, when the present minister took charge.

St. Matthew's Church, Horseheads, has been in the hands of the Rev. F. W. Feary since October. A confirmation class of 26 has been presented to the Bishop. A vested choir (mixed voices) has been organized, also a Sunday School, and the Parish seems to have entered upon a new lease of life. The Church has been fitted with electric lights. Mr. Feary also maintains services in St. John's Church, Big Flats.

St. Mark's Church, Candor; St. John's Church, Spencer, and St. Thomas' Church, Van Etten, continue under the faithful and self-sacrificing care of the Rev. E. C. Hoskins, who reports hopeful signs in these Missions.

St. Thomas' Church, Slaterville, and St. John's Church, Speedsville, are served by the Rev. A. J. Schrader, who has made no report as to the progress of work in his field.

Epiphany Church, Trumansburg, remains under the care of the Rev. W. E. Cook, who writes: "The Parish is making heroic efforts to put the Church property in a habitable condition. Last year $500 was expended on the exterior of the Church, and this year the Chapel is about to undergo necessary repairs to the extent of $150. These heavy outlays make it somewhat burdensome to our small congregation to meet its current expenses. But in spite of this, the vestry has raised the salary of the Missionary, and expect to still further increase it in the near future. We have everything to encourage us, and feel confident that the fruit of present fidelity and devotion will be more abundantly realized during the coming years."

Grace Church, Waverly; Christ Church, Wellsburg, and Emmanuel Church, Smithboro, are under the charge of the Rev. H. W. Crydenwise. During the year the Rectory at Waverly has been greatly improved in many ways, but chiefly by the addition of a furnace and bath room. This Parish has passed a prosperous year.

Trinity Church, Dryden, Rev. Theodore Haydn, Minister in charge. The new Church has been erected free from debt, and was consecrated by the Bishop on July 6th. This Church is lighted by acetylene gas from the village plant, and heated by a furnace. During the year the Chancel has been carpeted, through the efforts of the ladies of the Parish. Among the gifts that have been received are a chalice and paten, brass vases and Eucharistic candlesticks. A cover of oak has been placed on the Font. The Church lot has been filled in and graded, and it is intended during the present summer to seed the lot, lay a cement walk, and finish painting the Church, if the necessary funds are obtained. The congregations have been larger, and while no great gains can be reported, it seems evident that time, perseverance and careful work will develop, if not a self-supporting, at least a strong mission Parish. An endowment fund will be started on Trinity Sunday.

Zion Church, McLean, maintains its record of earnestness and devotion. Opportunities for growth are very limited. By the wise management of the Treasurer, ably seconded by the Ladies' Guild, $100 has been accumulated as the nucleus of an endowment fund.

The Secretary desires to add that on Good Friday evening, at the request of the Superintendent, he held service in the Chapel of the George Junior Republic in Freeville, the congregation consisting principally of the boy and girl citizens of that institution.

There is a general tone of improvement throughout the District. For the first time in the history of the District, the full amount of its quota for Diocesan Missions has been paid. This result has been accomplished by the determined efforts of the Convocation and through persistent work on the part of the District officers. Every Parish and Mission, with but one exception, has paid its assessment in full, and most of the Parishes have contributed in excess of their assessments.

N. S. BOARDMAN, Dean.

THEODORE HAYDN, Secretary.

The reports show a healthy aggressiveness, and an earnest effort on the part of the Districts to meet their assessments in full, which in the main have proved successful. It would be a convenience to the Secretary if he could have the reports, including the reports of the Treasurers, at least two weeks before Convention, as called for by the Canon.

Respectfully submitted by the Board of Managers.

JAMES J. BURD, Secretary.

To the Annual Convention of the Diocese of Central New York:

Your Committee appointed to report on the report of the Board of Managers of Diocesan Missions have carefully examined the very able and complete report submitted, and find much in the report to be commended. We note that an increased number of Parishes have paid their assessments in full, which is a matter of congratulation. This fact enables the Districts to meet more fully and promptly their assessments. An unusual fact develops, that one of the Stations paid the Missionary's salary in advance—a fact which is as surprising as it is gratifying. The report is complete, and covers the missionary work done in the Diocese fully and completely. It would appear from this report that services are being maintained at nearly all the principal points, and in many cases outlying Mission Stations promise in the near future to develop into self-supporting Parishes. We find nothing in the report to criticise, and very much to commend. We cannot too strongly urge upon the clerical and lay members of this Convention the necessity of supporting with money and personal assistance the missionary work of the Diocese. It is the broadening out and development of Mission Stations which strengthens and builds up the Church in Central New

I have a communication from Mr. Wm. G. Davies, of New York, announcing that the Church Society for Promoting Christianity Among the Jews has decided to discontinue operations and receive no further contributions. One or two small offerings for that object received during the past year were turned over to Mr. Davies to be used by him in the same work, which is carried on by individuals formerly working for the Soc ety.

The Treasurer has furnished to the Standing Committee an Indemnity bond in the sum of $5,000.00 as directed by the Canons.

The funds of the Diocese have been transferred from the Trust and Deposit Company of Onondaga to the Salt Springs National Bank.

Before closing my report I wish to acknowledge my indebtedness to the former Treasurer, Mr. Seymour H. Stone, who kindly consented to perform the duties of the office for the first quarter of the year.

Respectfully submitted,

FRANK L. LYMAN, Treasurer.

The Committee on the Report of the Treasurer of the Diocese has examined the accounts of the Treasurer as to bank balance and cash on hand and find the same correct, with vouchers exhibited for all disbursements.

Christmas Fund—Report of the Trustees.

D. Christmas Fund.(I) Report of the Trustees.

Syracuse, New York, May, 1906.

To the Convention of the Diocese of Central New York:

The Trustees of the Christmas Fund, Diocese of Central New York, respectfully submit their report for the year ending April 30th, 1906, as follows, referring to the annexed report of the Treasurer for the financial details:

At a meeting of of the Trustees held August 16, 1905, the nomination of the Convention to fill the vacancy on the Board was confirmed by the election of Mr. William Watkins to serve five years, filling the vacancy caused by the expiration of Trustee William Watkins' term.

The new Board was then organized by the re-election of the old officers, Trustee William Watkins for President and Trustee G. Howard Avery for Secretary and Treasurer. Regarding a communication from the Treasurer of the Diocese in reference to the return of their note of $3,000 now held by the Fund, but which represents $2,175 of the Fuller mortgage, it was the expression of the meeting that inasmuch as there seems to be a probable loss in the Gardner matter, that it is not expedient to return to the Diocese this note, and it is the mind of the Board that the Diocese note should be kept in force and interest should be paid on it as if it was not a part of the Fuller mortgage. After an informal discussion regarding the probable outcome of the Fuller mortgage, the meeting was adjourned subject to the call of the President.

A special meeting was held September 25th to take action on the Fuller mortgage, Mrs. Fuller having failed to pay the six months' interest installment, and without very good prospect for her to pay the next one coming due. It was the expression of the meeting that the Fuller mortgage be put in process of collection, and the Secretary was instructed to see Mr. C. W. Andrews and begin foreclosure proceedings. This was done, and the Secretary bid in the property on March 28, 1906, for the face of the mortgage, subject to a first mortgage of $4,000, held by the Onondaga County Savings Bank.

The Fund has been greatly crippled, being obliged to take care of the taxes and interest on the first mortgage for the last two years. It has cost us so far $914.97, besides not receiving any interest on our mortgage of $5,437.69. Our Parish offerings are also short of last year $106.82, and $177.91 short of two years ago, and the total receipts this year are not enough to meet the beneficiary expenses of $1,850, our receipts for interest, and Parish offerings being only $1,739.23. The present Trustees do not feel, however, that they are in the least to blame for the present condition of the Fund. The Fuller mortgage was forced upon them not only to protect this Fund, but also the Diocese, and we feel we have done all we could do. However, the ultimate result, we think there must be a loss. How much, we cannot say as yet. The falling off in the Parish offerings we think is due to the agitation of the merging of the Fund with the General Clergy Relief.

The other investments are all good with plenty of security, and the interest being promptly paid. The beneficiaries remain this year the same as last, two clergy and eleven widowed, amounting to $1,850, but we will not be able to sustain them unless the Parish offerings are kept up to the old standing, or we are fortunate enough to dispose of the Fuller property to good advantage.

The Convention is called upon to nominate a Trustee to fill the vacancy of George T. Jack, whose term of office expires.

WILLIAM WATKINS, President.

G. HOWARD AVERY, Secretary and Treasurer.

Parochial Fund—Report of the Trustees.

The members of the Committee to examine the report of the Trustees of the Episcopate Fund hereby certify that on the 28th day of May, 1906, they personally examined the accounts of the Treasurer, George M. Weaver, in connection with the securities and report of the Trustees of the Fund, both as to principal and income and disbursements and found same correct. They also examined as to principal and income of the DeLancey Fund, and found that correct also. The Committee also report that there is accrued interest in the Utica Trust & Deposit Company and in the Utica Savings Bank amounting to $29.42 which has not as yet been drawn or disbursed, and therefore not shown in the report.

As no interest had been paid on Frey mortgage since March, 1904, a foreclosure was begun in August, 1905. To save expense the owners and the owner of the tax deed gave a deed of the property. The amount paid for search, tax deed, back taxes, &c., amounted to $101.49, which makes the cost of the property $1,101.49. The Frey house rents for $8.00.

The income of this Fund paid as officers in charge of Church may direct.

The Slack (Brandt) bond and mortgage was foreclosed and the premises bought in on the sale by Mr. Darrow for $1,500.00. He also paid $43.96 for taxes which had been paid out of this fund. This Fund had a half interest in the property.

To save expenses of foreclosure the Trustees took a deed of the premises covered by the Higgins mortgage on North Beech street.

Carroll has reduced the amount due on his mortgage $1.21.

Income paid to the Bishop of the Diocese.

It was found necessary to foreclose the Slack (Brandt) mortgage in which this fund had one-half interest, and the property was purchased by M. C. Darrow for $1,500; a large amount of back taxes had to be paid. It is hoped hereafter that there will be but few disbursements needed.

The William Street property has not yet been sold, but when it is it is expected that the impairment of principal will be largely reduced. By a mistake the interest on the Lewis mortgage (16.66) was deposited in the Wheeler Fund. This error will be corrected.

The interest for January on the Carrie B. Smith mortgage not been paid.

The Day mortgage has been paid in full.

The Robertson (Hookway) mortgages were foreclosed and in by Trustees (Action No. 30), and a judgment of deficiency $301.02 was obtained against Anna M. J. Robertson and Robertson, in which judgment the Wheeler Fund has a 41-20 est, and the Permanent Missionary Fund has a 164-205 interest,

No. 303 Hartson Street was sold in April, 1906, to M. J. for $950.

Lamano has paid $50 on account of principal.

During the past year $53.47 was advanced to the Douglas and $33.49 to the Constable Fund, expenses of foreclosure of 32 and 34.

It has been the custom in the past to pay from this Fund insurance premiums on churches, which could not afford to do so; result has been that the income of this fund has been decreased the amount of such payments. For example, during the year upwards of $130 of such premiums have been paid. In February last the Trustees directed that in the future such payment not be made.

The income is paid to the Treasurer of the Diocese.

Parochial Fund—Report of the Trustees.

To save expense of foreclosure, the property covered by the Allen mortgage was deeded to the Trustees (Action 8). The Foley mortgage was paid in full. Lots 27 and 28 Oakland Street were sold to J. H. Edmond in November, 1905, for $700, he paying on account of purchase price $50, and in January he paid $20 more on the principal.

A deed was taken also of the Elm Street property from Higgins, who held it under a contract of sale.

Income payable as follows:

$600 towards salary of Rector.

Residue to Vestry for repairs, &c., under written order of the Bishop.

Prior to May, 1905, for several years no payments were made to the Rector.

The deed of trust also provides that the Bishop may, should at any time the parish become unable to support a clergyman without some assistance, apply a larger portion towards said salary should the accumulation warrant it, reserving, however, always enough for the other purposes mentioned.

On investigation it has been found that this fund was bequeathed in trust to the Bishop of the Diocese, and so does not form a part of the funds of the Trustees of Parochial Fund.

In the past it has been treated as part of the funds of the Trustees, and for that reason is referred to here. In the Summary, however, it will not be treated as part of the Trustees' funds.

Parochial Fund—Report of the Trustees.

During the last year $10,300 has been invested in bonds and mortgages.

Two of the Oakland Street lots have been sold and a mortgage taken back for the purchase price. No. 303 Hartson Street has been sold, and it is expected that many other lots will be sold before May 1, 1907.

Pursuant to the direction of the Trustees, the Treasurer has obtained a bond from the American Surety Company in the amount of $15,000.00 to secure the Trustees from loss. The premium charged is $37.00.

In the past it has been customary to pay premiums on insurance on some of the Churches in the Diocese from the income of the Permanent Missionary Fund. The result has been that the amount of income of that Fund has been greatly lessened. The Trustees have now ordered that no such payments be made in the future.

The term of office of Mr. Bellinger and Mr. Burden 2nd expires this year.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

Your committee appointed to examine the annual statement of the Treasurer of the Parochial Fund of the Diocese of Central New York respectfully report: That we met at the office of Charles W. Andrews, Esq., Treasurer of said Fund, in the city of Syracuse, on May 28th, 1906. and after a thorough examination of all the receipts and disbursements, together with the investments and securities held by him, do certify the same to be correct to the best of our knowledge and belief.

vested to the benefit of the Fund, and there are prospects of further advantageous changes which will soon put the same on a firm and solid basis.

Again we are pleased to note the very systematic and business like methods adopted by the Treasurer in keeping his accounts and vouchers thereof.

Dated, Syracuse, N. Y., May 28th, 1906.

J. M. TILDEN,
G. J. MAGER.

G. Van Wagenen Fund.

To the Convention of the Diocese of Central New York:

There is little or nothing to be added to the detailed statement of receipts and disbursements which is herewith presented. There has been but one new investment made during the year, and only one paid up in full. Several have been reduced by small payments, while in two instances old loans have been slightly increased for the accommodation of the borrowers. In general, however, the list is nearly the same that it was a year ago, the footings being somewhat in excess of those in my report at that time.

The disbursements consist entirely in the payment of the salary of the Missionary and of the rent of a safe deposit box.

The Fund is in very good condition, most of the interest having been paid up to some date within the year, the few cases that are in arrears being simply slow in payment rather than deficient in security.

Dated May 15, 1906.

JOHN R. VAN WAGENEN,

To the Convention of the Diocese of Central New York:

Your standing committee on the report of the Trustee of Van Wagenen Missionary Fund of the County of Chenango respectfully report that they have examined the accounts presented of receipts and disbursements of said Fund for the last Convention year, and finds the same to be a correct statement thereof, you having been submitted for all the disbursements. They have examined the list of securities given in said report and the securities themselves, and find them to correspond, and the securities properly endorsed with the payments made therein during the year, as shown by the report.

The Fund is in bonds secured by mortgages on real estate in the counties of Chenango, Chemung, Steuben and Broome in this State, with but one exception, and your committee are satisfied that the security is ample in each case.

Respectfully Submitted,

GEORGE G. PERRINE,

B. Registrar's Report.

During the past year the work of binding and completing sets of various diocesan journals has continued, and a large number of volumes will soon be ready for use. When these are received the library will be not only valuable for consultation, but the information will be accessible also.

With the exception of the History of St. Joseph's Church, Rome, N. Y., from the rector, the Rev. A. L. Byron-Curtiss, only journals of the various dioceses have been received. A number of these were kindly sent by the officers of other dioceses to complete our files. Only one journal of this diocese was requested and mailed.

The Registrar would suggest the appointment of some one in Syracuse to have charge of a duplicate set of journals for reference at that important centre.

I. Work Among the Deaf Mutes.

Your Commission hereby presents its fifth annual report:

We are glad to state that this year has been the most prosperous one since the Commission was appointed. At the last annual meeting, held just before the Convention of 1905, the Chairman was empowered to advise with the Missionary, Rev. Mr. Van Allen, about relinquishing his work in Vermont and giving to our diocese the extra time thus left to him. It was also decided in case Mr. Van Allen could do this, that the Commission increase his salary by $200. On the strength of this action, the Missionary relinquished Vermont Feb. 1st, 1906, and since that time his salary has been at the rate of $700 a year. He still retains the diocese of Albany, but gives to us about three-fifths of his time. Under this plan it will be seen by his report that he has visited a number of places in Central New York which he was not able to visit before, thereby ministering to the deaf not only in the larger towns, but in the smaller communities. We consider this an appreciable advance in the work, for thus the scattered families and individuals are sought out and their spiritual condition attended to.

It must be understood that a very essential part of this missionary work among the deaf mutes consists in this more intimate relation with individuals, by which, as Mr. Van Allen says in his report, he is "able to afford them help, comfort and encouragement." Isolated as they are by their lack of hearing and speaking from the larger element of the community, many of them are sadly in need of some one to champion their wants, to find them employment, to defend them against the unscrupulous, and to enlarge the sphere of their lives. They thus feel that they have in the Missionary a friend whom they can trust, and who can thoroughly sympathize with them in all their difficulties. In this way many are won to the Church and its services who otherwise would not be reached.

The Commission believes that in Mr. Van Allen, as he goes here and there throughout the diocese, this need is faithfully and conscientiously met, and that under him there is a decided advance each year in the scope and usefulness of the Mission to these people.

In the month of August 1905, the Chairman of your Commission, by request of the Bishop, was present in Elmira, N. Y., at a most notable and helpful conference of the Church clergy in the United States at work among the deaf mutes. With only one exception, all these clergy were in attendance and during the conference discussed ways and means for extending the scope of the Church's ministrations to the deaf and dumb throughout the country. At present there are but two missionaries laboring in the territory beyond the Mississippi, and even these two are mainly occupied east of that line. New England has but one man, New York two, Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware but two between them, and the entire South but two—nine clergymen in all for the United States. This is but a meagre showing, and not at all adequate. Students for the ministry are coming forward, however, and it is hoped that before long the force will be somewhat increased. As far as we can see, no section of the country is more effectively ministered to than that in our own diocese, a fact which amply justifies the existence of such a Commission as this to regulate and further the work.

We again acknowledge our obligation to the Diocesan Board of Missions for $200, the Junior Auxiliary of the Diocese $100.43, and the Parishes $319.60.

Ten more parishes have contributed this year than did last year, and eighteen more than in 1904. This is a fair indication that our appeals are being increasingly answered in the diocese, and a greater interest exhibited.

During the present year we will need $200 more to meet the additional amount now given the Missionary for the extra time allowed us. This must fall upon the parochial offerings.

We would suggest that the Convention order five hundred copies of this report printed, to be distributed by the Commission, and we wish to remind the clergy that we have on hand a large number of envelopes for the annual Deaf Mute offering, which can be had from our Secretary, Rev. Harry S. Longley, Christ Church, Binghamton, on application. Appreciating your generous response to our appeals in the past, and begging your continued interest, we remain,

The Committee —

Report of the Missionary to the Deaf Mutes.

To the Commission on Church Work Among the Deaf and Dumb in the Diocese of Central New York:

GENTLEMEN: The work of the Mission to the deaf and dumb of the Diocese has been carried on during the past year along practically the same lines as heretofore, and has been attended with very encouraging results. Services have been maintained in all the larger cities and villages where a sufficient number of deaf people can be gathered. The attendance at these services has been very satisfactory, in some places including every deaf person within a radius of many miles; the interest of the people has been steadily maintained, and there has been a gratifying growth in spiritual earnestness and attachment to the Church. In addition, I have visited a large number of smaller villages in the Diocese, seeking for opportunities to extend the work. I have thus met a considerable number of isolated families and individuals, and in this way have been able to afford help, comfort and encouragement. I have not, however, found any of these smaller towns to contain a sufficient number of deaf people to enable me to organize a mission and begin regular services.

It would be difficult to overestimate the benefit of our Mission from every point of view, to those whom it is intended to reach. Isolated by their lack of hearing from the great world around them the deaf and dumb are but little influenced by the thought aims and ideals of the rest of the world, and in their case the great evil to be combatted is the intellectual and spiritual stagnation which is inevitable under such circumstances. The Mission is a link which unites the deaf with the normal world, and its work exerts a varying but distinctly uplifting influence upon their lives. It is not easy, however, to present in a report like this any adequate and satisfactory statement of what is accomplished from year to year. The mere enumeration of services held, of pastoral calls made, and of ministerial acts performed, may serve as a fair enough measure of the Missionary's activity, but it fails to give any idea of the actual results attained. These are not always immediate or obvious, even to the Missionary, but become apparent only with the lapse of time, and in the practical but intangible form of better and nobler thinking and living. Nevertheless, the results are very real, and no one acquainted with the deaf and dumb will dispute the very genuine influence for all that is highest and best which the Church is exerting through her Mission to the deaf.

The most serious problem which has confronted the Missionary during the latter portion of the year has been in connection with his traveling expenses. From the very beginning of his work in this Diocese, the Missionary has enjoyed the privilege of free travel over the more important railroads, and this has enabled him to reach his widely scattered people at an expense scarcely exceeding a hundred dollars a year. With the beginning of the present calendar year, however, all of these privileges were withdrawn, and the question of providing for necessary traveling expenses became a very serious one, with the prospect that the work would have to be greatly curtailed. Experience has shown that the expenses of the work will be nearly quadrupled during the coming year, but I am now very confident that little if any diminution of my activities will be necessary. The Commission has been very helpful and generous in enabling me to meet the new conditions, and the deaf people have evinced a commendable willingness to assume the added burden. I fear that there is little probability that the railroads will eventually modify their present policy, and it will be necessary to resign ourselves to the prospect of the work costing a great deal more than formerly. I feel, however, that it has been a signal instance of God's goodness, that when our work was young and at its weakest, it should have so long enjoyed such exceptionally favorable conditions.

Services have been held as follows: At Utica, 33; at Syracuse, 29; at Rome, 15; at Oneida, 12; at Elmira, 8; at Watertown, 5; at Binghamton, 5; at Fulton, 4; at Oswego, 4; at Auburn, 3; and at

Report of the Missionary to the Deaf-Mutes.

Owego, 2, a total of 120 services. This total includes 23 celebrations of the Holy Communion at various places. In addition to the above, I have taken a service at the Gallaudet Home for Blind, Aged and Infirm Deaf Mutes at Poughkeepsie, for the Rev. Dr. Chamberlain, of New York, and have also taken a service for the Rev. Mr. Dantzer at All Soul's, Philadelphia.

I have visited the following places in the Diocese in addition to those named above, some of them more than once: Hamilton, Norwich, Oxford, Waverly, Waterloo, Seneca Falls, Ira, Sterling, Canastota, Cortland, Ithaca, Carthage and Lowville. I have also visited Corning, Watkins and Geneva, just outside my territory, in the Diocese of Western New York. In the course of the year I have made, or had made upon me, 224 calls, in the course of which I talked with 332 individuals.

I have attended three large picnics of the deaf; have taken my share in their social activities, and have been able to assist them in many material ways. I am happy to say that through the energy and generosity of Mr. Charles W. Andrews, a legal matter involving one of my people at Syracuse, which has given me considerable trouble and concern, has been brought to a most satisfactory termination. I have delivered two lectures on secular subjects, both at Syracuse.

In August the Empire State Association of Deaf Mutes, the membership of which embraces people from all parts of the State, met at Elmira. I attended the meeting, and arranged two services in connection with it, one service being attended by the members in a body. At the latter service the Bishop was present, and delivered an address in the finger language which deeply impressed the congregation. At the same time and place a conference of the clergy of the Church at work among the deaf and dumb was held, and was attended by every missionary in the country actively at work, with a single exception, and the gathering was made additionally pleasant and profitable by the presence and participation of the Rev. Mr. Harding, President of the Commission. The conference discussed many subjects of interest and importance, and I believe much good will result from the interchange of opinion and experience. Another conference is to be held at Philadelphia this summer, at which I hope to be present.

There have been 5 baptisms during the year, two at Rome and one each at Oneida, Elmira and Fulton. There have been two confirmations, both at Rome. I have married one couple at Canastota, and have assisted at one funeral at Syracuse.

My expenses have been as follows: For postage and stationery, $19.44; for traveling expenses, $135.61; offerings forwarded, $8.51; total, $163.56. My receipts have been $116.17, being the amount of the offerings at the various services.

In closing I desire to express my appreciation of the kindness shown me by clergy and laity alike, but especially by the Bishop, who has been a most generous and helpful friend to me in all my difficulties and discouragements, and by the members of the Commission, who have been uniformly kind and considerate.

Very respectfully submitted,

H. VAN ALLEN.

Of Executive Committee

Dated June 11, 1906.

The undersigned members of the Committee appointed to receive the report of the Trustees of the Bible and Prayer Book Society hereby certify that on the 13th of June, 1906, they personally examined the report of Mr. P. C. J. DeAngelis, of the Executive Committee, and found the same correct.

J. W. CLARKE,

W. E. HOPKINS

Report of the Committee on Christian Education.

I. (1) Report of the Committee on Christian Education.

The Committee on Christian Education beg to report that they have carefully examined the reports on Christian Education as they appear in the Journals of Conventions from year to year, and confess that as far as the theory of Christian Education is concerned, the subject has been so fully covered that they are somewhat at a loss to know what they can add to that already reported.

It is true that the subject is so interesting, important and comprehensive, much might still be said, and could be said if the committee were expected to submit an annual essay to the convention on the subject. But we take it for granted that the purpose of such reports pre-supposes some practical results in addition to the mere reading of an essay, with occasional recommendations still-born.

That the Church of the living God should be concerned with Christian education is self-evident. She received her commission from her Divine Head to bear witness to the truth, to proclaim, expound and teach it. If she ceases to be an educator she is an unfaithful steward.

But the education of the whole man is such a large enterprise that for convenience it has been marked off into two main divisions, secular and religious. One, having more especially to do with the Second Commandment, Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself; the other with the First Commandment, Thou shalt love the Lord, thy God. Both these commandments, however, are so mutually related to each other that the Church, as she found herself able, has striven to include both in her system of education.

But in our country the public school system is as yet, at least necessarily pledged to a secular system of education. That it is found often unsatisfactory and inadequate is admitted generally by educators. On the Church, therefore, devolves the responsibility to give Christian education, which is the only complete education, as it includes the education of the whole man, the moral and spiritual as well as the intellectual and the physical.

But no schools are provided by the Church for the children of the average citizen, they are for those of wealth or substantial means. The Church schools, as they are known in Great Britain, are unknown here. Why our wealthy Church does not support Church schools is not a question incumbent on your Committee to answer. There are three main ways, however, along which the Christian educational work of the Church may be done:

In the Home,
In the Sunday School and In the Church.

First in the Home.

The Christian family educated in the Church ought to be a mighty power working for righteousness, if the religion confessed in the public worship of the Church is carried into the home. The Jewish parents, in obedience to Divine Command, carefully instructed their children in the traditions of their nation, and in the history and religious significance of the rites, ceremonies and festivals of their religion. So, too, should Christian parents do for their children likewise concerning the Christian religion.

On the pastor, therefore, devolves a great responsibility, not merely as minister or preacher, but as teacher. The pastor should thoroughly ground his people in the faith, as this Church hath received the same, so that at least those who attend on his public ministrations could have no excuse for ignorance of the Church, its Ministry, its Sacraments, its Faith. The Church year furnishes an admirable, exact and orderly opportunity for such instructions. He should often exhort parents to train up their children in the nurture and admonition of the Lord, pointing out to them the responsibility resting on them as parents so to do, for God's honor, the honor of the Church, the State, the Nation, as well as their own happiness and safety, are involved.

The Christian home and family prayer should go together.

In spite of the exigencies of this pressing, hurrying life, and indeed because of it, careful provision should be made for family prayer. We know the difficulties in the way of the recovery of this lost art, and this very important means of grace; but shall God's ministers cease to urge this return because of difficulties?

Might not opportunity be taken when arranging for marriages to counsel and urge the bridegroom and bride to begin their new life by recognizing God in family prayer?

We must put the first and chief responsibility for Christian education on the Christian home. The home is the creator and custodian of the moral and spiritual wealth of the Church and Nation; and few will deny that the spirit of secularity, irreverence and license, so prevalent to-day, threatens the purity and stability of the home. The Christian family worshipping together in the house of God is almost an unknown quantity. It behooves the Church, therefore, to spend a large portion of her strength in seeking to recover and preserve the Christian home.

We hear much concerning the dearth of candidates for the Holy Ministry. Where can we hope to find them unless in the families of the holy Marys and Hannahs? Will the Church bravely face this problem, and perseveringly seek to solve it? Will she seek to impress on the parents the fact that "The life is more than meat and the body than raiment?" The love of money and the material things for which it stands tempt many parents to direct their children's lives away from the Holy Ministry to other occupations in which they see the prospect of more money getting.

But surely no occupation nor profession can compare in honor and highest satisfaction with that of the Christian Ministry. At least in one country in Western Europe that honor is highly thought of, for appreciation of a kindly deed is often expressed in the wish "That you may have a son a Priest?" When our homes are Christian, as they ought to be, that wish among us, too, will more often be expressed and happily fulfilled.

Another direction in which the Church should give Christian education is along the line of Sunday School work. Here, too, the child should be carefully trained in Church principles in preparation for the more exact teaching in the Confirmation classes. But as we already have a Sunday School Commission, we respectfully refer, in this connection, the further consideration of this matter to that Committee.

Closely related to the home and the Sunday School is the catechizing of the children in the Church. It is an old and valued custom which in some places seems to have fallen into disuse. Yet a most important means of Christian education. "Ye are to take care that this child shall hear sermons," very good, but if catechetical they will be found quite as instructive to children as the average sermon. Every pastor should make provision and careful preparation for this weekly catechising, whether in the Sunday School room or in the Church proper. If this were done we would not hear so often from Sunday School superintendents a plea for the uniform Sunday School lesson for the whole school, which is made principally on the ground that the Bible lesson can be summarized by the catechist for the benefit of the whole school.

But the Church catechetical instruction has to do with definite doctrines, customs and traditions of the Church rather than with historical incidents from the Bible, however interesting they may be. Let us aim, then, to revive careful and regular catechetical instruction to our children.

And this leads us to remark that our Church seems to be deplorably weak in pastors who are teachers. In a recent letter to the Church Standard, Frederick Haughton says: "There seems to be a need for more training in religion, in the truth and morals of Christianity, and in Church doctrine, and not among foreign children, but among our own, the children of members of the Church." And any one who is at all acquainted with present conditions will acknowledge that Mr. Haughton's statement is put too mildly. Dean Hart of Denver gives startling facts in proof of the alarming increase of crime in this country, and especially among the children, which is a commentary on Mr. Haughton's statement. "The cause," he says, "of the continued and alarming increase of crime is the want of giving definite moral instruction to the children." Here, then, is the Church's duty, opportunity and responsibility, but until the Church sends out men from her Theological Seminaries who are trained teachers this disastrous drain on the life of the Church and the nation must continue. Pastors may be good administrators and preachers, but what the Church needs pre-eminently is good teachers; men who are thoroughly grounded in the faith, and are trained to impart it, especially to children.

Your Committee, therefore, respectfully recommends that our chief pastors in the Lord bring all possible pressure to bear on our Theological Seminaries so as to secure attention to this most important part of Christian education; and that they urge all pastors to study to prepare themselves to be good catechists. The commission, "Feed My Lambs," is quite as imperative as "Feed My Sheep."

E. (2) The Sunday School Commission of the Diocese of Central New York.

The Rev. JAMES J. BURD, Chairman, Utica.

The Rev. HERBERT G. CODDINGTON, D. D., Vice-Chairman, 1,006
Harrison St., Syracuse.

The Rev. FRANCIS CURTIS SMITH, M. A., Secretary and Treasurer, Boonville.

Annual Report to the Diocesan Convention, 1906:

During the year two meetings have been held, one in Utica and one in Syracuse. Its work, so far, has been mainly preliminary to the definite work which it has in hand. That work is best explained by the statement which was issued and sent out to the Clergy and Sunday School workers of the Diocese. It is believed that by the end of the summer the Commission will have its plans well under way and will be able to report at the next Convention some definite advance.

The two most pressing needs of the Sunday Schools, as brought forth by the answers to the inquiries sent out by the commission, appear to be: First, more and better trained teachers; and Second, definite courses of study along Churchly lines. To meet the first of these two needs the commission will endeavor to bring before the teachers, and those desirous of becoming teachers reading and lecture courses. The reading courses will doubtless be issued in the early fall, and it is hoped to arrange for some lecture courses in various parts of the Diocese. It must be borne in mind, however, that for this means to accomplish anything will require the energetic co-operation of the Clergy of the Diocese.

Report of the Woman's Auxiliary

The Commission is a member of the Federation of Diocesan Sunday School Organizations of the Church in the United States of America and is represented on two standing committees of that organization, the Committee on Curriculum, and on Press and Publication. The Commission had intended to issue some time during the spring a Diocesan Curriculum, but owing to the fact that the Federation was engaged in practically the same thing, it was decided to defer that action until the Federation should have acted. However, the Federation having made no definite headway the commission will take up the matter during the summer and issue tentative suggestions in ample time for the beginning of the Sunday School year.

The Commission has also gathered a considerable amount of statistics with regard to the present condition of the Sunday Schools of the Diocese. It must be noted, however, that only about fifty per cent. of the schools to whom the questions were sent responded. It is hoped that the other fifty per cent. will soon respond and enable a complete report to be made.

Through resignation there is at present one vacancy in the Clerical membership of the Commission.

The work of this Commission is quite unlike that laid upon any other Committee of the Convention. This work cannot be completed in one year, but a period of years will be needed in which to cover satisfactorily and effectively the complicated subject which the Commission is called upon to treat.

Secretary.

ST. STEPHEN'S MISSION, SYRACUSE.

In October, 1905, the Rev. F. T. Henstridge, Rector of Calvary Church, held some cottage services in the extreme northern part of Purochial Reports.

Syracuse. The services were well attended and in December it was thought wise to rent a room and establish a mission. It is known as St. Stephen's Mission, and since December enough money has been contributed by those attending the services to furnish the Mission with chairs, altar, organ and books. At the present time there are about forty in the Sunday School, and an average attendance of fifty at the service each Sunday afternoon. The prospects for the future are exceedingly bright.

Services 41 Baptisms, Inf 1

ST. LUKE'S MISSION, SYRACUSE.

The Rev. F. T. Henstridge, in charge of St. Luke's Mission regrets to report that no progress has been made during the past year. A few years ago the prospects were very bright, the people of the neighborhood being English or American. To-day it is entirely different. Nine-tenths of the people are Polish Roman Catholics, and it will not be long before the whole neighborhood will be populated by these foreigners.

During the year there has been maintained a sewing school and classes in basket making. Sunday School is held each week, with an average attendance of thirty-one.

Offerings, $24.31.

Repairs and Improvements, $85.00.

THE REV. W. M. BEAUCHAMP, S. T. D., residing at Syracuse, reports that he has officiated in various places nearly every Sunday during the past year, besides other clerical work, and has attended to his duties as President of the Syracuse Clerical Club, and Examining Chaplain.

THE REV. JOSHUA L. BURROWS, Ph. D., residing at Ashtabula, Ohio, reports that he has held no services during the year.

THE REV. SAMUEL D. DAY, residing at Cordele, Ga., reports that he has been at work during the past year in Sanford and Key West, Florida, and in Savannah and Cordele, Ga.

THE REV. DR. R. M. DUFF, Missionary of Chenango County, reports that during the past year he has held services in the following places in Chenango County: South Plymouth, Columbus, Rockdale, East Pharsalia, Rockwell's Mills, South Otselic, South Oxford, Smyrna, North Norwich, Mt. Upton and Brisbin. The services in these places were held in denominational churches. In Chenango Forks, McDonough, Brookfield, Whitney's Point and Afton the services were held in our Mission Churches. One service was held in the Home for the Aged at Norwich. From time to time the Missionary has also preached in the various parish Churches in the county, and during Passion Week, at the request of the Clergy in Rochester, N. Y., he preached at six noon-day services in St. Luke's Church in that city. Week-day services were also held occasionally at various Mission points in the county. The Holy Communion has been celebrated twenty-four times and a class for confirmation presented at McDonough. The services, on the whole, have been well attended. Those held in the denominational churches very largely attended and much interest manifested in the "ways of the Church." Over five hundred house to house visits have been made at the Mission points and a considerable number of un-shepherded church people have been discovered. Many Prayer Books have been given to those who desired to possess and study them. The Missionary would again say that even in the remote little places in which occasional services are held he observes an increased liking for and a decided tendency towards a liturgical mode of worship. In conclusion he desires to say that the Rectors of the various Parishes in the vicinity of the Mission settlements have invariably shown the utmost willingness to co-operate with him in carrying on the Mission work of the Church in this part of the Diocese.

THE REV. JOHN H. EGAR, D. D., residing at Plainfield, N. J., reports that since his return from Europe the last of May, 1905, he has officiated and preached at sundry times in Zion and St. Joseph's Churches, Rome, Diocese of Central New York; St. John's Church, Canandaigua, Western New York; Church of the Epiphany, South Haven, Michigan; St. Paul's Church, Beloit, Wisconsin, and Grace Church, Church of the Holy Cross and St. Stephen's Church, Plainfield, N. J., administering the Holy Communion on fourteen occasions. He has also officiated at one funeral. On Trinity Sunday morning, 1906, by the kind invitation of the Rector, he preached and administered the Holy Communion in Grace Church, Plainfield, it being the fiftieth anniversary of his ordination to the sacred ministry.

THE REV. OSGOOD E. HERRICK, D. D., residing at Watertown, reports that during the year he has baptized one adult and one infant, married eight couples and officiated at ten funerals.

THE REV. ROBERT HUDSON, Ph. D., residing at Syracuse, reports that since the date of the last Convention he has administered the Holy Communion several times and officiated at three funerals.

THE REV. J. E. JOHNSON, residing at Syracuse, reports that he has officiated at Morning Prayer three times, Evening Prayer 5, Holy Communion 20, marriages 3, baptized one infant, assisted at two burials and delivered forty sermons and lectures, all in this Diocese.

THE REV. EZEKIEL W. MUNDY, D. Litt., residing at Syracuse, reports that during the year in addition to his duties as Librarian of the Syracuse Public Library he has officiated at two funerals and baptized one infant.

THE REV. A. H. ORMSBEE, residing at Charlton, N. Y., reports that he has during the past Diocesan year served as Missionary at Charlton in the Diocese of Albany.

THE REV. W. W. RAYMOND, residing at Baldwinsville, reports that he has officiated seven Sundays in St. Luke's Church, Utica; seven Sundays in Christ Church, Oswego; assisted six Sundays in St. Peter's Church, Auburn; assisted in St. Paul's, Church, Syracuse, on Christmas Day, beginning at 12 o'clock, midnight; held interesting Good Friday and Easter Day services in Grace Church, Willowdale; held Church services during the summer of 1905, alternate with other Clergymen and Lay Readers, in an otherwise unused Presbyterian House of Worship in Camillus; officiated one Sunday each in Trinity Church, Syracuse; St. James's Church, Pulaski, and St. John's Church, Syracuse; held occasional services and catechised classes at the Shelter, Syracuse, baptizing six girls and preparing thirteen for presentation to the Bishop for Confirmation; also celebrated the Holy Communion four times in St. Anna's Chapel at the Shelter.

Other Clerical Reports.

THE REV. JOHN A. STAUNTON, residing at Utica, reports that having been abroad the greater part of the time he has done very little ministerial duty during the last Diocesan year.

THE REV. HENRY C. STAUNTON, residing at New York, N. Y., reports that during the past year he has been Instructor in Languages at Trinity Chapel School, New York City. He has also assisted the Rev. Leighton Parks, Rector of St. Bartholemew's, regularly during the past nine months, and is at present also Chaplain of the Sisterhood of St. John Baptist for the summer season. He has also supplied occasionally in several Parishes and Missions. He has celebrated the Holy Communion fifty-six times, has preached six times, and has assisted at daily Morning Prayer frequently at Trinity Chapel.

THE REV. C. H. TINDELL, residing at Cambridge, Mass., reports that during the past year, on account of continued disability, he has been prevented from performing any clerical service.

Educational Institutions.

It is the aim of this institution to supply to the little ones entrusted to its care a good home, together with the much needed influence of a pure family life. Religious education is, of course, the primary object, and besides the daily devotions, it is the rule to have a weekly service and a catechetical instruction by the Chaplain. The house is grateful to the Bishop for his kindly interest shown in many ways.

Ninety-five children have been cared for during the past year.

VanLoon, B. A., M. A.; Frank Kirby Chapin, Perry Mozart Gallup

Lower School—Ernest Frederic George, Mus. B., Headmaster; Edward I. Edgerton, Miss Martha M. Jaycox, Miss Eleanor Verbeck, Joseph Thomas Carew, Commandant.

Saint John's School was founded in 1869 by the Rt. Rev. Frederic Dan Huntington, S. T. D., LL. D., L. H. D., late Bishop of Central New York, and has ever since been a successful College and Business Preparatory School of the highest grade. It is located at Manlius, among the hills of Central New York, ten miles from Syracuse on the line of the Syracuse and Suburban Electric road. The situation of the school buildings on high ground, with excellent natural drainage, is in an extremely healthy locality.

The appointments of the buildings are unsurpassed for educational purposes, and have been designed with great care especially with reference to light, ventilation and sanitation. Ample protection against fire is provided by stand pipes and easy exit from all parts of the buildings. They have steam heat and electric light and all modern improvements.

Religious worship and instruction are provided by a resident Chaplain, under the direct advice of the Bishop of Central New York.

The War Department of the United States has designated Saint John's as a DISTINGUISHED INSTITUTION and one of the six leading military schools and colleges "whose students have exhibited the greatest interest, application and proficiency in military training and knowledge," and therefore entitled to the appointment of an honor graduate as a second lieutenant in the U. S. Army.

Educational Institutions.

Extracts from the Annual Report to the War Department of Saint John's School, made by Capt. Harry C. Hale, U. S. A., General Staff, as the result of an inspection made May 5 and 6, 1906.

"The appearance of the cadets at inspection was superior to what I would reasonably expect in a similar organization of regular troops. More precise in drill but with less freedom of movement.

The class of students is superior in natural intelligence, birth and breeding. The number admitted is small and the result is a highly efficient military organization and an accurate, as well as comprehensive, course in military science and tactics.

In every instance, whether it was drill, ceremony or quarters, the inspection revealed the most satisfactory excellence; the few minor imperfections noted only serving to accentuate the generally highly perfect state of discipline and training.

It is superfluous to comment on this admirable and invaluable military institution in extenso. In its general scheme of instruction, as well as in every detail of the execution of that scheme, it closely approximates perfection."

APPENDIX V.

Constitution.

ADOPTED JUNE 14TH, 1870.

ARTICLE I.

Section 1. There shall be a Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in this Diocese, on the Second Tuesday in June, in the year 1870, and each year thereafter, at four o'clock and thirty minutes P. M., in such place as shall be determined by the Bishop for the time being, or in case of his inability to act or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, by the Standing Committee.

Sec. 2. On Tuesday evening, after service, a quorum being present, the Convention shall organize, and the Standing Committees shall be appointed.

Sec. 3. In the event of the prevalence of any epidemic disease, or for other sufficient cause, occurring after the designation of the place of meeting, the Bishop or in the case above mentioned, the Standing Committee, may appoint another place for the meeting of the Convention.

ARTICE II.

The Bishop may call Special Conventions when he shall judge it conducive to the good of the Church.

In case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, or the inability of the Bishop to do so, the Standing Committee may call such Convention.

ARTICLE III.

Section 1. The members of any Convention shall be the Bishop,

Constitution.

the Bishop Coadjutor, if there be one, and all Clergymen canonically resident in the Diocese, not under discipline, and lay delegates from the several Parishes, provided, however, that no Clergyman shall be entitled to vote for a Bishop unless he has been Canonically resident in the Diocese for at least one year.

Sec. 2. The Lay Delegates shall be chosen by the Vestry, when one is in legal existence. When the Vestry is, from vacancy or otherwise, incompetent to act, they shall be chosen by the Congregation.

Sec. 3. But in case of Churches or Congregations organized or incorporated without a Vestry, Delegates may be chosen by the Church or Congregation, unless the Convention shall otherwise prescribe.

Sec. 4. The mode of admitting new Churches or Congregations into union with the convention and the conditions under which union or representation shall be forfeited, may be prescribed by Canon.

ARTICLE IV.

Every Convention at its first morning session shall be opened with prayers and the Holy Communion, and the Bishop may at this time deliver his Annual Address or Charge.

ARTICLE V.

The Bishop shall preside in the Convention; but in case of a vacancy, inability to act, or necessary absence, the members shall elect a President from among the Presbyters.

ARTICLE VI.

A Secretary shall be chosen upon the assembling of the Annual Convention from among the members thereof, who shall remain in office until the meeting of the next Annual Convention, and until a successor be appointed. His duty shall be to take minutes of their proceedings, to preserve their journals and records, to attest the public acts of the body, and faithfully to deliver into the hands of his successor all books and papers relative to the concerns of the Convention which may be in his possession. It shall also be his duty to give due notice to each Minister and Vestry of the time and place appointed for the meeting of each Convention.

ARTICLE VII.

Section 1. In all matters which come before the Convention, the Clergy and Laity shall deliberate, and, except as provided in the next Section, may vote in one body; but if in any case it shall be required by five members, the two orders shall vote separately, the Clergy as individuals, and the Laity as Parishes; and the concurrence of a majority of each order shall be necessary to constitute a decision.

Constitution.

Sec. 2. In case of the election of a Bishop, the two orders shall always vote separately by ballot, and according to the mode above prescribed.

ARTICLE VIII.

The mode of altering the Constitution shall be as follows: A proposition for an amendment shall be introduced in writing, and considered in the Convention; and if approved of, shall lie over till the next Annual Convention; and, if again approved of in such next Convention by a majority of the two orders voting thereon separately, the change shall take place, and the Constitution so altered shall be valid and obligatory.

ARTICLE IX.

No amendment of the Canons shall be made during the session of the Convention in which the same shall be proposed, unless two-thirds of each order shall concur therein; but any amendment, if approved by a majority less than two-thirds, shall lie over for the consideration and final action of the next Annual Convention.

Canons.

ADOPTED IN CONVENTION, 1869.

CANON I.

Of a List of Ministers in the Diocese.

Section 1. Within one week before the meeting of every Convention of this Diocese, the Bishop shall prepare, or cause to be prepared, a list of all the Ministers canonically resident in this Diocese, annexing the names of their respective Cures, Parishes, Stations, or places of residence, designating those who are entitled to seats in the Convention; but no Clergyman while suspended from the Ministry, shall have a place on the said list. And such list shall be laid before the Convention on the first day of meeting, and be prefixed to the Journal.

Sec. 2. The right of any Clergyman of this Diocese to a seat in the Convention, shall, if disputed, be determined according to the provisions of the Third Article of the Constitution, by the Convention itself; whether his name be inserted in the list aforesaid or omitted.

CANON II.

Of the Members and Organization of the Convention.

Section 1. The evidence of the regular admission of a Clergyman into this Diocese shall consist in proof satisfactory to the Convention of a compliance with Section V. of Canon 15, of the Digest of the Canons of the General Convention; and the evidence of a settlement in a Church thereof shall consist in proof satisfactory to the Convention, of a compliance with the first and second sections of Canon 14.

Sec. 2. The appointment of a Lay Delegate to the Convention of this Diocese shall be certified in writing by the Rector of the Parish or Church of which he is a delegate, or by one of the Wardens, or by the Clerk of the Vestry, or Trustees, and the Certificate shall be forwarded by mail or, otherwise, to the Secretary not later than forty-eight hours before the meeting of the Convention. This Certificate shall state in all cases that the person so certified is entitled to vote for Wardens and Vestrymen—or would be so entitled if the Church which he is appointed to represent were not otherwise organized or incorporated—and that the said Parish or Church is not in arrears in payment of its assessment for the Diocesan Expense Fund, or (if it be in arrears) that it prays the Convention to remit the sum in arrears for the good and sufficient reasons presented in a paper annexed. The form of said certificate may be prescribed by the Convention, and when so prescribed no other certificate of the appointment of any Lay Delegate or Delegates to the Convention of this Diocese shall be allowed or received.

Sec. 3. At every Convention the Bishop shall take the Chair, and shall continue to preside during its sitting. He shall possess the usual powers of presiding officers in deliberative assemblies to preserve order and decorum, and shall decide all questions of order without debate, subject to an appeal to the House. He shall have the right to name any clerical member to perform the duties of the Chair, but such substitute shall not extend beyond an adjournment, unless directed by the House.

Sec. 4. In case of the absence or disability of the Bishop, or of a vacancy in the office, the senior clerical member of the Standing Committee present shall call the Convention to order and act as President Pro Tempore, and perform all the duties of President until the convention shall be organized and shall have elected a President.

Sec. 5. The President having taken the Chair, the Secretary of the preceding Convention shall call over the names of the Clergy entitled to seats in the Convention, and shall enter in the Journal the names of those who are present. The Standing Committee on Credentials shall then report to the Secretary the names of all Lay Delegates duly elected and entitled to seats in the Convention under the Canons. Any irregular or defective certificates shall be reserved until a quorum shall have appeared. The names of the Lay Delegates duly appointed shall then be called and the names of those who are present shall be entered on the Journal. The irregular and defective certificates shall be reported to the Convention as soon as it is duly organized, who shall decide on the admission of the delegates named in them.

Sec. 6. The presence of at least twenty Clergymen entitled to vote in the Convention, and of Delegates from at least twenty Congregations, shall be necessary to the transaction of business, except that a smaller number may adjourn from day to day.

Sec. 7. A quorum being found to be in attendance the President shall declare the Convention duly organized. The Secretary shall then be elected, who may nominate an Assistant Secretary, to be approved by the Convention.

Sec. 8. The Rules of Order of the preceding Annual Convention shall be the Rules of Order until altered by a vote of a majority of the Convention.

Canon III, IV.

CANON III.

Of the Call of a Convention.

Section 1. Notice of the meeting of any Convention shall be given by the Secretary in a printed letter, transmitted by mail at the expense of the Convention to every Clergyman in the Diocese, and to the Wardens in every vacant Parish, at least one month before the time of meeting. This letter shall contain a notice of the time and place of holding the Convention, extracts from the Constitution and Canons relating to the appointment of Lay Delegates, and a form of certificate of their election. Notice of the meeting shall also be inserted in any newspaper in which the Bishop may direct such insertion to be made.

Sec. 2. Whenever, under the provision of the Constitution, a special Convention is called for any particular purpose, it shall be the duty of the Secretary in the notice thereof to specify such purpose.

CANON IV.

Of the Admission of a Church into Union with the Church in this Diocese.

Section 1. To entitle a Church to admission into union with the Church in this Diocese, it is required that there be submitted to the Convention of the same, at a stated meeting: (1) A certificate from the Bishop, or in case of his absence or a vacancy in the Episcopate, of a major part of the Standing Committee, approving the incorporation of such a Church; (2) The certificate of incorporation duly proved and recorded, or a copy thereof certified by the Clerk of the County. But no such certificate shall be given by the Bishop or the majority of the Standing Committee save upon satisfactory evidence of the ability of such Church to pay and continue the sum of at least six hundred dollars a year for the support of a Rector or Missionary; and also that such Church contains at least thirty actual Communicants.

Sec. 2. Whenever, hereafter, any Church in union with this Convention, shall neglect, for three years in succession, to make a parochial report, no missionary report being made in its behalf; and during the same period shall not employ a Clergyman as its Parish Minister, nor obtain the services of a Missionary, nor make the stated monthly collections as required by Canon X of this Diocese, such Church shall be regarded as having forfeited its connection with the Convention, and be no longer entitled to representation in the same; and the Bishop shall report said Church to the Convention in his Annual Address; but any such Church may be readmitted on the recommendation of the Bishop and by a resolution of the Convention, and such readmission shall take effect from and after the rising of the Convention which shall have agreed to the same.

Canon V, VI.

CANON V.

Of the Secretary of the Convention.

Section 1. In addition to the duties imposed upon the Secretary by the Constitution and by Canon III, he shall be required to transmit annually to each of the Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, and to the Secretary of the House of Clerical and Lay Deputies in the General Convention, and to the Secretary of every Diocesan Convention a copy of the Journal of the Convention; and shall request the last to send copies of their respective Journals in exchange. He shall also transmit a copy to each Clergyman in the Diocese, and each Lay Delegate attending the Convention, and five copies to each Parish in the Diocese, one of which it shall be the duty of the Clerk of the Vestry to preserve with the Parish records.

Sec. 2. He shall also transmit to every General Convention, in addition to the documents mentioned in Section II, Canon IV of the Digest, a certificate to be signed by himself, containing a list of the Clergymen in this Diocese, and the amount of funds paid or secured to be paid (distinguishing them) to the General Theological Seminary; together with the nomination of Trustees of the Seminary; and also a certificate of the appointment of Clerical and Lay Deputies.

Sec. 3. Any expense incurred by a compliance with the several sections of this Canon shall be paid out of the Diocesan Fund.

Sec. 4. Whenever there shall be a vacancy in the office of Secretary of the Convention, the duties thereof shall devolve upon the Assistant Secretary, if there be one; if not, upon the Secretary of the Standing Committee.

CANON VI.

Of the Treasurer of the Diocese.

Section 1. At every Annual Convention there shall be chosen a Treasurer of the Diocese. It shall be his duty to receive and disburse all moneys collected under the authority of the Convention, and the collection and distribution of which shall not be otherwise regulated. He shall be subject to the direction of the Standing Committee in relation to the mode and place of depositing the funds received by him, and the manner of paying them out, and his accounts and books shall be at all times subject to the inspection of the Standing Committee or any member thereof. Before entering on the duties of his office he shall give a bond to the Standing Committee, in such penalty and with such surety as they shall direct, conditional for the faithful performance of his duties, and for the delivery over to his successor of all funds, securities, books and papers pertaining to his office.

Sec. 2. His accounts shall be reported to the appropriate Committee, according to Canon XIV.

Sec. 3. In case of a vacancy in the office the Standing Committee shall appoint a Treasurer, and the person so appointed shall continue to act until an election is made by the Convention. The Treasurer may be removed at any time from his office by the Standing Committee for any neglect or misconduct, of which they shall be judges.

CANON VII.Of Registers, Parochial Reports, and the Removal of Communicants from one Parish to Another

Section 1. The Parish Register, required by Section III, Canon 15, of the Digest, shall specify the name and the time of the birth of the child baptized with the names of the parents and sponsors; the name of the adult baptized; the names of the parties married, and of two or more special witnesses of the same, and the place where the marriage was solemnized; the names of the persons buried; and also the time when each rite was performed. These Registers shall be kept by the Minister in a book to be provided for that purpose belonging to the Vestry of each Church; which book shall be the Parish Register, and shall be preserved by the Vestry as a part of the Records of the Church.

Sec. 2. The Parish Register shall contain a list of the families and adult persons in the Cure as far as practicable, and also an accurate list of the persons confirmed from time to time.

Sec. 3. In every Parish and Missionary Station a list of the Communicants shall be kept which shall retain the names of all persons who shall have been admitted to the Holy Communion in that Parish or Station until they shall have ceased to be Communicants in the Cure by either (1) death, (2) removal or (3) repulsion and suspension or excommunication by competent authority. In the Annual Report of the Parish discrimination shall be made by means of separate items between those who shall have received the Holy Communion at least once within two years preceding such report, and all others whose names are on the list as above provided, but who shall not have received the Communion either in public or in private during the two years preceding the report, whatever may have been the occasion or cause of their neglect of their privilege and duty.

Sec. 4. The Annual Report shall also indicate all the additions to the list of Communicants during the past year, as well as the losses by death, removal, repulsion or suspension, as required by Section III, Canon 15, and Section I, Canon 47, of the Digest, and shall also contain, in addition to the value of churches and rectories, the amount of insurance thereon. Under the head of rector's salary and current expenses shall be included salary of ministers, choir expenses, wages of sexton, fuel and lights.

Sec. 5. In every case where a Parish is destitute of a Minister, the Register contemplated by this Canon shall be kept by the Wardens, or by some person appointed by the Vestry, whose duty it shall also be to prepare and forward to the Bishop the Annual Parochial Report.

Canon VIII.

Sec. 6. Communicants removing from one Parish to another in the Diocese, shall procure a certificate as provided for in Canon 39, Section I, of the Canons of the General Convention.

Sec. 7. The same rule shall apply in this Diocese to Communicants who may wish to be transferred, without changing their residence from the list of Communicants in one Parish, so as to be received as Communicants in any other Parish or in any other place of worship where the Holy Communion is habitually celebrated.

Sec. 8. No Rector or other Minister in charge of any Parish in this Diocese shall receive as an habitual Communicant, or enter upon the list of Communicants under his charge, the name of any person who has been a Communicant in any other Parish in the Diocese without such a certificate or Letter of Dismissal from the Parish to which said Communicant last belonged.

Sec. 9. Any communicant, not under censure or ecclesiastical discipline, shall be entitled to such a certificate or letter on application therefor to the Minister in charge of the Parish to which the Communicant belongs, and in case of a vacancy in the pastoral office of a Parish, and in case of any person under discipline the application shall be referred to the Bishop of the Diocese, or in the absence of the Bishop to the President of the Standing Committee in the Episcopal office, to the President of the Standing Committee, and the answer and decision of the Bishop or of the President of the Standing Committee, as above provided, shall be final and conclusive.

CANON VIII.

Of Deputies to the General Convention.

Section 1. The Convention shall, at its regular annual meeting next preceding the regular session of the General Convention, elect by the concurrent ballot of the Clerical and Lay Members, four clergymen and four laymen, who shall be Communicants of the Church and residents of the Diocese, to act as Deputies from the Diocese to the General Convention. In like manner the Convention shall elect four Clergymen and four Laymen as Provisional Deputies to act as hereinafter mentioned. The Deputies and Provisional Deputies shall hold their office during the term of four years.

Sec. 2. Any vacancy occurring among the Deputies or Provisional Deputies between the stated times of election may be supplied at any Convention during or prior to which such vacancy shall occur.

Sec. 3. It shall be the duty of the Deputies-elect to signify their acceptance of the appointment and their intention to perform the duties; in default of which, and in case of their inability or unwillingness to perform the duties of the appointment, all vacancies so occurring by resignations, sickness or death shall be filled by designation of the Bishop, from the list of the Clergymen and Laymen elected as Provisional Deputies, and such person or persons designated by the Bishop, being furnished with his certificate thereof, shall have all the power and authority of Deputies duly elected by the Convention.

Sec. 4. In case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, or of the inability of the Bishop to act, the power conferred upon the Bishop by this Canon shall be exercised by the President of the Standing Committee.

CANON IX

Of the Standing Committee.

Section 1. At every Annual Convention an election of a Standing Committee shall be made; which Committee shall consist of four of the Clergy and four of the Laity, to be chosen by ballot, and by the concurrent vote of each order, each Parish having one vote by its delegates. Vacancies in said Committee, occurring by death or otherwise, shall be supplied by the concurrent vote of the Clerical Members and Lay Members of the Committee.

Sec. 2. In case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, the powers and duties to be performed by the Bishop in matters of discipline, shall be performed by the Standing Committee, except in those cases where such powers and duties are or may be specially delegated to or enjoined upon the Clerical Members of said Committee; in which case such powers and duties shall be exercised by said Clerical Members alone; provided that no sentence shall be pronounced upon a Clergyman but by a Bishop.

Sec. 3. The Secretary of the Standing Committee shall keep a true record of their proceedings and report the same annually to the Diocesan Convention. He shall preserve all books, Journals and papers belonging to said committee, and transmit the same to his successor in office.

CANON X.

Of the Diocesan Missions and Offerings

Section 1. All members of the Church in the Diocese of Central New York constitute its Diocesan Missionary Society; and the Convention of the Diocese shall be the Diocesan Board of Missions.

Sec. II. For Missionary purposes the Diocese shall be divided into six districts, as follows:

First District—Jefferson and Lewis Counties.

Second District—Oneida County, the Village of Oneida, and all the rest of Madison County except the townships including the Parishes of Cazenovia, Canastota, Chittenango and Perryville.

Third District—Broome and Chenango Counties.

Fourth District—Onondaga, Oswego and Cortland Counties, and the townships of Madison County not included in the Second District.

Canon X.

Fifth District—Cayuga and Seneca Counties.

Sixth District—Chemung, Tioga and Tompkins Counties.

Sec. III 1. At the next meeting of the Board of Managers at the Convention of this Diocese held in June, 1905, or as soon thereafter as convenient, and every succeeding fourth year an Archdeacon shall be appointed by the Bishop, with the advice and consent of the Board of Managers.

He shall be in Priests' orders and shall hold his office for five years unless his incumbency be terminated sooner by resignation or otherwise.

He shall, under the direction of the Bishop, give his entire time to the missionary work of the Diocese. He shall receive a stated salary, together with his traveling expenses; the amount of salary and expenses to be determined by the Board of Managers and to be paid by the Treasurer of the Board of Missions from the Missionary Fund.

2. The principal officer of said Missionary District shall be called the Dean of the District. He shall be appointed every four years by the Bishop, from the Clergy of the District, at a nomination in a regular Convocation of the same. Under the Bishop he shall have the oversight of all Missionary work in his District.

3. Each Missionary District shall annually elect a Secretary and a Treasurer, at its first regular Convocation after the Annual Convention of the Diocese.

4. If the office of Dean of any Missionary District become vacant, by removal or otherwise, the Bishop shall appoint a successor for the remainder of the term.

Sec. IV. 1. In the general Missionary work of the Diocese, the Bishop shall be assisted by a Diocesan Board of Managers, consisting, together with the Bishop, of the Archdeacon, the Secretary of the Board and the Treasurer of the Diocese. The Archdeacon shall also be the Treasurer of the Board, the six Deans, and Clergymen and six Laymen, one of each from each Missionary District, to be elected severally by the Convocation of the District entitled to this representation. The Bishop shall preside at the meetings, and in his absence the Archdeacon shall preside.

2. The Diocesan Board of Managers shall consult for the promotion of the Missionary work of the Diocese. It shall, each year, through its Secretary, present to the Diocesan Board of Missions at its annual session, a report of the Missionary work of the Diocese during the Conventional year.

3. At each Annual Convention the Diocesan Board of Managers shall submit to the Diocesan Board of Missions for its action an estimate of the sum required for the Missionary work of the Diocese during the current year. Immediately after the adjournment of the Convention the Diocesan Board of Managers shall meet and determine how much of the money voted by the Diocese for its Missionary work shall be paid to the Diocesan Board of Missions.

Canon X.

ary work during the year shall be assessed to each District, and what part of it shall be given to the same for apportionment among its stipendiary Clergy. And this determination shall be published in the Journal of the Convention.

4. The Diocesan Board of Managers shall, through its Treasurer, prepare for publication in each Journal of the Convention, a table by districts, of all the Parishes and Missions in the Diocese, the sum assessed to each District to be raised for Diocesan Missionary work, the amount assessed by the District to each Parish and Mission for the same, and the sum actually given for this purpose by each Parish and Mission. It shall also contain the amount of Stipendiary Fund given to each district, together with the sum apportioned to each of its Stipendiary Parishes and Missions.

5. Other meetings of the Board of Managers shall be held at the call of the Bishop, or in a vacancy of the Episcopate, of the Archdeacon. Eleven members of the Board, including three Deans, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business; but no action of the Board shall be valid without the approval of the Bishop..

Sec. V. 1. Each Missionary District shall hold not less than two stated Convocations yearly. At the first of these, which shall be held as soon after the adjournment of the Annual Convention as the District may determine, appropriations shall be made by it in aid of the Missionary work in the said District under the advice or direction of the Bishop.

2. Each Parish and Missionary Station seeking aid from the Convocation shall make written application through its Vestry or Committee stating the facts necessary to a full understanding of the case, particularly the number of contributors and the amount pledged or secured in the Parish or Station for the support of the Minister.

3. Each Missionary District shall be represented in its Convocation by the Clergy canonically resident, and by two Lay Delegates from each of its Parishes and Missions.

4. Each Missionary District shall have power to assess upon its own Parishes and Missions whatever sum may canonically be required of it for the Missionary work of the Diocese, and all monies raised or collected for Diocesan Missions shall be promptly paid by the Treasurer of the District to the Treasurer of the Diocesan Board of Managers, and by him paid to the Missionaries on the order of the Treasurer of the District.

5. At least two weeks before the Annual Convention of the Diocese, the Secretary of each Missionary District shall make report of the year's work of the District to the Secretary of the Board of Managers, including the items called for in Section IV, 4, of this Canon.

6. Any missionary District may with the approval of the Bishop, undertake special Missionary work, provided it shall first have complied with all canonical requirements, and shall be free to make own regulations and conduct its own Missionary work in all not conflicting with the provisions of this Canon.

7. It shall be the duty of every Clergyman in charge of a Parish or Mission to attend all Convocations of his District, and to report to the same the Missionary work done in his Cure.

8. Every Clergyman receiving a stipend from the Board of Missions shall make in writing, according to a form prescribed by the Board, a quarterly report of his work to the Dean.

9. No Missionary shall receive his quarterly stipend until he has made the required report to the Dean.

Sec. VI. 1. Offerings shall be made systematically in the Parishes and Missions of the Diocese as follows:

For the Communion Alms on the first Sunday in each month.

For the Board of Missions, Domestic or General, on a Sunday after Advent.

For the Christmas Fund, on Christmas Day.

For the Board of Missions, Foreign or General, on a Sunday after the Epiphany

For the Bible and Prayer Book Society of Central New York or the Bible and Prayer Book Society of New York, in the discretion of the Minister, on Whit Sunday.

For the increase of the Ministry, on Easter, or some other convenient Sunday.

For the Mission among the Deaf-Mutes in the Diocese, on Twelfth Sunday after Trinity, or on the Sunday next before Advent.

2. Offerings for Diocesan Missions shall be made in every Parish and Mission in the Diocese on the third Sunday of each month, when one of the above named Sundays is not the third Sunday. All such offerings shall be forwarded promptly to the Treasurer of the District.

It is also recommended that the Minister of each Parish or Congregation, at the Episcopal visitation, ask an offering which shall be placed in the hands of the Bishop, to be used at his discretion for the benefit of needy persons, and which shall be called The Relief Fund of the Diocese.

CANON XI.

Of the Diocesan Expense Fund.

Section 1. In order to provide for the necessary expenses of the Diocese, it shall be the duty of the Treasurer of the Diocese to present to the Standing Committee on or before the fifteenth day of May in each year, an estimate of the amount money that will be needed during the ensuing year to meet the current expenses and expenses of the Convention, adding thereto the liabilities of the Diocese chargeable to said fund, if there be any.

Sec. 2. It shall be the duty of said Committee, upon receipt of this estimate, to assess this amount upon the Parishes and Churches of the Diocese, at the rate of an uniform per-cent. upon the amount last previously reported to the Convention and printed in the Journal under the head of "Rector's Salary and Current Expenses" as defined in Canon VII, Sec. 4, not including any amount that may have been given to the Parish or Church, or its Minister, by the Missionary Board of the Diocese, or by any other Missionary organization. And it shall be the duty of said Committee to report to the Convention the schedule of assessments thus apportioned and when the Convention shall have adopted the same, with such amendments as it may deem necessary, it shall be binding upon the Parishes and Churches, and shall be printed as an appendix to the Journal.

Sec. 3. The Treasurer shall notify each Parish and Church of the quota thus assigned to it, and it shall be the duty of the Rector, Wardens, and Vestrymen of each Parish or Church, or the Minister and Trustees—if there be no Rector, Wardens and Vestrymen—to see that the amount thus due the Diocese, be forwarded to the Treasurer in quarterly installments, so that the whole amount be paid before the first day of May in each year.

Sec. 4. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer to present to the Secretary of the Convention, at the opening of each Session, a list of such Parishes or Churches as are in arrears to the Diocesan Expense Fund with the amount of such arrears, that the same may be placed in the hands of the Committee on Credentials of Lay Delegates, and each such Parish or Church, shall be excluded from representation in the Convention, until such arrears are paid in full, unless the sum in arrears be remitted by the Convention itself, for reasons which are satisfactory to the Convention.

CANON XII.

Of Clergy Relief.

Section 1. All moneys raised or contributed for the Relief of Disabled Clergy and the Widows and Orphans of Deceased Clergy, shall be paid to the Corporation known as "The Trustees of the Christmas Fund of the Diocese of Central New York." And it shall be the duty of the Convention at each of its annual meetings to nominate by ballot one person to act as Trustee in the said corporation to fill the vacancy which by the by-laws of said corporation will then occur, and to nominate in like manner other persons to fill any other vacancies in the said board that may have occurred during the year since the last Annual Convention.

Sec. 2. In every Parish in the Diocese there shall be made annually, on Christmas day, or Quinquagesima Sunday, a collection for the relief of Disabled Clergy, and for the benefit of Widows and

Canon XIII.

Orphans of Deceased Clergy. It shall be the duty of every Clergyman to give due notice of this collection to the Congregation, and of the Wardens of every Parish to forward the same to the Treasurer of the Christmas Fund.

Sec. 3. All appropriations for the Relief of Disabled Clergy, except such as are provided for in Canon XXI of this Diocese, shall be made by the Trustees of the General Clergy Relief Fund, acting under the terms of an agreement entered into [date] by the Bishop of the Diocese, the Trustees of the Christmas Fund and the Trustees of the General Clergy Relief Fund.

Sec. 4. All appropriations for the benefit of the widow or children of a deceased Clergyman shall be made by the Trustees of the General Clergy Relief Fund, acting under the terms of an agreement entered into [date] by the Bishop of the Diocese, the Trustees of the Christmas Fund and the Trustees of the General Clergy Relief Fund.

Sec. 5. All moneys belonging to the Fund shall be loaned by the said Trustees upon security upon real estate to an amount not exceeding seventy per cent. of the appraised value of the property, inclusive of buildings, with proper insurance on the buildings, the appraisal to be made by an appraiser appointed by the Trustees for the purpose, or said moneys may be held and invested in securities of this State, or of the United States; and all securities or investments shall be taken or made in the names of said Trustees and their successors in office, as Trustees of the Fund; and they shall have the power from time to time to change such securities or investments.

Sec. 6. A statement of the proceedings of said Trustees of the Christmas Fund, exhibiting the condition of the Fund hereby entrusted to their charge, together with the items of receipts and disbursements, with the vouchers thereof, shall be reported to the appropriate committee according to Canon XIV, signed by said Trustees or a majority of them.

CANON XIII.

Of the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate.

Section 1. There shall be five Trustees appointed by the Convention to whom the management and care of the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate in this Diocese shall be entrusted. It shall be the duty of the said Trustees to appoint a President and Secretary; and no act of said Trustees shall be valid unless authorized by a resolution adopted at a regular meeting of said Trustees by a majority of the same and recorded by their Secretary in a book to be kept as the record of their proceedings, and to be opened to the inspection of the Convention. The said Trustees shall hold their office during the pleasure of the Convention; and all vacancies occurring in said Board of Trustees shall from time to time be filled by the Convention.

Sec. 2. All moneys belonging to the Fund for the support of the Episcopate shall be loaned by the said Trustees upon securities on real estate to an amount not exceeding seventy per cent. of the appraised value of the property, inclusive of buildings, with proper insurance on the buildings; the appraisal to be made by one appraiser, appointed by the Trustees for that purpose, or said moneys may be held and invested in securities of this State or of the United States; or in any securities in which Savings Banks are authorized to invest the monies deposited with them under the laws of this State; and all securities or investments shall be taken or made in the names of the said Trustees and their successors in office as Trustees of said Fund; and they shall have power from time to time to change such securities and investments.

Sec. 3. The salary of the Bishop shall be paid quarterly, by the Treasurer of the Diocese, on the first days of July, October, January and April, in each fiscal year, and the Trustees of the Episcopate Fund shall remit the amount thereof to such Treasurer quarterly out of the income of the Fund, and the receipt of said Treasurer shall be a proper voucher for said Trustees in rendering their annual report to the Convention of this Diocese. Any excess of income over and above the amount of such salary shall be held and invested by said Trustees as an auxiliary and supplementary Fund, and applied as occasion may require; first, to make good any deficiency of income in succeeding years, and second, to make good any losses or deficiencies in the principal should any such occur; or third, to augment the principal should the Convention so order.

Sec. 4. With a view to the further increase of the principal of the said Fund, such portions of the contributions of the Diocese as may be given or appropriated for that purpose shall be paid by the Treasurer of the Convention to the order of the said Trustees, to be invested by them for accumulation and without diminution, until the further order of the Convention; and all moneys remaining in the hands of said Trustees for investment shall be deposited in some safe bank in this State, to the credit of the President and Secretary of the Board

Sec. 5. A statement of the proceedings of said Trustees, exhibiting the condition of the Fund hereby entrusted to their charge, together with the items of receipts and disbursements, with the vouchers thereof, shall be reported to the appropriate Committee according to Canon XIV.

CANON XIV.

Of the Fiscal Year and Financial Reports

Section 1. The fiscal year of the Diocese shall begin on the first day of May annually, and end on the thirtieth day of April following. And the Treasurer of the Diocese and all Trustees having in charge any funds belonging to the Diocese shall annually make their reports to the appropriate Standing Committees on or before the fifteenth of May in each year.

Sec. 2. Standing Committees shall be appointed at each Annual Canon XV, XVII.

Convention to consider and report to the Annual Convention next ensuing, as follows:

1. On the Accounts of the Treasurer of the Diocese, consisting of three Laymen.
2. On the Report of the Trustees of the Fund for the support of the Episcopate, consisting of three Laymen.
3. On the report of the Trustees of the Christmas Fund, consisting of three Laymen.
4. On the Report of the Trustees of the Parochial Fund, consisting of three Laymen.
5. On the Report of the Trustee of the Van Wagenen Missionary Fund, consisting of one Clergyman and two Laymen.

Sec. 3. It shall be the duty of each of these several committees to meet in each year at some time between the fifteenth of May and the meeting of the next Annual Convention, at the place where the Treasurer resides, or where the funds are held, and make an examination into all books, papers, vouchers, etc., relating to the respective funds held by the Treasurer or Trustees, and prepare a report to be presented to the Annual Convention next ensuing. An abstract of each report with such resolutions as may be proposed, and reports of the Standing Committees constituted by this Canon shall be furnished to the Secretary of the Convention in time to permit him to cause the same to be printed, and sent to the Clergy and the Delegates, one week before the meeting of the Convention.

CANON XV.

Of Vacant Churches.

Section 1. Whenever a Church becomes vacant it shall be the duty of the Vestry to give immediate notice thereof to the Bishop.

Sec. 2. The Bishop shall appoint those of the Clergy in the Diocese, who can with most convenience discharge the duty, to supply such vacant Parishes as have been reported to him, at such times as may be deemed convenient and proper. It shall be the duty of such vacant Churches thus supplied to defray all the expenses incident to such occasional services.

CANON XVI.

Of Elections.

Section 1. All the Officers of the Convention shall be elected by ballot. Election by ballot may be dispensed with by an unanimous vote of the Convention. And when an election is by ballot, a majority of the votes in each order shall be necessary to a valid election.

Sec. 2. To facilitate the stated election by ballot, the Secretary shall provide sheets of paper with printed headings, containing the titles of the various offices to be filled by ballot, for the use of the members of the Convention; and all such officers may be voted for at one balloting. No printed ballots shall be allowed.

Sec. 3. In all cases of failure or omission to elect officers by the Convention, the persons last elected shall continue in office until others be chosen.

Sec. 4. In case of vacancies in office, occurring during recess, it shall be competent for the Standing Committee, with the approval of the Bishop, to fill, ad interim, any position which the Convention, if in session, might fill.

CANON XVII.Of Attending the Meetings of the Convention.

Section 1. Whereas, the regular attendance of the Clergy and Laity at the meetings of the Convention is of essential consequence to the interests of the Church, this duty is hereby enjoined upon them.

Sec. 2. And whereas it is often necessary to travel a considerable distance to the place of meeting of the Convention, it is hereby made the duty of the different Parishes to make provision for the Travelling expenses of their Clergy in attending the Convention, either by a collection in Church on Sunday, or by some other mode. The Clergy attending Convention shall be entertained at hotels, and the expense of such entertainment shall be provided through an assessment of $250, which shall be added each year to the budget of the Diocesan Expense Fund, and the Parish in which the Convention is held shall be entitled to draw upon the Treasurer of the Diocese for the expenses of such entertainment to an amount not exceeding the aforesaid $250.

Sec. 3. No member of this Convention shall leave the same during its session without having applied for and received leave of absence.

CANON XVIII.Of the Trial of a Clergyman not being a Bishop.

Whenever any Minister of the Diocese, not being a Bishop thereof, shall become liable to presentment and trial under the provisions of any Canon of the General or Diocesan Convention, the mode of proceedings in this Diocese shall be as follows, viz.:

Section 1. The trial shall be on a presentment in writing, addressed to the Bishop of the Diocese, specifying the offenses of which the accused is alleged to be guilty, with reasonable certainty as to time, place and circumstances. Such presentment may be made by the major part in number of the members of the Vestry of any Church of which the accused is a Minister, or by any three Presbyters of this Diocese entitled to seats in the Convention or as hereinafter mentioned. Whenever from public rumor, or otherwise Bishop shall have reason to believe that any Clergyman is under imputation of having been guilty of any offense or misconduct which he is liable to be tried, and that the interest of the Church requires an investigation, it shall be his duty to appoint five of whom three at least shall be Presbyters, to examine the majority of whom may make such examination; and if their opinion, sufficient ground for presentment, shall present Clergyman accordingly.

Sec. 2. A presentment being made in any of the modes prescribed, the Bishop, if the facts charged shall not appear to be such as to constitute an offense, may dismiss it; or if in fact some of which do, and some of which do not constitute an offense, he may allow it in part and dismiss the residue, or permit it to be amended. When it shall be allowed in whole or in part, the Bishop shall cause a copy of it to be served on the accused, and shall also nominate twelve Presbyters of this Diocese entitled to seats in the Convention, and not being parties to the presentment, and cause a list of their names to be served on the accused, who shall, within thirty days after such service, select of them and notify their names in writing to the Bishop; and if they shall not give such notification to the Bishop within the said days, the Bishop shall select five, and the Presbyters so selected shall form a board for the trial of the accused, and shall meet at such time and place as the Bishop shall direct, and shall have power to adjourn, from time to time and from place to place, in any ways within the Diocese, as they shall think necessary.

Sec. 3. A written notice of the time and place of their first meeting shall be served at least thirty days before such meeting on the accused, and also on one of the persons making the presentment.

Sec. 4. If at the time appointed for the first meeting of the Board of Presbyters, the whole number of five shall not attend, those who do attend may adjourn from time to time; and if after one adjournment or more it shall appear to them improbable that the whole number will attend within a reasonable time, then those who do attend, not being less than three, shall constitute the Board, and proceed to the trial and a majority of them shall decide all questions.

Sec. 5. If a Clergyman presented shall confess the truth of the facts alleged in the presentment, it shall be the duty of the Board to proceed to pass sentence; and if he shall not confess the truth before the appointment of a Board for his trial as before mentioned, he shall be considered as denying them.

Sec. 6. If a Clergyman presented, after having due notice, shall not appear before the Board of Presbyters appointed for his trial, the Board may nevertheless proceed as if he were present, and for good cause they shall see fit to adjourn until another day.

Sec. 7. When the Board proceeds to the trial, they shall receive such evidence as shall be produced; which evidence shall duced to writing and signed by the witnesses respectively; and some officer authorized by law to administer oaths may, at the desire of either party, be requested to administer an oath or affirmation to the witnesses, that they will testify the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, concerning the facts charged in the presentment. If on or during the trial, the accused shall confess the truth of the charges as stated in the presentment, the Board may dispense with hearing further evidence, and may proceed at once to state their opinion to the Bishop as to the sentence that ought to be pronounced.

Sec. 8. Upon the application of either party to the Bishop, and it being made satisfactorily to appear to him that any material witness can not be procured upon the trial, the Bishop may appoint a commissary to take the testimony of such witness. Such commissary may be either a Clergyman or a Layman, and the party so applying shall give to the other at least six days' notice of the time and place of taking the testimony. And if the person on whom the notice shall be served shall reside more than forty miles from the place of examination, an additional day's notice shall be given for every twenty miles of the said distance. And both parties may attend and examine the witness; and the questions and answers shall be reduced to writing and signed by the witness, and shall be certified by the commissary and enclosed under his seal and transmitted to the Board, and shall be received by them as evidence. A witness examined before such commissary may be sworn or affirmed in manner aforesaid.

Sec. 9. The Board having deliberately considered the evidence, shall declare in writing, signed by them or a majority of them, their decision on the charges contained in the presentment, distinctly stating whether the accused is guilty or not guilty of such charges respectively, and also stating the sentence which in their opinion should be pronounced; and a copy of such decision shall be without delay communicated to the accused; and the original decision, together with evidence, shall be delivered to the Bishop, who shall pronounce such canonical sentence as shall appear to him to be proper, provided the same shall not exceed in severity the sentence recommended by the Board; and such sentence shall be final. Before pronouncing any sentence the Bishop shall summon the accused and any three or more of the Clergy, to meet him at such time as may in his opinion be most convenient, in some Church to be designated by him, which shall for that purpose be opened at the time to all persons who may choose to attend, and the sentence shall then and there be publicly pronounced by the Bishop. But the Bishop, if he shall be satisfied that justice requires it, may grant a new trial to the accused, in which case a new Board of Presbyters shall be appointed, the proceedings before whom shall be conducted as before mentioned.

Sec. 10. All notices and papers contemplated in this Canon may be served by a summoner or summoners, to be appointed for the purpose by the Bishop, and whose certificate of such service shall be evidence thereof. In case of service by any other person, the fact shall be proved by the affidavit of such person. A written notice or paper delivered to a party, or left at his last place of residence, shall be deemed a sufficient service of such notice or paper—provided, however, that the service, if not personal, shall be a notice of at least sixty days.

Sec. 11. The accused may have the privilege of appearing by counsel; in case of the exercise of which privilege, and not otherwise; those who present shall have like privilege; which counsel shall in all cases be members of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

Sec. 12. The record of all proceedings upon a presentment of a Clergyman, shall be preserved by the Standing Committee; and for that purpose shall, after final decision be delivered to their Secretary.

CANON XIX.Of the Chancellor of the Diocese.

The Bishop may nominate for the approval of the Convention a person skilled in ecclesiastical and civil law to be the Chancellor of the Diocese, whose office shall be to act as legal adviser and counsellor to the Bishop, the Standing Committee, ecclesiastical courts and the Convention, when called upon to do so.

CANON XX.Of Parochial Limits.

No Parish of this Church shall be organized in any town, city or village where one already exists, without the consent of the Bishop and Standing Committee of the Diocese, and no edifice for public worship shall be erected by said Parish within one-half mile of the Church building already in existence.

CANON XXI.Of the Retirement of a Minister from the Active Duties of his Office.

Any Clergyman of this Diocese, in good standing who has reached the age of sixty-five years, and desires to retire from the active duties of the Ministry by reason of disability shall, on the recommendation of the Bishop, if in his judgment such Clergyman shall be in need of such pension, be entitled upon his retirement, to receive a pension of $500 per annum, payable quarterly by the Treasurer provided he has been engaged twenty years in the work of the Ministry in this Diocese. The amount needed for such pension shall be added to the Diocesan Expense Fund.

GENERAL RULES.

- IV. Every member who shall be present when a question is stated from the Chair shall vote thereon, unless excused by the House.

Rules of Order.

V. No motion shall be put or debated until it is seconded, and when seconded it shall be stated by the President before the debate; and every motion shall be reduced to writing when required by the President or any member.

VI. If the question in debate contains several distinct propositions, any member may have the same divided.

VII. When a question is under debate no motion shall be received, except to lay it on the table; to postpone it indefinitely; to postpone it to a certain time; to commit it, or amend it; and motions for either of these purposes shall have precedence in the order here named. But a motion to adjourn shall always be in order when no member is speaking, and shall be decided without debate; and if it be negatived shall not be renewed until some other business has intervened.

VIII. A motion to lay on the table shall be decided without debate; but any matter thus laid on the table may be called up again during the same session on the motion of any member who voted in the affirmative.

IX. On the question being put by the President it shall be determined by the sound of voices, for or against it; but any member may require a count of the votes, and tellers for that purpose shall be appointed by the Chair—or any three votes may, previous to a decision by count, require the ayes and noes to be taken, which shall be done by calling the names of the Clerical members and the Churches represented, and the votes shall be entered in the Journal.

X. Any five votes may require the ayes and nays to be taken by orders, and when so taken they shall be entered on the minutes.

XI. No member shall speak more than twice on the same question without leave of the House.

XII. A question being decided shall not be reconsidered during the same session without the consent of two-thirds of the votes of the Convention; nor without the motion for that purpose being made by one of the majority on the prior decision; nor shall any question be reconsidered more than once.

XIII. All Reports of Committees shall be in writing, and shall, upon reading or presentation of the same, become the property of the Convention without any motion for acceptance, and any report recommending action by the Convention shall be accompanied with a Resolution.

XIV. All Special Committees shall be appointed by the Chair, unless otherwise specially directed by the House; in which case they shall be appointed by ballot.

XV. No standing rule or order shall be suspended, changed or rescinded without one day's previous notice of a motion to that effect, unless by the vote of two-thirds of the persons present entitled to vote.

XVI. Before the final adjournment of any session of the Convention the Minutes of the last day's proceedings shall be read, corrected and approved.

XVII. Unless otherwise ordered by the Convention, it shall meet at 9 o'clock in the morning; take a recess from 1 to 3 o'clock in the afternoon, and from 6 to 7:30 in the evening.

APPENDIX VI.

Extract from the Laws of New York Relating to Protestant Episcopal Churches. Chapter XLII of the General Laws.

(AS AMENDED TO DATE.)

The Religious Corporations Law.

Article. II. Special Provisions for the Incorporation and Government of Protestant Episcopal Parishes or Churches.

Section 30. The Meeting for Incorporation.

31. The Certificate of Incorporation.
32. Corporate Trustees; Vestry; powers and duties thereof.
33. Annual Elections.
34. Changing the number of Vestrymen of parishes hereafter incorporated.
35. Changing date of annual elections, number and terms of Office of Vestrymen and terms of Churchwardens of Parishes heretofore incorporated.
36. Changing the qualifications of voters and the qualifications of Wardens and Vestrymen.

Section 30. The meeting for incorporation.—Notice of a meeting for the purpose of incorporating an unincorporated Protestant Episcopal Parish or Congregation, and of electing the first Churchwardens and Vestrymen thereof, shall specify the object, time and place of such meeting, and shall be made public for at least two weeks prior to such meeting, either by open reading of such notice in time of divine service, at the usual place of worship of such Parish or Congregation, or by posting the same conspicuously on the outer door of such place of worship.

Only men of full age who have been regular attendants at the worship of such Parish or Congregation and contributors to the support thereof for one year next prior to such meeting, or since the establishment of such Parish or Congregation, shall be qualified to vote at such meeting.

The presence of at least six persons qualified to vote thereat shall be necessary to constitute a quorum of such meeting. The action of the meeting upon any matter or question shall be decided by a majority of the qualified voters voting thereon, a quorum being present.

The officiating Minister, or if there be none, or he shall be necessarily absent, any other person qualified to vote at the meeting, who is called to the Chair, shall preside thereat. Such presiding officer shall receive the votes, be the judge of the qualifications of voters and declare the result of the votes cast at such meeting.

The polls of the meeting shall remain open for one hour or longer, in the discretion of the presiding officer, or, if required, by a vote of a majority of the voters present.

The meeting shall decide whether such unincorporated Parish or Congregation shall become incorporated. If such decision be in favor of incorporation, such meeting shall decide upon the name of the proposed corporation; what secular day of the week, beginning with the first Sunday in Advent, shall be the date of the regular annual election; whether the Vestrymen thereof shall be three, six or nine; and shall elect by ballot from the persons qualified to be voters thereat, who have been baptized, one-third of the number of Vestrymen so decided upon to hold office until the first annual election to be held thereafter, one-third of such number to hold office until one year after such annual election, and one-third of such number to hold office until two years after such annual election; and shall elect from such qualified voters who are Communicants in the Protestant Episcopal Church, two persons to be Churchwardens thereof; one to hold office until such annual election, and one to hold office until one year after such annual election.

Sec. 2. Section thirty-one of said article is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Sec. 31. The Certificate of Incorporation.—If such meeting shall decide in favor of incorporation and comply with the next preceding section, the presiding officer of such meeting and at least two other persons present and voting thereat, shall execute and acknowledge a certificate of incorporation setting forth:

1. The fact of the calling and holding of such meeting;
2. The name of the corporation as decided upon thereat;
3. The county and the town, city or village in which its principal place of worship is, or is intended to be located;
4. The day of the week, commencing with the first Sunday in

The Religious Corporations Law.

Advent, upon which the annual election shall be held;

5. The number of Vestrymen decided upon at such meeting;

6. The names of the Vestrymen elected at such meeting and the term of office of each;

7. The names of the Churchwardens elected at such meeting, and term of office of each.

On filing such certificate in the office of the Clerk of the County, so specified therein, the Churchwardens and Vestrymen so elected and their successors in office, together with the Rector, when there is one, shall form a Vestry and shall be the Trustees of such Church or Congregation; and they and their successors shall thereupon, by virtue of this act be a body corporate by the name or title expressed in such certificate, and shall have power, from time to time, to adopt by-laws for its govern*ance.

Such corporation shall be an Incorporated Church, and may be termed also an Incorporated Parish.

Sec. 3. Section thirty-two of said article is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Sec. 32. Corporate Trustees; Vestry; powers and duties thereof.—No meeting of the Vestry or Trustees of any incorporated Protestant Episcopal Parish or Church, shall be held unless either all the members thereof are present, or three days' notice thereof shall be given to each member thereof, by the Rector in writing either personally or by mail; or, if there be no Rector or he be incapable of acting, by one of the Churchwardens; except that twenty-four hours' notice of the first meeting of the Vestry or Trustees after an annual election, shall be sufficient, provided such meeting be held within three days after the election.

To constitute a quorum of the Vestry or Board of Trustees there must be present either:

1. The Rector, at least one of the Churchwardens, and a majority of the Vestrymen, or

2. The Rector, both Churchwardens and one less than a majority of the Vestrymen, or

3. If the Rector be absent from the Diocese and shall have been so absent for over four calendar months, or if the meeting be called by the Rector and he be absent therefrom, or be incapable of acting, one Churchwarden and a majority of the Vestrymen, or both Churchwardens and one less than a majority of the Vestrymen,

But if there be a Rector of the Parish, no measure shall be taken, in his absence, in any case for effecting the sale or disposition of the real property of the corporation, nor for the sale or disposition of the capital or principal of the personal property of the corporation, nor shall any act be done which shall impair the rights of such Rector.

*So in the original.

The Religious Corporations Law.

The presiding officer of the Vestry or Trustees shall be the Rector, or if there be none, or he be absent, the Churchwarden who shall be called to the chair by a majority of the votes, if both the Churchwardens be present; or the Churchwarden present if but one be present.

At each meeting of the Vestry or Trustees each member thereof shall be entitled to one vote.

The Vestry shall have power to fill a vacancy occurring in the office of a Churchwarden or Vestryman by death, resignation or otherwise than by expiration of term, until the next annual election at which, if such vacancy would continue thereafter, it shall be filled for the remainder of the unexpired term.

The Vestry may, subject to the Canons of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, and of the Diocese in which the Parish or Church is situated, by a majority vote, elect a Rector to fill a vacancy occurring in the Rectorship of the Parish, and may fix the salary or compensation of the Rector.

Sec. 4. Section thirty-three of said act is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Sec. 33. Annual Elections of Incorporated Protestant Episcopal Parishes.—The annual election of a Protestant Episcopal Parish, hereafter incorporated, shall be held on the secular day in the week commencing with the first Sunday in Advent, designated in its certificate of incorporation. The annual election of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal Parish or Church hertofore incorporated shall be held on the day fixed for such annual election, by or in pursuance of law, or if no such date be so fixed, then on the Monday next after the first Sunday in Advent.

Notice of such annual election shall be read by the Rector of the Parish, or if there be none, or he be absent, by the officiating Minister or by a Churchwarden thereof, on each of the two Sundays next preceding such election, in the time of divine service, or if, for any reason, the usual place of worship of the Parish be not open for divine service, the notice shall be posted conspicuously on the outer door of the place of worship for two weeks next preceding the election.

Such notice shall specify the place, day and hour of holding the election, the name and term of office of each Churchwarden and Vestryman whose term of office shall then expire, or whose office shall then be vacant for any cause, and the office for which each such officer is to be then elected.

The presiding officer of such meeting shall be the Rector thereof, if there be one, or if there be none, or he be absent, one of the

The Religious Corporations Law.

Churchwardens elected for the purpose by a majority of the duly qualified voters present, or if no Churchwarden be present, a vestryman elected in like manner. Such presiding officer shall be the judge of the qualifications of the voters; shall receive the votes cast and shall declare the result of the votes cast at such election. The presiding officer of such meeting shall enter the proceedings of the meeting in the book of the minutes of the vestry, sign his name thereto, and offer the same to as many qualified voters present as he shall think fit, to be also signed by them.

Only men of full age belonging to the Parish, who have been regular attendants at its worship and contributors to its support for at least twelve months prior to such election, or since the establishment of such Parish, shall be qualified voters at any such election. The action of the meeting upon any matter or question shall be decided by a majority of the qualified voters voting thereon. The polls of the election shall continue open for one hour, and longer, at the discretion of the presiding officer, or, if required, by a vote of a majority of the qualified voters present and voting.

The Churchwardens and Vestrymen shall be elected by ballot from persons qualified to vote at such election, and no person shall be eligible for election as Churchwarden unless he be also a communicant in the Protestant Episcopal Church, nor be eligible for election as Vestryman unless he shall have been baptized.

At each annual election of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal Parish hereafter incorporated, one Churchwarden shall be elected to hold office for two years; and one-third of the total number of Vestrymen of the Parish shall be elected to hold office for three years. At each annual election of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal Parish or Church heretofore incorporated, two Churchwardens and the total number of its Vestrymen shall be elected to hold office for one year thereafter, unless the terms of office of but one Churchwarden or of but one-third of its Vestrymen shall then expire, in which case one Churchwarden shall be elected to hold office for two years, and one-third of the total number of its Vestrymen shall be elected to hold office for three years. Each Churchwarden and Vestryman shall hold office after the expiration of his term until his successor shall be chosen.

Sec. 5. Section thirty-four of said article is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Sec. 34. Changing the number of Vestrymen of Protestant Episcopal Parishes hereafter incorporated.—If the Vestry of a Protestant Episcopal Parish, hereafter incorporated, shall, by resolution recommend that the number of Vestrymen of such Parish be changed to either three, six or nine Vestrymen, notice of such recommendation shall be included in the notice of the next annual meeting of such Parish and be submitted to the meeting. If such recommendation be ratified by such meeting, the presiding officer thereof, and at least two qualified voters present thereat, shall execute and acknowledge a certificate setting forth such resolution.

the Vestry, the fact that notice thereof had been given with the notice of such annual election; that the meeting had ratified the same; and the number of Vestrymen so decided on. Such certificate shall be filed in the office of the Clerk of the County in which the original certificate of incorporation is filed and recorded, and such change in the number of Vestrymen shall take effect at the time of the next annual election thereafter.

If the number of Vestrymen be thereby increased, then, in addition to the number of Vestrymen to be elected at such annual election one-third of such increased number of Vestrymen shall be elected to hold office for one year thereafter, one-third of such increased number shall be elected to hold office for two years thereafter, and one-third of such increased number shall be elected to hold office for three years thereafter.

If the number of Vestrymen by such change be reduced, such reduction shall not effect the term of office of any Vestryman duly elected and at such next annual election, and at each annual election thereafter, one-third of such reduced number of Vestrymen shall be elected to hold office for three years.

Sec. 6. Section thirty-five of said article is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Sec. 35. Changing date of annual election, number and terms of office of Vestrymen and terms of office of Churchwardens in Protestant Episcopal Churches heretofore incorporated.—If the Vestry of a Protestant Episcopal Parish, heretofore incorporated, shall, by resolution, recommend that the date of the Annual Election be changed to a secular day in the week, beginning with the first Sunday in Advent, or that the number of Vestrymen be changed to three, six or nine, and that the terms of office of the Churchwardens be changed so that one warden shall be elected annually, notice of such recommendation or recommendations shall be included in the notice of the next Annual Election of such Parish and be submitted to such meeting. If such recommendation or recommendations be ratified at such meeting, the presiding officer thereof and at least two qualified voters present thereat, shall execute and acknowledge a certificate setting forth such resolution of the vestry; the fact that notice thereof had been given with the notice of the annual election; that such meeting had ratified the same; the date determined upon for the annual election of the Parish; the number of Vestrymen so decided on, and the fact that the meeting determined to thereafter elect Churchwardens so that the term of one Warden shall expire annually.

Such certificate shall be filed in the office of the Clerk of the County in which the original certificate of incorporation is filed and recorded. If the meeting determined to change the date of the annual election, the next annual election shall be held on the day in the week beginning, with the first Sunday in Advent, determined on by such meeting, and the terms of the Vestrymen and Churchwardens which, pursuant to law, would expire at the next annual election, shall expire, and their successors shall be elected on such day.

If the meeting determine to change the number of Vestrymen and manner of electing Wardens and Vestrymen, there shall be elected at the first annual election thereafter, one-third of the number of Vestrymen so determined on, to hold office for three years, one-third thereof to hold office for two years, and one-third thereof to hold office for one year; and one Churchwarden to hold office for one year, and one to hold for two years; and thereafter at the annual election there shall be elected one-third of the number of Vestrymen determined on at such meeting and one Churchwarden.

Sec. 7. Section thirty-six of said article is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Sec. 36. Changing the qualification of voters and the qualifications of Wardens and Vestrymen.—If the Vestry of a Protestant Episcopal Parish heretofore incorporated shall, by resolution, recommend that the qualifications of voters and the qualifications of Wardens and Vestrymen be changed to conform in both cases to the requirement of sections thirty-three of this statute, notice of such recommendation or recommendations shall be included in the notice of the next annual election of such Parish, and be submitted to the meeting. If such recommendation or recommendations be ratified by such meeting the presiding officer thereof and at least two qualified voters present thereat shall execute and acknowledge a certificate setting forth such resolution of the Vestry, the fact that notice thereof had been given with the notice of such annual election, and that the meeting had ratified the same.

Such certificate shall be filed in the office of the Clerk of the County in which the original certificate of incorporation is filed and recorded.

Sec. This act shall take effect immediately.

(2) An Act to Amend the Religious Corporations Law.
Became a Law April 19, 1900,

Section 1. Section eleven of Article one of Chapter seven hundred and twenty-three of the laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-five, entitled "An act in relation to religious corporations, constituting chapter forty-two of the general laws," and known as the religious corporations law, as amended by chapter three hundred and thirty-six of the laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-six is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Sec. 11. Sale, mortgage and lease of real property of religious corporations.—A religious corporation shall not sell or mortgage any of its real property without applying for and obtaining leave of the court therefor pursuant to the provisions of the code of civil procedure. The Trustees of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal Church shall not vote upon any resolution or proposition for the sale mortgage or lease of its real property unless the Rector of such Church, if it then has a Rector, shall be present, and shall not make application to the court for leave to sell or mortgage any of its real property without the consent of the Bishop and Standing Committee of the Diocese to which such Church belongs; but in case the See be vacant, or the Bishop be absent or unable to act, the consent of the Standing Committee, with their certificate of the vacancy of the See or of the absence or disability of the Bishop shall suffice. * * * The petition of the Trustees of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal Church * * * shall, in addition to the matters required by the code of civil procedure to be set forth therein, set forth that this section has also been complied with. But lots, plots or burial permits in a cemetery, owned by a religious corporation may be sold without applying for or obtaining leave of the court. No cemetery lands of a religious corporation shall be mortgaged while used for cemetery purposes.

Sec. 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

(3.) Form of Certificate of Incorporation.

To all whom these presents may Concern:

We, the undersigned, whose names and seals are affixed to this instrument, do hereby certify, that on the [Second] day of [June] in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and [ninety five], the men of full age, belonging to the Church or Congregation in communion with the Protestant Episcopal Church in the State of New York worshipping in [the School House of School District Number (3) in the Town of Verona, in the County of Oneida, in the State of New York,] not already incorporated, met at their usual place of worship aforesaid, for the purpose of incorporating themselves under the Act of the Legislature of the State of New York, entitled "An Act in relation to Religious Corporations, constituting chapter forty-two of the general laws, in pursuance of notice duly given specifying the object of the meeting, and the time and place thereof which had been publicly read in the time of morning service, on two Sundays next previous to such meeting, by * [the Rector] at the usual place of worship of such Parish or Congregation, and which was also posted in a conspicuous place on the outer door near the main entrance to such place of worship.

And we further certify that at such meeting, not less than six men of full age, belonging to the Church or Congregation aforesaid, and not already incorporated, and duly qualified to vote at such meeting, met for the purpose aforesaid.

And we further certify that † [the Rev John Williams, the Rector

Incorporation of Free Churches.

(1) An Act for the Incorporation of Societies to Establish Free Churches. Passed April 30, 1854.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly do enact as follows:

Section 1. Any seven or more persons of full age, citizens of the United States, and a majority of them being residents of this State, who shall associate themselves for the purpose of founding and continuing one or more Free Churches, may make, sign and acknowledge, before any officer authorized to take the acknowledgment of deeds of land to be recorded in this State and may file in the office of the Secretary of State, and also of the Clerk of the County in which any such Church is to be established, a certificate in writing, in which shall be stated the name or title by which such society shall be known in the law, the purpose of its organization, and the names of seven trustees of whom not less than five shall be persons who are not Ministers of the Gospel, or priests of any denomination, to manage the same; but such certificate shall not be filed unless with the written consent and approbation of a Justice of the Supreme Court of the district in which any such Church shall be intended to be established, or in the city of New York, of a Judge of the Superior Court of the said city, to be indorsed on such certificate.

Sec. 2. Upon the filing of such certificate, the persons named therein as trustees and their successors, being citizens of the United States and residents of this State, shall be a body politic and corporate, with all the rights, powers and duties, and subject to all the restrictions and obligations and other provisions, so far as the same may be applicable and consistent with this act specified and contained in the act entitled "An Act for the Incorporation of Benevolent, Charitable, Scientific and Missionary Societies," passed April 12, 1848, and the act amending the same passed April 7, 1849, except that the limitation in the first of the said acts of the value of the real estate that may be held by any society in the city or county of New York, incorporated under this act, shall not be applicable to any Church edifice erected or owned by such society, or the lot of ground on which the same may be built, and except that the provision in the first of the said acts, in relation to the personal liability of the trustees, shall be applicable only to the trustees who shall have assented to the creation of any debt.

Sec. 3. Any vacancies occurring in the said Board of Trustees shall be supplied by the remaining trustees at any legal meeting of the members; but there shall always be at least five members of the Board who are not ministers of the Gospel or priests of any denomination.

Sec. 4. The seats or pews in every Church building or edifice owned or occupied by any corporation organized under this Act shall be forever free for the occupation and use during public worship, of all persons choosing to occupy the same, and conducting themselves with propriety; and no rent, charge or exaction shall ever be made or demanded for such occupation or use; nor shall any real estate belonging to such corporation be sold or mortgaged by the trustees thereof, unless by the direction of the Supreme Court, to be given in the same manner, and in the like cases, as provided by law in relation to religious corporations.

Sec. 5. This act shall take effect immediately.

(2) Certificate of Incorporation of Free Churches.

We, whose names are hereto subscribed, male persons of full age, citizens of the United States, and a majority of whom are residents of the State of New York, do hereby certify that we have associated ourselves together for the purpose of founding and continuing a Free Church in the City [or town] of ———, State of New York that the name or title by which such society shall be known in law was determined to be the Free Church of the ———, in the ——— of ———. That the purpose of its organization is the ministering of the Word and Sacraments according to the doctrines and worship and discipline of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America. That the following are the names of seven trustees who are to manage the affairs of the said Church and body corporate, five of whom are not Ministers of the Gospel or Priests of any denomination, namely:

Incorporation of Trustees of Funds.With By-Laws of Trustees and Form of Bequest.*(I) An Act Incorporating the Trustees of the Episcopate Fund.

AN ACT to incorporate the Trustees for the management and care of the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate of the Diocese of Western New York. Passed April 27, 1841.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Alexander B. Johnson, John E. Hinman and Hiram Denio, of the County of Oneida, Garry V. Sackett of the County of Seneca, and Thomas H. Rochester of the County of Monroe, and their successors duly elected and appointed in the manner hereinafter prescribed, are hereby constituted a body corporate, by the name of "The Trustees for the Management and Care of the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate of the Diocese of Western New York," and by that name shall have perpetual succession, and be capable of taking and holding by gift, grant or devise, and of purchasing, holding and conveying any estate, real or personal, necessary for the purpose of said corporation, provided the yearly value or income of the same shall not exceed the sum of five thousand dollars.

SEC. 2. The object of the said corporation shall be the management and care of the Fund now provided, together with that which may hereafter be contributed or acquired, and any accumulation arising upon the investment thereof, for the support of the office of Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Western New York, and the appropriation of the income of said Fund to that purpose according to the direction to be from time to time given by the Convention of said Church in said Diocese.

SEC. 3 The said Trustees shall be five in number, and shall hold their office during the pleasure of the said Convention, and all vacancies occurring in said Trustees shall from time to time be filled by said Convention. The said Trustees shall appoint a President and Secretary, and no act of said Trustees shall be valid unless authorized by a resolution adopted at a regular meeting of said Trustees by a majority of the same, and recorded by the Secretary in a book to be kept as a record of their proceedings, which book shall be open to the inspection of the said Convention.

SEC. 4. A statement of the proceedings of said Trustees hereby incorporated, exhibiting the condition of the Fund hereby entrusted to their charge, together with the items of receipts and disbursements, with the vouchers therefor, shall be reported to each Annual Convention, and signed by said Trustees, or a majority of them.

SEC. 5. The said Trustees hereby incorporated shall be bound to conform to any instructions to be given them by said Convention touching the management of the said Fund, and the disposition of the income thereof; provided that such instructions shall be in writing, and shall be entered on the Journals of the said Convention, and provided also that the income of the said Fund shall in no case be diverted to or expended for any other purpose than that of sustaining the Episcopal office in the said Diocese.

SEC. 6. The provisions of title third of the eighteenth chapter of the first part of the Revised Statutes, shall apply to the corporation hereby created, so far as the same are not inconsistent with this act.

I have compared the proceeding with an original Act of the Legislature of the State of New York, and do certify that the same is true and correct transcript thereof and of the whole of the said original. Given under my hand and seal of office this 28th day of April, 1841.

JOHN C. SPENCER, Secretary of State.

(2) An Act Incorporating the Trustees of the Parochial Fund.

CHAPTER 59. An Act for the Incorporation of the Trustees of the Parochial Fund of the Protestant Episcopal Church, in the Diocese of Western New York. Passed March 26, 1863.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Ward Hunt, George H. Mumford, William B. Douglass, Alexander L. Chew, Edgar H. Hurd, Russell H. Haywood and their successors, are hereby constituted a body corporate, under the title of "Trustees of Parochial Fund of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Western New York."

SEC. 2. The affairs of the said corporation shall be managed by a Board of six Trustees, and the persons named in the first section of this act shall be the first Trustees of the said corporation.

SEC. 3. The said Trustees shall be divided by lot into three classes. The term of the first class shall expire on the first day of September, eighteen hundred and sixty-three; the term of the second class shall expire on the first day of September following; the term of the third class shall expire on the first day of September then ensuing. The vacancies in said classes shall be filled as they occur, by two Laymen, who shall be elected by ballot by the Convention of said Diocese, at its regular annual meeting in each year; the Trustees so to be elected shall hold the said office for three years from the expiration of the terms of their predecessors. The Acting Bishop of the Diocese shall be ex-officio a member of the Board of Trustees.

SEC. 4. The said Trustees are authorized to receive and hold by deed, conveyance or last will and testament, for the accumulation of said Fund, real and personal estate, to such an amount that the annual income accruing therefrom shall not exceed thirty thousand dollars. The said Fund shall be devoted in part to the assistance and support of officiating ministers of the said Church, engaged in Parochial duty within the said Diocese, and this portion of the Fund shall be called "Fund for Clerical Support;" and in part to the purchase of glebes and the erection of parsonages within the limits of organized parishes in the said Diocese in communion with the said Church, and which shall be called "Fund for Parsonage Aid." All real or personal property conveyed, devised or given to the Trustees without specification as to the appropriation thereof, shall be devoted equally to the two purposes; but all donors to the Fund, by gift or devise, may specify whether the same is to be appropriated for "Clerical Support" or for "Parsonage Aid," and a separate account shall be kept of the portion of the Fund devoted to these purposes.

SEC. 5. In the distribution of these Funds, regard shall be had by the Trustees, in the exercise of a sound discretion, to the equal necessities of the Ministers of the Parishes applying for them, without prejudice or favor.

SEC. 6. For the purpose of distributing such Funds, the said Trustees shall meet on the first Monday of August in each year, or at such other time as they may appoint, and after determining the amounts of money to be distributed for the ensuing year, they shall consider the applications for assistance, which may then have been received. Such applications shall be in writing, signed either by the Minister or by order of the Vestry of the Parish, and shall state the facts necessary to a full understanding of the necessity of the case, and particularly the amounts already contributed or secured toward the support of the Minister, or for the erection of a parsonage, as the case may be. The said applications shall be separately considered by the Trustees, and a minute made of their decision thereon, together with a statement of the reason for refusing the same, if the application be rejected. In no case shall the amount awarded from the Funds be more than one-half of the funds already contributed and secured, as may satisfactorily appear by the written application; and, in making grants from the Fund in aid of parsonages, in no case shall any moneys be paid from the same Fund, except on assurances satisfactory to the Trustees, that all the remaining moneys necessary to the purchase of a glebe or erection of a parsonage are secured, and that no debt or incumbrance will remain thereon.

SEC. 7. The Trustees shall make an annual report to the Transfer of Personal and Real Estate to the Trustees of the Parochial Fund.

Diocesan Convention, at their regular meeting, of the state of the Fund; of all applications for assistance therefrom, of the grants made, with the conditions, if any, attached thereto, and of the applications which have been refused, and the reason for the refusal thereof, and a duplicate copy of such report shall also be rendered annually to the Comptroller of the State.

SEC. 8. The said Trustees are further authorized to receive, by donations or devise, moneys and land, devoted by the giver to the purposes of clerical support, parsonage aid in particular Parishes and Parochial and Theological Schools and Missions within the said Diocese, and they shall hold and apply the same in strict accordance with the condition attached in any such donation or devise, if not incompatible with the laws of this State; and in cases where the Bishop of the Diocese has been heretofore, or shall be hereafter made a testamentary Trustee for any of the purposes contemplated by this act, he shall have the right to surrender the said trust to the Trustees of this Fund at will, and in case of his not doing so before his death, the said testamentary trust shall inure on his death to the Trustees of this Fund, subject to all the conditions prescribed by the donor, but the annual income accruing from the property said Trustees are allowed to hold by virtue of this section, and of section four, shall not exceed thirty thousand dollars in the aggregate.

SEC. 9. This act shall take effect immediately.

(3) An Act Enabling Parishes to Transfer Personal and Real Estate to the Trustees of the Parochial Fund.

CHAPTER 509.—An Act to enable incorporated Parishes of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Central New York to make certain transfers of their real and personal estate. Passed June 7, 1875.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Any incorporated religious Society or Parish of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Central New York shall have power to convey or transfer all or any portion of the real or personal estate of such Society or Parish to the corporation known as "Trustees of the Parochial Fund," in the said Diocese, incorporated by the act entitled "An act to provide for the incorporation of Trustees for the management and care of certain funds now held for the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Western New York," passed April twenty-eight, eighteen hundred and sixty-eight, provided that such conveyance or transfer shall be first approved by a resolution of the Wardens and Vestry of such Society or Parish, duly entered in their minutes; and provided, further, that any property so conveyed or transferred shall be held by the said Trustees of the Parochial Fund solely for the use and benefit of the Society or Parish making the conveyance or transfer, in the discretion of the said Trustees; and provided further, that the whole income of property to be acquired by the said Trustees within the purview of this act shall not exceed twenty thousand dollars.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

(4) An Act Providing for the Division and Management of the Episcopate and Parochial Funds.

CHAPTER 429.—An Act to provide for the incorporation of Trustees for the management and care of certain funds now held for the Protestant Episcopal Church, in the Diocese of Western New York. Passed April 28, 1906.

It having been represented to the Legislature, that the Diocese of the Protestant Episcopal Church, called the Diocese of Western New York, is about to be divided territorially into two Dioceses, and that a Diocese of said Church is about to be established in the easterly part of said existing Diocese; and that certain funds amounting to about the sum of fifty one thousand dollars, are now held by a corporation entitled "The Trustees for the management and care of the Funds for the Support of the Episcopate of the Diocese of Western New York," which corporation was created by an Act of the Legislature, passed in the year eighteen hundred and forty-one, being chapter one hundred and thirty-four of the acts of that year; and that certain other Funds amounting to over eighteen thousand dollars, are now held by a corporation entitled "The Trustees of the Parochial Fund of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Western New York," which last mentioned corporation was created by an Act of the Legislature, passed in the year eighteen hundred and sixty-three, being chapter fifty-nine of the acts of that year; and it having been further represented to the Legislature that the Annual Convention of the said Church, for the said Diocese of Western New York, at its last annual meeting, held in the month of August last, did determine that such division of said Diocese was expedient to be made, and that in the event of such division, the said funds hereinbefore mentioned should be equally divided between the two Dioceses, which should be formed in consequence of such division; and it being further represented that by the resolves of such Church, the said division would be consummated during the present year, and that it would be necessary in order to the preservation of the portion of said Funds which should then belong to the new Diocese, to be formed out of the easterly part of said existing Diocese, that some corporate bodies having legal continuity and succession should exist to receive and manage said funds; therefore,

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Whenever such division of the Diocese of Western New York as is hereinbefore mentioned shall take place, and be consummated, it shall be lawful for the Convention of said new Diocese to be formed out of the eastern part of the existing Diocese, to appoint five Trustees to be denominated the Trustees for the management and care of the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate of the said new Diocese, by the name which shall be given to such new Diocese; and such Trustees shall thereupon be a body corporate by that name, and shall have perpetual succession, and be capable of taking and holding the portion of the aforesaid Fund for the support of the Episcopate, which shall belong to such new Diocese, and of taking and holding by gift, grant and devise, and of purchasing, holding and conveying any estate, real or personal, necessary for the purpose of said corporation, provided the yearly value or income thereof shall not exceed the sum of ten thousand dollars: that the object of the said corporation shall be the management and the care of the said Fund which shall belong to the said new Diocese, together with that which may be hereafter acquired, and any accumulation arising from the investment thereof, for the support of the office of Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the said new Diocese, and the appropriation of the income of said Fund to that purpose, according to the directions to be from time to time given by the Convention of said Church in said new Diocese.

SEC. 2. All the portions of the act entitled "An Act to incorporate the Trustees for the management and care of the Fund for the support of the Episcopate of the Diocese of Western New York, passed April twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and forty-one, are hereby made applicable to the corporation provided for in the first section of this Act, except that where the Diocese of Western New York, or the Convention of that Diocese is mentioned or referred to, the said new Diocese and the Convention thereof shall be deemed to be intended and shall be substituted.

SEC. 3. It shall be lawful for the Convention of such new Diocese to appoint six Trustees, to be denominated Trustees of the Parochial Fund of the Protestant Episcopal Church, of the said new Diocese, by the name which shall be given to it; and such Trustees shall be a body corporate by that name and shall have perpetual succession, and shall be capable of taking and holding that portion of the Fund now possessed by the corporation created by the Act of the Legislature entitled "An Act for the incorporation of the Trustees of the Parochial Fund of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the Diocese of Western New York," passed March twenty-sixth, eighteen hundred and sixty-three, which shall belong to such new Diocese, and all such other moneys as shall be contributed thereto or which shall be accumulated from the income thereof; and that all the provisions of the said last mentioned Act following the Second Section thereof, shall apply to the corporation provided for in this Section, except that where the Diocese of Western New York, or the Convention of that Diocese is mentioned, the said new Diocese and the Convention thereof shall be deemed to be intended and shall be substituted.

SEC. 4. The two existing corporations in this Act mentioned, are hereby authorized to pay over to the corporation herein provided for, the portions of said Funds which, according to the said resolution of the Diocese of Western New York, shall belong to said new Diocese; and nothing in this Act contained shall be construed further to affect or in any wise impair the said existing corporations.

CHAPTER 106—AN Act supplementary to Chapter fifty nine of the laws of eighteen hundred and sixty-three, entitled "An Act for the incorporation of the Trustees of the Parochial Fund of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Western New York," and supplementary to Chapter four hundred and twenty-nine of the laws of eighteen hundred and sixty-eight, entitled "An Act to provide for the incorporation of Trustees for the management and care of certain funds now held for the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Western New York." Passed April 4, 1887.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The incorporation known as the Trustees of the Parochial Fund of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Central New York, incorporated under and by virtue of chapter four hundred and twenty-nine of the laws of eighteen hundred and sixty-eight, entitled "An Act to provide for the incorporation of Trustees for the management and care of certain funds now held for the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Western New York," shall have power to take and receive, by gift, grant, devise or bequest, any property, real or personal, and hold the same; first in trust for the use and benefit of any congregation or parish which may be incorporated and in union with the Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Central New York; or, second, in trust for the assistance or support of any such mission or missionaries in said Diocese as may be approved of by the Bishop; the money or other property so used for missionary purposes to be expended under the general direction of the Bishop thereof, or the Bishop in council with the Missionary Board of said Church in said Diocese, or, in case of a vacancy in the bishopric, or an extended absence of the Bishop, then, under the general direction of the Standing Committee in said Diocese; or third, in trust to assist weak and feeble parishes in said Diocese to support their ministers or Sunday Schools, or to build or repair their church edifices or parsonages; or fourth, in trust for the assistance or support of any parochial, divinity, or theological school, or any scholarship in any such

I have compared the preceding with the original law on file in this office, and do hereby certify that the same is a correct transcript therefrom and of the whole of said original law.

Given under my hand and the seal of office of the Secretary of State, at the city of Albany, this sixth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty eight.

FREDERICK COOK, Secretary of State.

By-Laws of the Trustees of the Parochial Fund.

(6.) By-Laws of the Trustees of the Parochial Fund.I.Officers and Elections.*

The officers of the Board of Trustees shall be a President, who shall be the Bishop of the Diocese, a member of the Board ex-officio; and a Secretary and Treasurer, who shall be elected at the annual meeting of the Trustees, on the first Tuesday of June of each year, or if said annual meeting shall fail to be held, then at the first special meeting thereafter. The Secretary and Treasurer shall hold their offices for one year, and until their respective successors in office are appointed. They shall be chosen by ballot, unless such ballot is dispensed with by an unanimous vote of the members present. The Secretary and Treasurer may be the same person. Vacancies in the offices of Secretary and Treasurer may be filled at any meeting of the Board of Trustees.

II.Quorum.

Four members shall constitute a quorum, for the transaction of business, but not less than two members may adjourn a meeting with a view to a quorum.

III.Presiding Officers.

The Bishop or Acting Bishop of the Diocese shall preside at all meetings of the Board. In his absence one of the Trustees present, chosen for the purpose, shall preside. In addition to his powers as Presiding Officer, the President may, whenever he may deem it expedient, call special meetings of the Trustees, and may himself or shall direct the Secretary to give notice of the time and place thereof,

IV.The Secretary.

The duty of the Secretary shall be to conduct the correspondence of the Board; to prepare and transmit all letters in connection with its business; to keep in proper books copies of all letters written by himself or by direction of the Board, and also copies of all letters of communication on the business of the Board, which may be brought before it; to keep the minutes of the Board and its proceedings; to have charge of all its documents; to execute all papers, conveyances and instruments in writing required to be executed by the Corporation, under seal and acknowledged when authorized by the Board; to give due notice of the time and place of meetings of the Board, stated or special, when directed by the President; in case of the death or inability of the President, to call special meetings of the Board on the written requisition by any two members.

V.The Treasurer.

The Treasurer shall collect, receive and keep the Funds and Securities of the Board of Trustees. He shall open and keep regular accounts of such funds and securities, showing the amount, nature, investment and deposit of the same, having special reference to the distribution made under Section 4 of the Act entitled "An Act for the Incorporation of the Trustees of the Parochial Fund of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Western New York," passed March 26, 1863, the provisions of which Act are made applicable to this corporation, so far as provided by the Act passed by the Legislature of this State on the 28th day of April, 1868, entitled "An Act to provide for the incorporation of Trustees for the management and care of certain funds now held for the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Western New York;" and also to the donations and devises, appropriations and testamentary trusts under Section 8 of the aforesaid Act, passed March 26, 1863, or of any other Act of the Legislature now, or that hereafter may be applicable thereto, showing in distinct separate accounts the funds, moneys or lands devoted to the purpose respectively mentioned therein. By and with the advice and consent of the Trustees, or a majority of the Trustees resident at Syracuse, he shall deposit, invest and manage the funds and moneys belonging to the Board, and may let or demise any real estate given or devoted for the purpose of the Act for a period not exceeding one year, and shall make and present to the board a written statement of the disposition or investment of all funds or property of the Board at every annual meeting. He shall, in conjunction with the President, prepare and submit to the Board the Annual Report to the Diocesan Convention, required by Section 7 of the aforesaid Act of the Legislature, passed March 26, 1863.

VI.

Special Meetings.

Special meetings may be called by the President or Secretary, as before provided, upon the written requisition of any two Trustees.

VII.

Alteration of By-Laws.

The By-Laws may be altered at any meeting by the unanimous vote of all the Trustees, or the same may be altered by a majority of all the Trustees, upon notice given at the next preceding meeting of the intended alteration.

Permanent Missionary Fund.

The moneys and securities received by this Board from the Diocese of Western New York, on the occasion of its division, amounting to $11,384.09, shall, together with any additions since made, or hereafter to be made thereto, continue to be denominated in the accounts and the reports of the Treasurer, "The Permanent Missionary Fund," as the same was so denominated in the accounts and reports of the Treasurer of the said Diocese of Western New York before the division. That the Treasurer pay the interest of said fund, from time to time, as the same may accrue, to the Treasurer of this Diocese, for the sole use and benefit of Missions therein. That the Treasurer keep a separate account of each of the other funds held by this board, and pay the interest of each according to the terms of the trust under which it is held.

*Incorporation of the Bible and Prayer Book Society.(7.) Incorporation of the Bible and Prayer Book Society.

The undersigned, being persons of full age, and citizens of the United States, and citizens of and residents within the State of New York, desiring to associate themselves together and form a Society for Benevolent, Charitable and Mission purposes, do make and acknowledge this certificate in writing.

The name or title by which this society shall be known in law is "The Bible and Prayer Book Society of Central New York."

The particular business and objects of this Society shall be the distribution of Bibles and Prayer Books, and shall be carried on in the city of Utica, Oneida County and State of New York.

The number of Trustees of this Society shall be six, of whom the Bishop of the Diocese of Central New York shall be one, and five Laymen to be elected annually by the Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Central New York,

The names of the Trustees of this Society who shall manage its affairs for the first year of its existence, shall be the Right Reverend F. D. Huntington, William B. Jackson, Levi Blakeslee, Thomas W. Seward, Horace O. Moss and John J. Peck.

In witness whereof, we have hereto set our hands and seals this 26th day of May, A. D. 1874.

JAMES B. PADDON, Clerk.

By-Laws of the Bible and Prayer Book Society.

(8) By-Laws of the Bible and Prayer Book Society.I.Officers.*

The officers of the "Bible and Prayer Book Society of Central New York," shall be a President, who shall be the Bishop of the Diocese; a Secretary and Treasurer; and an Executive Committee of three,—all members of the Board of Trustees.

II.Duties of Officers.

The duties of the Officers shall be such as usually pertain to officers so named. The Executive Committee, of which the Bishop shall be Chairman, shall from time to time receive applications for Bibles and Prayer Books from within the Diocese, consider the same, and act upon them; in no case, however, granting any gifts or incurring any expense which shall reduce the principal, or original amount of the endowment, without the consent of the Board.

III.The Treasurer and the Executive Committee.

The Treasurer and the Executive Committee shall invest or deposit the endowment in such a manner as they shall deem expedient, with full securities, and shall be prepared to exhibit their accounts annually to the Examining Committee of the Diocese. They shall also provide a Depository of the books in the city of Utica.

IV.The Secretary.

The secretary shall prepare and present to each Annual Convention of the Diocese a report of the proceedings of the Board.

V.Meetings.

There shall be a yearly meeting of the Board; notified by the Secretary, on the Second Thursday in June, when the officers may be elected. Special Meetings may be called at any time by the Bishop.

VI.Vacancies.

A vacancy occurring in the Board may be filled by vote of the Board at any meeting.

JOURNAL.

FIRST DAY.

TRINITY CHURCH, UTICA, }
Tuesday, June 11, 1907. }

This being the day appointed for the meeting of the Thirty-ninth Annual Convention of the Diocese of Central New York, the Rt. Rev. Charles Tyler Olmsted, S. T. D., D. C. L., Bishop of the Diocese and a number of the Clergy and Laity assembled in Trinity Church in the city of Utica at 4:30 o'clock p. m. Evening Prayer was said by the Rev. F. W. Eason and the Rev. W. A. Braithwaite. At the conclusion of Divine Service the Rt. Rev. the Bishop of the Diocese took the chair and called the Convention to order.

The Secretary called the roll of the Clergy entitled to seats in the Convention, when seventy-two answered to their names and took their seats. (See page 22.)

On the report of the Committee on Credentials the roll was called, when forty-four Lay Delegates, representing twenty-five Parishes answered to their names and took their seats. (See page 23.)

A quorum of the Clergy and Lay Delegates being present, the Right Reverend, the President, declared the Convention to be duly organized and ready for business.

The Convention proceeded to the election of a Secretary, when, on motion, the vote by ballot was dispensed with, and the Rev. James K. Parker was chosen. 1

Journal.

On nomination of the Secretary, the Rev. J. Winslow Clarke was appointed Assistant Secretary.

The Chair appointed the following Committees:

On the Admission of Churches into Union with the Convention.—The Rev. Dr. Bellinger and Messrs. H. B. Hubbard and George T. Jack.

On Unfinished Business.—The Rev. J. T. Rose, and Messrs. W. D. Dunning and F. T. Arnold.

On the Report of the Missionary Board.—The Rev. G. G. Perrine and Messrs. G. G. Cotton and C. E. Chase, M. D.

On the Report of the Bible and Prayer Book Society.—The Rev. E. F. H. J. Masse and Messrs. W. G. Mayer and W. E. Hopkins.

On nomination of the Rev. E. H. Coley, the Rev. John A. Staunton was elected Registrar of the Diocese.

On motion of Mr. W. Pierrepont White the special Committee appointed at the Convention last year to consider the general financial condition of the Diocese and the adoption of a system of apportioning the Diocesan Expense Fund and other assessments more equitably, was continued until next year.

The Rev. C. D. Broughton offered the following resolution, which was adopted.

Resolved, That all Clergy of this Church, and of any Church in communion with this Church, not canonically resident in this Diocese, and also Candidates for Holy Orders, and Representatives of missionary stations, who may be present, be admitted to honorary seats in the Convention.

Under this resolution there were present the Rev. W. M. Cook and the Rev. J. M. Rich of the Diocese of Albany, the Rev. Robert Fletcher and the Rev. James Empringham of the Diocese of Ottawa, Canada.

Journal.

The Rev. Edward H. Coley read the report of the Standing Committee of the Diocese. (See Appendix A.)

The Rev. Edward H. Coley offered the following resolution, which was on motion referred to the Committee on the Constitution and Canons.

Resolved, That Article III, Section I, of the Constitution be amended by adding after the words "and lay delegates from the several parishes," the words "not exceeding three delegates from each parish or congregation in union with the Convention."

The Rev. Edward H. Coley offered the following resolution, which was on motion referred to the Committee on the Constitution and Canons.

Resolved, That Canon X, Section 4, Paragraph 2, be amended by adding after the words "Conventional Year." the words, "There shall be an executive committee of the Board of Managers consisting of the Archdeacon and one Clergyman from each District, of which it shall be the duty to compare and unify the assessments and appropriations made in the several Districts."

The Rev. John A. Staunton read the report of the Registrar and offered the following resolution, which was adopted. (See Appendix H.)

Resolved, That the Registrar of the Diocese be authorized, under the advice and with the consent of two members of the Standing Committee, to destroy, or otherwise to dispose of, all printed matter in the Diocesan Library that in his judgment is of no value.

The Rev. H. S. Longley read the report of the Deaf Mute Commission. (See Appendix I.)

The Rev. John R. Harding offered the following resolution, which was adopted.

Resolved, That inasmuch as there is a vacancy in the Deaf Mute Commission caused by the retirement of the Rev. J. Sanders Reed, D. D., from the rectorship of Trinity Church, Watertown, that the present Rector of that Parish, the Rev. F. W. Eason, be appointed in his stead.

Journal.

The Rev. Dr. Bellinger offered the following resolution, which was adopted,

Resolved, That Rule XVII of the General Rules of Order be so amended as to read:—Unless otherwise ordered by the Convention it shall meet at 9 o'clock in the morning; take a recess from 1 to 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon, and from 6 to 7:30 o'clock in the evening.

On motion an adjournment took place until 7:30 o'clock this evening.

TUESDAY EVENING, 7:30 o'clock.

The Convention reassembled, the Rt. Rev. the Bishop of the Diocese in the chair.

The Treasurer of the Diocese read his annual Report. (See Appendix C.)

The Secretary read the Report of the Committee on the Accounts of the Treasurer of the Diocese. (See Appendix C.)

Mr. H. B. Hubbard read the Report of the Committee on the Report of the Trustees of the Christmas Fund. (See Appendix D.)

Mr. T. W. Stryker read the Report of the Committee on the Report of the Trustees of the Episcopate Fund. (See Appendix E.)

The Rev. C. D. Broughton read the Report of the Committee on the Report of the Trustee of the Van Wagenen Missionary Fund. (See Appendix G.)

Mr. J. M. Tilden read the Report of the Committee on the Report of the Trustees of the Parochial Fund. (See Appendix F.)

Journal.

The Rev. Dr. Egar from the Committee on the Constitution and Canons presented the following:

REPORT

The Committee on Constitution and Canons to which was referred the resolution offered by the Rev. Mr. Coley to amend Article III, Section 1, of the Constitution, recommend that the same be passed in the following form:

Resolved, That Article III, Section 1, of the Constitution be amended as follows; strike out the word "and" before the words "all clergymen," 2, strike out after the word "delegates" the words "from the several Parishes" and insert instead the words "(not exceeding three in number) from each Parish, Church or Congregation in Union with the Convention" so that it shall read as follows: Article III, Section 1—The members of any Convention shall be the Bishop, the Bishop Coadjutor, if there be one, all Clergymen canonically resident in the Diocese not under discipline, and Lay Delegates, not exceeding three in number from each Parish, Church or Congregation in union with the Convention. Provided, however, that no Clergyman shall be entitled to vote for a Bishop unless he has been canonically resident in the Diocese for at least one year.

On motion the Report was accepted and the Resolution adopted to lie over for final action at the Convention next year

The Rev. Dr. Wilson from the Committee on the Constitution and Canons presented the following Report in reference to an amendment of Article I of the Constitution, which was adopted at the Convention last year and is now waiting for action.

The Committee on Constitution and Canons recommends the adoption of the following amendment to Article I of the Constitution.

Resolved, That the word "first" be substituted for the word "second" in Article I, line 2, of the Constitution so that the Article shall read:

Journal.

ARTICLE I.

Section 1. There shall be a Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church, in this Diocese, on the First Tuesday in June, in the year 1870, and each year thereafter, at four o'clock and thirty minutes P. M., in such place as shall be determined by the Bishop for the time being, or in case of his inability to act or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, by the Standing Committee.

On motion the amendment as recommended by the Committee was finally adopted.

The Rev. J. C. Jagar offered the following resolution, which was on motion referred to the Committee on the Constitution and Canons.

Resolved, that Canon X, Section VI, be amended by adding the following paragraph to be known as sub-section 3, Offerings for Diocesan Missions shall be made in the Sunday Schools of Parishes and Missionary Stations during the Season of Advent. All such offerings shall be forwarded to the Treasurer of the District.

Mr. W. Pierrepont White offered the following resolution,

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Diocese notify the parties from whom reports are due that their reports are due at least ten days in advance of the date of the Convention. Also that the receipt of the certificates of Lay members be acknowledged by the Secretaries.

The Rev. Douglas Matthews moved to amend the above resolution by striking out that part, which has reference to acknowledging the receipt of the credentials of Lay Delegates.

On motion of Mr. George Barrow both the resolution and the amendment were laid on the table.

The Rev. Dr. Bellinger from the Committee appointed by the Bishop to draft suitable resolutions in reference to the Hague Peace Conference presented the following Report which was adopted.

Journal.

The Bishop, Clergy, and Laity of the Diocese of Central New York in Convention assembled, desire to place upon record an expression of their hearty sympathy with the efforts of the Hague Conference, to promote peace among the nations, through arbitration of national differences. The interests of the world are largely connected with securing the peaceful settlement of international controversies. Christianity and civilization alike demand that wars shall cease, and if this cannot be fully accomplished, their evils may be greatly mitigated by the adoption by nations of rules having for their purpose such a modification of the laws of war as shall protect neutral powers and property, and encourage humane treatment of those exposed to its casualties. This Convention hails the Hague Conference as a sign of peace, and an omen of the approach of a time when nations will cease to seek pretexts for war, but will seek to adjust their differences through the arbitration of an impartial tribunal. It is directed that this minute be entered in full in the records of the Convention, and be published.

W. W. BELLINGER,
A. R. B. HEGEMAN,
CHARLES ANDREWS.

The Rev. H. S. Longley offered the following resolution which was on motion referred to the Committee on the Constitution and Canons.

Resolved, That Canon X, Section III, 1 Paragraph 3 be amended by striking out the words "Board of Managers" and adding the word "Convention;" and striking out the words "Board of Missions from the Missionary Fund" and adding the word "Diocese," and adding this paragraph: It shall be the duty of the Standing Committee to assess the amount needed for the Archdeacon's Salary and traveling expenses at the rate of an uniform percent upon the amount last previously reported to the Convention and printed in the Journal under the head of Rector's Salary and Current Expenses as defined in Canon VII, Section IV, not including a sum amount that may have been given to the Parish, Church or Congregation or its Minister by the Missionary Board of the Diocese or by any other Missionary organization.

The Archdeacon read his Report. (See Appendix B.)

The Rev. P. T. Olson offered the following resolution which was on motion referred to the Committee on the Constitution and Canons.

Journal.

Resolved, That Canon XI, Section 2, be amended by adding after the words "Missionary Organization" the words, "But no Parish or Mission shall be assessed less than one dollar. "

The Rev. F. C. Smith offered the following resolution, which was adopted.

Resolved, That the Rules of Order of the Convention be suspended insofar as they relate to the appointment of the Committee on Christian Education.

The Bishop appointed to fill vacancies on the Committee to consider the advisability of holding the next Missionary Conference of the Second Department in this Diocese, Messrs. Charles L. Behm and J. M. Tilden.

After Prayers by the Bishop, the Convention, on motion, adjourned until nine o'clock tomorrow morning.

SECOND DAY.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 12, 1907.

The Convention met pursuant to adjournment at nine o'clock A. M. The Litany was read by the Rev. J. C. Jagar. The Bishop read his Annual Address. The Bishop celebrated the Holy Communion assisted by the Rev. Dr. Bellinger, the Rev. A. H. Rogers reading the Epistle and the Rev. G. G. Perrine reading the Gospel. At the conclusion of Divine Service, the Rt. Rev. the President took the Chair and called the Convention to order. The minutes of yesterday's session were read and approved.

The Rev. J. T. Rose from the Committee on Unfinished Business presented the following:

Journal.

REPORT.

The Committee on Unfinished Business beg to report the following from last year's Journal as matters for action at this Convention.

FIRST—The Resolution of the Rev. Mr. Longley to amend Canon XIV and to add Section IV to said Canon page 45, Journal of 1906.

SECOND—The Resolution of the Rev. Dr. Wilson that the Committee on the Constitution and Canons be instructed to report to this Convention on the Memorial from the Joint Committee of the General Convention on the Canon on Special Missionary Bishops.

The Rev. G. G. Perrine read the Report of the Committee on the Report of the Board of Managers for Diocesan Missions. (See Appendix B.)

The Rev. F. C. Smith read the report of the Sunday School Commission. (See Appendix K.)

Mr. C. H. Brown offered the following resolution, which was adopted.

Resolved, That the Treasurer and Registrar be authorized to destroy such accumulation of papers in the Treasurer's office as they deem best.

The Rev. Dr. Coddington read the Report of the Committee on General Clergy Relief.

The Rev. Thomas Duck offered the following resolution,

Resolved, To amend Canon XVI, Section 2, by striking out all after the word "ballot" in the first line and substituting therefor the following. Nominations shall be made on the evening of the first day of the Convention and the names of all nominees under their respective headings shall be printed upon one ballot and distributed among the members of the Convention in time for the elections on the second day. In each case the headings shall specify how many persons of each order are to be elected. In voting a cross mark (X) shall be placed in the margin opposite the name of each person voted for.

Mr. George M. Weaver offered the following as an addition to the amendment.

Journal.

Resolved, That nothing herein shall prevent any delegate from voting for any person whose name shall not appear on the printed ballot.

On motion both the amendment and the addition proposed were referred to the Committee on the Constitution and Canons.

Mr. E. L. Pierce offered the following resolution which was adopted.

Resolved, That so much of the Bishop's Address and the Archdeacon's report as relate to clergy support, be referred to a Commission consisting of the Archdeacon and five Laymen to inquire into the conditions of such support in this Diocese and report to the next annual Convention such facts and recommendations as may be suggested by such inquiry.

Under this resolution the Bishop appointed the following committee, the Rev. William Cooke, Archdeacon, Messrs. Edward L. Pierce, Anson R. Flower, George M. Weaver, George Underwood and W. H. Shaw.

The Rev. W. R. McKim offered the following resolution, which was adopted.

Resolved, That the thanks of this Convention are hereby extended to our Bishop for his inspiring address and do commend it to the attention of the whole Diocese.

The Rev. Douglas Matthews offered the following resolution, which was adopted.

Resolved, That this Convention accept the credentials of Lay Delegates, which were defective in consequence of failure to be presented within the time specified and required by Canon.

The Rev. Dr. Eggar from the Committee on the Constitution and Canons presented the following:

Journal.

REPORT.

The Committee on the Constitution and Canons, to which was referred the resolution of the Rev. Mr. Jagar, proposing to amend Canon X, Section 6, by adding a provision requiring offerings from Sunday Schools for Diocesan Missions during the Advent Season, respectfully report that the proposal for such offerings is a laudable one and if carried out would be of great advantage to the Missionary Fund. But your Committee is of the opinion that such offerings are more likely to become general by the voluntary action of the Sunday Schools through wise advocacy and efficient example than by canonical enforcement. The Lenten Offering of the children for General Missions, the Triennial Offering of the women of the Church and the Men's Thank Offering, now in process of collection, are examples of such offerings, which are growing in importance without canonical provision. Your Committee therefore instead of reporting an amendment to the Canon propose the adoption of the following Resolution:

Resolved, That this Convention recommend to the authorities of the Sunday Schools throughout the Diocese that they promote in their schools voluntary offerings for Diocesan Missions during the Advent Season every year.

On motion the Report was accepted and the Resolution adopted.

The Bishop appointed the Rev. J.C. Jagar to have charge of the matter referred to in the above resolution.

The Rev. Dr. Bellinger presented the following:

REPORT.

The Committee appointed to consider the advisability of holding the next Missionary Conference of the Second Department in this Diocese reports that it deems it inexpedient to hold the initiatory Missionary Conference of the Second Department in this Diocese, and offers the following resolution.

Journal.

Resolved, That the report of this Committee be adopted and the Committee discharged.

W. W. BELLINGER,
HERBERT G. CODDINGTON,
EDWARD H. COLEY,
WILLIAM DELANCEY WILSON,
GEORGE M. WEAVER,
ALFRED C. COXE,
CHARLES L. BEHM,
J. M. TILDEN,

Committee.

On motion the Report was adopted and the Committee discharged.

The Rev. W. R. McKim offered the following resolution which was adopted:

Resolved, That 1,300 copies of the JOURNAL of this Convention, together with the Constitution and Canons, and various forms and legislative acts of incorporation, be printed under the direction of the Secretary and distributed as directed by Canon V.

The Rev. C. T. Raynor offered the following resolution, which was on motion referred to the Committee on the Constitution and Canons.

Resolved, That Canon VII, Section 4 be amended by adding the words "incomes from endowments shall be separately reported and the purpose for which said incomes are used."

The Rev. E. H. Coley offered the following resolution, which was adopted.

Resolved, That the budget for the ensuing year, as reported by the Standing Committee (with the addition of any sums voted by the Convention) be and is hereby adopted, and that there be, and is, hereby ordered therefor an assessment upon all the parishes and missions of the Diocese, equal in each case, to such per cent. upon their last reported current expenses, as will provide for the required amount.

The Rev. F. C. Smith offered the following resolution, which was adopted.

Journal.

Resolved, That this Convention expresses its thankfulness for the indication that has been given during the year that is past of the soundness in the faith of this American Church, in the judicial decisions of ecclesiastical courts, and in the manifest approval of those decisions by several other Diocesan Conventions, and also our gratification at the fact that the able opinion, in which the decision of the Court of Review was set forth, was from the hand of that eminent jurist, the distinguished Chancellor of Central New York.

The Convention then proceeded to the election of the Standing Committee of the Diocese. The Chair appointed Tellers to receive the votes of the Clergy, the Rev. C. H. McKnight and Mr. Albert S. Crocker and to receive the votes of the Laity Mr. Norman Carr and the Rev. A. R. B. Hegeman.

The Rev. Dr. Egar of the Committee on Constitution and Canons presented the following:

REPORT.

The Committee on the Constitution and Canons to which was referred the resolution of the Rev. Mr. Coley to amend Section 4, Par 2 of Canon X, recommend its adoption in the following form.

Resolved, That Section 4, Par 2, of Canon X be amended by adding after the words "Conventional Year" the words "the Board of Managers may appoint such Committees as are necessary to attend to details of business arising during the interim between meetings of the Board.

On motion the Report was accepted and the resolution adopted.

The Treasurer of the Diocese presented the following

REPORT.

Your treasurer wishes to report there are at this time one self supporting parish and seventeen other places in arrears for the Diocesan Expense Fund. I would recommend some action by Convention to the clearing of this record and so prevent accumulation of arrears.

Journal.

The Rev. G. G. Perrine offered the following resolution, which was adopted.

Resolved, That the arrears in the payment of the Diocesan Expense Fund be referred to the Archdeacon and the Treasurer, to be remitted or retained as they may find the circumstances justify.

The Convention then proceeded to the election of the Deputies to the General Convention. The Chair appointed as Tellers to receive the votes of the Clergy the Rev. W. G. Bentley and Mr. F. P. Taber and to receive the votes of the Laity, Mr. G. T. Davis, and the Rev. C. T. Raynor.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON, 2:30 o'clock.

The Convention re-assembled, the Rt. Rev. the Bishop in the Chair.

The Archdeacon read the Report of St. John's School, Manlius.

The Rev. Dr. Egar from the Committee on the Constitution and Canons presented the following:

Journal.

REPORT.

The Committee on the Constitution and Canons to which was referred the resolution of the Rev. Thos. Duck proposing to amend Canon XVI, Section 2, so as to provide for printed ballots of a certain form respectfully report that it seems to be the policy of this Convention not to favor the use of printed ballots of any character, since the Canon as it reads now expressly prohibits them. The Committee is not prepared at present to recommend a change of policy in that regard.

On motion the report of the Committee was adopted.

On motion the Rev. Dr. Duff was nominated as a Trustee of the General Theological Seminary.

The Tellers presented their report, from which it appeared that the following named persons had received a majority of all the votes given, and they were therefore declared duly elected

DEPUTIES TO THE GENERAL CONVENTION.

The Rev. H. G. Coddington, D. D.,	Mr. Anson R. Flower,
The Rev. H. S. Longley,	Wm. H. Watson, M. D.
The Rev. W. B. Clarke.

There being a failure to elect the fourth Lay Deputy the Convention proceeded to another ballot.

The Rev. Dr. Egar from the Committee on the Constitution and Canons presented the following REPORT.

The Committee on the Constitution and Canons to which was referred the resolution of the Rev. H. S. Longley to amend Canon X, Section 3, so as to provide for an assessment for the Salary of the Arch-deacon, respectfully report that it seems premature to recommend an amendment of the Canon in this respect when it has not really been tried and when the demand upon it for the coming year will be so light, seeing that the Archdeacon's salary is provided for until next October. Your Committee therefore request the adoption of the following resolution.

Resolved, That the Committee on the Constitution and Canons be discharged from a further consideration of this amendment

On motion the report was accepted and the resolution adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Wilson offered the following resolution, which was adopted.

Resolved, That the sum of $12,500 be appropriated for the Missionary work of the Diocese for the ensuing year, and that the sum of $11,500 be assessed upon the Districts.

The Tellers presented their report from which it appeared that Mr. E. L. Pierce had received a majority of all the votes given, and was therefore duly elected, Deputy to the General Convention.

The Convention proceeded to the election of Provisional Deputies to the General Convention. The Chair appointed as Tellers to receive the votes of the Clergy, the Rev. Jesse Higgins and Mr. F. F. Despard and to receive the votes of the Laity Mr. S. M. Stevens and the Rev. C. W. MacNish.

The Rev. Dr. Wilson offered the following resolutions, which were adopted.

Resolved, That the Treasurer of the Diocese be instructed to pay to the Bishop and Clerical Deputies to the General Convention $50 each from the Diocesan Expense Fund.

Resolved, That the Treasurer of the Diocese be instructed to pay the per capita tax of the General Convention from the Diocesan Expense Fund.

The Rev. Dr. Egar from the Committee on the Constitution and Canons presented the following:

The Bishop's Address

To the Thirty-Ninth Annual Convention.

Dear Brethren of the Clergy and of the Laity:

Grace be unto you and peace from God our Father and from the Lord Jesus Christ!

Since our last Convention we have lost by death from among the Clergy of our Diocese, the Rev. Osgood E. Herrick, D. D., of Watertown, the Rev. Ernest Melville of Fayetteville, and the Rev. Oliver Owen, of Clinton. Of the faithful Laity there have died Mrs. McKnight, widow of the Rev. Dr. McKnight, of Elmira, and Mrs. Grant, wife of the Rector of Zion Church, Fulton, Mrs. Merchant, of Guilford, Mrs. Jackson, of Syracuse, Mrs. Forey, of Utica, Mrs. Clarke, of Oxford, Mrs. Congdon, of Trumansburg, and Mrs. Doolittle, of Paris Hill, and Messrs. John D. Barrow, W. Parry Kennard, Charles W. Mott, B. D. Gilbert, John M. Hawkins, and E. C. Delavan, men whose names and faces have been well known in times past in this Convention. Three of the Bishops of the American Church have also been taken away, the Rt. Rev. Dr. Nicholson, of Milwaukee, the Rt. Rev. Dr. Seymour, of Springfield, and the Rt. Rev. Dr. Schereschewsky, retired Bishop of the China Mission. This is not the time to speak particularly of the good deeds of these departed ones, whom we now reckon among the saints of God, but we may commemorate them in our prayers, and ask for grace to follow their good examples, for which we praise His Holy Name. Let us pray. (Here follows the prayer from the Burial Office: "Almighty and Everliving God, &c.")

Bishop's Address.

My official acts since the last Convention have been as follows: Baptized one adult and seven infants. Confirmed 962 persons, and received three, making a total of 965, added to the possible communicants of the Diocese. Officiated at three funerals. Four Candidates have been ordained to the Diaconate, viz.: Messrs. Franklin Lee Metcalf, Walter E. Jones, Roy Irving Murray and Luther L. Weller. Four Deacons have been ordained to the Priesthood, viz.: The Rev. Messrs. Harry Idle, Chas. W. Hakes, M. D., Harrison W. Foreman, and Howard C. Ackerman. Messrs. Chas. H. L. Ford, Jos. Ray Totten, Raymond Lawrence, Elwyn H. Spear, Leo T. Wilcox, and Wm. S. Stevens have been received as Postulants, and the last named, Mr. Stevens, has been admitted as a Candidate for Holy Orders.

I have given my consent to the Consecration of the Rev. Chas. Scadding, D. D., as Bishop of Oregon, and the Rev. Beverly Dandridge Tucker, D. D., as Bishop Coadjutor of Southern Virginia.

Letters dimissory have been given to the following, viz: The Rev. Edward W. Parmelee to Michigan, the Rev. Chas. N. Tyndell and the Rev. Wm. D. Manross to Massachusetts, the Rev. David C. Huntington to Indianapolis, the Rev. Daniel D. Waugh to Connecticut, the Rev. Geo. H. Trickett to New York, the Rev. John B. Pitcher to Western New York, the Rev. Frederick T. Henstridge to Los Angeles, the Rev. Leonard J. Christler to Montana, the Rev. Arthur C. Clarke to Vermont, the Rev. Julian E. Ramsdell to Chicago, the Rev. Samuel D. Day to Georgia, and the Rev. Ransom M. Church to Ohio. The following Clergy have been received into the Diocese, viz: The Rev. Messrs. Geo. E. Edgar, from Tennessee, Norton T. Houser from Cen. Pennsylvania, Wm. A. Braithwaite from New York, Francis W. Eason from Nebraska, John Carl Jagar from South Carolina, Thomas Duck from Western New York, and John T. Lewis from Q'Appelle, Canada.

Bishop's Address.

You will observe in this report, brethren, an appearance of falling away from the prosperous condition of last year, and possibly some of you may be disposed to think that affairs are going badly in the Diocese. But I beg of you not to be alarmed. Do not allow the statistical critics, who draw dreadful conclusions every year from their comparisons of figures, to frighten you. In our last report the number of Confirmations was unusually large—and every one who is familiar with parish work knows how frequently it happens, that the large classes of one year are apt to be followed by smaller ones the year after. The movement among the Clergy, too, which has been phenomenal since the last Convention, would necessarily tend to reduce the number confirmed, because the work of parishes is broken in upon, the services become more or less irregular, the Sunday School, the visiting, and the teaching of the people, are interrupted.

And now this thought leads us to the question whether the Clergy generally realize the effect upon the Church's work which the excessive tendency to change from place to place inevitably produces. I would not have you imagine for a moment that I do not sympathize with the Clergy in some of the reasons which prompt them to move. Unfortunately there is at times such a lack of interest in their work on the part of the people, and so much adverse criticism of them, that they are not always able to bear up under the unhappy conditions—and above all, they are frequently compelled to live and to bring up their families in such straitened circumstances, that no one can blame them for reaching out for something better. It is an old cry, no doubt, but it is all the more urgent for that reason, and must be perpetually repeated, that there is no class of educated people so poorly paid for their faithful work as the Ministers of the Gospel—and should any one be disposed to say, "it is only what men might expect who put their hands to the plow in the work of Jesus Christ, and it will make saints of them"—the obvious reply is, "yes, but what will it make of the people who allow it to be so, who likewise have taken up the cross to follow the same Master? Is making saints of them?" Alas! no, dear friends. And me say to the laity with all affectionate earnestness, that w^h this state of things undoubtedly exists, I am quite sure tha^t arises more from lack of thought and consideration on t^he part, than from any unwillingness to make their Minist comfortable. As the Psalmist says, "Blessed is he that c^o sidereth the poor and needy." It is a matter that needs c^o sidering, that is, looking into, and when you find that the Cler are really straitened, then, if necessary, deny yourselves some of your luxuries, that you may be able to supply some their necessities. Indeed, it gives me great pleasure to info^r you that in three or four cases recently the salaries of our ci Clergy have been generously increased, thus not only maki them more comfortable in material things, but also maki them happier in the consciousness that they are appreciated b^y their people, which is worth far more to them than the val^ue of the money. There is nothing equal to that in stimulatⁱng them to renewed effort, and in prolonging the pastoral relatioⁿ and I would that in these prosperous times, when the cost o^f living is increased, the same thing might be repeated in th^e country places, where it is needed even more than in the cities. And at all events, if an increase of salary be not possible, th^e payment of what is given should be prompt and on the day tha^t it is due. It is not only unjust to the minister to keep him waiting, nobo^dy knows how long, for the money that i^s owing him, but it is really unkind. He has his obligatioⁿ which he has promised to meet at a certain date—there a^re advantages accruing to him if he can pay at that time, and is simply cruel to cause him to forego those advantages, aⁿd to make his heart sick with hopes deferred and disappoint^ment again and again. The money is his, he has probably more th^{an} earned it. If it be not in the parish treasury at the time, should be borrowed by the authorities of the parish until comes in from the people. It is very hard to work among th^{ose} who seem to care but little for their pastor's comfort and happiness.

Bishop's Address.

But while all this is eminently true, it does seem to me as if the idea of the pastoral relation had become dim in the American Church. In the older countries, particularly in England, the Priest goes to his parish with the understanding that the people of that parish are his flock, which the Chief Shepherd has committed to his care—that he is there for the purpose of ministering to them in holy things, and that, as the Ordinal says, he is “never to cease his labor to bring all of them unto that agreement in the faith and knowledge of God, and to that ripeness and perfectness of age in Christ, that there be no place left among them either for error in religion, or for viciousness of life.” It is not, therefore, a missionary work, that the parish priest is called to primarily, but a pastoral work—his chief duty is the ministering to those already there, and the bringing in of new adult recruits is a secondary duty. While, therefore, in this country, and under the present condition of a divided Christianity which leaves so many unbaptized, unconverted, and untaught, every faithful Clergyman must be in a measure a missionary, yet the pastoral relation is really first in organized parishes. But how often do we hear the pastor say, after a very short residence in a parish: “Well, I have done all I can do in this place—there is no possibility of growth here. I must be going elsewhere!” Of course, when the Chief Shepherd calls a man to another place, he is bound to go, but does the Chief Shepherd need to be reminded, as if He had forgotten? Can we imagine John Keble, so many years Vicar of the rural parish at Hursley, complaining, when, let us say, ten years of his service there had passed, that there was nothing more for him to do in that parish? or, to take the highest example, can we imagine the Blessed Lord complaining that Jerusalem and little Palestine were too small for His great powers, when Rome, and Athens, and Corinth, and Antioch and Damascus, were lying out in the great world, all in the direst need of His teaching?

I wish to express my thanks to the Diocese for the action taken by the last Convention in the appointment of an Archdeacon, and also to those friends who so kindly assisted me in providing his salary for the first year. I do not know what I should have done in this year now closing, which I may call "the year of the exodus," if it had not been for the Archdeacon—and I give you to understand that, having once enjoyed the comfort of such assistance in the Mission work of the Diocese, I shall never know how to get along without it. There were a few, I believe, last year, who had apprehensions lest the Archdeacon should be a terror to the missionaries; but, considering the fact that most of our Dioceses have such officers, I could not understand why it should be so; and at all events, the personality of the present Archdeacon of Central New York has, I think, removed the last vestige of such a fear, and, so far as I am aware, everybody is satisfied that we made no mistake in the appointment of such an officer. The purpose of providing one year's salary for the Archdeacon by subscription was chiefly to enable the Diocese to catch up in the missionary funds, and to meet the deficiency existing at the close of the last fiscal year. This, I am happy to learn from the Treasurer's report, has resulted successfully, and since the amount subscribed will suffice until next October, the burden for the ensuing year will not be excessive, when the Diocese shall become responsible for the Archdeacon's support. It has been suggested that the assessment for that purpose be a separate one, and not incorporated with that for Diocesan Missions, and I am inclined to think that the plan is a wise one. I commend to the consideration of the Convention the necessary amendment to the Canon which such a change of plan would require. And another improvement which it seems to me it would be well to make is the appointment by Canon of an Executive Committee of the Board of Managers, of which committee it shall be the duty to unify and arrange the parochial assessments for Missions and the stipends to be paid to the missionaries, and thus avoid the confusion and lack of uniformity that are apt to arise when half a dozen committees work separately and without consultation in different parts of the Diocese. The Diocese is really the unit, not the District.

Bishop's Address.

Bishop's Address.

The Districts are simply convenient arrangements for more frequent consultation among the Clergy, and for a nearer oversight under the general supervision of the Diocesan officers, but the offerings of the people are for the Missions of the Diocese, not of the District; sometimes the same missionary works in two districts at once; and the same principle of assessment obtains or should obtain in them all alike. A general Executive Committee, therefore, composed of men from each district, could collate and compare the reports of the several District Committees and remove any discrepancies that might occur in their propositions. An amendment to Article III of the Constitution is also necessary, in order to restore to that instrument the requirement that lay delegates to the Convention shall come only from parishes in union with the Convention, and shall not exceed three in number—provisions which must have been inadvertently omitted when the latest amendment was adopted.

We are now in the midst of a national celebration which is of immense interest to all Americans, and indeed to all the peoples of the world. The discovery of Columbus was of vast importance, of course, as leading up to the greater events that were to come, but it was the settlement at Jamestown which fixed the character of the institutions that were to govern this new world; that they should be English and not Spanish, institutions of freedom, and not those of despotism. And as our Puritan brethern do not hesitate to make the very most they possibly can of the glorious principles and deeds of their spiritual progenitors in New England, usually overlooking the fact that America had any other forefathers, it certainly is not an unseemly act of pride on our part to call attention to the truths which the celebration of 1907 emphasizes, that the first Englishmen to gain a foothold within the territory of the United States were those of Jamestown—the first Clergyman to be settled here was a Priest of the Church of England—the first services of worship in the English tongue established within our borders were those of the Book of Common Prayer, and the first free legislative assembly held its sessions in that Church in Virginia, more than a year before the Mayflower came to anchor in Massachusetts Bay. It is not, I assure you, in any partisan spirit, that I call attention to these historical truths, but in order that they may be understood, that honor may be given where honor is due—that if there be any prognostications in history they may have their proper consideration, and especially, that we may be duly thankful for the heritage which has descended to us in the Doctrine, Discipline and Worship of the Protestant Episcopal Church. And if so be that we be truly thankful, we will not neglect to express our gratitude in that Thank Offering which is to be presented at the General Convention in Richmond in October next. Let us not be so paltry as to complain that the Church is always looking for more money, but rather let us recognize that in this matter particularly the Church is saying, in the words of the Apostle, "I seek not yours, but you."

Another thing for which we have to be thankful during the year that is past, is the indication that has been given of the soundness in the faith of this American Church in the judicial decisions of our ecclesiastical courts, and in the manifest approval of those decisions by several Diocesan Conventions. And surely we may be pardoned, in this connection, if we here express our appreciation of the fact, that the able paper, in which the decision of the Court of Review was set forth, was from the hand of our eminent jurist, the distinguished Chancellor of Central New York. The developments which have since taken place in the career of the accused in that trial, have entirely vindicated the wisdom and the importance of such a decision. For, my brethren, we have come to the point where the tide of individualism in the Church must take a turn, if the Church is to maintain the trust which has been committed unto her. It is interesting, and sometimes quite awful, to observe how principles once adopted, possibly without a full and definite understanding of their far-reaching tendencies, always work themselves out by means of an inexorable logic.

Bishop's Address.

It may take centuries for them to come to their climax, but they always get there when the time is ripe. This is the case today with what has been called "private judgment" in things religious. When Luther and the other Protestant leaders on the continent of Europe enunciated that principle of private judgment, they chiefly meant by it that the individual had a right to choose whether he would be a Catholic or a Protestant. They had no idea of setting a man free from all authority, for they held their members in strict allegiance to the several "Confessions," so-called, of Augsburg, or of Dort, or of Westminster, as the case might have been, and he who denied the statements of those Confessions was as severely denounced for heresy as he would have been in the old Church. The saying—sometimes heard now-a-days, that "those men exchanged the infallibility of the Church for the infallibility of the Book," is not strictly accurate; for at first the Protestant bodies enforced their own conciliar interpretations quite as much as the Roman Church did; and of course there was very little private judgment about that. But as time went on the principle began to assert itself more fully. It came to be said after a while, "the Bible and the Bible only is the religion of Protestants"—and as that idea began to grow in men's minds sects began to increase. Any zealous man who thought he found something in the Bible that was not sufficiently emphasized by the societies already existing, or who became convinced that all of those societies were teaching something that the Bible does not warrant, broke away from the connection in which he was born, and started a new denomination. Thus private judgment was developed, yet always in supposed conscious subjection to the authority of Scripture. But individualism pure and simple is not complete so long as it is subject to any outward authority, whether of a book or of an organization. Private judgment reaches its climax in the sovereignty of the individual, and in the assertion of his entire sufficiency to think and to act as he pleases about everything. That, and that alone, is private judgment, pure and scientific—and we have lived to see the assertion of it. Anarchy is demanding in the State; "freedom" is demanded in the Church for each individual, no matter what vows he may be under; and the theological professor teaches his classes to find their criterion of Christian truth not in the Church, not in the Bible, but each one simply in his own consciousness. And so the intoxicating thought, suggested to man so long ago, is sought to be realized: "God made a mistake—ye shall not surely die—but if ye eat of the fruit of this tree ye shall be as gods, each one of you, and shall of yourselves know good and evil." I say, brethren, it is time for this tide to turn, for it has reached the flood. Would that we might say that it is only in the intellectual and theological realm that this tendency has shown itself; but man is not made that way. The intellectual part of man needs the restraint of God's law as well as the moral, for they work together invariably; and when the principle of lawlessness is admitted in one realm, it is perfectly sure to extend to the other. As the Bishop of Albany recently said, after speaking of the loss of faith among some people in the Church, "Is there not beside and behind all this, in some quarters at least, the determination to be rid of the obligation upon character of all religious authority, whether in Holy Scripture or in the Church? Certainly there is in some minds a subtle substratum of a sense of relief in the escape from all the moral restraints of belief." "It is not surprising," said the late editor of the Church Standard, "on the contrary, it is a natural accompaniment of the process of moral degeneracy both in England and America, that men who have sworn to teach the Christianity of the simple old creeds, are now claiming the right to forswear themselves by denying the creeds, while they smilingly retain their places and emoluments in the Churches which they betray." To any sane mind, familiar with the large liberty under the law which is now granted to the Clergy of this Church, one would think it would appear quite unnecessary to write a book demanding "freedom in the Church." The Protestant Episcopal Church has been described, and sometimes sneered at, as "the roomiest Church in Christendom;" and it seems to me that those men who want more room in it are simply trying to knock down its walls altogether. In other words, they are rejecting all authority, no matter how gentle and restricted it may be, and are seeking to bring in pure individualism, which is anarchy. An intellectual and learned College professor said in this city the other day, "we want men who think for themselves." So we do, but we want them also to think sanely, to think soundly, and not to think themselves infallible, not to think that liberty is license, not to forget that there are other people in the world who also have a right to think, and whose thoughts about the necessary human relations may be better than theirs. And as for the Christian Church, it wants men who recognize the very first principle of its origin, that it comes from an accredited Teacher, and did not originate with them; that they have "received" it, as St. Paul says, and did not invent it themselves, and since that is the case, that it must have some authoritative sources, which their own individual "imaginations, or reasonings," cannot alter. In short, while we must exercise each one of us his own reason in the acceptance of the revelation of God in Christ, and are free to accept or to reject it as we shall decide, we must not imagine that our reason is a solvent which can change the character of the authorities from which we receive that revelation. In every relation of life we should recognize and honor the authority by which that relation is legitimately controlled, and not set up our own unrestrained private judgment against it; or, as the Apostle well expresses the principle, "casting down imaginations and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ."—(II Cor. x. 5.)

Bishop's Address.

Bishop's Address.

APPENDIX I.

Report of Officers and Committees.

With Accompanying Papers.

A. Report of the Standing Committee.

FOR THE CONVENTIONAL YEAR 1906-07.

The Standing Committee respectfully report that during the Conventional Year 1906-07 they have held six meetings, of which four were held in St. Paul's Church, Syracuse and two in Trinity Church Utica.

At the first meeting held June 25, 1906, all the clerical members and all the lay members except Mr. Van Wagenen being present, the Committee was organized by the election of the Rev. John R. Harding as President and the Rev. Edward H. Coley as Secretary.

The Bishop of the Diocese presented a petition for permission to sell the church property at Clayville, consent to which was unanimously given.

The secretary was instructed to express to the Rev. John Brainard, D. D., the regret of all the members of the Committee at his voluntary retirement from its membership. In accordance with this resolution the following letter was sent to Dr. Brainard.

"At a meeting of the Standing Committee of the Diocese of Central New York, held in St. Paul's Church, Syracuse, June 25, 1906, being the first since your declination of further membership in that body, the Secretary was instructed to write you a letter expressing the regret of all the members that you felt unable to continue in it, and their appreciation of your long and distinguished service.

Made a member of the Committee at the organization of the Diocese on November 12, 1868, you have been re-elected by every successive Convention up to the present time. On June 13, 1878, you became Secretary and served in that office until September 14, 1886, when you were elected to the position of President, which you have since continuously held.

Report of the Standing Committee.

An estimate of the amount required for the expenses of the Diocese during the coming year, payable from the Diocesan Expense Fund, submitted as follows and recommended to the Convention for adoption: Bishop's travelling expenses, $300; Secretary's salary, $200; Assistant Secretary's salary, $100; Secretary's office and miscellaneous expenses, $40; Treasurer's salary, $300; Treasurer's office and miscellaneous expenses, $30; Treasurer's bond, $20; Registrar, $25; Retired Clergy Fund, $650; Journal and delivery, $650; Interest on note given to Trustees of Christmas Fund, $120; General Convention, $200; Diocesan Convention, $165.25; Estimated delinquencies, $259.75; total, $2,930.00.

The Treasurer was authorized to purchase a safe at an expense not to exceed $75.00.

At the sixth meeting held Tuesday, June 11, 1907, all the members and Mr. Dunning of the laity, were present. Proper credentials having been presented, the Rev. Franklin Lee Metcalf, D.D., was unanimously recommended to the Bishop to be advanced to the Priesthood.

The Secretary presented the record of the Committee's meeting during the year, which on resolution, was approved and ordered reported to the Convention.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN R. HARDING,

EDWARD H. COLEY,

ROBERT M. DUFF,

Report of the Board of Managers.B. Missions of the Diocese.(1.) Report of the Board of Managers.

The Board of Managers for Diocesan Missions of the Diocese of Central New York respectfully submits the following report:

At a meeting of the Board of Managers in the Parish House of Trinity Church, Syracuse, on Wednesday, June 13th, 1906, immediately after the adjournment of the Thirty-eighth annual Convention of the Diocese, the Convention having authorized the appropriation of $11,700 for the Missionary work of the Diocese for the current year, on motion the assessments and appropriations for the Districts were made as follows:

	Assessed.	Apportioned.
First District.....	$1,687 50	$1,900 00
Second District.....	3,312 50	2,400 00
Third District.....	1,875 00	1,500 00
Fourth District.....	3,000 00	2,000 00
Fifth District.....	1,250 00	1,700 00
Sixth District.....	1,375 00	2,000 00

The additional sum of $200.00 was appropriated to the Missionary work among the Deaf Mutes of the Diocese.

At a meeting of the Board of Managers in Trinity Parish House, Utica, Tuesday, June 11th, 1907, the following reports were read, and the next day were presented to the Convention.

FIRST DISTRICT.

(Jefferson and Lewis Counties.)

The officers of the District are: The Rev. Thomas Duck, Dean; The Rev. Chas. T. Raynor, Secretary; Mr. John M. Tilden, Treasurer; The Rev. Francis W. Eason and Mr. Eli Herrick members of the Executive Board; the Treasurer and Rev. A. J. Brockway members of the Board of Managers.

There are twenty seven parishes and missions in this District, all of which receive financial assistance from the Diocese except five, as will appear from the subjoined statement of the Treasurer.

Missions of the Diocese.

Adams was without a rector until the first of February when the Rev. W. A. Braithwaite assumed charge. During the year till that time services were supplied by various clergymen and Mr. Weller, lay-reader. The Church was thoroughly repaired and all expenses paid. Frederick Corners has also been put under the care of Mr. Braithwaite and services are held there once a month.

Alexandria Bay is served by Mr. Duck in connection with Redwood and Theresa. At Redwood the Church has been painted on the inside and new carpets laid. The Parish has also paid more than its apportionment for General Missions. At Theresa the rectory has been repaired and is now occupied by the rector. All three places have paid their assessment for Diocesan Missions.

Brownville, Glen Park and North Watertown make one cure under the care of the Rev. Gilbert A. Shaw. St. Paul's, Brownville, has been extensively repaired and improved at an expense of above $2,200.00, all of which has been paid. The Olin Memorial at Glen Park has also been repaired and greatly improved. The work done in these parishes is a model of missionary energy.

Constableville is still served by Rev. Robert Fletcher and Port Leyden and Greig by Mr. Smith of Boonville who has been assisted in the work by Mr. Foreman.

Cape Vincent and Millens Bay are now in charge of the Rev. Walter E. Cook who succeeded Mr. Tyndell in the early winter. The same strong Churchmanship characterizes these parishes as in the past.

Antwerp, Evans Mills and Great Bend were put under the care of Mr. S. F. Burhans, a lay-reader of Watertown, who divided his time between them till February 1st, 1907, when he gave every Sunday to Antwerp. His good work there was manifested in a class of ten presented to the Bishop for confirmation in April. Another lay-reader supplied service at Great Bend. The Rev. George E. Edgar took charge of all three congregations on May 1st, 1907 with residence at Antwerp. He will give half his time to Antwerp and half to Evans Mills and Great Bend.

Clayton and La Fargeville were under the care of the Rev. M. J. Hoffman until April 1st, 1907, when he resigned. He was succeeded May 1st, by the Rev. Theodore Haydn who reports a promising outlook in both Parishes.

Missions of the Diocese.

agen and Champion were served by the Rev. F. L. Metcalf, reader, and since December 21st, 1906 as Deacon. The , the Dean, and the Secretary of the District celebrating the union for him. He is doing good work in that rural field.

ev. A. J. Brockway at Pierrepont Manor has relinquished his l given up the work at Fredericks Corners. Ellisburg is still care.

ts Harbor and Dexter, served by the Rev. C. T. Raynor, con- e even tenor of their way. Repairs have been made on the Sacketts.

: Parishes and Missions of the District are now supplied with xcept Carthage, and the future is very promising.

SECOND DISTRICT.

(Oneida County and part of Madison County.)

The officers of the District are: The Rev. Edward H. Coley, Dean; The Rev. J. Winslow Clarke, Secretary; Mr. J. Francis Day, Treasurer; The Rev. William R. McKim and Mr. J. Francis Day, members of the Board of Managers.

The Mission Parishes and Stations are: In Oneida County—Augusta, Oriskany Falls, Boonville, Forestport, Bridgewater, Chadwicks, Clayville, Camden, Whitesboro, Paris Hill, New York Mills, Oriskany, Durhamville, Holland Patent, Trenton, Deerfield, Westmoreland, and St. Joseph's, Rome. In Madison County—Brookfield and Earlville.

Four meetings of the Convocation have been held during the year, two in Utica, one in Oneida and one in Oriskany.

The Rev. J. B. Wicks, Rector of St. Paul's Church, Paris Hill, reports that all obligations have been met and the parish is clear of debt. The death of several prominent members has narrowed the means of this old parish but it continues its work largely ministering to those outside of the parish. During the past year the Rector has attended 14 funerals in such families.

Missions of the Diocese.

The Rev. A. L. Byron-Curtiss, Rector of St. Joseph's Church, Rome, reports that during Lent and on Easter Day the services were marked by unusual attendance. On the Sunday nights in Lent the Litany was sung, a feature, which delighted the English people accustomed to hearing it rendered at "Home" and gave satisfaction to all attending the service. A noteworthy feature of the increased attendance at these services was a preponderance of men. About 200 made their Easter Communion. A pipe organ in the church has recently given out and the Vestry have voted to raise the $200.00 necessary to put in a new one by a "house collection" in the parish. A class of 22 children are in preparation for Confirmation in the Fall.

The Rev. James J. Burd took charge of St. Paul's, Deerfield, in January and reports that he has held Sunday and week-day services, and celebrated the Holy Communion on Easter Day. The attendance is small here as there are a good many children, who ought to be trained for the Church who are worth the effort. The Sunday School is under the charge of Mr. George M. Weaver.

The Rev. G. C. Wadsworth in charge of St. John's, Whitesboro, and Gethsemane, Westmoreland, reports that Sunday and Week-day services have been held in both Churches. The Easter offering at St. John's, Whitesboro, was the largest in the history of the parish and about $100.00 was realized from a Fair which was held in Easter week. All hands to be working together and the outlook is exceptionally bright. In Westmoreland the services are as well attended as can be expected. The week-day services and especially the Good Friday service were well attended by persons outside the Church.

The Rev. W. R. McKim in charge of St. Andrew's, Durhamville, reports that Sunday and Week-day services have been held and the Holy Communion celebrated. On January 27th the Bishop of the Diocese visited the Mission and confirmed a class of five persons. At an early service on Low Sunday 32 made their Easter Communion. A new car has been recently provided for the chapel.

The Rev. F. C. Smith, Rector of Trinity Church, Boonville, and Missionary of Christ Church, Forestport, reports that Sunday and Week-day services have been held and the Holy Communion celebrated in both churches.

The Rev. G. E. Edgar, who during the past year has been in charge of St. George's, Chadwicks, St. John's, Clayville, and Christ Church,

Missions of the Diocese.

Bridgewater, reports that Sunday and Week-day services have been held and the Holy Communion celebrated in these stations. The Rev. A. J. Schrader took charge of these Missions on the first of May.

The Rev. C. J. Lambert in charge of Grace Church, Earlville, reports that Sunday and Week-day services have been held and the Holy Communion celebrated in this Mission.

In St. Timothy's, Brookfield, services have been held and the Holy Communion celebrated by the Rev. R. M. Duff, S. T. D. and the Ven. William Cooke alternately on one Sunday in each month. A Sunday School is maintained every Sunday.

The Rev. George D. Ashley took charge of Trinity Church, Camden, February 1st, and reports that Sunday and Week-day services have been held and the Holy Communion celebrated since he became Rector of the parish.

The Rev. A. W. Allen, Rector of St. Peter's, Oriskany, and St. James', New York Mills reports that the regular services have been held and all assessments paid. The attendance at Sunday and Lenten services has been good. A new roof has been placed on St. Peter's and the interior of the church needs renovation. A choir of nine boys has been organized and a competent director engaged to instruct them in Church music. The parish organization of St. James' is in good order. A Fair was held last Fall, the proceeds of which were applied on a debt of $250.00 incurred after the fire of February, 1905, and which reduced the debt to about $50.00.

The Rev. B. T. Stafford is Rector of St. Andrew's, Augusta, and the Good Shepherd, Oriskany Falls. Services have been maintained and the Holy Communion celebrated in both places. Two new families have been added to the Church of the Good Shepherd. Lent was better observed than ever before and the Easter Feast was most enjoyable.

The Rev. E. B. Doolittle, Rector of St. Paul's, Holland Patent, and Missionary of St. Andrew's, Trenton, reports that Sunday and Week-day services have been held and the Holy Communion celebrated in both places. During the past year there has been considerable improvement made to St. Paul's Church. A beautiful window, in memory of the Rev. George L. Neide and his wife, has been placed in the chancel. The interior of the church has been newly decorated and the seats re-arranged. On Easter day a flagon was given to the Church by Miss Fuller in memory of her uncle. The interest manifested by the members and others of Trenton, is very refreshing and encouraging to the Mission-seems to be a steady and healthy growth and the future on seems to be bright. All obligations are promptly paid.

Missions of the Diocese.

JAMES WINSLOW CLARKE, Secretary.

(Broome and Chenango Counties.)

The officers of the District are: The Rev. Harry S. Longley, Dean; The Rev. Christopher J. Lambert, Secretary; Mr. William J. Russell, Treasurer; The Rev. Charles Du Bois Broughton and Mr. Stephen Dracs members of the Board of Missions; The Rev. A. R. B. Hegeman and Messrs. William H. Shaw and Joseph E. Packard members of the finance committee.

There are seventeen Parishes and Missions in the district. The following have received appropriations from the mission funds; namely, St. Peter's, Bainbridge; St. Ann's, Afton; St. Luke's, Harpursville; Christ Church, Guilford; Grace, Mount Upton; Grace, Whitney's Point; St. John's, Chenango Forks; and Zion Church, Windsor.

During the past year there have been three meetings of the Convocation; the fall meeting was held in Zion Church, Greene; the winter meeting in Christ Church, Binghamton; and the spring meeting in St. Peter's Church, Bainbridge.

Bainbridge:—This Parish is in a flourishing condition under the able rectorship of the Rev. Wilson E. Tanner. The property of the Parish is in excellent condition and the Parish meets all its financial obligations promptly. The most important event which we have to record is the fact that the Parish after the payment of the missionary stipend due August first, voluntarily announced its intention to carry on its work unaided by the Board of Managers, and is now a self supporting Parish.

Missions of the Diocese.

Afton:—The work in this Mission is carried on by the Rev. Wilson E. Tanner, Rector at Bainbridge. Services are held Sunday afternoons, and such other services as Mr. Tanner finds time to hold. The services are well attended and harmony prevails among the members.

Harpursville:—The Rev. George H. Kirkland returned to the district after an absence of a few years and was assigned to the work in this Parish. The selection has proven to be a fortunate one, and the standard of work so successfully carried on by the late Rector, the Rev. Edwin Lee Tanner, has been maintained by the present Missionary. The fund started by Mr. Tanner to repair the Church property has been augmented and the work about completed.

Windsor:—The work at Windsor continues under the leadership of the Rev. J. J. Andrew. The Parish has met its obligations, but has suffered much by removals.

Guilford:—This Parish has long been blessed under the able leadership of the Rev. George G. Perrine. No Parish in the district has shown more evident signs of spiritual strengthening, and in accordance with its ability, strength in a financial way. The Parish has suffered a severe loss in the resignation of the Rev. Mr. Perrine which took effect on the first of April. The Rev. John T. Lewis was appointed to this Parish, and assumed his duties on Whitsunday.

Mount Upton:—The mission in this place has been in charge of the Rector of Guilford, and while the mission cannot hope for any marked increase, yet the services come to a few Church people who are devoutly thankful for the ministrations of the Church.

Whitney's Point:—The services in Grace Church were maintained until January by the Missionary, the Rev. Charles Webster Hakes, M. D., in connection with the Mission at Chenango Forks. About the first of the year Dr. Hakes was called to the Rectorship at Homer in the Fourth District. At this time an arrangement was made by the Bishop whereby Dr. Hakes was to maintain the services at Whitney's Point, leaving the work at Chenango Forks to the Missionary of Chenango County who is supported by the Van Wagenen Missionary fund. By this arrangement about $350.00 was saved to the missionary funds of the diocese, while the stipend of Dr. Hakes was increased. Since this arrangement was entered into services have been held at Whitney's Point in the afternoon on Sundays. The work in this Parish continues about as usual, no marked increase being noted in numbers or in financial matters.

Missions of the Diocese.

Chenango Forks:—Until January services were maintained here under the care of the Rev. Charles Webster Hakes, M. D., and after that time the Rev. Robert M. Duff, D. D., missionary for Chenango County was assigned to the work. The services have been maintained under difficulties, and conditions have been reported as discouraging. It is hoped that the few faithful will be aroused to more zealous works under the guiding hand of Dr. Duff.

Chenango County Missionary:—The Rev. Dr. Duff, Missionary for Chenango County, is working on the Van Wagenen Missionary Fund foundation. Services are held in the country places in Chenango County, and scattered Church families are thereby ministered to by the Church. The work of Dr. Duff has helped to relieve the missionary funds of some burden for he has assumed charge of the work at Chenango Forks as has already been stated and has also had charge of the services in the Mission at McDonough and that at Brookfield in the Second District.

The financial statement appended to this report shows that the following Parishes have paid their assessment in full, namely, Christ Church, Binghamton; Trinity Church, Binghamton; St. Ann's, Afton; Grace Church Whitney's Point; St. Peter's Church, Bainbridge; Christ Church, Sherburne; Zion Church, Windsor; and Calvary Church, Mc Donough.

The following Parishes have paid in excess of the assessment, namely, St. Luke's, Harpursville; Zion Church, Greene; St. Paul's Church, Oxford; and Grace Church, Mount Upton.

The following Parishes have failed to pay their full assessment, namely, The Good Shepherd, Binghamton; Christ Church, Guilford; St. Andrews, New Berlin; and Emmanuel Church, Norwich.

St. John's Church, Chenango Forks has failed to pay anything.

FOURTH DISTRICT.

, Oswego, Cortland Counties, and the Townships of Madison County not included in the Second District.)

icers of the District are: The Rev. William DeLancey Wilson, i; The Rev. Almon A. Jaynes, Secretary; Mr. Charles H. Behm, These officers and the Rev. John T. Rose and the Rev. H. G.
 , D. D., constitute the Executive Committee.

Missions of the Diocese.

The Secretary and Treasurer are the elected members of the Board of Managers.

The Mission Stations of the Fourth District are: Altmar, Chittenango, Cleveland, Constantia, East Onondaga, East Syracuse, Jamesville, Lacona, Manlius, Marcellus, Memphis, Mexico, Onondaga Reservation, St. John's, Oswego, Phoenix, Pulaski, Redfield, St. Philips, Syracuse, Warner.

The Good Shepherd, Onondaga Reservation and St. John's, Oswego, receive no aid from the District. St. Thomas Mission and St. Luke's Mission Syracuse have been discontinued during the year.

Meetings of Convocation have been held three times during the year, at the Reservation, July 2nd; at St. Paul's, Syracuse, October 10th and 11th, and conjointly with the District W. A. at Christ Church, Oswego, May 7th and 8th.

St. John's, Altmar, continues under the care of the Rev. B. E. Whipple. The condition of the Parish varies but little from year to year. The removals about equal the confirmations, but there are satisfactory evidences of spiritual growth and a good financial condition.

St. James' Church, Cleveland:—The Rev. Thomas Stafford reports that the past year has been a successful and prosperous one for the Parish. The services have been more largely attended and better supported. Several improvements have been made in the interior of the church building and all the obligations of the Parish met. The outlook is very hopeful. Steps have been already taken to revive the services of the Church at Constantia during the coming summer

St. Paul's, Chittenango, continues under the care of the Rev. George H. Ottaway of Canastota.

St. Andrew's, East Onondaga:—Since the retirement of the Rev. William D. Manross, this Mission has been under the charge of the Dean and services maintained by Mr. Luther L. Weller and Mr. C. W. Arthur, Lay readers. Both the Sunday School and the congregations are increasing in size and conditions seem much more encouraging.

On the resignation of the Rev. George D. Ashley, Christ Church, Manlius, was placed under the charge of the Rev. George G. Perrine, formerly Dean of the Third District.

Missions of the Diocese.

Emmanuel Church, East Syracuse, was cared for by the Rev. F. T. Henstridge until his removal from the Diocese in January. Since that time regular services have been maintained by the Rev. W. W. Raymond.

The Rev. Daniel Daly, despite his advanced age and increasing infirmities, has continued to faithfully serve the parish at Lacona.

Since the death of the Rev. Ernest Melville, regular services have been maintained in St. Mark's Church, Jamesville by visiting clergymen and lay readers.

St. John's, Marcellus, continues in a healthy and flourishing condition under the faithful and effective service of the Rev. E. B. Mott. During the year a very successful mission was conducted by the Rev. H. S. Sizer which contributed much to the deepening of the spiritual life of the Parish.

The Rev. J. Hamilton Stirling reports the maintenance of regular services at Emmanuel Church, Memphis, with a monthly celebration of the Holy Communion. A deeper interest in the welfare of the Parish is evidenced among the parishioners.

The Rev. J. Otis Ward reports that he has conducted regular services at Mexico and Pulaski on alternate Sundays. Extensive repairs have been made to the Church in the latter place, and an addition in the form of a transept, containing an organ chamber and a chapel, has been built. A new furnace has been bought, and a reredos placed in the sanctuary. The congregations are good, and increasing numbers make their communions at the early service.

At Mexico the Church building is badly in need of repairs. The communicant list has increased but the financial condition of the Parish is not satisfactory. The Missionary emphasizes the need of a resident priest.

The Mission to the Onondaga Indians continues under the ministrations of the Rev. W. S. Hayward. Aided by the untiring and invaluable assistance of his wife and daughters, the missionary is doing a most faithful and praiseworthy work. He reports an encouraging increase in the industry and frugality of the Indians. They have increased their offerings, and the Sunday School is growing steadily.

Missions of the Diocese.

St. John's Mission, Oswego, has had a prosperous year under the efficient care of the Rev. H. S. Sizer of the Church of the Evangelists.

In March, the care of St. John's Mission, Phoenix, was resigned by the Rev. H. G. Coddington, D. D., and placed under the supervision of the Dean. Regular services have been conducted by Mr. Luther L. Weller and other lay readers. A class of nine was recently confirmed, and great interest is manifested by the members. The congregation worships in a centrally located dwelling house the first floor of which has been fitted up as a chapel.

St. Philip's, Syracuse:—This congregation of colored people under the devoted leadership of Mr. Wilbur Q. Rogers, Candidate for Holy Orders, is endeavoring to pay the mortgage of $1000 still remaining on the property. Eleven persons have been confirmed and all the Parish obligations have been met. There are about thirty in the Sunday School and a number of children receive instruction during the week in cooking and sewing.

St. Paul's, Warner, is a prosperous mission which has been ministered to by the Rector at Baldwinsville. Since the resignation of the Rev. J. E. Ramsdell regular services have been maintained by visiting clergymen. The congregations have been large and the outlook is bright.

The appended report of the Treasurer shows that seventeen parishes have paid $112.06 more than their assessments. Nineteen are in arrears to the amount of $530.33, besides $14.08 due from two missions where services have been discontinued, $93.59 of this has been paid since the end of the fiscal year.

Missions of the Diocese.

FIFTH DISTRICT.

(Counties of Cayuga and Seneca.)

The officers of the District are: The Rev. William Bours Clarke, Dean; The Rev. Charles W. MacNish, Secretary; Mr. A. N. Hollister, Treasurer; the two latter being also members of the Board of Managers.

The Mission Parishes and Stations are: In Cayuga County—Aurora, Cayuga, Moravia, Northville, Port Byron, Union Springs and Weedsport; in Seneca County—Hayts Corners, Kendaia, Kidders, Romulus, Willard and Willowdale.

Three meetings of Convocation have been held during the current year, viz: at Cayuga Lake Park, July 2nd, 1906; St. Paul's Church, Aurora, November 12th and 13th, 1906; and Christ Church, Willard, May 13th and 14th, 1907.

The dean reports that in addition to the work on the Committee for the removal of St. Andrew's Church from Deys Landing and its reconstruction at Kendaia, he has officiated at Romulus once, administering the Holy Communion.

The report from St. Paul's Church, Aurora, is somewhat incomplete from the fact of various changes having taken place as to priests in charge. The Rev. W. H. Casey resigned during the summer of 1906, when the Rev. L. J. Christler was placed in charge by the Bishop, remaining until a few months ago, when he removed to the Diocese of Montana. The Rev. William M. Beauchamp, S. T. D., has since been supplying.

The Report is from August 29th, 1906 to April 30th, 1907. In the meantime, 82 Clerical Services have been held on Sundays, 1 Christmas, and 10 on Week-days. The Holy Communion has been celebrated 9 times. The amount contributed toward Diocesan Missions is $42.15; and the amount paid Missionary $465, and for board $141, is $606.00.

The Convocation was held here on Monday and Tuesday, Nov. 12th and 13th, 1906, and judging from the goodly attendance, the hearty responses, and the liberal contributions, the event was greatly appreciated.

St. Luke's, Cayuga, is in charge of the Rev. W. H. Casey, who reports as follows, viz: Number of Clerical Services held on Sundays were 52; and the number of Week-day Services, 26. There have been 21 celebrations of the Holy Communion. The amount contributed for Diocesan Missions was $30.00, and the amount paid Missionary on account of salary $240.00.

St. Matthew's, Moravia, is under the charge of the Rev. G. P. Sommerville, D. D., who reports that 110 Clerical Services have been held in the parish on Sundays throughout the year; and also, 41 Week-day Services. There have been 41 celebrations of the Holy Communion.

Amount contributed to Diocesan Missions, $55.75, the amount paid Missionary on account of salary is reported as $500.00.

Calvary Church, Northville, has had but seven Sunday Services during the year, four Clerical and 3 Lay. These were held during the months of July and August, 1906.

Unfortunately, there were no celebrations of the Holy Communion.

The amount contributed toward Diocesan Missions was $4.68. The amount paid on account of Services was $27.87, and for Church expenses, $7.40.

It is hoped that by connecting this struggling Mission with Aurora, more frequent if not regular Services may be provided, and that the little flock may receive pastoral care.

As there is no report from the St. Paul's Church at Port Byron, perhaps this might be included in the report.

Church matters in Port Byron, are by no means encouraging. St. Paul's Church has had no Services for some time because of lack of interest on the part of the people.

The Archdeacon and Dean are planning, however, to hold a Mission in the church in the near future, hoping thereby to awaken a new interest in things pertaining to the Church and the spiritual welfare of the people.

Grace Church, Union Springs, is in charge of the Rev. Wm. H. Casey, who reports as follows, viz: Number of Clerical Services held in the Church, on Sundays, 78. Number of Clerical Services held in the Church on Week-days, 30. There have been 34 celebrations of the Holy Communion. The amount contributed toward Diocesan Missions, $30.00. And the amount paid Missionary on account of salary, $216.

Missions of the Diocese.

St. John's Church, Weedsport, is served principally by Mr. Frank Hokerk, Lay-Reader; who reports that there have been 4 Clerical Services held during the year on Sundays, and 47 Lay Services on Sundays. The Holy Communion has been celebrated 3 times. $8.00 have been contributed to Diocesan Missions and $154.00 paid toward the support of the services.

St. Andrew's Church, Kendaia, is comparatively a new Mission, and until recently, has been a congregation without a proper Church edifice in which to worship, though much zeal and interest in the Church and services have been manifested.

At Deys Landing, there was the opposite condition of things, viz. Church edifice, with all its furnishings, but no congregation.

Through the efforts of a committee appointed by the Convocation and as a result of liberal contributions of Church people throughout the Diocese, supplementing the self-sacrificing efforts on the part of citizens of Kendaia, the Church building has been removed from Deys Landing to Kendaia, and at a recent visitation of the Bishop, in presence of a large and happy congregation and a number of visiting clergymen, the structure, with all its furnishings was duly consecrated to the worship of Almighty God, under the name of St. Andrew's Church, Kendaia. The number of Clerical Services held on Sundays, 2, and number of Lay Services held on Sunday, 49. There has been one celebration of the Holy Communion; and the amount contributed toward the support of the services, $65.11.

All Saints, Kidders, is supported chiefly by the transient visitors to this Summer Resort. The number of services held during the summer of 1906 was 9, of which, 5 were Clerical, and 4 Lay Sunday Services.

St. Stephen's Church, Romulus is in charge of the Rev. Harry L. who reports 45 Clerical and 7 Lay Sunday Services as having been held, as also 11 Clerical Week-day Services. There have been 7 celebrations of the Holy Communion. $30.00 were contributed to Diocesan Missions and $137.00 were paid the Missionary on account of salary.

Grace Church, Willowdale is also in charge of the Rev. Harry L. 35 Clerical Sunday Services are reported from here, and 22 Lay Services on Sunday. 2 Clerical Services were also held on Week-days. There have been 8 celebrations of the Holy Communion. $30.00 have been contributed to Diocesan Missions and $75.00 paid the Missionary on account of salary.

Calvary Church, Hayts Corners, is in charge of the Secretary, who reports 64 Clerical Services as having been held on Sundays, and 14 Clerical Services as having been held on Week-days. There have been 14 celebrations of the Holy Communion. $6.00 have been contributed to Diocesan Missions, and $59.61 paid the Missionary on account of salary.

Christ Church, Willard, is also in charge of the Secretary. With the assistance of a Lay-reader, the expense for which is met by the parish, the Missionary has been able to supply 109 Sunday Services, and to minister to practically two distinct congregations each Sunday. It is by this means, also, that the Missionary has been enabled to give regular celebrations of the Holy Communion, on Sunday mornings, to the congregation at Hayts Corners. The number of celebrations of the Holy Communion at Willard, 14. $48.00 have been contributed to Diocesan Missions, and $293.50 have been paid the Missionary on account of salary.

This parish being in the vicinity of the Willard State Hospital, where an unusual opportunity is given for Missionary work, for many years the pressing need of a Parish House has been felt, where the large and growing Sunday School can hold its sessions, and where the young men and women can meet together socially; and better, where they can be gathered into the Men's Club, and the Woman's Auxiliary. It can readily be seen that if this can be made to materialize, it will not only be a decided help in the work and interest and welfare of the Mission, but it will be an unflinching step in the direction of self-support.

It is with all this in mind that the Missionary, and officials of the Mission, with the approval of the Bishop, have ventured to begin active operations toward the erection of such a structure.

During the year I have instructed the Treasurer of the Diocese to pay Stipends amounting to $1,700.

A. N. HOLLISTER, Treasurer.

Auburn, N. Y., May 11th, 1907.

SIXTH DISTRICT.

(Counties of Chemung, Tioga and Tompkins.)

Missions of the Diocese.

The officers of the District are: The Rev. N. S. Boardman, Dean; Rev. Theodore Haydn, Secretary; Mr. H. V. Bostwick, Treasurer; Rev. A. B. Rudd, (the Rev. C. H. McKnight alternate,) and Mr. H. Bostwick, representatives on the Board of Managers.

The Missions of the District are: Emmanuel, Elmira, Big Flats, Millport, Horseheads, Wellsburg, Van Etten, Candor, Spencer, Waverly, Lathrop, Trumansburg, McLean, Dryden. Slaterville Springs, and Edenville.

Three meetings of the Convocation of the District have been held during the year, as follows: In Trinity Church, Syracuse, on June 18th, between sessions of the Convention; in St. Mark's Church, Candor, Oct. 8th, 9th, and in Grace Church, Elmira, Feb. 5th and 6th.

At the time of this report all of the parishes and missions of the District are filled, although several changes have recently occurred in the personnel of the District. Six clergymen care for the fifteen Missions.

Emmanuel Church, Elmira and St. Mark's, Millport, remain under the care of Dean Boardman. The latter place is a good example of the important work done in the country missions in training in Church life those who go forth to become permanent members of city parishes. In Emmanuel, Elmira, a deeper spirit of devotion and an increased interest in the welfare of the parish seemed to spring up as the result of a well kept fund. Shortly after Easter a friend of the parish donated $5,000 to the building fund. This makes it possible to immediately begin active work, and the ground for the new Church will probably be broken about the 1st of June.

The Rev. Mr. Feary continues in charge of St. Matthew's, Horseheads, and of St. John's, Big Flats, and although no especial report has been received from him, these missions seem to be prospering under his faithful care.

The Rev. Mr. Hoskins continues with zeal and faithfulness to discharge his duty in the difficult and extensive field, which includes Candor, Spencer, and Van Etten.

The Rev. Mr. Crydenwise also remains in the District. The Parish at Waverly is in good condition. The year closes with all bills paid.

Missions of the Diocese.

The 50th anniversary of the Parish was celebrated the first week in May and something over $500 was secured for making much needed repairs upon the Church. The missions at Smithboro and Wellsburg are discouraging fields and it does not seem possible to accomplish much in either place at the present time beyond giving the ministrations and privileges of the Church to the few faithful communicants.

The Rev. Mr. Schrader left Slaterville and Speedsville about May 1st to accept charge of Chadwick's, Clayville and Bridgewater. No special report was received from him, but both of these parishes seem to be in good condition. The legacy of Mr. John Cross to the Church at Speedsville has been well invested and the income is of very great help. Bad roads several times prevented the missionary from keeping the regular appointments at this place.

The Rev. Mr. Haydn left Dryden and McLean on May 1st for Clayton and La Fargeville in the 1st District.

The parish at Dryden passed a prosperous year. It has gained strength through the accession of several communicants, from other parishes. Something was done toward grading the Church lot, although this work is not entirely finished, and a cement walk was laid. A handsome brass cross was received from a friend of the Parish, and the Altar was beautified by the addition of carved panels and lettering upon the front and the re-table. A legacy of $25.00 from a townswoman has formed the nucleus of an Endowment Fund.

The parish at McLean has suffered very heavily by death and removal. The old house used in former years as a Rectory has been sold and the money derived from the sale will be added to the Parish Endowment Fund.

At the request of the Superintendent, the Rev. Mr. Haydn held service twice, once on Good Friday Evening, in the Chapel of the George Junior Republic at Freeville.

The four parishes vacated by the removal of Messrs. Schrader and Haydn have been made a single missionary field and the Rev. T. A. Stevenson began to serve this most difficult and extensive field about the middle of May.

Late in the year 1906 the Rev. Mr. Cook removed from Trumansburg to Cape Vincent, and the Rev. Mr. Idle was given this place in addition to the work he was then doing in the 5th District. He now makes Trumansburg his place of residence, and with the aid of lay-readers maintains services in Romulus, Willowdale and during the summer months also at Kidder's Ferry. No special report has been received from him.

The majority of the missionaries seem to be unwilling, doubtless through a sense of modesty, to make any detailed statement of the things accomplished in their several fields, which makes it difficult for the Secretary to compile the Annual Report.

From a financial standpoint the year in the District has been distinctly one of progress. Not only did the District reach the high water mark of the previous year in its contributions for Diocesan Missions, but it came within $41.00 of meeting the increased assessment. 13 Parishes and Missions discharged their obligation in full, and 7 of these contributed in excess of their assessments. Only six were in arrears, of which one, usually with a good record, has this year failed to contribute anything. The other five, with one exception contributed much in excess of their assessments of former years. So that with these two exceptions the entire District may be seen to have made a distinct advance.

Report of the Committee on the Report of the Missionary Board

To the Board of Missions of the Diocese of Central New York.

Your Committee to whom was referred the report of the Board of Managers, beg leave to report that, after a careful reading of the very full and ably prepared statement submitted to them, of what is being done in the way of conducting the missionary work of the Diocese, they find much to approve and commend and only a little to suggest in the way of improvement.

There appears to be a very laudable endeavor on the part of almost all the parishes and missions of the Diocese, to contribute the full amount they are asked to give to this object, while several have succeeded in doing even more than that. Of those who have fallen short of meeting their assessments it has generally been by a very small amount and, apparently, only because the sum required, often at their own suggestion, was just so far beyond the reach of their most earnest endeavors. Some missions, apparently too feeble to be asked to give anything, have, nevertheless, generously contributed, being glad to give of their little. On the other hand, we very much regret to observe, a very few of the parishes of the Diocese, have made no contribution whatever to the missionary work, failing, like the inhabitants of Meroz, to come up to the help of the Lord against the mighty. This is one thing in which we feel there ought to be an improvement. The only further suggestion your Committee have to offer is that it would be a great improvement and advantage if the Board of Managers in their wisdom could devise some method for a more equitable distribution of the missionary funds. Such improvement appears, both from this report and that presented by the Archdeacon, to be very much needed.

On the whole your Committee feel that the members of the Church are to be very much commended for their liberal contributions, and that the Diocese is to be congratulated both on the manner in which its missionary work is being done and on the prospect, through the earnest and efficient co-operation and assistance of the Archdeacon, that it will become more and more satisfactory in the future,

Respectfully Submitted,

GEO. G. PERRINE.

ARCHDEACON'S REPORT TO THE BOARD OF MANAGERS.

Having already given a somewhat detailed account of my work in the GOSPEL MESSENGER, it will be necessary for me to give but a summary of that work. My time during the eight and a half months since my appointment as Archdeacon, has been chiefly occupied in becoming acquainted with the missionary work of the Diocese, supplying vacancies in missionary parishes and stations, and presenting the cause of Diocesan Missions to a number of the self-supporting parishes. I have visited 87 of the 99 missionary parishes and stations, 26 of them twice, 6 three times and 5 four times, and 26 of the self-supporting parishes. I have celebrated the Holy Communion 44 times in public, and once in private, held 145 public services, attended 11 meetings of Convocations, met vestries and committees on 33 occasions, conferences with other committees 21 times, and sundry other meetings 47 times, delivered 114 sermons and addresses.

The Board is to be congratulated upon the condition of the Treasury, which shows last year's indebtedness paid, and a balance in hand with which to begin the new year; the sum of $975.53 more being raised this year than last.

By certain combinations which have been made, and which are in process of being made, quite a sum will be saved to the Board, but in no case has a combination been made to the detriment of the work, or the reduction of any missionaries' salary, on the contrary, in every case where such combinations have been made, or are in contemplation, the missionary's stipend has been considerably increased.

It may seem somewhat premature for me, so early in my work, to suggest anything differing from the established order of things, yet having studied the situation as a whole, I may, perhaps, be allowed to bring before your attention a few matters, calling for consideration:

1st. Our aim should be to provide for every missionary a living salary, even though his work has to be spread out over a larger field. Not taking into account several missionaries who are aged or infirm, and unable to do full work. We have—one receiving $950 and house; two, $950; one, $925 and house; two, $900 and house; one, $875; one, $825 and house; three, $800 and house; two, $800; six, $750 and house; two, $750; two, $700 and house; four, $650 and house; two, $650; four, $600 and house; three, $600; one, $550 and house; two, $500 and house; one, $500; two, $450 and house. In most cases the missionaries having to pay their own traveling expenses between one or more stations.

2nd. Every missionary receiving a stipend of over $200 for work in one parish or mission station should be required to give part of his time to missionary work elsewhere, and the stipend should be so arranged that where a mission is, or can be attached to a larger parish desiring aid, the services in the smaller place can be assured with regularity.

3rd. Quite a number of missionary parishes, able to pay only a small part of the missionary's salary, and others unable to maintain services without having a mission station, receiving a stipend, seem to claim the right to call their own Rector.

It should be the recognized principle of the Board not to give a missionary stipend to a parish not willing to accept the Bishop's appointment of the missionary.

4th. There should be greater uniformity in the assessments and appropriations for Diocesan Missions.

5th. It should be required that all offerings for Diocesan Missions taken during the fiscal year, should be forwarded by the District Treasurers to the Diocesan Treasurer before the close of that year.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM COOKE, Archdeacon.

There could be a small saving made for the Diocese if those who make remittances to the treasurer would not send personal checks, on which exchange has to be paid. This often happens in remittances which the treasurer merely passes on for objects outside the Diocese.

Another suggestion the treasurer would like to make is that there be a change in the canons made so that no Assessment for the Diocesan Expense Fund shall be less than $1.00. The cost of collection of anything less hardly pays. I have some on my list now of five cents. By the time I have sent three notices to secure the five cents the profits are small.

It is a matter for congratulation that all but 7 of the parishes in union with the convention have paid the Diocesan Assessment.

The Committee on the accounts of the Treasurer of the Diocese reports that it has examined the books and accounts of the Treasurer and finds them correct as to cash balances, with vouchers exhibited for all disbursements. The Committee further desires to congratulate the Diocese on the methodical and accurate manner in which the accounts of its Treasurer are kept.

Christmas Fund—Report of the Trustees.

As will be seen the amount appropriated to the Diocese by the General Clergy Relief Fund is in excess of that received by the General Clergy Relief Fund from the Diocese. We find that out of the 149 Parishes and Missions reported in the Almanacs, but 25 directly and others through Dis. Treas. have contributed to the General Clergy Relief Fund, $948.99 while the General Fund has appropriated $2,050.00 to the Diocese of Central New York in a year.

While the Trustees are glad to meet the necessities of the Diocese as far as they are provided with funds, yet they feel that all congregations should be induced to contribute, at least something, once a year as recommended by the General Convention and thus share in increasing appropriations and pensions generally, and in making up what is lacking from the Diocese.

The need is truly great. Many and insistent calls are made upon the Trustees. Common humanity, as well as Christianity, demand that we do all we can.

As indicated in our report last year, we consider it vitally necessary that at some time during your Convention, a report be made so that the Diocese may know the condition of affairs, and also that the report, and such resolutions as it may bring forth may be printed in your Journal.

You will be glad to know that sixty out of the eighty dioceses and Missionary Jurisdictions of the entire Church now depend entirely upon the fund for pension and relief, and that half a dozen more are considering the matter of merging or consolidation. (The list of beneficiaries amounts to between 450 and 500.) It is therefore necessary to safeguard the interests of the General Fund in every possible way from the inroads and incursions of any other funds and societies, which may decrease the amounts given to the General Fund or take away from its resources to such an extent as to make it impossible for the Trustees to fulfill the obligations they are taking upon themselves in granting pensions for life at the urgent request of the authorities and others in each Diocese.

In other words the obligations of the Trustees have now become so large and serious that they must not only claim the cordial support of every Churchman, but protection in like manner from anything which will divert or lessen the income or resources.

The Trustees earnestly request that the notice of the Fund, its object and address be placed on the cover of the Journal, and that the Committee

Christmas Fund—Report of the Treasurer.

Relief be appointed or elected and that the names of the Committee be placed in the Journal among the other important committees of the Diocese.

Frey property on Manlius Street was sold to Louis & Clara Prell for $1,550.00. $100.00 paid down on August 10, 1906, and bond and mortgage for $1,450.00, at 6 per cent. They pay $15.00 a month, and interest semi-annually on balance due. On January 1, 1907, bond and mortgage was reduced to $1,424.35, interest being $25.65.

Parochial Fund—Report of the Trustees.

$50.00 commission was paid for the sale of the Manlius Street 1. The principal due on Prell mortgage will have to be adjusted every months, as the purchaser pays $15.00 a month.

On January 8th, 1907, the principal was increased $42.00 by cash forwarded by A. P. Merchant, and on April 18th, 1907 was increased $100.00 from contributions from Christ Church, Guilford. In the report of 1906, the Frost mortgage of $150.00 was erroneously stated to be paid of this fund.

The income of this fund paid as officers in charge of church may direct.

No. 211 Pattison Street was sold in November 1906, to Arthur J. and Sophie M. Lamirande, for $1,300.00; $200 being paid in cash, and $1,100 by bond and mortgage.

This fund received of the purchase price, $200 in cash, and an $800 interest in the mortgage which pays up the interest of $594.85, which this fund had in the premises, and also the amount of $387.22, due this fund for repairs made in 1904 together with the balance of $17.93 applied on sundry expenses made since.

The impairment of $247.48 as per report of May 1, 1906, has been made up.

The Camillus property, which has hitherto been carried as an asset, we have omitted to value in the report, as it is extremely doubtful if anything can be realized from it.

Two-thirds of income of this fund is payable to Bishop of the Diocese, for Educational purposes, and one-third for support of Rector of Christ Church, Jordan, N. Y.

The Permanent Misisonary Fund gave this Fund in 1906, $53.47, which has never been paid. We have treated this last named amount as a gift, until something is realized from the sale of the lots, from the sale of which, however, it is feared there will be a heavy loss.

Parochial Fund—Report of the Trustees.

“	22. Clarke fund, overpayment of Guenther interest into this fund.	30	$3,068
1907.	May 1. Cash in Syracuse Trust Co., principal. .		$ 1,109

The Carroll (Potter) mortgage was reduced $80.31, and the Guenther mortgage $130.00. The North Beech St. property (Higgins) sold May 16th, 1906, for $400.00.

The Lewis mortgage of $827.00 has been paid in full.

The William St. property was sold in January, 1907, and $1,030 was realized for this fund.

The Pattison St. house was sold in November, 1907, and $300 was realized by this fund (Lamirande mortgage), a loss of $300.00.

331 W. Kennedy Street property was sold to J. M. Luther, in January 1907, receiving $164.57 and a bond and mortgage for $1,000.00. Loss of $35.43 on sale and back taxes of $67.83 on 331 W. Kennedy Street were made up from surplus on sale of 325 Hoeffer Street.

This fund had an interest in 617 W. Newell Street of $1,011. This property and the Meadow Street house adjoining was sold in August 1906, to B. A. Gray for $2,000; $200 cash and a mortgage of $1,800, which was divided among the several funds interested and this fund realized $1,007.28, viz: an interest in the mortgage of $900 and $202.15, less $36.82 paid Fenno Tudor Fund and $58.05 paid Permanent Missionary Fund, making a loss of $4.61 on the sale, which will be paid back from the next payment of the Gray interest.

The St. Paul's Church, Constableville Fund paid $86.59 on the amount of $286.59 due from it, besides paying a loan of $15.33.

James M. Gilbert received loans amounting to $2,000.00 secured by his bonds and mortgages.

Income paid to the Bishop of the Diocese.

Helen Lewis paid $400 on July 6, 1906, on the principal of her bond and mortgage.

On January 1, 1907, $500 was loaned to James M. Gilbert on his bond and mortgage.

The West Kennedy Street property was sold, this fund receiving a $600 interest in the John M. Luther bond and mortgage, the sum of $176.38 cash, that being the amount payable to this fund as its share of the proceeds. The loss of $33.62, however, was made up from the surplus received on the sale of 325 Hoeffler Street property and also $36.18 paid for back taxes to clear title of W. Kennedy Street property.

On April 30th, 1907, 134 Hoeffler Street was sold on Land Contract to William and Mary T. Hoff, for $1,250. They paid $25.00 down on the contract. Commission of $50.00 for the sale is due.

The income is paid to Rev. W. H. Casey, Union Springs, N. Y.

Herriman paid an account of principal $1,000 00.

The Smith and the Streeter bonds and mortgages were paid

Lamanno paid $100.00 on account of principal.

The interest of $2.12 in 325 Hoeffler Street and the amount due Rent and Pierrepont Fund and Constable Fund, as per report of have been paid. There is still due from the Douglass Fund, $53.47. This has been treated as a gift.

This fund had an interest in the West Kennedy Street premises, Meadow Avenue, and in 325 Hoeffler Street, (its interest in Hoeffler Street was not mentioned in the report of 1906 by an oversight.) All of these properties have been sold. This fund realized from Kennedy Street, $274.97; from Meadow Avenue, $708.05; (Gray mortgage $650.00 and cash $58.05); and from Hoeffler Street, $157.53.

Loans have been made on bonds and mortgages to Villeneuve $1,400 on which $50.00 has been paid; to W. H. Harding, $1,700.

By mistake Luther & Mayer interest of $6.75 was deposited in Pierre-pont Fund; this will be repaid.

This fund has an 8-10 interest in a judgment against Anna M. J. and A. M. Robertson as noted in report of 1906. The amount of judgment was $302.02. This judgment obtained on foreclosure of mortgage on Turtelot Tract.

The income is paid to the Treasurer of the Diocese.

Parochial Fund—Report of the Trustees.

Abbie Riegel assumed the $1,00.00 bond and mortgage of M. E. Burdick, which was then increased to $1,300.00, interest on $1,000.00, 5 per cent; on the $300.00 increase 5½ per cent for first year, and thereafter 5 per cent.

Lot 26, Oakland Street, was sold for $250.

The Kennedy Street property was sold at a loss, but the loss was made up from the surplus on sale of 325 Hoeffler Street.

403 Hartson Street was sold, this fund receiving as its share from sale, $50.00. Lot part 27 Hartson Street was also sold for $200.00.

J. H. Edmonds paid $155.00 on principal of his bond and mortgage during past year.

For some years past there has been only a portion paid of the income due from this fund to Rev. A. J. Brockway, and for the last thirteen years he has received nothing from the Wheeler Fund. In order to settle the amount to which he was entitled, the matter was referred to Mr. J. M. Tilden, Esq., to look into the matter and report. Mr. Tilden recommended a settlement to be made by paying from the fund $500.00 and from the Wheeler Fund $2,500.00, the same to be in full for all sums due him to May 1, 1906. His recommendation was adopted by the trustees and payment was made accordingly.

Income payable as follows: $500.00 toward salary of Pastor, Residue to Vestry, for repairs etc., under written order of the Bishop.

The deed of trust also provides that the Bishop may, should at any time the parish become unable to support a clergyman without some assistance, apply a larger portion towards said salary, should the accumulation warrant it, reserving, however, always enough for the other purposes mentioned. Under this last provision, $800.00 has been paid Mr. Brockway.

Slosson Bros. mortgage of $200.00 and the Vehala (Streeter) mortgage $150.00 were paid in full.

The balance of $400.00 due on the Brizee mortgage, was paid. In report of 1906 the principal due on this mortgage was erroneously stated to be $600.00.

325 Hoeffler Street sold for $1,400 cash, but part of this was used to pay up the losses incurred by the various other funds from sale of the W. Kennedy Street flat,—and part was paid the Permanent Missionary Fund which had an interest in this property.

The interest of this fund in the William Street house was $400, instead of $1,188.35 as stated in the report of 1906.

The amount paid Mr. Brockway was pursuant to a recommendation made by Mr. Tilden. (For explanation see Pierrepont fund.)

Income payable for purpose of maintaining clergyman, organist and singer to hold services in the Protestant Episcopal Church at Manliusville, N. Y., and for maintaining the grounds and buildings.

There is not included in this summary the Wetmore Fund, the t of which is not in the Trustees.

During the past year we received $17,900.00 from sales of Real tate; this includes $100.00 paid down April 30, 1907, on the sale of Ne Street extension property, to bind the contract; and have made loans bonds and mortgages (including Huff Land Contract on sale of 134 Hoe Street) amounting to $23,275.00.

All of the improved real estate has now been sold except 621 R land Street. There is on hand upwards of $17,000.00 of vacant r estate, and it is doubtful whether 50 per cent of this amount will be r ized on the sale. In the meantime, much of it is subject to large lo assessments.

The term of office of Mr. Krumbhaar and Mr. Andrews expires t year, and their successors will have to be elected.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

Van Wagenen Fund—Report of the Trustee.

The committee appointed to examine the account of the Treasurer of the Parochial Fund of the diocese of Central New York, from May 1, 1906 to May 1, 1907, met at the office of Chas. W. Andrews, Esq., in the City of Syracuse, on May 31, 1907; and then and there made a thorough examination of all the receipts and disbursements held by him and we do certify the same correct to the best of our knowledge and belief. The amount of cash in his hands was certified to by bank pass books.

J. M. TILDEN,

G. J. MAGER.

G. Van Wagenen Fund.

To the Convention of the Diocese of Central New York:

The fund has never so far as I can judge, been more safely invested than at the present time, nor the interest on the various loans so little in default.

This latter condition is largely the result of persistent work on the part of my business associate Mr. Estelow, who has drummed delinquents "in and out of season" during my disability of last year, with a success which the old familiar voice would not have inspired; this "without money and without price" for he absolutely refused compensation for the considerable time spent, in the midst of his numerous cares.

For this I make acknowledgment here.

One mortgage has disappeared from the list reported last year and two new ones have been taken on.

Of the two upon which no interest has been paid within the year, the first is from a series of misfortunes which made payment by the owner practically impossible, the security however being abundant for the accumulation of interest as well.

The maker in the other case promises all accrued interest and reduction of principal to $1,000, the middle of July. When paid, as I have confidence it will be, the security will be absolutely sufficient for the amount remaining.

Van Wagenen Fund—Report of the Trustee.

This latter clause will I believe apply to the entire list with one exception which is moderate in amount.

Dated May 15, 1907.

Report of the Registrar.

To the Convention of the Diocese of Central New York:

The standing committee to whom the report of the Trustee of the VanWagenen Missionary Fund of the County of Chenango has been referred have examined the accounts of the said Fund and find them correct in all respects.

While the committee realize that this fund specially interests only a certain portion of the diocese, yet they also feel that the diocese at large cannot but be pleased to know of the loyal and steadfast interest displayed by the Trustee during the most of the years of its existence, and that it is due to his watchful care that the Fund is now on a working basis.

Your committee is amply satisfied that the Fund and its workings could not be in much better condition than at the present time.

Respectfully submitted,

CHARLES DUBOIS BROUGHTON,

CHAS. W. BROWN.

Committee.

H. Registrar's Report.

To the Convention of The Diocese of Central New York:

The Registrar of the Diocese was appointed to this office by the Bishop in November last, in succession to the Rev. Edward Huntington Coley.

The Diocese is greatly indebted to Mr. Coley for the systematic and effective work, extending through nearly ten years, done by him in the diocesan archive; and it is much to be regretted, that owing to the growing pressure of other duties, he felt unable to continue this service.

For the information of perhaps a large majority of this Convention the Registrar will state that the collection of books and papers constituting the Diocesan Library, is made up chiefly of bound Volumes of the Journals of Convention of many dioceses, and of the General Convention, of several thousand copies of the Convention Journals of our own diocese, in paper, fifty bound volumes of "The Spirit of Missions," and many more unbound. Besides these there are a large number of unbound journals of other dioceses, of Church magazines and newspapers (some bound,) and innumerable pamphlets. There are also two or three hundred books of a miscellaneous character, mostly theological.

There is in the Library a great deal of rubbish, consisting of duplicates of the Convention Journals of other dioceses, parish papers, Church news papers, circulars, school and college catalogues, dilapidated Prayer-books and Hymnals, Sunday school question books, financial reports of Church and charitable societies, etc.

In the judgment of the Registrar this should be destroyed, for it is absolutely worthless, and takes up room that is greatly needed. But he is unwilling to assume the entire responsibility of putting it out of the way, and he therefore asks the Convention to authorize him under the advice, and with the consent, of two members of the Standing Committee, to dispose of it in any way that he may see fit.

The Library is housed, as it has been for many years, in the room over the sacristy of Calvary Church Utica, and is accessible at all times. The gratitude of the Convention is due to the Rector and vestry of Calvary parish for this kind accommodation.

Work Among the Deaf-Mutes.

I. Work Among the Deaf Mutes.

Report of the Deaf Mute Commission to the Diocese of Central New York:

Your Commission hereby presents its sixth annual report:

There is but little new to be said. This year marks the first in full, when the Missionary has been giving us about three-fifths of his time. Eleven central cities have received as usual the bulk of his attention, while his visitations have extended to a number of smaller towns. The additional time given us over previous years has been spent in looking after the Deaf scattered in the villages and rural districts, making a marked increase in the number of pastoral calls.

This larger scope of the work is what we wished, when we asked for more of the Missionary's time, and increased his salary from $500 to $700. We are glad to say that with the usual appropriation from the Board of Missions of $200,—the Junior Auxiliary $100,—and increased offerings from parishes we have been able to give Mr. Van Allen his regular stipend every month without fail and also have a substantial sum in the treasury to meet the needs until the offerings begin to come in again this fall. We recognize the fact that without the hearty cooperation of the Missionary Board, the Junior Auxiliary, and the parishes we would not be able to do this.

As the Missionary is entirely dependent upon his salary for the ready money to meet his traveling and living expenses, it is a source of gratification to us that we can thus fulfil our monthly obligations to him, and save him any anxiety in the matter. This is the purpose for which the commission was appointed six years ago, and to which it has all along labored. It strives after deeds, not words, it stands behind the missionary to encourage and sustain his efforts, and if this has been accomplished, it is grateful not to have striven in vain. Thanking all generous givers, and begging their future cooperation in such a needed and useful work,—we are respectfully,

The Committee—

JOHN R. HARDING,

CHARLES A. TALCOTT,

CHARLES A. TALCOTT, *Treasurer.Report of the Missionary to the Deaf Mutes.

*To the Commission on Church Work Among the Deaf and Dumb in the

GENTLEMEN: In many respects the past year has been an unusual

Report of the Missionary to the Deaf Mutes.

one. Events have occurred which have greatly disturbed the tranquil of the comparatively narrow world in which our deaf people live, and many misunderstandings, differences and divisions have arisen in consequence. Our Mission has not been able entirely to escape the influence of these conditions, and as a result the year has been, for the Mission, one of more than ordinary anxiety and effort. In a way, the stability of the work which the Church has built up among the deaf has been put to a test, and I am more than pleased to say that the result has demonstrated the substantiality of the hold which the Church has gained upon their minds and hearts; and the loyalty and devotion which have been displayed by the great majority of my people have gone far to compensate me for the trouble and anxiety which I have experienced.

During the year the large cities of the Diocese have demanded more than an ordinary share of my attention. In them, naturally, the most important portion of my work lies, and for the welfare of the mission throughout the Diocese it is necessary that the mission organizations in the large cities should be kept vigorous and intact. The great industrial activity of the past few years has attracted an unusual number of deaf people to the manufacturing centres, and as my services in the cities are attended by people from a wide radius, there has been little opportunity for work in the rural districts. The extension of the trolley roads in the country promises to be a most important factor in our Mission work and even now it is no unusual thing for people to come fifteen miles or more to attend service.

Last Spring I made an extended visitation of the smaller towns and villages of the Diocese, without, however, finding opportunity for materially extending the scope of my work, and during the coming summer I propose to make another thorough inspection of my field, although I do not anticipate that I shall find any change in the conditions. Indeed, they are not likely to change until a period of industrial depression brings the deaf back from the manufacturing centres to the towns and villages where they properly belong. But such a trip as I propose for the coming summer will enable me to meet some isolated deaf people, who will value the visit of a clergyman in proportion to their necessary infrequency, so that it will not be useless.

As I have said, a gratifying feature of the year's work has been the loyalty which has been displayed by my people. Equally gratifying have been the evidences of a better and healthier tone, of a deeper appreciation of religious and social responsibilities and of a sincere effort to rise to a higher plane of thinking and living. With better methods instruction coming into use, with helpful influences multiplying on every side, and with a growing interest in their welfare among hearing people, the future of the deaf is now brighter than it ever was before. And among these beneficial influences none is more constant and efficient than our Mission to the deaf.

Services have been held as follows: At Syracuse, 31; at Utica, 32; at Rome, 12; at Oneida, 8; at Binghamton, 6; at Auburn, 4; at Watertown, 4; at Oswego, 3; at Elmira, 3; at Owego, 2; at Fulton, 2; total 107. Included in the above are 26 celebrations of the Holy Eucharist at various places. I have also visited Lowville, Carthage, Clayton, Dexter, Clinton, Hamilton, Cato and Sterling, and owing to a failure to make railroad connections was obliged to postpone a visit to Oxford, Norwich and Waterville which I had arranged.

An unusual number of demands have been made upon me for aid and comfort in cases of severe illness. Altogether I have made 249 pastoral calls, meeting 448 people. Of course, many of these calls were made at different times upon the same people. Often a personal call is the only way in which a family or individual can be reached, so that much time must be devoted to this kind of work.

There have been two confirmations during the year, both at Fulton. There has been one baptism, at Oneida, the Rev. Mr. McKim officiating. I have married one couple, at Utica.

Of miscellaneous work, I have obtained employment for two deaf men, have addressed the children of the school at Rome at their chapel service on one occasion, have attended two social gatherings at Rome and one at Utica, and have presided at five meetings of deaf people.

In August I attended the meeting of the Empire State Association of Deaf Mutes at Syracuse, and on the Sunday following I held a service at St. Paul's, Syracuse, which was attended by the members of the Association who remained over. I have served as president of the Alumni Association of the school for the Deaf at Rome, and in this way have been brought into contact with the graduates, most of whom reside within the limits of this Diocese.

During the past year the school for the deaf at Rome has been thoroughly reorganized. I have had many opportunities of inspecting its workings under the new management, and I have no hesitation in commending the school as entirely worthy of the confidence of parents of deaf children. It gives every promise of becoming one of the best and efficient schools for the deaf in the state, and the Diocese, so far interested in the welfare of the deaf, has reason to be proud of having an excellent institution within its borders. I have recently been elected a life member of the Corporation of the school, and was present at the annual meeting for the election of trustees. I have also visited the school for the deaf at Malone, and was much interested in what I saw of the methods and equipment. I have been instrumental in sending a number of deaf children to school, and I desire here to repeat my hope that my brethren of the clergy will notify me of any cases of deaf children growing up without instruction which may come to their knowledge. The training given deaf children at school is an indispensable adjunct to religious instruction, and for their spiritual welfare, no less than for their material well-being, every effort should be made to have them sent to school as soon as they have reached a proper age.

The offerings of the deaf at services have amounted to $100.00. This does not include $25.00 raised by the deaf of Utica for church purposes, nor is any estimate made of what has been given in the form of entertainment for the missionary, etc. My expenses for railroad fares, etc, have been $143.68; and for postage, stationery, printing, $16.70; total $160.38.

In conclusion I desire to express my sincere appreciation of the kindness shown me by the Bishop, the clergy generally and by the Commission. In particular I desire to acknowledge my obligation to Mr. C. A. Smith of the Commission, who has frequently aided me with advice in difficult situations.

Very respectfully yours,

H. VAN ALLEN.

K. Report of the Sunday School Commission.

The Executive Committee of the Sunday School Commission submits the following report of the work of the Commission during the year.

In October the Secretary attended the annual meeting of the Federation of the Sunday School Organizations of the Church held in Brooklyn.

During the early fall the committee on Sunday School teaching undertook to arrange for a series of five lectures to be given in Syracuse and Utica in the early part of the winter. But owing to the difficulty of securing the lecturers at the times proposed it was necessary to reduce this number to three lectures, which were given in Syracuse during the latter part of Lent, and in Utica in May and June. The lectures were by the Rev. Dr. Boynton of Geneseo on Old Testament Times, by the Rev. Mr. Longley of Binghamton on the Life of Christ, and by the Rt. Rev. the Bishop of the Diocese on Salient Points of Church History.

One meeting of the Commission was held in Utica. At this meeting the authorization of the Commission was given to the curriculum reported by the curriculum committee of the Federation, and the curriculum com-

Report of the Woman's Auxiliary.

Committee of this commission instructed to prepare and issue a Diocesan curriculum to correspond to the general features of the authorized curriculum. That curriculum is now in the hands of the printer and will be issued shortly to the Rectors and officers of the Sunday Schools of the diocese. In its main features this curriculum is in agreement with the curriculum which in all probability will be recommended by the Joint Commission of the General Convention in October.

The feeling seems to be general that better teaching is needed in the Sunday School, and there is a general desire for courses of instruction to the teachers on the methods of teaching, and the material to be taught. Some provision for this work should be made at once, either by the Diocesan Convention, or by the Parishes combining in the larger centers to bear the expense of such lectures.

While it will be possible to arrange for a series of lectures, similar to those given the past winter, it is believed that the best results would be secured by arranging for a series of lectures on each of the subjects to be covered.

Report of Committee on General Clergy Relief.

Number of Beneficiaries..... 18

From this report it appears that not more than one-third of the parishes of the Diocese have made any offering for Clergy Relief, either local or general, during the past twelve months.

It also appears that the Diocese has gained financially by the partial merger of its Clergy Relief Fund with the General Clergy Relief Fund, having received during the year $1,101.01 more than it has contributed or the same purpose.

Your committee would respectfully urge the claims of this Fund upon the sympathy and support of the Clergy and Laity of the Diocese, believing that no new legislation is needed, but only a more frequent and perhaps more earnest presentation of the great need which the Trustees of the General Clergy Relief Fund are making strong, wise and faithful efforts to meet.

After the resignation of the Rev. Wm. H. Casey, long the rector of this parish, the Rev. L. J. Christler took temporary charge, Sept. 1, 1906 to Feb. 1, 1907. Since then I have held services regularly. The communicants include some attending Wells College and Wells School. These schools give the parish importance, and the attendance is good when they are in session. A resident minister is needed.

The Parish Register [1891-1907] was destroyed by fire in Syracuse. The present Rector is, therefore, unable to make other than the abstract report and assume responsibility for its accuracy. The report covers the services for March and April. About one hundred and ninety made their communions at Eastertide.

Colored People, in the same place, and, at the request of the Rector at Cazenovia, a series of services, lasting three days, were held in St. Peter's Church, in that place.

The missionary has also from time to time assisted the Rectors of the various parishes in Chenango Co., either by taking charge of the services, or by preaching for them. In all about 106 Sunday services have been held. The Holy Communion has been celebrated 17 times: one adult and two children have been baptized; many hundreds of miles have been traveled and about 275 house to house visits have been made. Owing to a severe illness during February and March, the missionary was unable to carry out the Lenten services which he had arranged for two or three of the missions. His illness also considerably lessened the number of the services for the year.

Among the missions that have shown evidences of growth and prosperity are McDonough and Afton in Chenango Co., and Brookfield in Madison Co.

Interesting mission points are Rockdale, South Plymouth, South Otselic, Smithville and North Norwich.

At McDonough handsome pews have replaced the old chairs in the church. At Brookfield many improvements and repairs have been made in the church building. At Afton, under the leadership of the Rector at Bainbridge, fine progress has been shown in many directions.

In conclusion the missionary desires to note again the heartiness with which the Rectors of the various churches in Chenango County have coöperated with him in all his efforts to promote the mission work of the church in the County.

The Rev. John H. Egar, D.D., residing at Plainfield, N. J., reports that he has officiated and preached at sundry times during the conventional year, in St. John's Church, Somerville, Grace Church, Plainfield, Holy Cross, North Plainfield, St. John's Church and Trinity Church, Elizabeth and St. James', Atlantic City, all in the diocese of New Jersey. He has administered the Holy Communion in public six times and solemnized one marriage.

The Rev. J. Everett Johnson, 116 W. Kennedy St., Syracuse, reports that he has read the Order of Morning Prayer 15 times, administered the Holy Communion 11 times, Holy Baptism 3 times, solemnized matrimony 5 times, and read the Order for the Burial of the Dead 3 times.

The Rev. Robert Hudson, Ph.D., residing at Syracuse, reports that during the year he has officiated at one burial, and two marriages, and assisted occasionally with the services of his parish church.

The Rev. Ezekiel W. Mundy, Litt.D., residing at Syracuse, reports that during the year in addition to his duties as Librarian of the Syracuse Public Library he has baptized one child, officiated at one marriage and said the burial service once.

The Rev. A. H. Ormsbee, residing at Charlton, N. Y., reports that he has during the past Diocesan year served as Missionary at Charlton in the Diocese of Albany.

The Rev. William W. Raymond, residing at Baldwinsville, reports that in the early Summer of 1906, he officiated three times in St. Paul's Church, Chittenango, celebrating the Holy Communion once; eight times during the summer in Trinity Church, Canastota, celebrating the Holy Communion once; four Sundays in the Church of the Saviour, Syracuse, in August and September; and eight Sundays during the fall in St. John's Church, Phoenix. For five months, January to May inclusive, 1907, he was in charge of Calvary Church, Syracuse, and Emmanuel Church, East Syracuse, in the interim between the Rectorship of Rev. F. T. Henstridge and that of the Rev. Walter E. Jones. With intense and peculiar interest his services as Chaplain to The Shelter, Syracuse, have been continued during the year, instructing special classes, baptizing some of the younger girls, preparing some of the older for Confirmation, and occasionally celebrating the Holy Communion in St. Anna's Chapel.

The Bellevue Avenue line of trolley cars now takes passengers conveniently to the top of the hill within a half-square of The Shelter and near to the Reservoir, a Lookout among the most delightful in all America.

The Rev. John A. Staunton, residing in Utica, reports that within the last Diocesan year he has celebrated the Holy Communion fifty-nine times, officiated at other services sixty-one times, preached forty-seven times, said the burial service twice, and officiated at one baptism, and one marriage. The most of this duty has been done in St. Luke's Parish, Utica, during the illness of the Rector.

The Rev. Henry C. Staunton, residing in New York City, reports that during the past year he has been Instructor in Languages at Trinity Chapel School, New York City. He has also filled for four months the position of Chaplain to the Sisterhood of St. John Baptist, New York, and has for the past three months been regular assistant at the Church of the Holy Comforter, Poughkeepsie, N. Y. He has done occasional work in other parishes and missions. He has celebrated the Holy Communion 123 times, baptized 3, married 2, and officiated frequently at Morning and Evening Prayer.

The Rev. C. H. Tindell, residing at Cambridge, Mass., reports that during the past year, on account of continued disability, he has been prevented from performing any clerical service.

Chaplain—The Rev. J. W. Clarke.

It is the aim of this institution to supply to the little ones entrusted to its care a good home, together with the much needed influence of a pure family life. Religious education is, of course, the primary object, and besides the daily devotions, it is the rule to have a weekly service and a catechetical instruction by the Chaplain. The house is grateful to the Bishop for his kindly interest shown in many ways.

One hundred sixty-eight children have been cared for during the past year.

ST. JOHN'S SCHOOL, MANLIUS, N. Y.To the Convention of the Diocese of Central New York:—

Under the direction of the Rt. Rev. Charles Tyler Olmsted, Bishop of the Diocese and President of the Board of Trustees of St. John's School, Manlius, New York, the Executive Committee submits the following presentment:—

St. John's School was founded in 1869, under the auspices of Bishop F. D. Huntington, and incorporated in the year 1881 under and pursuant to the laws of the State of New York, for the incorporation of Charitable, Educational, Literary, Scientific and Missionary Societies.

On the 23rd day of November, 1881, Hon. Geo. F. Comstock and Cornelia N. Comstock, his wife, by a written indenture leased to the Board of Trustees and its corporate successors, of the said school, twenty-three acres of land more or less, in the town of Manlius, for the term of nine hundred years, at an annual rental of one hundred dollars and commuted the same for the entire period. In consideration. The said Board of Trustees to maintain upon said premises, "A school in which boys should be taught in the learning necessary to qualify them for colleges and universities, and for the pursuits of life." Said lease contains further a clause in which it provides that if the Trustees or their successors, shall fail for fifteen successive calendar months to keep and maintain such school, etc., the premises would revert to the party of the first part, their heirs or assigns.

According to our Historian, Mr. William D. Dunning, who was one of the incorporators, and has served continuously as a Trustee and we believe as Treasurer of the Board for the majority of time subsequent, "The School had a variable success maintained by the great liberality of Judge Comstock and others."

For obvious reasons, on the 10th of January, 1888, the school and appurtenances were leased to William Verbeck, of Aurora, New York, for the term of eight years.

On the 8th day of March, 1900, the terms of said lease were extended for the term of twenty years, from and after the 11th day of April next, by resolution of the Board, but for some reason was not formally confirmed by a written instrument.

Educational Institutions.

Again quoting from our Historian, "In 1902, the destruction by fire of the main building promised to be a severe blow to St. John's, but by the wisdom of the Board of Trustees and the heroic management of Col. Verbeck, the school has arisen above the disaster, and has entered on a career of unparalleled success."

On the 29th of December, 1903, a written agreement was formally executed between the Board of Trustees and William Verbeck, and Katharine Verbeck, his wife, confirming the extension of the lease as granted by the resolution of the Board on the 8th of March, 1900, and in continuance, said agreement more fully specified the mutual obligation of the parties to the same.

In 1905, it was thought advisable in pursuance of a sound financial policy to extinguish the revisionary interests of the Comstock heirs, to that end, negotiations were entered into, with the result that on the 6th day of October, 1905, the Comstock heirs, bargained, sold, remised and quit claimed—"All that tract and parcel of land, etc.," together with all and singular the hereditaments and appurtenances, etc., to St. John's School, forever, this removing what might be considered a cloud on our title.

The Board of Trustees:—

The certificate of Incorporation reads. Third:—"There shall be nineteen Trustees for the first year, with the right to increase their number as shall afterwards be found convenient."

The By-Laws read: "The Bishop of the Diocese of Central New York shall always be ex-officio a trustee of this corporation." "The Bishop shall be ex-officio President."

Trustees—"When a vacancy shall occur in the office of any other trustee (than the Bishop) the remaining trustees at any meeting which is regular, may appoint a person to fill such vacancy by a vote of two-thirds of the quorum present."

The Bishop shall nominate and with the advice and consent of the Board shall appoint the Head Master or Governor of the School, etc. At the present reading the Board numbers twenty-three members, the Bishop, five clergymen and seventeen laymen.

The School:

Under the management of the Lessees, Col. Verbeck and Lady, the school has made steady progress. To-day it is classed by the War Department as one of the six most proficient military institutions in the United States. It also has a high standing as a College Preparatory School—its graduates taking such rank as show their work to have been honest and painstaking.

Educational Institutions.

It has a faculty of twenty-four earnest and competent men and women; the graduating class this year numbers twenty-two.

The buildings:—

The Administration Building is of brick, trimmed with limestone; Hadley and Huntington Halls and other buildings are of wood.

The Executive Committee have prepared for presentation to the Annual Meeting of the Board of Trustees, which is to be held on the 13th of this month, at the School Building in Manlius, preliminary plans for a harmonious collection of buildings, erected in the same style as the present Administration Building; that will accommodate two hundred boys and their instructors.

The Board of Trustees earnestly desire the help and coöperation of every person in the Diocese and every person interested in the cause of the education of "Our Boys." We hope we have so planned, that the future of St. John's as a school is assured beyond a doubt and will be an honor to the Diocese. To accomplish the improvements that have been designed will require the expenditure of a large sum of money to raise this amount we shall need the good will and assistance of all actively and aggressively.

We earnestly desire you and those you represent to visit the school.

Respectfully submitted,

GEO. G. COTTON,
WM. D. DUNNING,
H. M. LOCKWOOD,
WM. DEL. WILSON,
LOUIS KRUMBHAAR,
Executive Committee.

APPENDIX V.

(A)

Constitution and Canons.

Constitution.

ADOPTED JUNE 14TH, 1870.

ARTICLE I.

Section 1. There shall be a Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in this Diocese, on the First Tuesday in June of the year 1870, and each year thereafter, at four o'clock and fifteen minutes P. M., in such place as shall be determined by the Convention for the time being, or in case of his inability to act or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, by the Standing Committee.

Sec. 2. On Tuesday evening, after service, a quorum being present, the Convention shall organize, and the Standing Committee shall be appointed.

Sec. 3. In the event of the prevalence of any epidemic disease or for other sufficient cause, occurring after the designation of the place of meeting, the Bishop or in the case above mentioned the Standing Committee, may appoint another place for the meeting of the Convention.

ARTICLE II.

The Bishop may call Special Conventions when he shall judge it conducive to the good of the Church.

In case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, or the inability of the Bishop to do so, the Standing Committee may call such Conventions.

ARTICLE III.

Section 1. The members of any Convention shall be the Bishops of the Diocese.

Constitution.

the Bishop Coadjutor, if there be one, and all Clergymen canonically resident in the Diocese, not under discipline, and lay delegates from the several Parishes, provided, however, that no Clergyman shall be entitled to vote for a Bishop unless he has been canonically resident in the Diocese for at least one year.

Sec. 2. The Lay Delegates shall be chosen by the Vestry, when one is in legal existence. When the Vestry is, from vacancy or otherwise, incompetent to act, they shall be chosen by the Congregation.

Sec. 3. But in case of Churches or Congregations organized or incorporated without a Vestry, Delegates may be chosen by the Church or Congregation, unless the Convention shall otherwise prescribe.

Sec. 4. The mode of admitting new Churches or Congregations into union with the convention and the conditions under which union or representation shall be forfeited, may be prescribed by Canon.

ARTICLE IV.

Every Convention at its first morning session shall be opened with prayers and the Holy Communion, and the Bishop may at this time deliver his Annual Address or Charge.

ARTICLE V.

The Bishop shall preside in the Convention; but in case of a vacancy, inability to act, or necessary absence, the members shall elect a President from among the Presbyters.

ARTICLE VI.

A Secretary shall be chosen upon the assembling of the Annual Convention from among the members thereof, who shall remain in office until the meeting of the next Annual Convention, and until a successor be appointed. His duty shall be to take minutes of their proceedings, to preserve their journals and records, to attest the public acts of the body, and faithfully to deliver into the hands of his successor all books and papers relative to the concerns of the Convention which may be in his possession. It shall also be his duty to give due notice to each Minister and Vestry of the time and place appointed for the meeting of each Convention.

ARTICLE VII.

Section 1. In all matters which come before the Convention, the Clergy and Laity shall deliberate, and, except as provided in the next Section, may vote in one body; but if in any case it shall be required by five members, the two orders shall vote separately, the Clergy as individuals, and the Laity as Parishes; and the concurrence of a majority of each order shall be necessary to constitute a decision.

Constitution.

Sec. 2. In case of the election of a Bishop, the two orders ~~shall~~ always vote separately by ballot, and according to the mode ~~above~~ prescribed.

ARTICLE VIII.

The mode of altering the Constitution shall be as follows: A proposition for an amendment shall be introduced in writing, ~~and~~ considered in the Convention; and if approved of, shall lie over ~~till~~ the next Annual Convention; and, if again approved of in such ~~next~~ Convention by a majority of the two orders voting thereon ~~separately~~, the change shall take place, and the Constitution so altered shall be valid and obligatory.

ARTICLE IX.

No amendment of the Canons shall be made during the session of the Convention in which the same shall be proposed, unless ~~two~~ thirds of each order shall concur therein; but any amendment, ~~if~~ approved by a majority less than two-thirds, shall lie over for ~~the~~ consideration and final action of the next Annual Convention.

Canons.

ADOPTED IN CONVENTION, 1869.

CANON I.

Of a List of Ministers in the Diocese.

Section 1. Within one week before the meeting of every Convention of this Diocese, the Bishop shall prepare, or cause to be prepared, a list of all the Ministers canonically resident in this Diocese, annexing the names of their respective Cures, Parishes, Towns, or places of residence, designating those who are entitled to seats in the Convention; but no Clergyman while suspended from Ministry, shall have a place on the said list. And such list shall be read before the Convention on the first day of meeting, and be entered to the Journal.

Sec. 2. The right of any Clergyman of this Diocese to a seat in Convention, shall, if disputed, be determined according to the provisions of the Third Article of the Constitution, by the Convention itself; whether his name be inserted in the list aforesaid or not.

CANON II.

Of the Members and Organization of the Convention.

Section 1. The evidence of the regular admission of a Clergyman into this Diocese shall consist in proof satisfactory to the Convention of a compliance with Section V. of Canon 15, the Digest of the Canons of the General Convention; and the evidence of a settlement in a Church thereof shall consist in proof satisfactory to the Convention, of a compliance with the first and second sections of Canon 14.

Sec. 2. The appointment of a Lay Delegate to the Convention of this Diocese shall be certified in writing by the Rector of the Parish Church of which he is a delegate, or by one of the Wardens, or the clerk of the Vestry, or Trustees, and the Certificate shall be forwarded by mail or otherwise, to the Secretary at least forty-eight hours before the meeting of the Convention. This Certificate shall state in all cases that the person so certified is entitled to vote for Wardens and Vestrymen—or would be so entitled if the Church which he is appointed to represent were not otherwise organized or incorporated—and that the said Parish or Church is not in arrears in payment of its assessment for the Diocesan Expense Fund, or (if it be in arrears) that it prays the Convention to remit the sum in arrears for the good and sufficient reasons presented in a paper annexed. The form of said certificate may be prescribed by the Convention, and when so prescribed no other certificate of the appointment of any Lay Delegate or Delegates to the Convention of this Diocese shall be allowed or received.

Sec. 3. At every Convention the Bishop shall take the Chair, and shall continue to preside during its sitting. He shall possess the usual powers of presiding officers in deliberative assemblies to preserve order and decorum, and shall decide all questions of order without debate, subject to an appeal to the House. He shall have the right to name any clerical member to perform the duties of the Chair, but such substitute shall not extend beyond an adjournment, unless directed by the House.

Sec. 4. In case of the absence or disability of the Bishop, or of a vacancy in the office, the senior clerical member of the Standing Committee present shall call the Convention to order and act as President Pro Tempore, and perform all the duties of President until the convention shall be organized and shall have elected a President.

Sec. 5. The President having taken the Chair, the Secretary of the preceding Convention shall call over the names of the Clergy entitled to seats in the Convention, and shall enter in the Journal the names of those who are present. The Standing Committee on Credentials shall then report to the Secretary the names of all Lay Delegates duly elected and entitled to seats in the Convention under the Canons. Any irregular or defective certificates shall be reserved until a quorum shall have appeared. The names of the Lay Delegates duly appointed shall then be called and the names of those who are present shall be entered on the Journal. The irregular and defective certificates shall be reported to the Convention as soon as it is duly organized, who shall decide on the admission of the delegates named in them.

Sec. 6. The presence of at least twenty Clergymen entitled to vote in the Convention, and of Delegates from at least twenty Congregations, shall be necessary to the transaction of business, except that a smaller number may adjourn from day to day.

Sec. 7. A quorum being found to be in attendance the President shall declare the Convention duly organized. The Secretary shall then be elected, who may nominate an Assistant Secretary, to be approved by the Convention.

Sec. 8. The Rules of Order of the preceding Annual Convention shall be the Rules of Order until altered by a vote of a majority of the Convention.

Canon III, IV.

CANON III.

Of the Call of a Convention.

Section 1. Notice of the meeting of any Convention shall be given by the Secretary in a printed letter, transmitted by mail at the expense of the Convention to every Clergyman in the Diocese, and to the Wardens in every vacant Parish, at least one month before the time of meeting. This letter shall contain a notice of the time and place of holding the Convention, extracts from the Constitution and Canons relating to the appointment of Lay Delegates, and a form of certificate of their election. Notice of the meeting shall also be inserted in any newspaper in which the Bishop may direct such insertion to be made.

Sec. 2. Whenever, under the provision of the Constitution, a special Convention is called for any particular purpose, it shall be the duty of the Secretary in the notice thereof to specify such purpose.

CANON IV.

Of the Admission of a Church into Union with the Church in this Diocese.

Section 1. To entitle a Church to admission into union with the Church in this Diocese, it is required that there be submitted to the Convention of the same, at a stated meeting: (1) A certificate from the Bishop, or in case of his absence or a vacancy in the Episcopate, of a major part of the Standing Committee, approving the incorporation of such a Church; (2) The certificate of incorporation duly proved and recorded, or a copy thereof certified by the Clerk of the County. But no such certificate shall be given by the Bishop or the majority of the Standing Committee save upon satisfactory evidence of the ability of such Church to pay and continue the sum of at least six hundred dollars a year for the support of a Rector or Missionary; and also that such Church contains at least thirty actual Communicants.

Sec. 2. Whenever, hereafter, any Church in union with this Convention, shall neglect, for three years in succession, to make a parochial report, no missionary report being made in its behalf; and during the same period shall not employ a Clergyman as its Parish Minister, nor obtain the services of a Missionary, nor make the stated monthly collections as required by Canon X of this Diocese, such Church shall be regarded as having forfeited its connection with the Convention, and be no longer entitled to representation in the same; and the Bishop shall report said Church to the Convention in his Annual Address; but any such Church may be readmitted on the recommendation of the Bishop and by a resolution of the Convention, and such readmission shall take effect from and after the rising of the Convention which shall have agreed to the same.

Canon V, VI.

CANON V.

Of the Secretary of the Convention.

Section 1. In addition to the duties imposed upon the Secretary by the Constitution and by Canon III, he shall be required to transmit annually to each of the Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, and to the Secretary of the last House of Clerical and Lay Deputies in the General Convention, and to the Secretary of every Diocesan Convention a copy of the Journal of the Convention; and shall request the last to send copies of their respective Journals in exchange. He shall also transmit a copy to each Clergyman in the Diocese, and each Lay Delegate attending the Convention, and five copies to each Parish in the Diocese, one of which it shall be the duty of the Clerk of the Vestry to preserve with the Parish records.

Sec. 2. He shall also transmit to every General Convention, in addition to the documents mentioned in Section II, Canon 47. of the Digest, a certificate to be signed by himself, containing a list of the Clergymen in this Diocese, and the amount of funds paid or secured to be paid (distinguishing them) to the General Theological Seminary; together with the nomination of Trustees of that Seminary; and also a certificate of the appointment of Clerical and Lay Deputies.

Sec. 3. Any expense incurred by a compliance with the several sections of this Canon shall be paid out of the Diocesan Fund.

Sec. 4. Whenever there shall be a vacancy in the office of Secretary of the Convention, the duties thereof shall devolve upon the Assistant Secretary, if there be one; if not, upon the Secretary of the Standing Committee.

CANON VI.

Of the Treasurer of the Diocese.

Section 1. At every Annual Convention there shall be chosen a Treasurer of the Diocese. It shall be his duty to receive and disburse all moneys collected under the authority of the Convention, the collection and distribution of which shall not be otherwise regulated. He shall be subject to the direction of the Standing Committee in relation to the mode and place of depositing the funds received by him, and the manner of paying them out, and his accounts and books shall be at all times subject to the inspection of the Standing Committee or any member thereof. Before entering on the duties of his office he shall give a bond to the Standing Committee, in such penalty and with such surety as they shall direct, conditional for the faithful performance of his duties, and for the delivery over to his successor of all funds, securities, books and papers pertaining to his office.

Sec. 2. His accounts shall be reported to the appropriate Committee, according to Canon XIV.

Sec. 3. In case of a vacancy in the office the Standing Committee shall appoint a Treasurer, and the person so appointed shall continue to act until an election is made by the Convention. The Treasurer may be removed at any time from his office by the Standing Committee for any neglect or misconduct, of which they shall be judges.

CANON VII.

Cf Registers, Parochial Reports, and the Removal of Communicants from one Parish to Another.

Section 1. The Parish Register, required by Section III, Canon 15, of the Digest, shall specify the name and the time of the birth of the child baptized with the names of the parents and sponsors; the name of the adult baptized; the names of the parties married, and of two or more special witnesses of the same, and the place where the marriage was solemnized; the names of the persons buried; and also the time when each rite was performed. These Registers shall be kept by the Minister in a book to be provided for that purpose belonging to the Vestry of each Church; which book shall be the Parish Register, and shall be preserved by the Vestry as a part of the Records of the Church.

Sec. 2. The Parish Register shall contain a list of the families and adult persons in the Cure as far as practicable, and also an accurate list of the persons confirmed from time to time.

Sec. 3. In every Parish and Missionary Station a list of the Communicants shall be kept which shall retain the names of all persons who shall have been admitted to the Holy Communion in that Parish or Station until they shall have ceased to be Communicants in the Cure by either (1) death, (2) removal or (3) repulsion and suspension or excommunication by competent authority. In the Annual Report of the Parish discrimination shall be made by means of separate items between those who shall have received the Holy Communion at least once within two years preceding such report, and all others whose names are on the list as above provided, but who shall not have received the Communion either in public or in private during the two years preceding the report, whatever may have been the occasion or cause of their neglect of their privilege and duty.

Sec. 4. The Annual Report shall also indicate all the additions to the list of Communicants during the past year, as well as the losses by death, removal, repulsion or suspension, as required by Section III, Canon 15, and Section I, Canon 47, of the Digest, and shall also contain, in addition to the value of churches and rectories, the amount of insurance thereon. Under the head of rector's salary and current expenses shall be included salary of ministers, choir expenses, wages of sexton, fuel and lights. Incomes from endowments shall be separately reported and the purpose for which said incomes are used.

Sec. 5. In every case where a Parish is destitute of a Minister, the Register contemplated by this Canon shall be kept by the Wardens, or by some person appointed by the Vestry, whose duty it shall also be to prepare and forward to the Bishop the Annual Parochial Report.

Canon VIII.

Sec. 6. Communicants removing from one Parish to another in the Diocese, shall procure a certificate as provided for in Canon 39, Section I, of the Canons of the General Convention.

Sec. 7. The same rule shall apply in this Diocese to Communicants who may wish to be transferred, without changing their residence from the list of Communicants in one Parish, so as to be received as Communicants in any other Parish or in any other place of worship where the Holy Communion is habitually celebrated.

Sec. 8. No Rector or other Minister in charge of any Parish in this Diocese shall receive as an habitual Communicant, or enter upon the list of Communicants under his charge, the name of a person who has been a Communicant in any other Parish in this Diocese without such a certificate or Letter Dimissory from the Parish to which said Communicant last belonged.

Sec. 9. Any communicant, not under censure or ecclesiastical discipline, shall be entitled to such a certificate or letter on application therefor to the Minister in charge of the Parish to which the Communicant belongs, and in case of a vacancy in the pastoral charge of a Parish, and in case of any person under discipline the application shall be referred to the Bishop of the Diocese, or in the absence of the Bishop, to the President of the Standing Committee, and the answer and decision of the Bishop or of the President of the Standing Committee, as above provided, shall be final and conclusive.

CANON VIII.

Of Deputies to the General Convention.

Section 1. The Convention shall, at its regular annual meeting next preceding the regular session of the General Convention, by the concurrent ballot of the Clerical and Lay Members, clergymen and four laymen, who shall be Communicants of the Church and residents of the Diocese, to act as Deputies from the Diocese to the General Convention. In like manner the Convention shall elect four Clergymen and four Laymen as Provisional Deputies to act as hereinafter mentioned. The Deputies and Provisional Deputies shall hold their office during the term of one year.

Sec. 2. Any vacancy occurring among the Deputies or Provisional Deputies between the stated times of election may be supplied at any Convention during or prior to which such vacancy shall occur.

Sec. 3. It shall be the duty of the Deputies-elect to give to the Bishop, on some day within three weeks of the meeting of the General Convention, and at least one week before such meeting, acceptance of the appointment and their intention to perform the duties; in default of which, and in case of their inability to perform the duties of the appointment, all such persons occurring by declensions, sickness or death shall be filled by the designation of the Bishop, from the list of the Clergymen and Laymen elected as Provisional Deputies, and such person or persons designated by the Bishop, being furnished with his certificate thereof, shall have all the power and authority of Deputies duly elected by the Convention.

Sec. 4. In case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, or of the inability of the Bishop to act, the power conferred upon the Bishop by this Canon shall be exercised by the President of the Standing Committee.

CANON IX.Of the Standing Committee.

Section 1. At every Annual Convention an election of a Standing Committee shall be made; which Committee shall consist of four of the Clergy and four of the Laity, to be chosen by ballot, and by the concurrent vote of each order, each Parish having one vote by its delegates. Vacancies in said Committee, occurring by death or otherwise, shall be supplied by the concurrent vote of the Clerical Members and Lay Members of the Committee.

Sec. 2. In case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, the powers and duties to be performed by the Bishop in matters of discipline, shall be performed by the Standing Committee, except in those cases where such powers and duties are or may be specially delegated to or enjoined upon the Clerical Members of said Committee; in which case such powers and duties shall be exercised by said Clerical Members alone; provided that no sentence shall be pronounced upon a Clergyman but by a Bishop.

Sec. 3. The Secretary of the Standing Committee shall keep a true record of their proceedings and report the same annually to the Diocesan Convention. He shall preserve all books, Journals and papers belonging to said committee, and transmit the same to his successor in office.

CANON X.Of the Diocesan Missions and Offerings.

Section 1. All members of the Church in the Diocese of Central New York constitute its Diocesan Missionary Society; and the Convention of the Diocese shall be the Diocesan Board of Missions.

Sec. II. For Missionary purposes the Diocese shall be divided into six districts, as follows:

First District—Jefferson and Lewis Counties.

Second District—Oneida County, the Village of Oneida, and all the rest of Madison County except the townships including the Parishes of Cazenovia, Canastota, Chittenango and Perryville.

Third District—Broome and Chenango Counties.

Fourth District—Onondaga, Oswego and Cortland Counties, and the townships of Madison County not included in the Second District.

Canon X.

Fifth District—Cayuga and Seneca Counties.

Sixth District—Chemung, Tioga and Tompkins Counties.

Sec. III. 1. At the next meeting of the Board of Managers after the Convention of this Diocese held in June, 1906, or as soon thereafter as convenient, and every succeeding fourth year an Archdeacon shall be appointed by the Bishop, with the advice and consent of the Board of Managers.

He shall be in priests' orders and shall hold his office for four years unless his incumbency be terminated sooner by resignation or otherwise.

He shall, under the direction of the Bishop, give his entire time to the Missionary work of the Diocese. He shall receive a stated salary, together with his traveling expenses; the amount of said salary and expenses to be determined by the Board of Managers, and to be paid by the Treasurer of the Board of Missions from the Missionary Fund.

2. The principal officer of said Missionary District shall be called the Dean of the District. He shall be appointed every four years by the Bishop, from the Clergy of the District, after nomination in a regular Convocation of the same. Under the Bishop he shall have the oversight of all Missionary work in his District.

3. Each Missionary District shall annually elect a Secretary and a Treasurer, at its first regular Convocation after the Annual Convention of the Diocese.

4. If the office of Dean of any Missionary District become vacant, by removal or otherwise, the Bishop shall appoint a successor for the remainder of the term.

Sec. IV. 1. In the general Missionary work of the Diocese, the Bishop shall be assisted by a Diocesan Board of Managers, consisting, together with the Bishop, of the Archdeacon, the Secretary of the Board and the Treasurer of the Diocese, who shall also be the Treasurer of the Board, the six Deans, and six Clergymen and six Laymen, one of each from each Missionary District, to be elected severally by the Convocation of the District entitled to this representation. The Bishop shall preside at the meetings, and in his absence the Archdeacon shall preside.

2. The Diocesan Board of Managers shall consult for the promotion of the Missionary work of the Diocese. It shall, each year, through its Secretary, present to the Diocesan Board of Missions, at its annual session, a report of the Missionary work of the Diocese during the Conventional year. The Board of Managers may appoint such committees as are necessary to attend to details of business arising during the interim between meetings of the Board.

3. At each Annual Convention the Diocesan Board of Managers shall submit to the Diocesan Board of Missions for its action, an estimate of the sum required for the Missionary work of the Diocese during the current year. Immediately after the adjournment of the convention the Diocesan Board of Managers shall meet and determine how much of the money voted by the Diocese for its Missionary work during the year shall be assessed to each District, and what part of it shall be given to the same for apportionment among its stipendiary Clergy. And this determination shall be published in the Journal of the Convention.

4. The Diocesan Board of Managers shall, through its Treasurer, prepare for publication in each Journal of the Convention, a table by districts, of all the Parishes and Missions in the Diocese, the sum assessed to each District to be raised for Diocesan Missionary work, the amount assessed by the District to each Parish and Mission for the same, and the sum actually given for this purpose by each Parish and Mission. It shall also contain the amount of stipendiary Fund given to each district, together with the sum apportioned to each of its Stipendiary Parishes and Missions.

5. Other meetings of the Board of Managers shall be held at the call of the Bishop, or in a vacancy of the Episcopate, of the Archbishop. Eleven members of the Board, including three Deans, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business; but no action of the Board shall be valid without the approval of the Bishop..

Sec. V. 1. Each Missionary District shall hold not less than two stated Convocations yearly. At the first of these, which shall be held as soon after the adjournment of the Annual Convention as the District may determine, appropriations shall be made by it in aid of the Missionary work in the said District under the advice or direction of the Bishop.

2. Each Parish and Missionary Station seeking aid from the Convocation shall make written application through its Vestry or Committee stating the facts necessary to a full understanding of the case, particularly the number of contributors and the amount pledged or secured in the Parish or Station for the support of the Minister.

3. Each Missionary District shall be represented in its Convocation by the Clergy canonically resident, and by two Lay Delegates from each of its Parishes and Missions.

4. Each Missionary District shall have power to assess upon its own Parishes and Missions whatever sum may canonically be required of it for the Missionary work of the Diocese, and all moneys raised or collected for Diocesan Missions shall be promptly paid by the Treasurer of the District to the Treasurer of the Diocesan Board of Managers, and by him paid to the Missionaries on the order of the Treasurer of the District.

5. At least two weeks before the Annual Convention of the Diocese, the Secretary of each Missionary District shall make report of the year's work of the District to the Secretary of the Board of Managers, including the items called for in Section IV, 4, of this Canon.

Canon XI.

6. Any missionary District may with the approval of the Bishop, undertake special Missionary work, provided it shall first have complied with all canonical requirements, and shall be free to make its own regulations and conduct its own Missionary work in all ways not conflicting with the provisions of this Canon.

7. It shall be the duty of every Clergyman in charge of a Parish or Mission to attend all Convocations of his District, and to report to the same the Missionary work done in his Cure.

8. Every Clergyman receiving a stipend from the Board of Missions shall make in writing, according to a form prescribed by the Board, a quarterly report of his work to the Dean.

9. No Missionary shall receive his quarterly stipend until he has made the required report to the Dean.

Sec. VI. 1. Offerings shall be made systematically in the Parishes and Missions of the Diocese as follows:

For the Communion Alms on the first Sunday in each month.

For the Board of Missions, Domestic or General, on a Sunday in Advent.

For the Christmas Fund, on Christmas Day.

For the Board of Missions, Foreign or General, on a Sunday after the Epiphany.

For the Bible and Prayer Book Society of Central New York, or the Bible and Prayer Book Society of New York, in the discretion of the Minister, on Whit Sunday.

For the increase of the Ministry, on Easter, or some other near and convenient Sunday.

For the Mission among the Deaf-Mutes in the Diocese, on the Twelfth Sunday after Trinity, or on the Sunday next before Advent.

2. Offerings for Diocesan Missions shall be made in every Parish and Mission in the Diocese on the third Sunday of each month, when one of the above named Sundays is not the third Sunday. All such offerings shall be forwarded promptly to the Treasurer of the District.

It is also recommended that the Minister of each Parish or Congregation, at the Episcopal visitation, ask an offering which shall be placed in the hands of the Bishop, to be used at his discretion for the benefit of needy persons, and which shall be called The Relief Fund of the Diocese.

CANON XI.

Of the Diocesan Expense Fund.

Section 1. In order to provide for the necessary expenses of the Diocese, it shall be the duty of the Treasurer of the

Canon XII.

Diocese to present to the Standing Committee on or before the fifteenth day of May in each year, an estimate of the amount of money that will be needed during the ensuing year to meet the current expenses and expenses of the Convention, adding thereto the liabilities of the Diocese chargeable to said fund, if there be any.

Sec. 2. It shall be the duty of said Committee, upon receipt of this estimate, to assess this amount upon the Parishes and Churches of the Diocese, at the rate of an uniform per-cent. upon the amount last previously reported to the Convention and printed in the Journal under the head of "Rector's Salary and Current Expenses" as defined in Canon VII, Sec. 4, not including any amount that may have been given to the Parish or Church, or its Minister, by the Missionary Board of the Diocese, or by any other Missionary organization. But no Parish shall be assessed less than one dollar. And it shall be the duty of said Committee to report to the Convention the schedule of assessments thus apportioned and when the Convention shall have adopted the same, with such amendments as it may deem necessary, it shall be binding upon the Parishes and Churches, and shall be printed as an appendix to the Journal.

Sec. 3. The Treasurer shall notify each Parish and Church of the quota thus assigned to it, and it shall be the duty of the Rector, Wardens, and Vestrymen of each Parish or Church, or the Minister and Trustees—if there be no Rector, Wardens and Vestrymen—to see that the amount thus due the Diocese, be forwarded to the Treasurer in quarterly installments, so that the whole amount be paid before the first day of May in each year.

Sec. 4. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer to present to the Secretary of the Convention, at the opening of each Session, a list of such Parishes or Churches as are in arrears to the Diocesan Expense Fund, with the amount of such arrears, that the same may be placed in the hands of the Committee on Credentials of Lay Delegates, and each such Parish or Church, shall be excluded from representation in the Convention, until such arrears are paid in full, unless the sum in arrears be remitted by the Convention itself, for reasons which are satisfactory to the Convention.

CANON XII.

Of Clergy Relief.

Section 1. All moneys raised or contributed for the Relief of Disabled Clergy and the Widows and Orphans of Deceased Clergy, shall be paid to the Corporation known as "The Trustees of the Christmas Fund of the Diocese of Central New York." And it shall be the duty of the Convention at each of its annual meetings to nominate by ballot one person to act as Trustee in the said corporation to fill the vacancy which by the by-laws of said corporation will then occur, and to nominate in like manner other persons to fill any other vacancies in the said board that may have occurred during the year since the last Annual Convention.

Canon XIII.

Sec. 2. In every Parish in the Diocese there shall be made annually, on Christmas day, or Quinquagesima Sunday, a collection for the relief of Disabled Clergy, and for the benefit of Widows and Orphans of Deceased Clergy. It shall be the duty of every Clergyman to give due notice of this collection to the Congregation and of the Wardens of every Parish to forward the same to the Treasurer of the Christmas Fund.

Sec. 3. All appropriations for the Relief of Disabled Clergy except such as are provided for in Canon XXI of this Diocese, shall be made by the Trustees of the General Clergy Relief Fund, acting under the terms of an agreement entered into October 11, 1906, by the Bishop of the Diocese, the Trustees of the Christmas Fund and the Trustees of the General Clergy Relief Fund.

Sec. 4. All appropriations for the benefit of the widow or children of a deceased Clergyman shall be made by the Trustees of the General Clergy Relief Fund, acting under the terms of an agreement entered into October 11, 1906, by the Bishop of the Diocese, the Trustees of the Christmas Fund and the Trustees of the General Clergy Relief Fund.

Sec. 5. All moneys belonging to the Fund shall be loaned by the said Trustees upon security upon real estate to an amount not exceeding seventy per cent. of the appraised value of the property, inclusive of buildings, with proper insurance on the buildings, the appraisal to be made by an appraiser appointed by the Trustees for the purpose, or said moneys may be held and invested in securities of this State, or of the United States; and all securities or investments shall be taken made in the names of said Trustees and their successors in office as Trustees of the Fund; and they shall have the power from time to time to change such securities or investments.

Sec. 6. A statement of the proceedings of said Trustees of the Christmas Fund, exhibiting the condition of the Fund hereby entrusted to their charge, together with the items of receipts and disbursements, with the vouchers thereof, shall be reported to the appropriate committee according to Canon XIV, signed by said Trustees or a majority of them.

CANON XIII.

Of the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate.

Section 1. There shall be five Trustees appointed by the Convention to whom the management and care of the Fund for the support of the Episcopate in this Diocese shall be entrusted. It shall be the duty of the said Trustees to appoint a President and Secretary, and no act of said Trustees shall be valid unless authorized by a resolution adopted at a regular meeting of said Trustees by a majority of the same and recorded by their Secretary in a book to be kept in the record of their proceedings, and to be opened to the inspection of the Convention. The said Trustees shall hold their office during the pleasure of the Convention; and all vacancies occurring in

Canon XIV.

Board of Trustees shall from time to time be filled by the Convention.

Sec. 2. All moneys belonging to the Fund for the support of the Episcopate shall be loaned by the said Trustees upon securities on real estate to an amount not exceeding seventy per cent. of the appraised value of the property, inclusive of buildings, with proper insurance on the buildings; the appraisal to be made by one appraiser, appointed by the Trustees for that purpose, or said moneys may be held and invested in securities of this State or of the United States; or in any securities in which Savings Banks are authorized to invest the monies deposited with them under the laws of this State; and all securities or investments shall be taken or made in the names of the said Trustees and their successors in office as Trustees of said Fund; and they shall have power from time to time to change such securities and investments.

Sec. 3. The salary of the Bishop shall be paid quarterly, by the Treasurer of the Diocese, on the first days of July, October, January and April, in each fiscal year, and the Trustees of the Episcopate Fund shall remit the amount thereof to such Treasurer quarterly out of the income of the Fund, and the receipt of said Treasurer shall be a proper voucher for said Trustees in rendering their annual report to the Convention of this Diocese. Any excess of income over and above the amount of such salary shall be held and invested by said Trustees as an auxiliary and supplementary Fund, and applied as occasion may require; first, to make good any deficiency of income in succeeding years, and second, to make good any losses or deficiencies in the principal should any such occur; or third, to augment the principal should the Convention so order.

Sec. 4. With a view to the further increase of the principal of the said Fund, such portions of the contributions of the Diocese as may be given or appropriated for that purpose shall be paid by the Treasurer of the Convention to the order of the said Trustees, to be invested by them for accumulation and without diminution, until the further order of the Convention; and all moneys remaining in the hands of said Trustees for investment shall be deposited in some safe bank in this State, to the credit of the President and Secretary of the Board

Sec. 5. A statement of the proceedings of said Trustees, exhibiting the condition of the Fund hereby entrusted to their charge, together with the items of receipts and disbursements, with the vouchers thereof, shall be reported to the appropriate Committee according to Canon XIV.

CANON XIV.

Of the Fiscal Year and Financial Reports.

Section 1. The fiscal year of the Diocese shall begin on the first day of May annually, and end on the thirtieth day of April following. And the Treasurer of the Diocese and all Trustees having in charge any funds belonging to the Diocese shall annually make their reports to the appropriate Standing Committees on or before the fifteenth of May in each year.

Sec. 2. Standing Committees shall be appointed at each Annual Convention to consider and report to the Annual Convention next ensuing, as follows:

1. On the Accounts of the Treasurer of the Diocese, consisting of three Laymen.

2. On the Report of the Trustees of the Fund for the support of the Episcopate, consisting of three Laymen.

3. On the report of the Trustees of the Christmas Fund, consisting of three Laymen.

4. On the Report of the Trustees of the Parochial Fund, consisting of three Laymen.

5. On the Report of the Trustee of the Van Wagenen Missionary Fund, consisting of one Clergyman and two Laymen.

Sec. 3. It shall be the duty of each of these several committees to meet in each year at some time between the fifteenth of May and the meeting of the next Annual Convention, at the place where the Treasurer resides, or where the funds are held, and make an enumeration into all books, papers, vouchers, etc., relating to the respective funds held by the Treasurer or Trustees, and prepare a report to be presented to the Annual Convention next ensuing. An abstract of each report with such resolutions as may be proposed, and the reports of the Standing Committees constituted by this Canon shall be furnished to the Secretary of the Convention in time to permit him to cause the same to be printed, and sent to the Clergy and Lay Delegates, one week before the meeting of the Convention.

Sec. 4. All Special Committees appointed by one Convention to report to the next Convention, shall send their report to the Secretary of the Convention two weeks before the date of Convention, and the Secretary shall cause such reports to be printed, and each line to be numbered, and four copies sent to every Clergyman, one week before the meeting of the Convention. If any Committee shall fail to send its report to the Secretary in due time to have it printed, such report shall not be presented to the Convention without the consent of a two-thirds vote of the members present.

CANON XV.

Of Vacant Churches.

Section 1. Whenever a Church becomes vacant it shall be the duty of the Vestry to give immediate notice thereof to the Bishop.

Sec. 2. The Bishop shall appoint those of the Clergy in the Diocese, who can with most convenience discharge the duty, to supply such vacant Parishes as have been reported to him, at such times as may be deemed convenient and proper. It shall be the duty of such vacant Churches thus supplied to defray all the expenses incident to such occasional services.

CANON XVI.Of Elections.

Section 1. All the Officers of the Convention shall be elected by ballot. Election by ballot may be dispensed with by an unanimous vote of the Convention. And when an election is by ballot, a majority of the votes in each order shall be necessary to a valid election.

Sec. 2. To facilitate the stated election by ballot, the Secretary shall provide sheets of paper with printed headings, containing the titles of the various offices to be filled by ballot, for the use of the members of the Convention; and all such officers may be voted for at one balloting. No printed ballots shall be allowed.

Sec. 3. In all cases of failure or omission to elect officers by the Convention, the persons last elected shall continue in office until others be chosen.

Sec. 4. In case of vacancies in office, occurring during recess, it shall be competent for the Standing Committee, with the approval of the Bishop, to fill, ad interim, any position which the Convention, if in session, might fill.

CANON XVII.Of Attending the Meetings of the Convention.

Section 1. Whereas, the regular attendance of the Clergy and Laity at the meetings of the Convention is of essential consequence to the interests of the Church, this duty is hereby enjoined upon them.

Sec. 2. And whereas it is often necessary to travel a considerable distance to the place of meeting of the Convention, it is hereby made the duty of the different Parishes to make provision for the Travelling expenses of their Clergy in attending the Convention, either by a collection in Church on Sunday, or by some other mode. The Clergy attending Convention shall be entertained at hotels, and the expense of such entertainment shall be provided through an assessment of $250, which shall be added each year to the budget of the Diocesan Expense Fund, and the Parish in which the Convention is held shall be entitled to draw upon the Treasurer of the Diocese for the expenses of such entertainment to an amount not exceeding the aforesaid $250.

Sec. 3. No member of this Convention shall leave the same during its session without having applied for and received leave of absence.

 Canon XVIII.

CANON XVIII.

Of the Trial of a Clergyman not being a Bishop.

Whenever any Minister of the Diocese, not being a Bishop thereof, shall become liable to presentment and trial under the provisions of any Canon of the General or Diocesan Convention, the mode of proceedings in this Diocese shall be as follows, viz.:

Section 1. The trial shall be on a presentment in writing, addressed to the Bishop of the Diocese, specifying the offenses of which the accused is alleged to be guilty, with reasonable certainty as to time, place and circumstances. Such presentment may be made by the major part in number of the members of the Vestry of any Church of which the accused is a Minister, or by any three Presbyters of this Diocese entitled to seats in the Convention or as hereinafter mentioned. Whenever from public rumor, or otherwise, the Bishop shall have reason to believe that any Clergyman is under imputation of having been guilty of any offense or misconduct, for which he is liable to be tried, and that the interest of the Church requires an investigation, it shall be his duty to appoint five persons of whom three at least shall be Presbyters, to examine the case—a majority of whom may make such examination; and if there is, in their opinion, sufficient ground for presentment, shall present the Clergyman accordingly.

Sec. 2. A presentment being made in any of the modes above prescribed, the Bishop, if the facts charged shall not appear to him to be such as to constitute an offense, may dismiss it; or if it alleges facts some of which do, and some of which do not constitute an offense, he may allow it in part and dismiss the residue, or he may permit it to be amended. When it shall be allowed in whole or in part, the Bishop shall cause a copy of it to be served on the accused, and shall also nominate twelve Presbyters of this Diocese entitled to seats in the Convention, and not being parties to the presentment, and cause a list of their names to be served on the accused, who shall, within thirty days after such service, select five of them and notify their names in writing to the Bishop; and if he shall not give such notification to the Bishop within the said thirty days, the Bishop shall select five, and the Presbyters so selected shall form a board for the trial of the accused, and shall meet at such time and place as the Bishop shall direct, and shall have power to adjourn, from time to time and from place to place, (but ways within the Diocese,) as they shall think necessary.

Sec. 3. A written notice of the time and place of their first meeting shall be served at least thirty days before such meeting on the accused, and also on one of the persons making the presentment.

Sec. 4. If at the time appointed for the first meeting of the Board of Presbyters, the whole number of five shall not attend, those who do attend may adjourn from time to time; and if at one adjournment or more it shall appear to them improbable that whole number will attend within a reasonable time, then those who do attend, not being less than three, shall constitute the Board, and proceed to the trial and a majority of them shall decide all questions.

Sec. 5. If a Clergyman presented shall confess the truth of the facts alleged in the presentment, it shall be the duty of the Bishop to proceed to pass sentence; and if he shall not confess them before the appointment of a Board for his trial as before mentioned he shall be considered as denying them.

Sec. 6. If a Clergyman presented, after having due notice, shall not appear before the Board of Presbyters appointed for his trial, the Board may nevertheless proceed as if he were present, unless for good cause they shall see fit to adjourn until another day.

Sec. 7. When the Board proceeds to the trial, they shall hear such evidence as shall be produced; which evidence shall be reduced to writing and signed by the witnesses respectively; and some officer authorized by law to administer oaths may, at the desire of either party, be requested to administer an oath or affirmation to the witnesses, that they will testify the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, concerning the facts charged in the presentment. If on or during the trial, the accused shall confess the truth of the charges as stated in the presentment, the Board may dispense with hearing further evidence, and may proceed at once to state their opinion to the Bishop as to the sentence that ought to be pronounced.

Sec. 8. Upon the application of either party to the Bishop, and it being made satisfactorily to appear to him that any material witness can not be procured upon the trial, the Bishop may appoint a commissary to take the testimony of such witness. Such commissary may be either a Clergyman or a Layman, and the party so applying shall give to the other at least six days' notice of the time and place of taking the testimony. And if the person on whom the notice shall be served shall reside more than forty miles from the place of examination, an additional day's notice shall be given for every twenty miles of the said distance. And both parties may attend and examine the witness; and the questions and answers shall be reduced to writing and signed by the witness, and shall be certified by the commissary and enclosed under his seal and transmitted to the Board, and shall be received by them as evidence. A witness examined before such commissary may be sworn or affirmed in manner aforesaid.

Sec. 9. The Board having deliberately considered the evidence, shall declare in writing, signed by them or a majority of them, their decision on the charges contained in the presentment, distinctly stating whether the accused is guilty or not guilty of such charges respectively, and also stating the sentence which in their opinion should be pronounced; and a copy of such decision shall be without delay communicated to the accused; and the original decision, together with evidence, shall be delivered to the Bishop, who shall pronounce such canonical sentence as shall appear to him to be proper, provided the same shall not exceed in severity the sentence recommended by the Board; and such sentence shall be final. Before pronouncing any sentence the Bishop shall summon the accused and any three or more of the Clergy, to meet him at such time as may in his opinion be most convenient, in some Church to be designated by him, which shall for that purpose be opened at the time to all persons who may choose to attend, and the sentence shall then and there be publicly pronounced by the Bishop. But the Bishop, if he shall be satisfied that justice requires it, may grant a new trial to the accused, in which case a new Board of Presbyters shall be appointed, the proceedings before whom shall be conducted as before mentioned.

Sec. 10. All notices and papers contemplated in this Canon may be served by a summoner or summoners, to be appointed for the purpose by the Bishop, and whose certificate of such service shall be evidence thereof. In case of service by any other person, the fact shall be proved by the affidavit of such person. A written notice or paper delivered to a party, or left at his last place of residence, shall be deemed a sufficient service of such notice or paper—provided, however, that the service, if not personal, shall be a notice of at least sixty days.

Sec. 11. The accused may have the privilege of appearing by counsel; in case of the exercise of which privilege, and not otherwise, those who present shall have like privilege; which counsel shall in all cases be members of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

Sec. 12. The record of all proceedings upon a presentment of a Clergyman, shall be preserved by the Standing Committee; and for that purpose shall, after final decision be delivered to their Secretary.

CANON XIX.

Of the Chancellor of the Diocese.

The Bishop may nominate for the approval of the Convention a person skilled in ecclesiastical and civil law to be the Chancellor of the Diocese, whose office shall be to act as legal adviser and counsellor to the Bishop, the Standing Committee, ecclesiastical courts and the Convention, when called upon to do so.

CANON XX.

Of Parochial Limits.

No Parish of this Church shall be organized in any town, city or village where one already exists, without the consent of the Bishop and Standing Committee of the Diocese, and no edifice for public worship shall be erected by said Parish within one-half mile of the Church building already in existence.

Canon XXI.

CANON XXI.

Retirement of a Minister from the Active Duties of his Office.

Any Clergyman of this Diocese, in good standing who has reached the age of sixty-five years, and desires to retire from the duties of the Ministry by reason of disability shall, on the recommendation of the Bishop, if in his judgment such Clergyman shall be in need of such pension, be entitled upon his retirement to receive a pension of $500 per annum, payable quarterly by the Bishop, provided he has been engaged twenty years in the Ministry in this Diocese. The amount needed for such pension shall be added to the Diocesan Expense Fund.

7. The supplying of vacancies, if any, in the Board of Trustees of the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate; in the Board of Trustees of the Christmas Fund; in the Board of Trustees of the Parochial Fund.
8. The appointing of the following Standing Committees:
 - I. On the Constitution and Canons and Rules of Order—Consisting of Three Clergymen and Two Laymen.
 - II. On the Accounts of the Treasurer of the Diocese—Consisting of Three Laymen.
 - III. On the Report of the Trustees of the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate—Consisting of Three Laymen.
 - IV. On the Report of the Trustees of the Christmas Fund—Consisting of Three Laymen.
 - V. On the Report of the Trustees of the Parochial Fund—Consisting of Three Laymen.
 - VI. On the Report of the Trustee of the Van Wagenen Missionary Fund—Consisting of One Clergyman and Two Laymen.
 - VII. On the Certificates of Election of Lay Delegates—Consisting of the Assistant Secretary, the Treasurer and two Clergymen.
9. The appointment of the Deans of the Missionary Convocations and the supplying of vacancies, if any, in the list of Deputies to the Federate Council.
10. Unfinished Business.
11. Miscellaneous business.

THIRD AND SUBSEQUENT DAYS.

- III. On the third and any subsequent day, after Morning Prayer, the Order of Business shall be as follows:
 1. Reading and approving of the Minutes of the preceding day.
 2. The disposal of the Unfinished Business of the Convention in the order above prescribed for the Second Day; the business, if any, however, which was under consideration at the time of adjournment of the Convention to be first disposed of.

GENERAL RULES.

- IV. Every member who shall be present when a question is stated from the Chair shall vote thereon, unless excused by the House.

Rules of Order.

V. No motion shall be put or debated until it is seconded, and when seconded it shall be stated by the President before the debate; and every motion shall be reduced to writing when required by the President or any member.

VI. If the question in debate contains several distinct propositions, any member may have the same divided.

VII. When a question is under debate no motion shall be received, except to lay it on the table; to postpone it indefinitely; to postpone it to a certain time; to commit it, or amend it; and motions for either of these purposes shall have precedence in the order here named. But a motion to adjourn shall always be in order when no member is speaking, and shall be decided without debate; and if it be negatived shall not be renewed until some other business has intervened.

VIII. A motion to lay on the table shall be decided without debate; but any matter thus laid on the table may be called up again during the same session on the motion of any member who voted in the affirmative.

IX. On the question being put by the President it shall be determined by the sound of voices, for or against it; but any member may require a count of the votes, and tellers for that purpose shall be appointed by the Chair—or any three votes may, previous to a decision by count, require the ayes and noes to be taken, which shall be done by calling the names of the Clerical members and the Churches represented, and the votes shall be entered in the Journal.

X. Any five votes may require the ayes and nays to be taken by orders, and when so taken they shall be entered on the minutes.

XI. No member shall speak more than twice on the same question without leave of the House.

XII. A question being decided shall not be reconsidered during the same session without the consent of two-thirds of the votes of the Convention; nor without the motion for that purpose being made by one of the majority on the prior decision; nor shall any question be reconsidered more than once.

XIII. All Reports of Committees shall be in writing, and shall, upon reading or presentation of the same, become the property of the Convention without any motion for acceptance, and any report recommending action by the Convention shall be accompanied with a Resolution.

XIV. All Special Committees shall be appointed by the Chair, unless otherwise specially directed by the House; in which case they shall be appointed by ballot.

XV. No standing rule or order shall be suspended, changed or rescinded without one day's previous notice of a motion to that effect, unless by the vote of two-thirds of the persons present entitled to vote.

XVI. Before the final adjournment of any session of the Convention the Minutes of the last day's proceedings shall be read, corrected and approved.

XVII. Unless otherwise ordered by the Convention, it shall meet at 9 o'clock in the morning; take a recess from 1 to 2:30 o'clock the afternoon, and from 6 to 7:30 in the evening.

APPENDIX VI.

from the Laws of New York Relating to Protestant Episcopal Churches. Chapter XLII of the General Laws.

(AS AMENDED TO DATE.)

The Religious Corporations Law.

. Special Provision for the Incorporation and Government of Protestant Episcopal Parishes or Churches.

Section 30. The Meeting for Incorporation.

31. The Certificate of Incorporation.

32. Corporate Trustees; Vestry; powers and duties thereof.

33. Annual Elections.

34. Changing the number of Vestrymen of parishes hereafter incorporated.

35. Changing date of annual elections, number and terms of Office of Vestrymen and terms of Churchwardens of Parishes heretofore incorporated.

36. Changing the qualifications of voters and the qualifications of Wardens and Vestrymen.

Section 30. The meeting for incorporation.—Notice of a meeting for the purpose of incorporating an unincorporated Protestant Episcopal Parish or Congregation, and of electing the first Churchwardens and Vestrymen thereof, shall specify the object, time and place of such meeting, and shall be made public for at least two weeks prior to such meeting, either by open reading of such notice of divine service, at the usual place of worship of such Parish or Congregation, or by posting the same conspicuously on the door of such place of worship.

Section 31. The meeting for incorporation.—Notice of a meeting for the purpose of incorporating an unincorporated Protestant Episcopal Parish or Congregation, and of electing the first Churchwardens and Vestrymen thereof, shall specify the object, time and place of such meeting, and shall be made public for at least two weeks prior to such meeting, either by open reading of such notice of divine service, at the usual place of worship of such Parish or Congregation, or by posting the same conspicuously on the door of such place of worship.

The Religious Corporations Law.

worship of such Parish or Congregation and contributors to the support thereof for one year next prior to such meeting, or since the establishment of such Parish or Congregation, shall be qualified to vote at such meeting.

The presence of at least six persons qualified to vote thereat shall be necessary to constitute a quorum of such meeting. The action of the meeting upon any matter or question shall be decided by a majority of the qualified voters voting thereon, a quorum being present.

The officiating Minister, or if there be none, or he shall be necessarily absent, any other person qualified to vote at the meeting who is called to the Chair, shall preside thereat. Such presiding officer shall receive the votes, be the judge of the qualifications of voters and declare the result of the votes cast at such meeting.

The polls of the meeting shall remain open for one hour or longer, in the discretion of the presiding officer, or, if required, by vote of a majority of the voters present.

The meeting shall decide whether such unincorporated Parish or Congregation shall become incorporated. If such decision be in favor of incorporation, such meeting shall decide upon the name of the proposed corporation; what secular day of the week, beginning with the first Sunday in Advent, shall be the date of the regular annual election; whether the Vestrymen thereof shall be three, five, nine, twelve, fifteen, eighteen, twenty-one or twenty-four and shall elect by ballot from the persons qualified to vote thereat, who have been baptized, one-third of the number of Vestrymen so decided upon to hold office until the first annual election to be held thereafter, one-third of such number to hold office until one year after such annual election, and one-third of such number to hold office until two years after such annual election; and shall elect from such qualified voters who are Communicants in the Protestant Episcopal Church, two persons to be Churchwardens thereof; one to hold office until such annual election, and one to hold office until one year after such annual election.

Sec. 2. Section thirty-one of said article is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Sec. 31. The Certificate of Incorporation.—If such meeting shall decide in favor of incorporation and comply with the next preceding section, the presiding officer of such meeting and at least two other persons present and voting thereat, shall execute and acknowledge a certificate of incorporation setting forth:

1. The fact of the calling and holding of such meeting;
2. The name of the corporation as decided upon thereat;
3. The county and the town, city or village in which its principal place of worship is, or is intended to be located;
4. The day of the week, commencing with the first Sunday in

The Religious Corporations Law.

Advent, upon which the annual election shall be held;

5. The number of Vestrymen decided upon at such meeting;
6. The names of the Vestrymen elected at such meeting and the term of office of each;
7. The names of the Churchwardens elected at such meeting, and term of office of each.

On filing such certificate in the office of the Clerk of the County, so specified therein, the Churchwardens and Vestrymen so elected and their successors in office, together with the Rector, when there is one, shall form a Vestry and shall be the Trustees of such Church or Congregation; and they and their successors shall thereupon, by virtue of this act be a body corporate by the name or title expressed in such certificate, and shall have power, from time to time, to adopt by-laws for its governance.

Such corporation shall be an Incorporated Church, and may be termed also an Incorporated Parish.

Sec. 3. Section thirty-two of said article is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Sec. 32. Corporate Trustees; Vestry; powers and duties thereof.—No meeting of the Vestry or Trustees of any incorporated Protestant Episcopal Parish or Church, shall be held unless either all the members thereof are present, or three days' notice thereof shall be given to each member thereof, by the Rector in writing either personally or by mail; or, if there be no Rector or he be incapable of acting, by one of the Churchwardens; except that twenty-four hours' notice of the first meeting of the Vestry or Trustees after an annual election, shall be sufficient, provided such meeting be held within three days after the election.

To constitute a quorum of the Vestry or Board of Trustees there must be present either:

1. The Rector, at least one of the Churchwardens, and a majority of the Vestrymen, or
2. The Rector, both Churchwardens and one less than a majority of the Vestrymen, or
3. If the Rector be absent from the Diocese and shall have been so absent for over four calendar months, or if the meeting be called by the Rector and he be absent therefrom, or be incapable of acting, one Churchwarden and a majority of the Vestrymen, or both Churchwardens and one less than a majority of the Vestrymen,

But if there be a Rector of the Parish, no measure shall be taken, in his absence, in any case for effecting the sale or disposition of the real property of the corporation, nor for the sale or disposition of the capital or principal of the personal property of the corporation, nor shall any act be done which shall impair the rights of such Rector.

The presiding officer of the Vestry or Trustees shall be the Rector, or if there be none, or he be absent, the Churchwarden who shall be called to the chair by a majority of the next annual election at which, if such vacancy would continue thereafter, it shall be filled for the remainder of the unexpired term.

At each meeting of the Vestry or Trustees each member thereof shall be entitled to one vote.

The Vestry shall have power to fill a vacancy occurring in the office of a Churchwarden or Vestryman by death, resignation or otherwise than by expiration of term, until the next annual election at which, if such vacancy would continue thereafter, it shall be filled for the remainder of the unexpired term.

The Vestry may, subject to the Canons of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, and of the Diocese in which the Parish or Church is situated, by a majority vote, elect a Rector to fill a vacancy occurring in the Rectorship of the Parish, and may fix the salary or compensation of the Rector.

Sec. 4. Section thirty-three of said act is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Sec. 33. Annual Elections and Special Meetings of Incorporated Protestant Episcopal Parishes.—The annual election of a Protestant Episcopal Parish hereafter incorporated, shall be held on the secular day in the week, commencing with the first Sunday in Advent, designated in its certificate of incorporation. The annual election of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal Parish or Church heretofore incorporated shall be held on the day fixed for such annual election, by or in pursuance of law, or if no such date be so fixed, then on the Monday next after the first Sunday in Advent. Special Meetings of any Protestant Episcopal Parish or Church heretofore or hereafter incorporated may be held on any secular day fixed by the Vestry.

Notice of such annual election or special meeting shall be read by the Rector of the Parish, or if there be none, or he absent, by the officiating Minister or by a Churchwarden thereof, on each of the two Sundays next preceding such election, or special meeting, in the time of divine service, or if, for any reason, the usual place of worship of the Parish be not open for divine service, the notice shall be posted conspicuously on the outer door of the place of worship for two weeks next preceding the election or special meeting.

Such notice shall specify the place, day and hour of holding the election or special meeting. The notice of the annual election shall also specify the name and term of office of each Churchwarden and election, the name and term of office of each Churchwarden and Vestryman whose term of office shall then expire, or whose office shall then be vacant for any cause, and the office for which each such officer is to be then elected.

The notice of a special meeting shall specify the matter or question to be brought before such meeting, and no matter or question not specified in such notice shall be acted on at such meeting.

The presiding officer of such annual or special meeting shall be the Rector of the Parish, if there be one, or if there be none, or he be absent, one of the Churchwardens elected for the purpose by a majority of the duly qualified voters present, or if no Churchwarden be present, a Vestryman elected in like manner. Such presiding officer shall be the Judge of the qualifications of the voters; shall receive the votes cast; and shall declare the result of the votes cast. The presiding officer of such annual or special meeting shall enter the proceedings of the meeting in the book of the minutes of the vestry, sign his name thereto, and offer the same to as many qualified voters present as he shall think fit, to be also signed by them.

Only men of full age belonging to the Parish, who have been regular attendants at its worship and contributors to its support for at least twelve months prior to such election or special meeting, or since the establishment of such Parish, shall be qualified voters at any such election or special meeting. The action of annual or special meeting upon any matter or question shall be decided by a majority of the qualified voters voting thereon. The polls of an election shall continue open for one hour, and longer, in the discretion of the presiding officer, or, if required, by a vote of a majority of the qualified voters present and voting.

The Churchwardens and Vestrymen shall be elected by ballot from persons qualified to vote at such election, and no person shall be eligible for election as Churchwarden unless he be also a communicant in the Protestant Episcopal Church, nor be eligible for election as Vestryman unless he shall have been baptized.

At each annual election of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal Parish hereafter incorporated, one Churchwarden shall be elected to hold office for two years; and one-third of the total number of the Vestrymen of the Parish shall be elected to hold office for three years. At each annual election of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal Parish or Church heretofore incorporated, two Churchwardens and the total number of its Vestrymen shall be elected to hold office for one year thereafter, unless the terms of office of but one Churchwarden or of but one-third of its Vestrymen shall then expire, in which case one Churchwarden shall be elected to hold office for two years, and one-third of the total number of its Vestrymen shall be elected to hold office for three years. Each Churchwarden and Vestrymen shall hold office after the expiration of his term until his successor shall be chosen.

Sec. 5. Section thirty-four of said article is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

The Religious Corporations Law.

Sec. 34. Changing the number of Vestrymen of Protestant Episcopal Parishes hereafter incorporated.—If the Vestry of a Protestant Episcopal Parish, hereafter incorporated, shall, by resolution, recommend that the number of Vestrymen of such Parish be changed to either three, six, nine, twelve, fifteen, eighteen, twenty-one or twenty-four Vestrymen, notice of such recommendation shall be included in the notice of the next annual election of such Parish, or in the notice of a special meeting to be held not less than six months before the time fixed for holding the next annual election thereafter, and be submitted to such annual or special meeting. If such recommendation be ratified by such meeting, the presiding officer thereof, and at least two qualified voters present thereat, shall execute and acknowledge a certificate setting forth such resolution of the Vestry, the fact that notice thereof had been given with the notice of such annual election, or with the notice of such special meeting, as the case may be; that the meeting had ratified the same; and the number of Vestrymen so decided on. Such certificate shall be filed in the office of the Clerk of the County in which the original certificate of incorporation is filed and recorded, and such change in the number of Vestrymen shall take effect at the time of the next annual election thereafter.

If the number of Vestrymen be thereby increased, then, in addition to the number of Vestrymen to be elected at such annual election one-third of such increased number of Vestrymen shall be elected to hold office for one year thereafter, one-third of such increased number shall be elected to hold office for two years thereafter, and one-third of such increased number shall be elected to hold office for three years thereafter.

If the number of Vestrymen by such change be reduced, such reduction shall not effect the term of office of any Vestryman duly elected, and at such next annual election, and at each annual election thereafter, one-third of such reduced number of Vestrymen shall be elected to hold office for three years.

Sec. 6. Section thirty-five of said article is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Sec. 35. Changing date of annual election, number and terms of office of Vestrymen and terms of office of Churchwardens in Protestant Episcopal Churches heretofore incorporated.—If the Vestry of a Protestant Episcopal Parish, heretofore incorporated, shall, by resolution, recommend that the date of the Annual Election be changed to a secular day in the week, beginning with the first Sunday in Advent, or that the number of Vestrymen be changed to three, six, nine, twelve, fifteen, eighteen, twenty-one or twenty-four, and that the terms of office of the Churchwardens be changed so that one warden shall be elected annually, notice of such recommendation or recommendations shall be included in the notice of the next Annual Election of such Parish, or in the notice of a special meeting to be held not less than six months before the time fixed for holding the next annual election thereafter, and be submitted to such annual or special meeting. If

The Religious Corporations Law.

Each recommendation or recommendations be ratified by each meeting, the presiding officer thereof and at least two qualified voters present thereat, shall execute and acknowledge a certificate setting forth such resolution of the vestry; the fact that notice thereof had been given with the notice of the annual election; with the notice of the special meeting, as the case may be, that such meeting had ratified the same; the date determined upon for the annual election of the Parish; the number of Vestrymen so decided on, and the fact that the meeting determined to thereafter elect Churchwardens so that the term of one Warden shall expire annually.

Such certificate shall be filed in the office of the Clerk of the county in which the original certificate of incorporation is filed and recorded. If the meeting determined to change the date of the annual election, the next annual election shall be held on the day in the week beginning, with the first Sunday in Advent, determined on at such meeting, and the terms of the Vestrymen and Churchwardens which, pursuant to law, would expire at the next annual election, shall expire, and their successors shall be elected on such day.

If the meeting determine to change the number of Vestrymen and manner of electing Wardens and Vestrymen, there shall be elected at the first annual election thereafter, one-third of the number of Vestrymen so determined on, to hold office for three years, one-third thereof to hold office for two years, and one-third thereof to hold office for one year; and one Churchwarden to hold office for one year, and one to hold for two years; and thereafter at the annual election there shall be elected one-third of the number of Vestrymen determined on at such meeting and one Churchwarden.

Any Protestant Episcopal Parish, heretofore incorporated, which has changed the number of its Vestrymen and the manner of electing Wardens and Vestrymen, pursuant to the provisions of this section, may make further changes in the number of its Vestrymen in the manner provided in section thirty-four of this act.

Sec. 5. This act shall take effect immediately.

Sec. 7. Section thirty-six of said article is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Sec. 36. Changing the qualification of voters and the qualifications of Wardens and Vestrymen.—If the Vestry of a Protestant Episcopal Parish heretofore incorporated shall, by resolution, recommend that the qualifications of voters and the qualifications of Wardens and Vestrymen be changed to conform in both cases to the requirement of sections thirty-three of this statute, notice of such recommendation or recommendations shall be included in the notice of the next annual election of such Parish, and be submitted to the meeting. If such recommendation or recommendations be ratified by such meeting the presiding officer thereof and at least two qualified voters present thereat shall execute and acknowledge a certificate setting forth such resolution of the Vestry, the fact that notice thereof had been given with the notice of such annual election, and that the meeting had ratified the same.

An Act to Amend the Religious Corporations Law.

Such certificate shall be filed in the office of the Clerk of the County in which the original certificate of incorporation is filed and recorded.

Sec. This act shall take effect immediately.

(2) An Act to Amend the Religious Corporations Law.

Became a Law April 19, 1900.

Section 1. Section eleven of Article one of Chapter seven hundred and twenty-three of the laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-five, entitled "An act in relation to religious corporations, constituting chapter forty-two of the general laws," and known as the religious corporations law, as amended by chapter three hundred and thirty-six of the laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-six is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Sec. 11. Sale, mortgage and lease of real property of religious corporations.—A religious corporation shall not sell or mortgage any of its real property without applying for and obtaining leave of the court therefor pursuant to the provisions of the code of civil procedure. The Trustees of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal Church shall not vote upon any resolution or proposition for the sale, mortgage or lease of its real property unless the Rector of such Church, if it then has a Rector, shall be present, and shall not make application to the court for leave to sell or mortgage any of its real property without the consent of the Bishop and Standing Committee of the Diocese to which such Church belongs; but in case the See is vacant, or the Bishop be absent or unable to act, the consent of the Standing Committee, with their certificate of the vacancy of the See or of the absence or disability of the Bishop shall suffice. * The petition of the Trustees of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal Church * * * shall, in addition to the matters required by the code of civil procedure to be set forth therein, set forth that this section has also been complied with. But lots, plots or burial permits in a cemetery owned by a religious corporation may be sold without applying for or obtaining leave of the court. No cemetery lands of a religious corporation shall be mortgaged while used for cemetery purposes.

Sec. 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

(3.) Form of Certificate of Incorporation.

To all whom these presents may Concern:

We, the undersigned, whose names and seals are affixed to this instrument, do hereby certify, that on the [Second] day of [June] in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and [ninety five], the men of full age, belonging to the Church or Congregation in communion with the Protestant Episcopal Church in the State of New York worshipping in [the School House of School District Number (3) in the Town of Verona, in the County of Oneida, in the State of New York,] not already incorporated, met at their usual place of worship aforesaid, for the purpose of incorporating themselves under the Act of the Legislature of the State of New York, entitled "An Act in relation to Religious Corporations, constituting chapter forty-two of the general laws, in pursuance of notice duly given specifying the object of the meeting, and the time and place thereof which had been publicly read in the time of morning service, on two Sundays next previous to such meeting, by * [the Rector] at the usual place of worship of such Parish or Congregation, and which was also posted in a conspicuous place on the outer door near the main entrance to such place of worship.

And we further certify that at such meeting, not less than six men of full age, belonging to the Church or Congregation aforesaid, and not already incorporated, and duly qualified to vote at such meeting, met for the purpose aforesaid.

And we further certify that † [the Rev. John Williams, the Rector of the said Church or Congregation,] presided at the said meeting and received the votes.

And we further certify that the number of Vestrymen decided upon at such meeting was [three, six, nine, twelve, fifteen, eighteen, twenty one or twenty-four.]

And we further certify that at the said meeting the following persons were elected Churchwardens and Vestrymen, for the term of office set opposite their names respectively, by a majority of the votes of the persons present at the said meeting qualified to vote, viz.:

A. C. for term of one year	• Were Elected
C. D. for the term of two years	Church Wardens.
E. F. for the term of one year	Were Elected
G. H. for the term of two years
I. J. for the term of three years	Vestrymen

And we further certify, that by a majority of the votes of the persons present and qualified as aforesaid [Tuesday] in the week beginning with the first Sunday in Advent was fixed and determined for the annual election of the successors of the said Churchwardens and Vestrymen.

* Or by the officiating Minister; or by Alfred Bailey, belonging to the said Church or Congregation.

† Or the Rev. John Williams, the Rector of the said Church or Congregation being necessarily absent by reason of illness (or whatever may be the cause). Mr. Thomas Clark was called to the Chair, and, or there being no Rector, Mr. Henry Churchill, one of the Churchwardens (or Vestrymen) or Mr. Daniel Thomas, was called to the Chair, etc.

Form of Certificate of Incorporation.

And that it was in like manner determined that the said Church or Congregation shall be known in law by the name of [the Rector Churchwardens and Vestrymen of St. Paul's Church, in the town of Verona, County of Oneida, and State of New York] and that its principal place of worship is [or, is intended to be] located in said [town or city or village and county as the case may be] and State of New York.

In testimony whereof, we the said [John Williams] who was then presiding officer at the said meeting, and [Thomas Clark and William Smith], who were present and witnessed the proceedings, approved at said meeting, and were selected and named to sign and seal this certificate, have hereunto subscribed our names and affixed our seals, the [second] day of [June], in the year of our Lord one thousand and eight hundred and [ninety-five].

[John Williams]	[SEAL.]
[Thomas Clark,]	[SEAL.]
[William Smith.]	[SEAL.]

The certificate thus made out, and signed and sealed, must be duly acknowledged by the parties signing and sealing the same, before some officer authorized to take the acknowledgement, or proof of deeds or conveyances of real estate, to be recorded in the County where the Church or place of worship is situate.

Being thus signed, sealed and acknowledged the certificate must be recorded by the Clerk of the County or by the officer whose duty it is, or may hereafter be made, to record such instruments in the County in which the Church is situate.

(B)

Incorporation of Free Churches.

(I) An Act for the Incorporation of Societies to Establish Free Churches. Passed April 30, 1854.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly do enact as follows:

Section 1. Any seven or more persons of full age, citizens of the United States, and a majority of them being residents of this State, who shall associate themselves for the purpose of founding and continuing one or more Free Churches, may make, sign and acknowledge, before any officer authorized to take the acknowledgment of deeds of land to be recorded in this State and may file in the office of the Secretary of State, and also of the Clerk of the County in which any such Church is to be established, a certificate in writing, in which shall be stated the name or title by which such society shall be known in the law, the purpose of its organization, and the names of seven trustees of whom not less than five shall be persons who are not Ministers of the Gospel, or priests of any denomination, to manage the same; but such certificate shall not be filed unless with the written consent and approbation of a Justice of the Supreme Court of the district in which any such Church shall be intended to be established, or in the city of New York, of a Judge of the Superior Court of the said city, to be indorsed on such certificate.

Sec. 2. Upon the filing of such certificate, the persons named therein as trustees and their successors, being citizens of the United States and residents of this State, shall be a body politic and corporate, with all the rights, powers and duties, and subject to all the restrictions and obligations and other provisions, so far as the same may be applicable and consistent with this act specified and contained in the act entitled "An Act for the Incorporation of Benevolent, Charitable, Scientific and Missionary Societies," passed April 12, 1848, and the act amending the same passed April 7, 1849, except that the limitation in the first of the said acts of the value of the real estate that may be held by any society in the city or county of New York, incorporated under this act, shall not be applicable to any Church edifice erected or owned by such society, or the lot of ground on which the same may be built, and except that the provision in the first of the said acts, in relation to the personal liability of the trustees, shall be applicable only to the trustees who shall have assented to the creation of any debt.

Sec. 3. Any vacancies occurring in the said Board of Trustees shall be supplied by the remaining trustees at any legal meeting of the members; but there shall always be at least five members of the Board who are not ministers of the Gospel or priests of any denomination.

Sec. 4. The seats or pews in every Church building or edifice owned or occupied by any corporation organized under this Act shall be forever free for the occupation and use during public worship, of all persons choosing to occupy the same, and conducting themselves with propriety; and no rent, charge or exaction shall ever be made or demanded for such occupation or use; nor shall any real estate belonging to such corporation be sold or mortgaged by the trustees thereof, unless by the direction of the Supreme Court, to be given in the same manner, and in the like cases, as provided by law in relation to religious corporations.

Sec. 5. This act shall take effect immediately.

(2) Certificate of Incorporation of Free Churches.

We, whose names are hereto subscribed, male persons of full age, citizens of the United States, and a majority of whom are residents of the State of New York, do hereby certify that we have associated ourselves together for the purpose of founding and continuing a Free Church in the City [or town] of —, State of New York that the name or title by which such society shall be known in law was determined to be the Free Church of the —, in the — of —. That the purpose of its organization is the ministering the Word and Sacraments according to the doctrines and worship and discipline of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America. That the following are the names of seven trustees who are to manage the affairs of the said Church and body corporate, five of whom are not Ministers of the Gospel or Priests of any denomination, namely:

[Signed in duplicate by all, and to be acknowledged, not proved, and to be approved by a Judge of the Supreme Court of the district, and filed in the office of the County Clerk, and a duplicate in the office of the Secretary of State.]

Acts relating to the incorporation of the Trustees of the Episcopal, Parochial and Christmas Funds, and the Bible and Prayer Book Society may be found in any Journal of the Convention prior to 1896, and in the Journal of 1906.

This being the day appointed for the meeting of the Fortieth Annual Convention of the Diocese of Central New York, the Rt. Rev. Charles Tyler Olmsted, S. T. D., D. C. L., Bishop of the Diocese, and a number of the Clergy and Laity assembled in St. Paul's Church, in the city of Syracuse at 4.30 o'clock P. M., Evening Prayer was said by the Rev. W. C. White and the Rev. H. D. B. MacNeil. At the conclusion of Divine Service, the Rt. Rev. the Bishop of the Diocese took the chair and called the Convention to order.

The Secretary called the roll of the Clergy entitled to seats in the Convention, when seventy-nine answered to their names and took their seats. (See page 22.)

On the report of the Committee on Credentials the roll was called when fifty-seven Lay Delegates representing thirty-three Parishes answered to their names and took their seats. (See page 23.)

A quorum of the Clergy and Lay Delegates being present, the Right Reverend, the President, declared the Convention to be duly organized and ready for business.

The Convention proceeded to the election of a Secretary, when, on motion, the vote by ballot was dispensed with, and the Rev. James K. Parker was chosen.

On nomination of the Secretary, the Rev. J. Winslow Clarke was appointed Assistant Secretary.

Journal.

Provided, However, that nothing herein shall prevent any delegate from voting for any person whose name does not appear on the printed ballot.

The Rev. Douglas Matthews offered the following resolution, which was adopted,

Resolved,—That the Secretary of the Convention be and is hereby authorized to wire the Governor of the State to this effect: The Convention of the Diocese of Central New York in Convention assembled desires to express its thorough approval of your course in trying to rid the State of race track gambling. The issue is a plain one of right and wrong and you are to be congratulated upon the fight you are making.

The Rev. Theodore Haydn offered the following resolution, which on motion, was referred to the Committee on the Constitution and Canons.

Resolved, That Canon XVII, Section 2, be amended as follows: Strike out the words "It is hereby made the duty of the different parishes to make provision for the travelling expenses of their clergy in attending the Convention either by a collection in Church on Sunday or by some other mode," and in place of them substitute the words "the necessary mileage of the clergy in travelling to and from the place of Convention shall be paid by the Treasurer of the Convention and the several amounts so paid shall be added to the Diocesan Expense Fund Assessment of the parish or mission over which each such clergyman shall have canonical charge."

The Rev. H. N. Hyde offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the election of delegates to the Missionary Council of the Second Missionary Department be made a special order of business for the second day immediately after the election of the Standing Committee.

On motion an adjournment took place until 7.30 o'clock this evening.

Journal.

TUESDAY EVENING, 7.30 o'clock.

The Convention reassembled, the Rt. Rev. the Bishop of the Diocese in the chair.

The Rev. E. H. Coley read the report of the Standing Committee of the Diocese. (See Appendix A.)

The Rev. Dr. Harding offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the budget for the ensuing year, as reported by the Standing Committee (with the addition of any sums voted by the Convention) be and is hereby adopted, and that there be, and is, hereby ordered therefor an assessment upon all the parishes and missions of the Diocese, equal in each case, to 2 2-10 per cent. upon their last reported current expenses.

The Secretary read the following communication from the Secretary of the House of Deputies of the General Convention.

To the Convention of the Diocese of Central New York:

In compliance with the requirement of Article XI. of the Constitution I hereby make known that the following alterations of the Constitution of the Church are proposed: to wit, those comprised in the resolutions printed herewith, said resolutions having been constitutionally adopted by a General Convention held in the city of Richmond, in October, A. D. 1907.

HENRY ANSTICE,

Secretary of the House of Deputies.

New York

RESOLUTIONS.

Resolved, That the following change be made in the Constitution, and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses, in order that the same may be adopted at the next General Convention, in accordance with Article XI. of the Constitution, as follows:

Prefix to the Constitution the following

PREAMBLE

This American Church first planted in Virginia, in the year of our Lord 1607, by representatives of the ancient Church of England; acknowledging the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments to be the Word of God, the record of God's Revelation of Himself in his Son, and to contain all things necessary to salvation; holding the Catholic Creeds, to wit, the Apostles' Creed and the Nicene Creed, to be a sufficient statement of the Christian Faith; maintaining the Orders of the Sacred Ministry in such form as from the Apostles' time they have been continued; reverently conserving the Sacraments ordained by Christ Himself; and accounting to be members of the flock of Christ all who have been duly baptized in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost, has set forth and established, for the furtherance of the work to which it has been called of God, the following

CONSTITUTION

Resolved, That the following change be made in the Constitution, and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses, in order that the same may be adopted at the next General Convention, in accordance with Article XI. of the Constitution, as follows:

Strike out Section 3 of Article I., and insert in place of it the following:

Journal.

Section 3. Upon the expiration of the term of office of the Presiding Bishop, the General Convention shall elect the Presiding Bishop of the Church. The House of Bishops shall choose one of the Bishops having jurisdiction within the United States to be such Presiding Bishop, by the vote of a majority of all the Bishops entitled to vote in the House of Bishops, such choice to be subject to confirmation by the House of Deputies by vote of a majority of the Clerical and Lay Deputies of all the Dioceses entitled to representation in the House of Deputies, voting by orders.

The Presiding Bishop shall discharge such duties as may be prescribed by the Constitution and the Canons of the General Convention.

The Presiding Bishop so elected shall hold office for six years, unless meanwhile he shall have reached the seventieth year of his age, when his tenure of office shall end in any case, or shall have resigned his Episcopal jurisdiction, or, with the consent of the General Convention, his office as Presiding Bishop, or, unless, for infirmity or other sufficient cause, he may have been relieved of such office by the General Convention by the concurrent vote, first of a majority of all the Bishops entitled to vote in the House of Bishops and then of a majority of the Clerical and Lay Deputies of all the Dioceses entitled to representation in the House of Deputies, voting by orders.

The salary of the Presiding Bishop as such shall be fixed and paid by the General Convention, as may be provided by Canon of such Convention.

When, for any reason, a vacancy in office shall occur, or if, by reason of infirmity, the Presiding Bishop shall become disabled, the House of Bishops shall elect one of its number to act as Presiding Bishop until the next meeting of the General Convention.

Resolved, That the following change be made in the Constitution, and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses, in order that the same may be adopted at the next General Convention, in accordance with Article XI. of the Constitution, as follows:

Insert in Article II. as Section 4 the following, and renumber the present Section 4:

It shall be lawful for a Diocese, with the consent of the Bishop of that Diocese, to elect one or more Suffragan Bishops, without right of succession, and with seat and without vote in the House of Bishops. A Suffragan Bishop shall be consecrated and hold office under such conditions and limitations other than those provided in this Article as may be provided by Canons of the General Convention. He shall be eligible as Bishop or Bishop Coadjutor of a Diocese, or as a Suffragan in another Diocese, or he may be elected by the House of Bishops as a Missionary Bishop.

Journal.

Resolved, That the following change be made in the Constitution and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses, in order that the same may be adopted at the next General Convention, in accordance with Article XI. of the Constitution, as follows:

Add to the second paragraph of Article IX. of the Constitution the following sentence, namely:

The General Convention may also provide by Canon for the trial of a Presbyter or Deacon in the Diocese or Missionary District in which an offence is alleged to have been committed by him.

Resolved, That the following change be made in the Constitution, and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses, in order that the same may be adopted at the next General Convention, in accordance with Article XI. of the Constitution, as follows:

Add to Article X. at the end thereof the following proviso:

And provided further, that in editions of the Book of Common Prayer in foreign languages, such verbal alterations as may be necessary to adapt the same to local conditions may be made by the authority of the Bishop of the Diocese or Missionary District in which it is used, subject to the approval of the Presiding Bishop.

The Secretary read the following communication in reference to the first Meeting of the Missionary Council for the Second Missionary Department.

Journal.

BISHOP'S HOUSE,
ALBANY.

The first Meeting of the Missionary Council for the Second Missionary Department, consisting of the five Dioceses in the State of New York, two Dioceses in the State of New Jersey, and the Missionary District of Porto Rico, will meet on the 1st day of November, 1908, at eleven o'clock in the morning in the City of New York. The opening service, with the celebration of the Holy Communion, will be held in Christ Church, Broadway and 71st Street, at 10 o'clock.

Under the canon, Dioceses are entitled to Four Clerical and four Lay Delegates each, to be elected by the Diocesan Conventions. If any Diocesan Convention has not elected delegates, the canon makes the Deputies to the General Convention 1907 members of this first or primary Missionary Council.

issue the call as being the Senior Bishop in this Missionary Department, and authorized therefore by the canon to call the meeting.

Yours very truly,

W. C. DOANE.

Treasurer of the Diocese read his annual Report (Appendix C.)

Rev. John A. Staunt read the report of the Registrar (Appendix H.)

S. Hoskins read the Report of the Committee on the part of the Trustees of the Christmas Fund. (See Appendix I.)

Journal.

The Secretary read the Report of the Committee on the Accounts of the Treasurer of the Diocese. (See Appendix C.)

Mr. T. H. Stryker read the Report of the Committee on the Report of the Trustees of the Episcopate Fund. (See Appendix E.)

The Rev. C. D. Broughton read the Report of the Committee on the Report of the Trustee of the Van Wagenen Missionary Fund. (See Appendix G.)

The Secretary read the Report of the Committee on the Report of the Trustees of the Parochial Fund. (See Appendix F.)

The Archdeacon read his Report. (See Appendix B.)

Mr. E. L. Pierce from the Special Commission on Clerical Support presented the following, REPORT.

The Commission appointed at the last Convention, to inquire into the condition of clerical support in this Diocese, and report to this Convention, such facts and recommendations as may be suggested by such inquiry, beg leave to report, that there are in the Diocese 51 self-supporting parishes; of these 37 have complied with our request for information showing that their rectors are receiving salaries ranging from $600 a year to $3,000 and a house.

There are 99 Missionary Parishes and Stations, which contribute towards the maintenance of services, sums ranging from $50 to $500 whose rectors or missionaries receive aid from the Diocesan Board of Missions, sums ranging from $50 to $500. Of the 46 Missionaries engaged in the Missionary work of the Diocese, 35 receive less than $800 and a house, 24 receive less than $750 and a house, 12 receive less than $650 and a house, 8 receive less than $600 and a house.

Journal.

The Commission recommends to the Convention, that no married priest in charge of one or more Mission Stations, and physically able to do full duty, should receive less than $900 per annum, and a house. That if no house be furnished, the salary should not be less than $1,000 per annum. It is recognized that there are some cases, where, owing to conditions peculiar to certain Missionary Stations, this amount of salary may not be required.

The Commission recommends that the salaries of the Missionaries be brought up to this standard gradually, and as far as possible by a rearrangement of the Missionary Stations, so that a clergyman shall serve more places, with, perhaps, fewer services in the smaller places; and in part, by an increase, as far as it is possible, in the aid received from the Diocesan Board of Missions.

The Commission recommends that the Parishes and Missionary Stations, receiving aid from the Diocesan Board of Missions, be classified, according to the amount paid by each Parish and Missionary Station for the support of the Missionary, as follows; those paying $100 a year, $200 a year, $350 a year, $500 or more a year. Those Missionary Parishes or Stations paying $100 to have the services of the Missionary at one Sunday service each month; those paying $200 to have the services of the Missionary at one Sunday service on alternate Sundays; those paying $350 to have the services of the Missionary at one service on each Sunday; those paying $500 or more, to have the services of the Missionary at two services on each Sunday.

The statistics show that some self-supporting parishes do not pay their Rectors the equivalent of the amounts named above; it is, therefore, recommended that such parishes should carefully consider whether it is not possible to increase their clergyman's salary to the amounts recommended.

It is further recommended that all vestries should carefully consider whether it is not possible to increase the salaries of their Rectors, bearing in mind their faithful services, and the fact that it is seldom possible for their Rectors to ask for such an increase of salary, no matter how urgent his need may be.

paid by the Treasurer of the Convention from the Diocesan Expense Fund to such Clergymen as shall apply for it and the several amounts so paid shall be added to the assessment for the said fund. Provided, that no Clergyman shall have any claim for mileage whose parish or church is in arrears on its assessment to the Diocesan Expense Fund.

The Rev. Mr. Hegeman offered the following resolution, which was adopted.

Resolved, That the Canon as presented by Dr. Egar on the payment of the mileage of the Clergy be amended by striking out the words "as shall apply for it."

A vote being taken the recommendation of the Committee as amended was adopted by a canonical vote.

The Rev. H. N. Hyde offered the following resolution, which was referred to the Committee on the Constitution and Canons,

Resolved, That Canon VIII be amended as follows: The title of said Canon to be changed by the addition of the words " and Representatives in the Missionary Council." That a new section be added as follows:

SECTION 5. At the Convention holden in the year 1908 and at the Convention in every third year thereafter, four clerical members and four lay members shall be elected to serve as Representatives of the Diocese in the Missionary Council of the Second Missionary Department as created and authorized under Canon 52, Sections 12 and 13 of the Canons for the government of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America. Said Representatives shall be elected in the same manner as Delegates to the General Convention and all the provisions of Section 1 of this Canon shall apply in their election.

The Rev. Dr. Wilson offered the following resolution, which was adopted.

Resolved, That this Convention has listened with great pleasure to that portion of the Bishop's Address referring to the Amendment to Canon 19 of the General Canons of the Church and recommend that such portion be read to the several congregations of the Diocese on some Sunday of this month.

The Rev. H. S. Longley from the Committee to which was referred the recommendations of the Commission on Clerical Support presented the following,

REPORT.

Resolved, That it is the sense of this Convention that we recommend to the Bishop of the Diocese and the Board of Managers of Missions, that so much of the Commission's Report as refers to Missionary Salaries contained in the lines of their report from 17 to 24 page 1 be put in operation in the Diocese as soon as possible and that the Bishop and Board of Managers direct every effort to bring the Salaries up to the standard suggested.

Also be it resolved, That the Convention recommend to the Bishop and the Board of Managers of Missions that the Commission's Report on the classification of Parishes and Mission Stations in respect to the number of services to be given, based upon the amount paid by the Parish, be made a rule in this Diocese.

Further be it resolved, That the Bishop be respectfully requested to place in the hands of every Warden, Vestryman and Parish Trustee in the Diocese, a circular letter over his own signature, embodying the suggestions contained in the Commission's Report page 2, lines 16 to 26, and that he place such emphasis on such suggestions as he may deem expedient.

Respectfully submitted,

HARRY S. LONGLEY,
RICHMOND H. GESNER,
F. P. TABER.

The Rev. H. E. Hubbard,

The Rev. Dr. Wilson offered the following resolution which was unanimously adopted,

Resolved, That the amendment to Article III Section 1 of the Constitution as reported on page 30 of the Journal of Convention of 1907 be adopted by this Convention and become part of the Constitution of the Church in this Diocese.

Journal.

The Tellers presented their report from which it appeared that Mr. W. J. Green had received a majority of all the votes given and was therefore duly elected Delegate to the Missionary Council.

There being a failure to elect two Clerical Delegates, Mr. G. G. Cotton offered the following resolution which was adopted, Resolved, That the Secretary of this Convention cast one vote for the Rev. Mr. Hegeman and the Rev. Mr. Hyde as Delegates to the Missionary Council.

The Rev. W. S. Hayward offered the following resolution which was adopted, Resolved, That a vote of thanks be conveyed to the Rector, Assistant and his good people for their abundant hospitality.

The Convention then, on motion, resolved to adjourn after the usual devotions.

The Bishop offered prayers and pronounced the benediction, and the Convention adjourned sine die.

CHARLES T. OLMSTED,

President of the Convention,

JAMES K. PARKER, Secretary,

J. WINSLOW CLARKE, Assistant Secretary.

The Bishop's Address

To the Fortieth Annual Convention.

Dear Brethren of the Clergy and of the Laity:

Grace be unto you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ!

During the past year we have lost by death from among the Clergy of the Diocese the Rev. John Muir, M. D., the Joshua L. Burrows, Ph. D., the Rev. John Scott, and the John J. Andrew. Of the faithful Laity we have lost Mrs. Brunt and Miss Starbuck, of Watertown; Mrs. Standin, Lynch, Mrs. Chamberlain, Miss Buell and Mr. W. G. Do of Utica; Mr. Gale, Mr. Wells and Mr. Shaw of Bingha Mr. Beecher and Miss Colwell, of Syracuse; Mrs. M. Mr. Mott and Mr. Jewell, of Oneida; Mr. Bostwick, of It Miss Hill, of McLean; and Miss Pease, of Pierrepont N. Four of our Bishops also have departed this life since the eral Convention in October, viz.: The Bishops of Neb Delaware, Washington, and South Carolina. Let us that, when He calls, we with them may enter into the e peace of God.

My official acts since the last Convention have been a lows: Baptized three infants. Confirmed 1,134 persons received 9, making a total of 1,143; several parishes, more are to be visited this month, which I could not conven bring in earlier, and the record of their confirmations s belong to this year. I have solemnized two marriages officiated at seven funerals. One person, Mr. Wm. Suthe

Bishop's Address.

Stevens, has been ordered Deacon, and three Deacons have been advanced to the Priesthood, the Rev. Messrs. Franklin L. Metcalf, Walter E. Jones and Roy Irving Murray. The late date of Trinity Sunday this year has postponed four or five other Ordinations until after this Convention. Nine men have been received as Postulants for Holy Orders, Messrs. Francis H. Smith, Albert E. Phillips, Arthur H. Soper, Wilbur Q. Rogers, Lewis E. Ward, Harry Beal, Geo. A. Perry, Jr., L. A. Davison and Jesse S. Wicks; Mr. Davison having been transferred from the Diocese of Los Angeles. Two Postulants have withdrawn, Messrs. Frank O. Hokerk and Earl Leslie Lord. Messrs. W. Frank Allen, L. A. Davison and Jesse S. Wicks have been admitted as Candidates.

Letters dimissory have been given to the Rev. A. A. Jaynes, to the Diocese of Newark; the Rev. Harold E. Ford, to Massachusetts; the Rev. J. Sanders Reed, D. D., to Pennsylvania; the Rev. J. Otis Ward, to New York; the Rev. J. H. Stirling to Winchester, England; and the Rev. W. G. Bentley, to Newark.

The following Clergymen have been received into the Diocese, viz.: the Rev. James Empringham, from Ottawa, Canada; the Rev. Frederick S. Eastman, from Albany; the Rev. William Curtis White, from Ohio; the Rev. James C. Munson from Duluth; the Rev. H. D. B. MacNeil, from Vermont; the Rev. Chester M. Smith from Easton; and the Rev. Frederick Welham from Western Michigan. I have licensed to officiate the Rev. Arthur P. Kelley, at St. John's School, Manlius; the Rev. T. A. Stevenson, at Dryden and other Missions in Tompkins County; and the Rev. John H. Wilson at Ithaca.

It will thus be seen, dear brethren, that the somewhat somber character of our last year's report has been changed, as we anticipated it would be, and that with the blessing of God, we are able to give a more encouraging account of ourselves. The number of incoming Clergy exceeds that of those who went away; for, though four have died who were canonically connected with the Diocese, only one of them was engaged in active work. The shifting about of several of the Clergy, from one parish to another within the Diocese, has been generally very happy in its results, while the accessions from without have as a rule proved so acceptable, that, in spite of the financial stringency of the past year, we can truly say that our work is in a very satisfactory condition. The number of Confirmations has come up again to at least the usual average; the shepherding of all the smaller flocks has been fairly well sustained, with the help of our faithful Lay Readers; the stipends of the Missionaries have been in a measure increased, and when our Commission on that subject shall have gotten their report before the Convention, and a well-digested plan for a general increase shall have been put into operation, I am quite confident that the Diocese will be seen to be in good working order.

Bishop's Address.

There are one or two points, however, which seem to me to call for action by this body. We have in this Diocese several parishes organized many years ago under the old law with two Wardens and eight or ten Vestrymen, which have so diminished in strength that it is no longer possible to get men to fill those offices, and nobody is left to hold the property, or to give title if it be sold, or to take title if new property is to be acquired. In one case there has been no election of a Vestry in over thirty years, and there are not enough men to make a Vestry under the old law, nor to vote for a change to the new law; and when it became necessary recently to acquire property for a Rectory, we were compelled to have a woman act in her personal capacity and hold it until other arrangements could be made. Will not the Convention appoint a Committee to look into this matter and to see what can be done to extricate us from this perplexing situation?

Bishop's Address.

Another matter is the re-arrangement of the Districts in the southwestern part of the Diocese. Every one familiar with the work in the 5th and 6th Districts is aware of their comparative feebleness both in numbers and in financial ability, and that there has been talk for several years of remedying this difficulty in some way. While the 2nd and 4th Districts have from 25 to 30 Clergy each, and the 1st and 3rd about 14 or 15 each, the 5th and 6th have only eight or nine each; and unless every member is present at Convocation, it becomes a very small body and makes little impression upon the community. The proposition to unite the two has not been altogether favorably received, because of the inconvenient means of communication; but it is thought that by a division of the 6th District, and adding part to the 3rd and part to the 5th, a great improvement might be made, thus reducing the number of districts to five. I commend the consideration of this subject to the Convention, with the reminder that this is the year for the appointment of Deans, and a good time for such a change if it is to be made.

We are happy to be able to say that Central New York remains, as it usually has been, a peaceful household within itself. The controversy, or, as some have called it, the "panic," which has caused so much excitement in certain parts of the Church since the General Convention, concerning Canon 19, has not disturbed us at all.

The few cases in which I have been asked to license speakers who are not Ministers of this Church," have been dealt with strictly in accordance with the letter, as well as with what I believe to be the spirit, of the law, and my decision has been accepted without complaint. Once or twice the license was asked for the regular services of the Church, and I refused to give it. Two or three requests have been made for "special occasions," and I have consented to the making of "addresses" on those occasions by men who had not received episcopal ordination. And it does seem to me that if people would be willing to accept the plain meaning of those terms—the meaning which they ordinarily bear, the meaning which was manifestly intended by the House of Bishops when it amended the amendment of the House of Deputies and then adopted it—there need be no trouble about the matter; for under those conditions no principle of the Church would be infringed. But unfortunately there are certain minds which seem to find it impossible to do that. It is said that “a coach and four can be driven through” almost any law, and hence it would probably have been better not to have attempted to amend the Canon at all, because it has produced nothing but discord in our own ranks, and is not likely to have any other effect as between ourselves and other Christian bodies.

There is nothing that I more seriously deplore in connection with our holy religion than the disunity of Christians. It is the fruitful source of weakness and of manifold evils. The Bampton Lecturer of 1907 has called our attention to “the Reproach of the Gospel” in its failure to secure the application of Christian principles to the several departments of commerce, politics, and social relations; but underneath all these is the still more fundamental and contributory failure to live and work together in unity of spirit and in the bond of peace. The flagrant contradiction of our Lord’s will and of His most solemn prayer for His disciples, that they all might be one as He and the Father are One, is a perpetual evidence that in the divisions of Christians the Evil has for the time being triumphed over the Good. It is the victory of human pride—the pride of corporate tyranny on one side, and the pride of individual self-will on the other, and the only wonder is that the Good Lord has so overruled the effects of this victory during the ages of division, that much good work has been done under circumstances so adverse. The constant hope and prayer of the Church is that in some way He will, by the mighty power of His Holy Spirit, Who is “the God that maketh men to be of one mind in an house,” bring back the unity which He so much desires. But it is manifest to thinking men, familiar with the history of the Church, that such unity can be maintained only on the original foundation of "the Apostles' doctrine and fellowship." It can never rest securely on the shifting uncertainties of individualism. The Church of Christ is an historical institution, which has its roots in the ages preceding its organization, and grows according to the law of all living organisms; its past is as important in the general view as are its present and its future, and these are all as closely connected as are the heredity, the infancy, the childhood and the manhood of each and every man. The unity that is desired among the living members of the Church in any age must depend upon their unity with the previous stages of its growth, just as the life of a man is a unit from beginning to end. A man is not one kind of creature in infancy, another in youth, and another in mature years; he is one personality, one species, in every period, though he may vary greatly in appearance and in size; and if the Church be, as St. Paul' says it is, "One Body," instinct with the life of "One Spirit," surely it is unscientific and unphilosophical to suppose that it can be otherwise with it. Its well-being must be dependent on the observance of the law of its being; and no seeming present advantage can be beneficial which is sought through the disregard of that law.

Now, as you all know very well, this is the principle on which the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States has taken its stand from the beginning of its history as an independent national organization, having derived it from the Church of England, out of which it sprang. Every prominent act that contributed to its establishment in this land speaks with the same voice: "The Church of Christ is a visible, historical institution, coming down to us through the ages from Christ and His Apostles." This is the story told by those men of colonial times who risked their lives in crossing the stormy Atlantic in sailing vessels to be ordained in England; whether they returned safely to minister in these colonies, or lost their lives, as many did, in the attempt, they went just the same. This is the story told by White, and Madison, and Provoost, as well as by Seabury who was compelled to wait a year or more in the British Isles in his determined effort to obtain the same commission. Whatever differences there might have been in the Churchmanship of these men, they all proclaimed their adhesion to the same conviction, that "it is evident unto all men diligently reading Holy Scripture and ancient authors, that from the Apostles' time there have been these Orders of Ministers in Christ's Church, Bishops, Priests and Deacons, and that no man might presume to execute any of these offices except he were first admitted thereto by lawful authority." Whatever shades of opinion, I say, these men might have had as to the necessity of such Ordination to the being, or to the well-being of the Church, they all agreed that its well-being was the thing that they desired, and that they were willing to take their lives in their hands in order to secure it. In fact, that is the fundamental reason for the existence of this Church as a body separate from other Christian bodies on the Protestant side. There are other things, of course, that we stand for, but this is the essential thing that gives character to the dividing line. And now this controversy which has been forced upon us by the amendment to Canon 19 and its illogical interpretation brings us face to face with the question: Have we made a mistake in the principle for which we have maintained our separate existence, and shall we give it up? If the principle be not correct, surely we are schismatics of the worst sort; because we should then be one of the smaller Christian bodies standing apart for a thing that is not essential, keeping up the disunited state of Christendom for an unnecessary form, and the sooner we abandon it the better. But if the principle be scriptural, if it be historical, if it be true to the best philosophy, and essential to the ultimately highest interests of the Christian Church, then are we not schismatical, not bigoted, not narrow-minded in maintaining it under every difficulty. And that, I am perfectly sure, is the purpose of

Bishop's Address.

Bishop's Address.

the overwhelming majority of the men and women of this Church to-day, and it was not the purpose of those who amended the 19th Canon to contradict that principle in the slightest degree. But at the same time, it is wise to observe the signs of the times, the movements of thought and the currents of popular feeling, and when they set in the right direction, to be ready to co-operate with them, if it may be done legitimately and wisely. And no one can fail to see that there is such a movement towards union among the various Christian bodies to-day. Except in such a rare instance as the "Confessions" of a certain individual published recently in one of our magazines, one does not hear now-a-days of the great advantage of the divisions of Christians, but the almost universal cry is, "let us get together—let us federate." And though the tendency has scarcely gotten beyond the desire for federation—which means keeping up separate establishments while endeavoring to make them harmonious—yet that tendency is certainly in the right direction; and we have already heard a voice from Connecticut which speaks of something better than federation, and seems to tell of a vision of unity rather than of mere union. Such a tendency towards a thing that is good, towards a result for which the Church is constantly praying, must be inspired by the Holy Spirit; and it should be ours to promote it in every way consistent with the principles for which we stand. It does not become us to stand off in spiritual pride, ignoring or despising the Christian character of our brethren of other names, or denying the acceptableness of their labors and their good works for Christ's sake; and we shall do well to encourage, so far as we can conscientiously, every effort to break down the feelings of antagonism and of bitterness which prevent the approach to godly union and concord. In my opinion this was the purpose of those who sought the amendment of the Canon, and if its words be properly interpreted, it may accomplish something in that direction. But if those within the Church, who do not believe in its own principles, whether they be Bishops or any others, shall persist in giving to the amended Canon a meaning which it will not legitimately bear, and so produce discord among ourselves, then, it seems to me, it were better to put the Canon back as it was before.

Bishop's Address.

There were other things connected with the Convention in Richmond to which I should like to call your attention, but must content myself with saying this, that it marked the highest tide of missionary enthusiasm which has ever risen in this Church. It completely cast aside the old theory that the Convention is merely a Canon-tinkering assembly, and rose up to a consciousness of its duty and its opportunity in promoting the extension of the Kingdom of God. No man who was there, were he Bishop, Priest, or Layman, could have gone back home possessed any longer with the idea that his own Diocese, or his own parish, marked the limit of his sympathies, his interests, his benefactions, or his prayers. The old swaddling clothes of parochialism and diocesanism were burst asunder and cast aside, and every one gained a larger conception of the love of God as manifested in His Son Jesus Christ the Saviour of the world. Let us thank God and take courage, for by His grace we shall yet come to an understanding of what Christianity really means.

APPENDIX I.

Report of Officers and Committees.

With Accompanying Papers.

A. Report of the Standing Committee.

The Standing Committee respectfully report that during the Conventional Year they have held eight meetings, of which five were held in Syracuse, and three in Utica.

At the first meeting held in Utica, June 12, 1907, all the members were present except the Rev. Dr. Harding and Mr. Jack. The Committee was organized by the election of the Rev. John R. Harding, D. D., as President and the Rev. Edward H. Coley as Secretary. A petition was received from Zion Church, Rome, for permission to mortgage Clarke Memorial Hall for a sum not to exceed $8,000, in part payment for extensive alterations and additions, consent to which was unanimously given.

At the second meeting held in Syracuse on September 17, 1907, all the members were present. Consent was given to the consecration of the Rev. W. A. Guerry, to be Bishop-Coadjutor of South Carolina. Permission was given to the Trustees of the Parochial Fund to transfer certain property to the Rector and Trustees of the Church of St. John the Divine, Syracuse, and subsequently the said Rector and Trustees were authorized to mortgage said property for an amount not exceeding $1,000. Favorable action was taken upon the request of the Rector and Vestry of St. James' Church, Pulaski.

mortgage the Rectory of that Church in part payment for necessary repairs for a sum not to exceed $500.

At the third meeting held in Syracuse, on November 5, 1907, all the clerical members and Messrs. Jack and Dunning of the laity were present. The Bishop, and the Rev. Dr. Merlin-Jones and Mr. Carpenter of the Church of St. John the Divine, Syracuse, also attended.

It was resolved, That in view of certain conditions in the original gift of the Memorial Guild-House of the Church of St. John the Divine, Syracuse, the consent to the transfer of the property by the Trustees of the Parochial Fund to the Rector and Trustees of the Church of St. John the Divine, given at the last meeting of the Standing Committee, be amended so as to apply only to the premises recently conveyed to said Church by the Trustees of the Parochial Fund. Consent was then given to an additional mortgage, not to exceed $1,200.00 upon the property so transferred.

At the fourth meeting held in Utica, on December 19, 1907, the Bishop, and all the members of the Committee except Mr. Jack, were present. Satisfactory testimonials having been presented, the Rev. Walter E. Jones, Deacon, was recommended to the Bishop for ordination to the Priesthood, and Mr. William S. Stevens was recommended to be ordered Deacon. Unanimous consent was given to the Trustees of the Parochial Fund to transfer to the Rector, Wardens and Vestry of Emmanuel Church, Elmira, the property sold by them for the benefit of that parish; and to the officers of that parish to mortgage said property, when transferred, for a sum not to exceed $3,500.00.

At the fifth meeting held in Syracuse, on February 4, 1908, the Bishop and all the members of the Committee, except the Rev. Dr. Coffey, were present. Satisfactory testimonials having been presented to the Committee, the Rev. Roy Irving Murray, Deacon, was recommended to the Bishop for ordination to the Priesthood. On petition of the Trustees of Christ Church, Willard, consent was given to mortgage their Parish House property for a sum not to exceed $1,000.00.

At the sixth meeting held in Utica, on March 17, 1908, the Bishop, and all the members of the Committee, were present. Consent was given to the Consecration of the Rev. Frederick Focke Reese, D. D., as Bishop of Georgia. On petition of the authorities of Christ Church, Binghamton, consent was given the Rector, Wardens and Vestry to mortgage the Rectory property for a sum not to exceed $6,400.00, to take up notes for that amount.

At the seventh meeting held in Syracuse, on April 25, 1908, the Bishop, the Rev. Doctors Harding and Willson and the Secretary of the clergy, and Messrs. Jack and Dunning, of the laity, were present to constitute a quorum. The special and only business was consent to the sale and transfer of property purchased for a Rectory for the Church of the Evangelists, Oswego, to the original owners, on repayment of $2,100.00 with interest. Such consent was unanimously given.

At the eighth meeting held in Syracuse, on June 2, 1908, all the members were present. An estimate of the amount required for the expense of the Diocese during the coming year, payable from the Diocesan Expense Fund, was submitted as follows and recommended to the Convention for adoption:

Bishop's Travelling Expenses.....	$ 300 00
Secretary's Salary.....	200 00

B. Missions of the Diocese.

(1) Report of the Board of Managers.

The Board of Managers for Diocesan Missions of the Diocese of Central New York respectfully submits the following report:

At a meeting of the Board of Managers in St. Paul's Chapel, Syracuse, Tuesday, June 2nd, 1908, the following reports were read, and the next day were presented to the Convention.

FIRST DISTRICT.

(Jefferson and Lewis Counties.)

The officers of the District are: The Very Rev. Thomas Duck, Dean; The Rev. Theodore Haydn, Secretary; Mr. Eli W. Herrick, Treasurer; The Rev. F. W. Eason and Mr. J. M. Tilden, members of the Standing Committee of the District and delegates to the Board of Managers.

Missions of the Diocese.

There are twenty-eight Parishes and Missions in the District, all of which receive financial aid except the six following: Trinity, and St. Paul's, Watertown; Trinity, Lowville; Grace Church Carthage; Zion, Pierrepont Manor and Christ Church, Ellisburg.

There have been several changes in the personnel of the District, but at present all of the parishes and missions, excepting Copenhagen and Champlon, are supplied, and it is expected that these will soon be provided with a missionary.

Three meetings of the Convocation have been held during the year, viz.: in May at St. Paul's Church, Brownville; in September at Emmanuel Church, Adams; and in January, at Trinity Church, Watertown, in each case in conjunction with the District meeting of the Woman's Auxillary.

The Rev. Wm. A. Braithwaite has completed a very successful year at Adams. All financial obligations were met and the year closed with a small balance in the treasury, a result due in part to the introduction of the weekly envelope system under which the number of subscribers doubled. The Church has been repainted and many needed minor improvements made. $1,200 has been secured toward a Rectory. In April Mr. Braithwaite resigned to accept a call to the Diocese of Long Island. The entire congregation rose in protest, increased his salary $100, gave him leave of absence for three Sundays, and promised to put forth every effort to complete the Rectory Fund; in view of which he will remain. The parish report will show an unusually large number of Baptisms, a sure indication that the parish has progressed spiritually, as well as materially.

A new feature of parish work, worthy of comment, was the holding of cottage services during Lent among the English families resident at some distance from the village.

Frederick's Corners is also under the care of Mr. Braithwaite, who holds a monthly service during the short season of the year when the roads permit the long drive to be made. The Church building is much in need of repairs and plans are on foot for putting it in decent shape in the near future.

The Dean of the District, the Rev. Thomas Duck, has charge of the parishes at Alexandria Bay, Redwood and Theresa, the sup plying of which involves a weekly drive of 26 miles. In all of these parishes the work of the Church has been progressing as usual. Financial obligations have been promptly met. Redwood again exceeded its apportionment for General Missions, and for the first time there were men enough to choose a full vestry. At Theresa some much needed repairs have been made to the Rectory, including a new furnace.

Antwerp, Evans Mills and Great Bend have been served by the Rev. Geo. E. Edgar since May 1st, 1907. He reports that there is little beyond the routine work for particular mention. A special attempt was made to revive the Sunday School at Antwerp, without much success because of a lack of teachers, and because the several denominations had attached to themselves the available children. At Evans Mills "the services are remarkably well attended, and the worship is hearty and inspiring." At Felts Mills two miles to the west of Great Bend Mr. Edgar has found six or eight members of the Church who manifest a willingness to help the parish at Great Bend and attend service there occasionally.

The Rev. G. A. Shaw in addition to his work at the Church of the Redeemer, North Watertown, has maintained services at Glen Park and Brownville. Since March 1st the Rev. J. C. Jagar has taken the work at Glen Park for Mr. Shaw without compensation, a neighborly and brotherly act, indeed.

Cape Vincent and Millen's Bay are under the care of the Rev. Walter E. Cook, and continue prosperous and faithful.

The Rev. F. L. Metcalf was in charge of the parishes of Copenhagen and Champion until February 15th, when he accepted the Rectorship of Trinity Church, Lowville. These missions are at this date still vacant.

After being without services for a year, Grace Church, Carthage, called to the Rectorship, the Rev. F. W. Feary, formerly at Horseheads and Big Flats.

The Rev. Theodore Haydn has been at Clayton and LaFargeville exactly a year, which has been a year of prosperity and harmony in both places. The parish at Clayton seems to be on the upward path. Services during Lent were remarkably well attended. Accumulations of floating indebtedness have been cleared off, and many much needed repairs have been made to the Rectory. The pipe organ formerly at St. John's, Clayville, was purchased and has added much to the dignity of the worship. The W. A. was reorganized and sent a valuable box of clothing to the Domestic Mission field. The parish finances receive great help from the generous offerings of the many summer residents of the Thousand Islands. Much more has been given to missionary purposes than ever before.

St. Paul's Church, LaFargeville, is a very strong country parish, with an unusually large number of male communicants who attend regularly. There is a large and well trained vested choir. The finances of the parish are upon a sound basis. After having paid its apportionment in full, an additional offering was made at Easter for General Missions. A needed enlargement will be made for the convenience of the choir, by the erection of a tower and the rearrangement of the chancel, and the interior of the Church will be redecorated in the immediate future.

Greig and Port Leyden form a part of the cure of the Rev. F. C. Smith of the Second District who with the assistance of the Rev. Mr. Stevens maintains regular services.

The Rev. C. T. Raynor, the Secretary of the District left Sackett's Harbor and Dexter for Waverly about November 1, 1907. On January 1st this vacancy was filled by the Rev. G. P. Sommerville, formerly at Moravia.

The financial report of the District is subjoined.

THOMAS DUCK, Dean.

THEODORE HAYDN, Secretary.

SECOND DISTRICT.

(Oneida County and part of Madison County.)

officers of the District are: The Rev. Edward H. Coley, Dean;

Missions of the Diocese.

the Rev. Jesse Higgins, Secretary; Mr. J. Francis Day, Treasurer, the Rev. W. R. McKim and Mr. J. Francis Day, members of the Board of Managers.

The Mission Parishes and Stations are: In Onondaga County—Augusta, Oriskany Falls, Boonville, Forestport, Bridgewater, Clayville, Chadwicks, Camden, Whitesboro, Paris Hill, New York Mills, Oriskany, Durhamville, Holland Patent, Trenton, Deerfield and St. Joseph's, Rome. In Madison County—Brookfield and Earlville.

Four meetings of the Convocation have been held, as follows: in June, at St. Andrew's, Utica; in October at New Hartford; in January at St. Luke's, Utica; in April at Clark Mills.

The Rev. Burnett Theo. Stafford reports for St. Andrew's, Augusta, and Good Shepherd, Oriskany Falls, that the work has been kept up and all the usual services held.

The Rev. Francis C. Smith, with his Deacon assistant, has in addition to all the regular duties at Trinity Church, Boonville, and Christ Church, Forestport, supplied services at Port Leyden, Greig and Constableville in the First District, services well attended in both places. Forestport still suffers from removals, though summer visitors make up for financial losses. Boonville has received $100 from an anonymous friend as a beginning for an Organ Fund.

The Rev. A. J. Schrader, in charge of Chadwick's, Clayville and Bridgewater, reports great improvement in finances and attendance at Chadwicks. Fourteen confirmed. Clayville has suffered by several removals, but those who remain are faithful. Bridgewater calls for no special comment.

The Rev. Geo. D. Ashley, Rector of Trinity Church, Camden, reports the work of the parish progressing as usual. The Rector has purchased a house for himself, the Rectory is rented, and the income given to the Rector in addition to his salary.

The Rev. Geo. C. Wadsworth, Deacon in charge of St. John's Church, Whitesboro, reports the church and rectory thoroughly repaired and improved, a junior Chapter of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew organized, a branch of the Girls' Friendly Society organized, and a large increase in attendance, Sunday school and offerings.

Missions of the Diocese.

The Rev. J. B. Wicks, Rector of St. Paul's, Paris Hill, reports a new porch added to the Rectory and house painted, with the assistance of outside friends at a cost of $250. Forty years since first taking charge of the Parish. Twenty-six years of service here.

The Rev. A. W. Allen reports for New York Mills and Oriskany At New York Mills the church lot has been greatly improved. Business depression has caused some removals. At Oriskany things are going well, with increased offerings.

The Rev. W. R. McKim, in charge of St. Andrew's, Durhamville, reports the work going on as usual.

The Rev. E. B. Doolittle gave up the charge of Holland Patent and Trenton on October 1st, and was succeeded January 1st by the Rev. Chester M. Smith. At Holland Patent the chancel and robing-room have been re-roofed. At Trenton the foundation has been partly rebuilt and the church newly painted. Work encouraging at both points.

The Rev. J. J. Burd reports for St. Paul's, Deerfield, that the work there is small with no immediate prospect of any large increase. The services however, are maintained regularly and pastoral supervision given according to opportunity.

The Rev. A. L. Byron-Curtiss, Rector of St. Joseph's, Rome, reports a new furnace put in and paid for; and, in spite of hard times, very little falling off in the regular support of the Church.

Gethsemane Church, Westmoreland, having been joined with St. Mark's, Clark Mills, as a self-supporting work, no longer reports as a Mission Station.

At St. Timothy's, Brookfield, a Sunday school is maintained every Lord's Day. Services are held one Sunday in each month by the Archdeacon and the Chenango County Missionary.

The Rev. C. J. Lambert, in charge of Grace Church, Earlville, reports that all the work has gone on as usual.

The Dean considered the financial affairs of the District as most encouraging.

EDWARD H. COLEY, Dean.JESSE HIGGINS, Secretary.

THIRD DISTRICT.

(Broome and Chenango Counties.)

The officers of this District are: The Rev. Harry S. Longley, Dean; The Rev. Percy T. Olton, Secretary; Mr. William J. Russell, Treasurer; The Rev. Charles Du Bois Broughton and Mr. Stephen Drass, members of the Board of Missions; The Rev. A. R. B. Hegeman and Mr. Joseph E. Packard, members of the finance committee.

Mr. William H. Shaw, a member of the finance committee has passed away since the last annual report, and by his death the district has lost an interested and active layman.

There are seventeen Parishes and Missions in the District, of which the following have received appropriations from the mission funds during the year past: St. Ann's, Afton; St. Luke's, Harpursville; Christ Church, Guilford, Grace Church, Mt. Upton; Zion Church, Windsor.

During the year there have been two meetings of the Convocation, one at St. Paul's Church, Oxford, October 14 and 15, 1907; the other at Trinity Memorial Church, Binghamton, January 14 and 15, 1908. By request of the Bishop the spring meeting has been postponed until after the diocesan convention.

Afton, St. Ann's Church:—The Rector of St. Peter's, Bainbridge, has charge of this mission. Services are held regularly on Sunday afternoons and at such other times as are possible. The reports are favorable and show a healthful life and sustained interest.

Missions of the Diocese.

Harpursville, St. Luke's Church:—Under the wise leadership of the Rev. George H. Kirkland the work at this point is going steadily forward. Substantial repairs and improvements have been made to the Church edifice, interior and exterior, a large part of the money necessary being given by the people themselves, the balance being raised by the earnest efforts of their faithful missionary.

Windsor, Zion Church:—The Rev. J. J. Andrew, who had been in charge of this mission station died in the early part of 1908 and no one has been appointed as yet to fill the vacancy. Mr. Andrew was a faithful and conscientious priest and was much beloved by the little band to whom he ministered. The Church is very weak here and has suffered greatly in the past few years by deaths and removals.

Whitney's Point, Grace Church:—The services are maintained by the Rev. C. W. Hakes, M. D., Rector of Calvary Church, Homer, N. Y. The work in this parish continues about as usual. The Bishop has stated his intention of combining this mission with that at Chenango Forks, as heretofore, and in such a case it will be possible for the priest in charge of the two places to give much more time than it is possible under the present arrangement.

Chenango Forks, St. John's:—The missionary for Chenango County, The Rev. Robert M. Duff, S. T. D., has been laboring faithfully at this rather discouraging work, holding services regularly and visiting the few families left in the parish. It is hoped that the junction of this mission with the one at Whitney's Point will result in renewed life.

Guilford, Christ Church.—The Rev. J. T. Lewis who took charge of this parish, Whitsunday, 1907, has proved a worthy successor to the former leader of the work here, the Rev. Geo. G. Perrine, now stationed at Manlius. Guilford is maintaining its reputation for quiet, steady, healthy growth, both in a spiritual and material way.

Mount Upton, Grace Church.—The missionary at Guilford has charge also of this parish. Earnest efforts are being made to get money to erect a Church building and there is hope of success.

The financial statement appended to this report shows that the following parishes have failed to pay their assessment in full:—

Missions of the Diocese.

Church of the Good Shepherd, Binghamton; St. John's, Chenango Forks; Grace Church, Whitney's Point; Emmanuel Church, Norwich; and St. Andrew's, New Berlin.

FOURTH DISTRICT.

(Onondaga, Oswego and Cortland Counties, and the townships of Madison County not included in the Second District.)

The officers of the District are: The Rev. William DeLancey Wilson, D. D., Dean; The Rev. Alexander H. Grant, Secretary; Mr. Charles L. Behm, Treasurer. These officers, together with the Rev. Herbert G. Coddington, D. D., and the Rev. John T. Rose, constitute the Executive Committee.

The Secretary and Treasurer of the District are the elected members of the Board of Managers.

The Mission Stations of the Fourth District are: Altmar, Canastota, Chittenango, Cleveland, Constantia, East Onondaga, East Syracuse, Jamesville, Lacona, Marcellus, Memphis, Mexico, Onondaga Reservation, St. John's, Oswego, Phoenix, Pulaski, Redfield, St. Philip's, Syracuse, and Warner, of which stations the following do not receive stipends from the District, viz., St. John's, Oswego and the Church of the Good Shepherd at the Onondaga Reservation.

Three meetings of Convocation have been held during the past year, viz., at the Onondaga Reservation, July 8th, 1907; at Grace Church, Baldwinsville, October 22nd and 23rd, 1907; and at Christ Church, Manlius, May 6th, 1908, the latter two meetings in connection with meetings of the Woman's Auxiliary of the District.

St. John's, Altmar, remains in charge of the Rev. B. E. Whipple. The Missionary reports his continued illness during the most of Lent. On the other hand, the class for Confirmation was considerable, and the Easter offering the largest in the history of the Mission.

Missions of the Diocese.

Trinity Church, Canastota, and St. Paul's, Chittenango, have been placed in charge of the Rev. James C. Munson, since the removal last year of the Rev. G. H. Ottaway, and the services in each parish are regularly maintained every Sunday.

St. James', Cleveland is under the care of the Rev. Thomas Stafford, who is also in charge of Constantia. The Missionary reports that, notwithstanding the monetary stringency and its effect upon the manufacturing interests of the town, the Cleveland parish is passing through a severe crisis in a very satisfactory manner. Although subscriptions for parochial support have necessarily been reduced, yet all assessments and apportionments for the year ending May 1st, 1908, have been fully met. The attendance at services has been up to the usual mark, and the outlook is encouraging.

St. Andrew's, East Onondaga, has been placed in charge of the Rev. James Empringham, Rector of St. Paul's Church, Syracuse, and the services at the Mission are conducted each Sunday with the assistance of Lay Readers.

Emmanuel, East Syracuse, is in the care of the Rev. Dr. I. M. Merlinjones of the Church of St. John the Divine, Syracuse. Services are regularly maintained, and the assessment for Diocesan Missions has been paid in full.

St. Mark's, Jamesville, is in charge of the Rev. Luther L. Weller of Trinity Church, Fayetteville. The services are held every Sunday afternoon, and the parishioners are devoted and faithful. The Diocesan Missions assessment has been fully paid.

Christ Church, Manlius, under the Rev. G. G. Perrine, reports a year of prosperity and increased offerings. The General Missions apportionment and the Diocesan Mission assessment have been paid in full. The vestry have relinquished the stipend and become a self-supporting parish, by means of an increase in the salary of the Rector of $100.

St. John's, Marcellus, has been in charge of the Rev. Edward B. Doolittle since the removal of the Rev. E. B. Mott last fall. The Missionary reports most hearty co-operation on the part of all, and a steady growth and increasing interest. The church is well filled at all the Sunday services. A class of 24 was presented to the Bishop for Confirmation, and one person received from the Roman Communion. The parish organizations are doing effective work, and the Sunday School is well attended.

Missions of the Diocese.

At Emmanuel, Memphis, since the resignation of the Rev. J. Hamilton Stirling in February, services have been regularly maintained by the Rev. William W. Raymond of Baldwinsville. The Diocesan Missions assessment has been paid in full.

The Church of the Good Shepherd at the Onondaga Indian Reservation remains in charge of the Rev. William S. Hayward, who reports that the services have continued without vacation or intermission. The Sunday School has weekly catechisings by the Missionary, and frequent week-day services are also held, with Lecture or Instruction every Friday, and monthly missionary intercession and address.

St. John's, Oswego, is included in the work of the Church of the Evangelists of that city, and since the resignation of the Rev. H. S. Slizer has been under the pastoral care of his successor, the Rev. Hamilton D. B. MacNeill.

St. John's, Phoenix is under the Rev. Walter E. Jones of Calvary Church, Syracuse, who reports for it a very successful year. There has been a general renewal of life and enthusiasm. A year ago the Mission reported 23 baptized persons, of whom 16 were communicants. Since that time 17 persons have been baptized (11 of whom were adults) and 25 confirmed, making the present number of communicants 41. The attendance has been splendid, particularly at the Celebration of the Holy Communion. The offerings also have increased, and a special offering taken on Easter Day amounted to $121. At present services are held in a house arranged as a chapel. This property has been deeded to the Trustees of the Parochial Fund, subject to a mortgage of $600. About $100 of this has been paid. The property is worth at least $1,000. A movement is on foot to pay the mortgage and build a church in the near future, and appeal is to be made to the Diocese for assistance in this.

St. James', Pulaski, Grace, Mexico, and Emmanuel, Lacona, have been united in an Associate Mission under the Rev. George H. Ottaway, residing at Pulaski. Services have been regularly held by him, with the assistance of Mr. R. M. Hogarth, Lay Reader. Pulaski has had two or three services each Sunday, and frequent services on week days. Being the largest of the three, and furnishing the Rectory, it naturally claims the greater number of services. Repairs to the amount of $1,000 have rendered the Rectory comparatively comfortable and convenient, and more is to be done soon. The Woman's Guild has been particularly enthusiastic and energetic in this matter. Grace Church, Mexico, is next in size, and equal in importance and interest. Sunday morning services have been regularly maintained. Thirty-six communicated on Easter Day, and the offering was nearly $100. The women of the parish have raised $200 toward decorating the interior of the church. Emmanuel, Lacona, has been at a disadvantage, and must continue so for the present, with a small and scattered membership. A Woman's Guild has been organized, and has taken up its part of the work of the mission with courage and energy. Every one of these three churches has paid, or will pay at once, its full assessment for Diocesan Missions.

Emmanuel, Redfield, continues under the pastoral charge of the Rev. George D. Ashley of Trinity Church, Camden.

St. Philip's, Syracuse, is under the rectorship of the Rev. Dr. H. G. Coddington of Grace Church, and regular services are maintained by Mr. Wilbur Q. Rogers, a Candidate for Holy Orders.

St. Paul's, Warner, is cared for by the Rev. James Malcolm-Smith, Rector of Grace Church, Baldwinsville, by whom services are held every Sunday afternoon.

FIFTH DISTRICT.

(Counties of Cayuga and Seneca.)

The officers of the District are: The Rev. Wm. Bours Clarke,

Missions of the Diocese.

Dean; The Rev. Charles W. MacNish, Secretary, and Mr. A. N. Hollister, Treasurer; the two latter being also elected members of the Board of Managers.

The Mission Parishes and Stations are: In Cayuga County—Cayuga, Moravia, King's Ferry, Port Byron, Union Springs and Weedsport. In Seneca County—Hayts Corners, Interlaken, Jerusalem Mission, Kendala, Kidders, Romulus, Willard and Willowdale.

Three meetings of Convocation were held during the year, viz.: At Cayuga Lake Park, July 1st, 1907; in St. Stephen's Church, Romulus, November 12th and 13th, 1907; and in St. John's Church, Auburn, May 12th and 13th, 1908.

During the year the work of the District has progressed most favorably, and some important advances have been made.

St. Paul's Church, Aurora, has become self-supporting, and the work there is in a flourishing condition; not least among the encouraging signs is the purchase and fitting up of a Rectory.

A new and promising Mission under the name of St. John's has been established at Interlaken in Seneca County, on the line of the Lehigh Valley Railroad. The Mission is under the charge of the Rev. Charles W. MacNish, and under his faithful ministrations, there have been increasing interest and most satisfactory congregations.

The Mission at the old Jerusalem Meeting House in Seneca County, has revived under the direct solicitation of the people of the vicinity. Services are now being held there and will be continued as long as possible.

Christ Church, Willard is the happy and fortunate possessor of a Parish House, erected during the past year, and which will be a valuable adjunct to the activities of the parish.

The Archdeacon and the Dean spent three days in May, 1907, at Port Byron, holding special services in the Church there.

The congregations were remarkably good, and much interest was aroused. Unfortunately, later on, it was found to be inexpedient to continue the services there and at Weedsport. It is hoped, however, that on the completion of the trolley line in the near future from Port Byron to Auburn, the work of the Church may be resumed at the former point.

Missions of the Diocese.

Regularly quarterly reports have been received from all the Missionaries and Lay Readers in the District.

Missions of the Diocese.

SIXTH DISTRICT.

The officers of the District are: The Rev. N. S. Boardman, Dean; the Rev. Harry Idle, Secretary; Mr. Lovell, Treasurer; The Rev. J. B. Rudd, and Mr. Lovell, Representatives on the Board of Managers.

The Missions of the District are: Emmanuel, Elmira, Big Flats, Millport, Horseheads, Wellsburg, Van Etten, Candor, Spencer, Caverly, Smithboro, Trumansburg, McLean, Dryden, Slaterville Springs and Speedsville.

The meetings of Convocation have been held at Emmanuel Church, Elmira, October 22 and 23 and St. Paul's, Owego, February 10 and 12.

It is very difficult to make out a report of the District without the information furnished by those in charge.

There have been quite a few changes in the District. St. Matthew's Church, Horseheads, and St. John's, Big Flats, are vacant through the removal of the Rev. F. W. Feary. During Lent Cottage Meetings were held by W. F. Dent, Lay Reader at Horseheads. He has continued them. The Church is closed for repairs.

The services have been kept up at Big Flats by means of Lay Readers each Sunday afternoon. The Archdeacon has given them celebration of the Holy Communion. Grace Church was also supplied by Lay Readers during the vacancy caused by the removal of the Rev. Mr. Crydenwise. The Rev. Chas. Raynor has now charge of the work.

The churches at Wellsburg and Smithboro receive occasional services. The people of Wellsburg are so scattered that it is difficult to get them together.

St. Mark's Church, Millport, continues its good work. Many a tiny parish has been made richer in active workers, who are well instructed communicants of the church from this mission. It is a worthy boast of the parish that the church has never been closed on Sunday without a service of some kind conducted by layman or clergyman since the Church was erected fifteen years ago.

Missions of the Diocese.

Emmanuel Church, Elmira, has completed a new church. Early in May, 1907, a large sum of money was given the Mission by a member of Grace Church and steps were taken to build. The corner stone was laid by the Bishop of the Diocese. January 7, 1908, by consent of the Bishop and Standing Committee, the Parish was incorporated and two wardens and six vestrymen elected. The church is built of concrete and presents a handsome appearance. Three memorial windows have been given. An organ from Grace Church, Elmira, has been set up. A beautiful oak altar and a brass lectern are among the gifts of the church. The services have been regular.

The Rev. E. C. Hoskins removes from Spencer, Van Etten and Candor to Windsor. He has been very faithful in his work at the former places, giving them regular services.

The Missionary at Dryden, McLean, Speedsville and Slaterville Springs reports regular services at these places.

Epiphany Church, Trumansburg, is doing good work. In November last a ten days mission was conducted by the Rev. Harry Idle, which was very successful. The Men's Meetings being especially so. 'The Boys' Club met every week until Lent. There being so many services it was thought advisable to postpone the meetings.

The chapel has been fitted with electric lights. The W. A. are going to build a kitchen, money having been raised for this purpose.

In January the Mens' meetings, which had been a feature of the ten days mission, were at the request of the Vestry re-commenced and continued until May 13th. Over a hundred men attended these meetings. They were concluded for the summer by a banquet at which one hundred and fifty were present.

During the year the District lost by death the valuable services of the Treasurer of the District, H. V. Bostwick and resolutions of regret were passed. Mr. Lovell of Elmira was elected to fill the vacancy.

Report of the Archdeacon.

Report of the Committee on the Report of the Missionary Board.
To the Board of Missions of the Diocese of Central New York

Your committee to whom was referred the report of the Board of Managers, having examined the carefully prepared statement submitted to them, find abundant evidence to convince them that the missionary work of the Diocese is being conducted with practical wisdom and efficiency and with a very encouraging degree of success. It is especially worthy of note that notwithstanding the very unusual business depression which has prevailed during the last half of the Convention year, the Board is yet able to report that while there has been a slight falling off in some instances, there has on the whole been a gratifying increase in the contributions for this work over the previous year, a greater number of parishes than heretofore having raised the full amount of their assessments, both Diocesan and General, and a considerable number even going beyond that amount. May the number of these liberal and cheerful givers be increased more and more, as they need to be if the work before us is ever to be accomplished. For, as the report of the Archdeacon informs, while the condition of the treasury is a cause for thanksgiving and congratulation, the problems that still confront us call for increased rather than diminished efforts. The most pressing difficulty seems to be how to provide for the smaller mission stations where only a small sum can be raised for the support of the Missionary. And as one of the means of overcoming that difficulty your Committee desire to express their cordial approval of the plan suggested in the report of the Archdeacon, that of associate missions and, if found practical, reducing the number of Districts from six to five.

GEO. G. PERRINE,

GEO. G. COTTON,

C. E. CHASE.

(2) ARCHDEACON'S REPORT TO THE BOARD OF MANAGERS FOR DIOCESAN MISSIONS.

Since the last Convention I have visited 79 of the Missionary Parishes and Stations; 22 of them twice, 4 three times, and 3 four times. I have presented the cause of Diocesan Missions to 27 of the self-supporting Parishes, visiting 2 of them twice, and two of them four times. I have held 169 public services, celebrated the Holy Communion 60 times, delivered 162 sermons and addresses, baptized 11 infants, and one adult, attended 11 meetings of Convocation, met vestries and committees on 40 occasions, and held conferences with other committees 12 times.

With the Missionary at Willard, I visited, and held a service in the village of Interlaken, Seneca County where we found a number of communicants and a favorable opportunity for establishing a mission. Services have been regularly maintained since that time on alternate Sundays, with every prospect of success and permanency.

In February, with the help of the Rev. Mr. MacNish, I held an eight day's mission at Hayt's Corners, Seneca County, much interest was manifested, and the visible results seem to have warranted the effort made.

I have, on several occasions, visited the abandoned mission at Constantia, Oswego County, and in the autumn held a service in the Church, the first in several years. The building is now undergoing repairs, and upon their completion, it is expected to resume regular services. The Church owns a fine property, in the best part of the village—which should not be allowed to stand idle, especially as the trolley line being built from Syracuse to Oneida Lake, and the establishment of a new line of steamers on the Lake, will make Constantia an important summer resort.

In April, I visited, with Miss Halsey, the old Jerusalem Union meeting house, in Seneca County, which had been closed for some time. The inhabitants of the surrounding country had sent a petition, asking that services might be resumed, and offering to put the Church building in suitable condition for use. Services have already been begun, and will be continued by a Lay Reader from Hobart College, with an occasional clerical service.

One of the problems confronting us, is how to care for the smaller Mission Stations, where only a small sum can be raised for the support of the Missionary. A partial solution of this problem may be found, I believe, in the associate mission. This is being tried in two or three places, in each case proving a success. The suggestion to be made in the Report of the Commission on Clerical

Report of the Archdeacon.

Support, will also, if carried out, enable us to give them good service, and at the same time increase the income of the missionaries.

An improvement has taken place during the year, in the average salary of the missionaries. Yet there is still room for more improvement. To insure the most efficient work in the Mission field the income of the Missionary should certainly be sufficient for his needs.

The Missionary work of the Diocese has been carried on, during the past year, with a marked degree of success. The changes within the Diocese, the additions to our Missionary force, together with the improvement—though slight,—in the average of the Missionaries salary, alluded to, has produced a more settled feeling, more contentment, and as a result more efficient work throughout the Diocese.

It would add much to the efficiency of our Convocation system, if the Third, Fifth, and Sixth Convocation Districts could be remodeled. From a numerical, geographical, and financial point of view, the counties of Chemung and Tloga might well be added to the Third District, and Tompkins added to the Fifth, giving us 5 instead of 6 Districts.

The Advent offering of the Sunday Schools for Missions of the Diocese, is yet in the experimental stage, but undoubtedly there are great possibilities before it. It has been suggested, that if some special object were designated for this offering, the children would be more interested in it and that their offerings would be much larger. I would suggest that this offering be devoted to the Colored Mission of St. Phillips, Syracuse, and to the Deaf Mute Mission, to the extent of the amount now given to those objects, thus relieving the Board of appropriations now made to them.

The condition of the treasury is once more a cause for thanksgiving and congratulation, for notwithstanding the stringent times in the financial world, the offering for Diocesan Missions has exceeded that of last year, the Board closing the year, not only out of debt, but with a small balance on hand.

The amount estimated to carry on the Missionary work for the coming year,—subject of course to such alteration as may be made at this meeting,—is $12,941. The sum of $11,500 of this amount should be assessed upon the various Convocations.

The question of paying the Missionaries salaries monthly, instead of quarterly, has been discussed during the year, and it is the opinion of a large majority of the Missionaries that it would be very acceptable if such a change were carried into effect.

It would be a great convenience to the officers of the various Convocations, if the books of the Treasurer of the Diocese were kept open for at least ten days after the close of the fiscal year, in order that an effort may be made to collect the arrears,—if any,—in the payment of the assessment for Diocesan Missions.

At the close of the fiscal year, thirty-six parishes and mission stations had not paid in full the assessment for Diocesan Expense, for 1907-1908.

Since that time ten have paid, leaving twenty-seven still in arrears.

There are also ten parishes or stations in arrears for 1906-1907. Statements have been sent to all these places, but no attention has been paid to them.

Nearly all of these places receive stipends from the various districts, and there would seem to be no good reason why the small amount asked for the family expenses should not be paid.

It would seem to be a source of gratification that the parishes have paid $321.66 more than last year into the Expense Fund of the Diocese; that $506.00 more than last year has been contributed for Diocesan Missions, and that $230.16 more than last year has been contributed for General Clergy Relief.

At the same time it must be regretted that the offerings for the work among Deaf Mutes have been $162.14 less than last year, and that the offerings for the Ministerial Education Fund have fallen off $94.22.

The Offerings for Domestic, Foreign and General Missions have been about the same as last year. This record, however, is very imperfect, and does not give the complete offerings of the Diocese for those purposes.

It is a lamentable fact, however, that the Diocese is not on the honor roll of Dioceses which pay the Apportionment in full. Perhaps it is not in the province of the treasurer, but I should like to suggest that a Committee on the Apportionment be created by the Convention, whose duty it shall be to devise methods for increasing the gifts of the parishes for such objects as may be credited to the Apportionment of the Diocese.

Christmas Fund—Report of the Trustees.

Along this same line also, arises the question of the advisability and desirability of increasing our own Permanent Missionary Fund to such an amount that the income will take care of a larger share of the Diocesan Missionary Work, relieving the parishes of what seems to be an excessive assessment, judging from their non-payment, and at the same time allowing the parishes to contribute more liberally towards the missionary work of the whole church.

In view of the fact that the salary of the Archdeacon has now been added to the liabilities of the Board of Missions, some such action would seem to be necessary.

Respectfully submitted,

FRANK L. LYMAN, Treasurer.

(1) REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES.

Syracuse, May, 1908.

To the Convention of the Diocese of Central New York:

The Trustees of the Christmas Fund Diocese of Central New York respectfully submit their report for the year ending April 30th, 1908, as follows, referring to the annexed report of the Treasurer for the financial details.

Christmas Fund—Report of the Trustees.

We have had but one meeting this year, at which time the old officers were re-elected, Trustee William Watkins, President, Trustee G. Howard Avery, Secretary and Treasurer.

The Trustees wish to call the attention of the Convention to an error made in the minutes of last year.

In our report to the Convention a year ago, we mentioned the expiration of Trustee G. H. Avery's term of office and asked that his successor be appointed. We notice by the minutes of the 1907 Convention that Mr. Frank L. Lyman was nominated as a Trustee. Mr. Lyman was already serving in this capacity, he having been elected by the Convention of 1904 to serve five years. He was therefore, in service as trustee when nominated by the Convention of 1907. We ask the Convention to please correct this error.

We regret very much our inability to show a better earning from our fund this year, but it will be impossible for us to do so, until we dispose of the so-called Fuller property.

This property is situated at the corner of University Avenue and Madison Street, and ought to be a desirable location for building purposes, but we have not been able to get any kind of an offer for it. We have invested in this piece of property about $6,000. We can only get an annual rental of about $150, and as there was a mortgage of $4,000 which we were obliged to assume when we took over this property, we of course have to take care of this interest together with the taxes and repairs, which amounts to about $450 to $500 a year.

The city has just laid cement sidewalks around this property, and we will soon have to pay for that.

In the face of these expenses the Trustees do not feel that they will be able to send to the General Clergy Relief any earnings from this fund, other than the $1,529.11, the amount of the Parish offerings.

The Convention is called upon to nominate two Trustees this year. One to fill the vacancy caused by the expiration of Trustee G. Howard Avery's term of office in 1907, which was not filled last

Since our last report was presented the devise of the late Mrs. Amy J. Perkins in favor of the Diocese has been sustained by the Court, and the title to a handsome property in New Hartford adjoining the city of Utica is adjudged to vest in the Trustees of this Fund in fee simple absolute. This devise consists of a farm of sixty acres with farm buildings for which we have been offered Episcopate Fund—Report of the Trustees.

$15,000, and a large handsome stone house and furniture, designed as the Episcopal residence of the Diocese, situated on upper Genesee street, with lots adjoining. One of these lots has been sold for $4,000, the proceeds of which are included in the foregoing account of receipts of principal and in the following statement of invested funds; which also includes $20, subscribed towards the increase of the fund, and collected by the Rev. William B. Clarke. The principal of the fund has thus been increased by $4,020 during the year and is invested as follows mortgage Nov. 13, 1907, the money being advanced to J. H. Carpenter for the church.

$1,500 was loaned William H. Harding, February 5th, 1908, on his bond and mortgage.

Dec. 26, 1907, the Deficiency Judgment against Fred E. Cramer (action No. 6) was sold for $5. Fred E. Cramer was in bankruptcy and practically worthless.

621 Rowland St. was sold Jan. 29, 1908, to the House of Providence for $1,600 this was at a loss to the Trustees of $869.70 besides expenses incurred. This largely reduced amount of accrued income. The property was sold for practically all that the property was worth.

Oct. 31, 1907, $14.26 was advanced for taxes for Constable Fund which Constable Fund paid back Jan 21, 1908, and on same date $24.53 was advanced for taxes of Babcock fund of which amount Babcock Fund paid back $22.72 Jan 27, 1908, leaving a balance due from Babcock Fund of $1.81. There is also $1.82 due from Constable Fund for loan of March 31, 1908, to pay taxes.

There were several large assessments against Lot No. 1 corner Hunt Ave. and Colvin St., which amounted to practically all that the property was worth, and it was considered advisable not to pay them. The 1907 City and County taxes also on this lot were not paid.

Income payable as follows: $500 toward salary of Pastor, residue to Vestry, for repairs, etc., under written order of the Bishop.

The deed of trust also provides that the Bishop may, should at any time the parish become unable to support a clergyman without some assistance, apply a larger portion towards said salary, should the accumulation warrant it, reserving, however always enough for the other purposes mentioned. Under this last provision, $800 has been paid yearly to Rev. A. J. Brockway; during the last year but $700 was paid.

The total income from this fund amounts to only about $640. (there being upwards of $4,300 of vacant property on hand on which the taxes last year amounted to upwards of $150 were paid).

Parochial Fund—Report of the Trustees.

It would seem that unless some of this vacant property is soon sold, the amount of income paid must be reduced.

$1,000 was loaned to Church of St. John the Divine on ^{its} bond and mortgage, the money being advanced and paid as ^{set} forth above in list of disbursements.

Under the will of Margaret Sabine, which was probated in Onondaga County, Book of Wills 49, page 387, there was the following bequest:

Parochial Fund—Report of the Trustees.

"I give and bequeath unto a religious society known as the Church of St. John the Divine, (a Protestant Episcopal Church located at the corner of Grape and Van Buren Streets), the sum of $1,000, and receipt of the treasurer shall be a sufficient voucher; and I order and direct the income thereof shall be used and applied for the purpose of keeping what is known as the Joseph F. Abine Guild House connected with said church in repair and insured against loss or damage by fire for all future time."

This fund was turned over to the Trustees of the Parochial Fund by the Treasurer in charge of the Church of St. John the Divine in August, 1907.

August 22, 1907, $1,000 was loaned to James M. Gilbert on his bond and mortgage.

The Travers note was reduced $19.

Through an error the impairment in 1907 report was stated to be $144.92 and should have been only $44.92 to make the principal $9000.

September 2, 1907, the Permanent Missionary Fund advanced $192 for expenses of summer services at church at Mannsville, N. Y., $140 of this of this was paid back, January 22, 1908, leaving a balance due Permanent Missionary Fund of $52.00.

Additional expenses this year caused the impairment of the principal to be increased to $343.35.

This fund has a 2-10 interest in a judgment against A. M. J. and E. R. Robertson (see 1907 report.) This fund received $4.00 on account of this judgment during past year.

Income payable for purpose of maintaining clergymen, organist and singer to hold services in the Protestant Episcopal Church at Mannsville, N. Y., and for maintaining the grounds and buildings.

There is not included in this Summary the Wetmore Fund, the title to which Fund is not in the Trustees.

The following is a table of the incomes paid out during the last five years (but there is not included some large items of accrued income paid out during those years.)

Parochial Fund—Report of the Trustees.

INCOME PAID.

1904, $2,408.61.	1907, $3,990.67.
1905, $2,801.04.	1908, $4,090.93.
1906, $3,263.18.

The last of improved real estate has been sold. There remains upwards of 50 vacant lots unproductive, subject to general taxes and local assessments. These local assessments are often levied at times when the income has been paid out, necessitating advances from other funds.

The Treasurer's bond from the American Surety Co., is in the possession of the Treasurer of the Diocese.

Mr. Bellinger has resigned as trustee and Mr. W. P. Hitchcock was appointed to fill the vacancy.

The term of office of Mr. Bellinger and Mr. Henry Burden, 2nd, expires this year and their successors should be elected.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

C. W. ANDREWS.

WATERTOWN, N. Y., May 25, 1908.

The chairman of your committee notified the other two members to meet at C. W. Andrews' office, Syracuse, N. Y., Friday, May 22d, to examine the account of the Treasurer of the Parochial fund. Not hearing from either of them, I was disappointed in not finding at least one of them there.

I made a thorough examination of the receipts and disbursements held by him from May 1st, 1907, to May 1st, 1908, and I do certify the same to be correct to the best of my knowledge and belief. The amount of cash in his hands was certified to by bank pass-books.

J. M. TILDEN,
Chairman of Committee.

G. Van Wagenen Fund.

To the Convention of the Diocese of Central New York:

Reference to my detailed report herewith will show the payment in full of one loan (Beardsley) and reduction in four others, (Ferguson, Lillis, Rogers and Van Deusen.)

For the first time I believe, in the thirty-seven years of my Trusteeship the total of securities and cash is less than at the beginning of the year. This comes from arbitrarily marking down the principal of two loans from $1,200, (Kelly), and $1,400, (Latin), to $800 and $1,200, respectively.

In November last, accompanied by my good friend, Mr. Parker, an expert in values of farm lands, who had in the past repeatedly given his services in like investigations, I made a visit to farms in Chenango and Schuyler counties, the mortgage on one being materially behind in interest, and in the case of the two above-mentioned, notice having been given that the mortgagors could no longer attempt to pay interest on existing valuations. Foreclosure was not to be thought of until offers should be made to encourage the owners to renewed attempts to continue payments on a reduced scale. The owners had become aged, feeble and impoverished in their loyal efforts to discharge their obligations.

We made our decision promptly and are confident that in view of present conditions of the properties our action is for the best interests of the Fund as well.

The Railroad bonds taken on, are approved investments for Savings Banks in New York State.

JOHN R. VAN WAGENEN.

Trustee of the Van Wagenen Missionary Fund of the County of Chenango.

H. Registrar's Report.

To the Convention of the Diocese of Central New York

The Registrar of the Diocese reports that he has done considerable work during the year in the way of cataloguing the books and pamphlets of the Diocesan Library, and in storing many hundreds of duplicate convention journals in the tower of Calvary Church, Utica.

In behalf of the Diocese he makes grateful acknowledgement of the kindness of Mrs. Charles T. Olmsted in superintending and paying for the binding of twenty-two volumes of The Spirit of Missions.

Through the kindness of the Rev. Mr. Coley the Library is accessible on nearly every day of the year; and the Registrar will gladly, as he is able, assist any one who may wish to obtain in it statistical or other information.

The financial report is as follows:

Work Among the Deaf Mutes.

I. Work Among the Deaf Mutes.

Report of the Deaf Mute Commission to the Diocese of Central New York

The Commission respectfully submits its Seventh Annual Report: The work continues on the same lines as in former years. The Missionary goes regularly over the Diocese and ministers to his people, wherever he has an opportunity. The main bulk of the services are held in the cities, but the smaller towns, and individuals scattered here and there, receive his patient and devoted attention. His own report gives a full account of what is being done. Thanks to the Board of Missions, the Junior Auxiliary, and the offerings from the parishes, we have again been able to meet the Rev. Mr. Van Allen's salary every month. While the larger offerings, naturally, come from the city parishes, yet we feel grateful for all the smaller sums from the villages and missionary stations. There is evidence to the wide spread interest felt in this work throughout the Diocese, even in many places where no services are held. We regret to say that while about the same number of parishes have contributed this year as last year, yet several of the large parishes from which we have received aid in the past have failed to respond this year. The contributions from fifty-eight parishes during the year ending April 30th, 1907, amounted to $375.32, while that from fifty-six parishes this year brought us only $322.64, a falling off of $52.32. If the parishes above mentioned had not failed us this year, we would now be in a better financial position than in some time. The surplus which our report shows on May 1st every year, is necessary to meet our requirements during the summer and early fall until the offerings begin to come in again in November. May we hope that the clergy and laity will note this fact and respond in such a measure during this fiscal year that we may continue to have the required surplus to carry us through.

We understand perfectly the many other demands on the parochial purses, but surely no other Diocesan or General Church work should appeal to everyone more than this, when it is remembered that without the ministrations of our missionary, these people would be almost entirely deprived of religious advantages. Ours, as far as we know is the only systematic spiritual work which is being done for them in the Diocese, and for that reason demands our loyal support. Thanking all who have aided us in the past, we beg that you will continue to remember our needs in the future. We remain,

Very truly, your committee,

Report of the Missionary to the Deaf Mutes.

Report of the Missionary to the Deaf Mutes.

To the Commission on Church Work Among the Deaf and Dumb in the Diocese of Central New York:

GENTLEMEN: I beg leave to submit the following report of my work as missionary to the Deaf and Dumb of the Diocese during the year just ended.

I have held services as follows: At Utica, 30; at Syracuse, 25; at Rome, 11; at Oneida, 8; at Binghamton, 6; at Watertown, 4; at Auburn, 4; at Elmira, 2; at Oswego, 1; baptisms, funerals, visitation and other services, 7; total of all services, 90. Of these services twenty were public celebrations of the Holy Eucharist, and one was the Communion of the sick.

Visits have been made to the following places where the number of deaf people is so small that regular services are not practicable: Waterville, Hamilton, Norwich, Oxford, Owego, Boonville, Lowville, Carthage, Theresa, Clayton, Fulton and Camden.

There has been one baptism, that of the infant child of deaf parents at Trinity, Utica; there have been three confirmations, all at Trinity, Utica, one of the candidates, however, being presented for Zion Church, Fulton. There have been two funerals, one at Oneida, and one at Auburn.

The conditions which have prevailed during the past year have forced me to rely, to even a greater extent than usual, upon personal visits as a means of reaching my people. The financial stringency has been severely felt among the deaf, and many of them have been unwilling or unable to incur the expense of reaching the central points at which services are held. The Missionary, therefore, has been compelled to go to them. In the course of the year I have made 302 such calls, meeting 463 individuals. Of these calls, 39 were made upon persons seriously ill, and many others were made upon persons who desired advice and assistance.

The following brief and incomplete summary will give some idea of the extent and variety of the incidental work in behalf of his people which the Missionary has been called upon to do: I have secured employment for two men; have placed an aged woman suffering with pneumonia in St. Luke's Hospital, Utica, and have nearly completed arrangements for her admission to a permanent home; have made three visits to a prisoner confined in the Cayuga County jail, and have had a number of conferences with his lawyer; have visited a patient in the State Hospital at Utica; and have assisted various people in legal and business matters.

I have again served as president of the Alumni Association of the school at Rome, and have thus been brought into intimate relations with the majority of the graduates. My interest in the school is great, and I have visited it frequently. I have attended two social gatherings of deaf in Utica, one at Rome, and one at Oneida, and I was present at the annual reunion of the Alumni Association at Sylvan Beach in August, which proved to be the largest gathering of the deaf ever held in Central New York.

Through the kindness of friends I was able to spend two weeks in July in New York City and Philadelphia. In the latter city I had the privilege of preaching twice for the Rev. Mr. Dantzer at All Soul's Church, the largest parish composed exclusively of deaf people in the world. I have also made a number of calls upon deaf people in Watkins, in the Diocese of Western New York. In all other respects my work has been confined exclusively to this Diocese and to the Diocese of Albany.

My expenditures have been as follows: For traveling expenses, $134.62; for postage and stationery, and printing, $16.54 total, $151.16. The offerings of the deaf have amounted to $90.84, not a discreditable showing in view of their moderate circumstances and the enforced idleness of the latter half of the year. My people have, however, really contributed considerably more than this sum, for I have made no attempt to estimate what has been given indirectly in the way of entertainment, etc.

The attendance at services has been excellent throughout the year. It should be borne in mind that this is purely a mission, and that no regular organization exists. Indeed, the deaf are so few and so widely scattered that an organization would prove a burden, and a hindrance rather than a help. The energy expended in merely keeping the wheels running very often leaves nothing for the accomplishment of actual work. I have been satisfied to maintain services regularly in those centers where they are most needed, and to give advice, encouragement and assistance wherever my help has been desired. It is a matter of satisfaction to observe how readily and freely the deaf people have availed themselves of the opportunities for worship thus afforded, and how loyal and interested they have been. I have consistently urged upon deaf communicants the duty of regarding themselves as members of the parish in which they live and of looking upon the Rector rather than the Missionary as their immediate ecclesiastical superior. I am glad to know that many of the deaf people whom I have presented for confirmation have become faithful communicants and useful members in their home parishes. This happy result, however, depends in part upon the earnestness and intelligence of the individual, and, to an even greater degree, upon the interest which the Rector takes in the welfare of his deaf parishioners.

Reviewing the year's work as a whole, I believe that there is good reason for satisfaction with the progress made, and for hopefulness for the future.

I desire to acknowledge very gratefully the kindness shown me by the Bishop, by the Rectors of the parishes visited, and by the Commission. In particular I desire to express my appreciation of the advice and assistance very generously given me by Mr. C. A. Talcott in many difficult situations where my deaf people have been concerned.

Very respectfully yours,

H. VAN ALLEN.

Report of the Woman's Auxiliary.

In the last report it appeared that $2,500 principal, and $1,000 income were invested in bonds and mortgages. As in that statement the cash items represented income, cash on hand in the bank amounting to $500, representing principal, did not appear.

We have changed the form of our statement somewhat by giving the cash account for the current year instead of simply the cash items of the income, and have charged ourselves in this statement with the $500, although our books showed already that we were so charged.

The following is a table showing the number of Bibles, Prayer Books, Hymnals and miscellaneous books distributed during the last ten years:

Church Homes and Hospitals.

HOUSE OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD, BINGHAMTON.

The House of the Good Shepherd in the city of Binghamton, reports that during the past year the House family has consisted of twelve women. Three new members have been admitted to the family, and one has died during the year.

A pleasant reception room, suitably furnished, fills a long felt need. Material improvements have been made to the exterior of the House, and electric lights have been placed throughout the interior. Generous baskets of provisions have been given by the church people of Binghamton, and there have been some contributions from churches outside of the city.

The invested funds amount to $6,500, and there is an income from the rental of a dwelling house. Beyond this, the House depends upon the liberal contributions of friends for its maintenance. Aged church-women of the city of Binghamton and of the diocese are eligible to admission to the House.

Chaplain—The Rev. J. W. Clarke.

It is the aim of this institution to supply to the little ones entrusted to its care a good home, together with the much needed influence of a pure family life. Religious education is, of course, the primary object, and besides the daily devotions, it is the rule to have a weekly service and a catechetical instruction by the Chaplain. The house is grateful to the Bishop for his kindly interest shown in many ways.

One hundred ninety-three children have been cared for during the past year.

Educational Institutions.

Numeral represents year appointed.

Object of School.

The object of the Corporation is the maintenance of a school for the education of boys, so as to fit them for colleges and universities and for the pursuits of life and the formation of their characters on the principles of Christian Morality and the Christian Religion.

Valuation of Property:

The Committee on Buildings and Grounds have appraised the property as follows:

About 23 acres of land	$ 2,000
Main Building	35,000
Chapel	5,000
Organ in Chapel	2,350
Boilers and Apparatus	2,000
Grill Room	900
Ice House	300
Huntington Hall	10,000
Hadley Hall	9,000
Total	$66,550

Upon which there is a mortgage of $17,000. The Treasurer expects to reduce the amount by $1,000 on the 1st of July, '08.

School:

The enrollment of students for this school year has been two hundred twenty-one; of these one hundred and eighty were over fifteen years of age. Seventy-two boys were from church families, of whom sixty-one were communicants. From this Diocese six communicants have been enrolled during the year, of whom only four are in attendance at the present time. Twenty-two were prepared for confirmation, of whom sixteen were confirmed here and two confirmed at home.

The boys are encouraged to do missionary work in this locality. Celebration of the Holy Eucharist has been held on every Sunday before breakfast, and on the greater festivals.

The Rev. A. P. Kelly has served as Chaplain of the School the past year.

The President of the School, Wm. Verbeck, completes his twentieth year at this commencement.

Educational Institutions.

The War Department has designated the School for the fourth time as entitled to the rank of "Distinguished Institution" with the right to appoint the honor graduate as a second lieutenant in the United States Army, without further examination, which is an indication that the Government is entirely satisfied that the School course is adequate to meet the most strenuous requirements of the War Department's preparation for Commissioned Officers. That the Government is further satisfied as to this appointment was evidenced in the case of our last honor graduate, who was appointed without further examination, as First Lieutenant of Coast Artillery seventeen days after he had been commissioned as Second Lieutenant in the Army.

The School is supplied by the Government with a complete outfit of modern rifles, cannon, etc., with prospects of further increase this ensuing year.

The School is organized as a battalion of three companies, one band, one signal company, and one troop of cavalry. The military work is done outside of actual class hours, and yet it has been possible to expend three hundred and ten hours in practical work and fifty-six hours in theoretical work, without materially infringing upon the boys' own time for recreation.

Considerable attention has been paid to instructing the boys in marksmanship, the standard being that of the National Guard of the State of New York. The record is remarkable, in that one hundred seventy-one cadets qualified as marksmen out of one hundred eighty-one practicing.

Athletics in the School are arranged so as to include the largest number of students in the various branches, thus physical exercise is made interesting by systematically organizing their sports, all boys being required to take part in some branch of athletics. The result has been shown by the freedom from sickness. There have been no casualties or epidemics, and it would be interesting to note that the school closes its twentieth year, with the record of not having had a death.

The gifts to the school were as follows:

$5,000 for the Club House by Mr. C. F. King.

A complete set of documents and signatures of all the Presidents of the United States with illustrations and biographies, framed and hung on a rotary standard, by Mr. Thomas R. Proctor.

An old print of the Thirty Years' War, by Mr. Richardson.

$255 subscribed toward improvement of the Grill by the Cadets of the School.

Educational Institutions.

$300 by the parents of the boys in the school, for furniture for the Club House.

The Executive Committee again desire to emphasize to this Convention the fact, that St. John's School desires your attention, your co-operation and your visitation.

Respectfully submitted,

GEO. G. COTTON,
W. D. DUNNING,
HENRY M. LOCKWOOD,
WM. DELANCEY WILSON,
LOUIS KRUMBHAAR,

Executive Committee.

Syracuse, June 2nd, 1908.

APPENDIX V.

(A)

Constitution and Canons.

Constitution.

ADOPTED JUNE 14TH, 1870.

ARTICLE I.

Section 1. There shall be a Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in this Diocese, on the First Tuesday in June, in the year 1870, and each year thereafter, at four o'clock and thirty minutes P. M., in such place as shall be determined by the Bishop for the time being, or in case of his inability to act or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, by the Standing Committee.

Sec. 2. On Tuesday evening, after service, a quorum being present, the Convention shall organize, and the Standing Committees shall be appointed.

Sec. 3. In the event of the prevalence of any epidemic disease, or for other sufficient cause, occurring after the designation of the place of meeting, the Bishop or in the case above mentioned, the Standing Committee, may appoint another place for the meeting of the Convention.

ARTICLE II.

The Bishop may call Special Conventions when he shall judge it conducive to the good of the Church.

In case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, or the inability of the Bishop to do so, the Standing Committee may call such Convention.

ARTICLE III.

the Bishop Coadjutor, if there be one, and all Clergymen canonically resident in the Diocese, not under discipline, and Lay Delegates not exceeding three in number from each Parish, Church or Congregation in union with the Convention, provided, however, that no Clergyman shall be entitled to vote for a Bishop unless he has been canonically resident in the Diocese for at least one year.

Sec. 2. The Lay Delegates shall be chosen by the Vestry, when one is in legal existence. When the Vestry is, from vacancy or otherwise, incompetent to act, they shall be chosen by the Congregation.

Sec. 3. But in case of Churches or Congregations organized or incorporated without a Vestry, Delegates may be chosen by the Church or Congregation, unless the Convention shall otherwise prescribe.

Sec. 4. The mode of admitting new Churches or Congregations into union with the convention and the conditions under which union or representation shall be forfeited, may be prescribed by Canon.

ARTICLE IV.

Every Convention at its first morning session shall be opened with prayers and the Holy Communion, and the Bishop may at this time deliver his Annual Address or Charge.

ARTICLE V.

The Bishop shall preside in the Convention; but in case of a vacancy, inability to act, or necessary absence, the members shall elect a President from among the Presbyters.

ARTICLE VI.

A Secretary shall be chosen upon the assembling of the Annual Convention from among the members thereof, who shall remain in office until the meeting of the next Annual Convention, and until a successor be appointed. His duty shall be to take minutes of their proceedings, to preserve their journals and records, to attest the public acts of the body, and faithfully to deliver into the hands of his successor all books and papers relative to the concerns of the Convention which may be in his possession. It shall also be his duty to give due notice to each Minister and Vestry of the time and place appointed for the meeting of each Convention.

ARTICLE VII.

Section 1. In all matters which come before the Convention, the Clergy and Laity shall deliberate, and, except as provided in the next Section, may vote in one body; but if in any case it shall be required by five members, the two orders shall vote separately, the Clergy as individuals, and the Laity as Parishes; and the concurrence of a majority of each order shall be necessary to constitute a decision.

Constitution.

Sec. 2. In case of the election of a Bishop, the two orders shall always vote separately by ballot, and according to the mode above prescribed.

ARTICLE VIII.

The mode of altering the Constitution shall be as follows: A proposition for an amendment shall be introduced in writing, and considered in the Convention; and if approved of, shall lie over till the next Annual Convention; and, if again approved of in such next Convention by a majority of the two orders voting thereon separately, the change shall take place, and the Constitution so altered shall be valid and obligatory.

ARTICLE IX.

No amendment of the Canons shall be made during the session of the Convention in which the same shall be proposed, unless two-thirds of each order shall concur therein; but any amendment, if approved by a majority less than two-thirds, shall lie over for the consideration and final action of the next Annual Convention.

Canons.

ADOPTED IN CONVENTION, 1869.

CANON I.

Of a List of Ministers in the Diocese.

Section 1. Within one week before the meeting of every Convention of this Diocese, the Bishop shall prepare, or cause to be prepared, a list of all the Ministers canonically resident in this Diocese, annexing the names of their respective Cures, Parishes, Stations, or places of residence, designating those who are entitled to seats in the Convention; but no Clergyman while suspended from the Ministry, shall have a place on the said list. And such list shall be laid before the Convention on the first day of meeting, and be prefixed to the Journal.

Sec. 2. The right of any Clergyman of this Diocese to a seat in the Convention, shall, if disputed, be determined according to the provisions of the Third Article of the Constitution, by the Convention itself; whether his name be inserted in the list aforesaid or omitted.

CANON II.

Of the Members and Organization of the Convention.

Section 1. The evidence of the regular admission of a Clergyman into this Diocese shall consist in proof satisfactory to the Convention of a compliance with Section V. of Canon 15, of the Digest of the Canons of the General Convention; and the evidence of a settlement in a Church thereof shall consist in proof satisfactory to the Convention, of a compliance with the first and second sections of Canon 14.

Sec. 2. The appointment of a Lay Delegate to the Convention of this Diocese shall be certified in writing by the Rector of the Parish or Church of which he is a delegate, or by one of the Wardens, or by the clerk of the Vestry, or Trustees, and the Certificate shall be forwarded by mail or otherwise, to the Secretary not later than forty-eight hours before the meeting of the Convention. This Certificate shall state in all cases that the person so certified is entitled to vote for Wardens and Vestrymen—or would be so entitled if the Church which he is appointed to represent were not otherwise organized or incorporated—and that the said Parish or Church is not in arrears in payment of its assessment for the Diocesan Expense Fund, or (if it be in arrears) that it prays the Convention to remit the sum in arrears for the good and sufficient reasons presented in a paper annexed. The form of said certificate may be prescribed by the Convention, and when so prescribed no other certificate of the appointment of any Lay Delegate or Delegates to the Convention of this Diocese shall be allowed or received.

Sec. 3. At every Convention the Bishop shall take the Chair, and shall continue to preside during its sitting. He shall possess the usual powers of presiding officers in deliberative assemblies to preserve order and decorum, and shall decide all questions of order without debate, subject to an appeal to the House. He shall have the right to name any clerical member to perform the duties of the Chair, but such substitute shall not extend beyond an adjournment, unless directed by the House.

Sec. 4. In case of the absence or disability of the Bishop, or of a vacancy in the office, the senior clerical member of the Standing Committee present shall call the Convention to order and act as President Pro Tempore, and perform all the duties of President until the convention shall be organized and shall have elected a President.

Sec. 5. The President having taken the Chair, the Secretary of the preceding Convention shall call over the names of the Clergy entitled to seats in the Convention, and shall enter in the Journal the names of those who are present. The Standing Committee on Credentials shall then report to the Secretary the names of all Lay Delegates duly elected and entitled to seats in the Convention under the Canons. Any irregular or defective certificates shall be reserved until a quorum shall have appeared. The names of the Lay Delegates duly appointed shall then be called and the names of those who are present shall be entered on the Journal. The irregular and defective certificates shall be reported to the Convention as soon as it is duly organized, who shall decide on the admission of the delegates named in them.

Sec. 6. The presence of at least twenty Clergymen entitled to vote in the Convention, and of Delegates from at least twenty Congregations, shall be necessary to the transaction of business, except that a smaller number may adjourn from day to day.

Sec. 7. A quorum being found to be in attendance the President shall declare the Convention duly organized. The Secretary shall then be elected, who may nominate an Assistant Secretary, to be approved by the Convention.

Sec. 8. The Rules of Order of the preceding Annual Convention shall be the Rules of Order until altered by a vote of a majority of the Convention.

Canon III, IV.

CANON III.

Of the Call of a Convention.

Section 1. Notice of the meeting of any Convention shall be given by the Secretary in a printed letter, transmitted by mail at the expense of the Convention to every Clergyman in the Diocese, and to the Wardens in every vacant Parish, at least one month before the time of meeting. This letter shall contain a notice of the time and place of holding the Convention, extracts from the Constitution and Canons relating to the appointment of Lay Delegates, and a form of certificate of their election. Notice of the meeting shall also be inserted in any newspaper in which the Bishop may direct such insertion to be made.

Sec. 2. Whenever, under the provision of the Constitution, a special Convention is called for any particular purpose, it shall be the duty of the Secretary in the notice thereof to specify such purpose.

CANON IV.

Of the Admission of a Church into Union with the Church in this Diocese.

Section 1. To entitle a Church to admission into union with the Church in this Diocese, it is required that there be submitted to the Convention of the same, at a stated meeting: (1) A certificate from the Bishop, or in case of his absence or a vacancy in the Episcopate, of a major part of the Standing Committee, approving the incorporation of such a Church; (2) The certificate of incorporation duly proved and recorded, or a copy thereof certified by the Clerk of the County. But no such certificate shall be given by the Bishop or the majority of the Standing Committee save upon satisfactory evidence of the ability of such Church to pay and continue the sum of at least six hundred dollars a year for the support of a Rector or Missionary; and also that such Church contains at least thirty actual Communicants.

Sec. 2. Whenever, hereafter, any Church in union with this Convention, shall neglect, for three years in succession, to make a parochial report, no missionary report being made in its behalf; and during the same period shall not employ a Clergyman as its Parish Minister, nor obtain the services of a Missionary, nor make the stated monthly collections as required by Canon X of this Diocese, such Church shall be regarded as having forfeited its connection with the Convention, and be no longer entitled to representation in the same; and the Bishop shall report said Church to the Convention in his Annual Address; but any such Church may be readmitted on the recommendation of the Bishop and by a resolution of the Convention, and such readmission shall take effect from and after the rising of the Convention which shall have agreed to the same.

Canon V, VI.

CANON V.

Of the Secretary of the Convention.

Section 1. In addition to the duties imposed upon the Secretary by the Constitution and by Canon III, he shall be required to transmit annually to each of the Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, and to the Secretary of the last House of Clerical and Lay Deputies in the General Convention, and to the Secretary of every Diocesan Convention a copy of the Journal of the Convention; and shall request the last to send copies of their respective Journals in exchange. He shall also transmit a copy to each Clergyman in the Diocese, and each Lay Delegate attending the Convention, and five copies to each Parish in the Diocese, one of which it shall be the duty of the Clerk of the Vestry to preserve with the Parish records.

Sec. 2. He shall also transmit to every General Convention, in addition to the documents mentioned in Section II, Canon 47, of the Digest, a certificate to be signed by himself, containing a list of the Clergymen in this Diocese, and the amount of funds paid or secured to be paid (distinguishing them) to the General Theological Seminary; together with the nomination of Trustees of that Seminary; and also a certificate of the appointment of Clerical and Lay Deputies.

Sec. 3. Any expense incurred by a compliance with the several sections of this Canon shall be paid out of the Diocesan Fund.

Sec. 4. Whenever there shall be a vacancy in the office of Secretary of the Convention, the duties thereof shall devolve upon the Assistant Secretary, if there be one; if not, upon the Secretary of the Standing Committee.

CANON VI.

Of the Treasurer of the Diocese.

Section 1. At every Annual Convention there shall be chosen a Treasurer of the Diocese. It shall be his duty to receive and disburse all moneys collected under the authority of the Convention, the collection and distribution of which shall not be otherwise regulated. He shall be subject to the direction of the Standing Committee in relation to the mode and place of depositing the funds received by him, and the manner of paying them out, and his accounts and books shall be at all times subject to the inspection of the Standing Committee or any member thereof. Before entering on the duties of his office he shall give a bond to the Standing Committee, in such penalty and with such surety as they shall direct, conditional for the faithful performance of his duties, and for the delivery over to his successor of all funds, securities, books and papers pertaining to his office.

Sec. 2. His accounts shall be reported to the appropriate Committee, according to Canon XIV.

Sec. 3. In case of a vacancy in the office the Standing Committee shall appoint a Treasurer, and the person so appointed shall

Canon III, IV.

CANON III.

Of the Call of a Convention.

Section 1. Notice of the meeting of any Convention shall be given by the Secretary in a printed letter, transmitted by mail at the expense of the Convention to every Clergyman in the Diocese, and to the Wardens in every vacant Parish, at least one month before the time of meeting. This letter shall contain a notice of the time and place of holding the Convention, extracts from the Constitution and Canons relating to the appointment of Lay Delegates, and a form of certificate of their election. Notice of the meeting shall also be inserted in any newspaper in which the Bishop may direct such insertion to be made.

Sec. 2. Whenever, under the provision of the Constitution, a special Convention is called for any particular purpose, it shall be the duty of the Secretary in the notice thereof to specify such purpose.

CANON IV.

Of the Admission of a Church into Union with the Church in this Diocese.

Section 1. To entitle a Church to admission into union with the Church in this Diocese, it is required that there be submitted to the Convention of the same, at a stated meeting: (1) A certificate from the Bishop, or in case of his absence or a vacancy in the Episcopate, of a major part of the Standing Committee, approving the incorporation of such a Church; (2) The certificate of incorporation duly proved and recorded, or a copy thereof certified by the Clerk of the County. But no such certificate shall be given by the Bishop or the majority of the Standing Committee save upon satisfactory evidence of the ability of such Church to pay and continue the sum of at least six hundred dollars a year for the support of a Rector or Missionary; and also that such Church contains at least thirty actual Communicants.

Sec. 2. Whenever, hereafter, any Church in union with this Convention, shall neglect, for three years in succession, to make a parochial report, no missionary report being made in its behalf; and during the same period shall not employ a Clergyman as its Parish Minister, nor obtain the services of a Missionary, nor make the stated monthly collections as required by Canon X of this Diocese, such Church shall be regarded as having forfeited its connection with the Convention, and be no longer entitled to representation in the same; and the Bishop shall report said Church to the Convention in his Annual Address; but any such Church may be readmitted on the recommendation of the Bishop and by a resolution of the Convention, and such readmission shall take effect from and after the rising of the Convention which shall have agreed to the same.

Canon VIII.

Sec. 6. Communicants removing from one Parish to another, in the Diocese, shall procure a certificate as provided for in Canon 39, Section I, of the Canons of the General Convention.

Sec. 7. The same rule shall apply in this Diocese to Communicants who may wish to be transferred, without changing their residence from the list of Communicants in one Parish, so as to be received as Communicants in any other Parish or in any other place of worship where the Holy Communion is habitually celebrated.

Sec. 8. No Rector or other Minister in charge of any Parish in this Diocese shall receive as an habitual Communicant, or enter upon the list of Communicants under his charge, the name of any person who has been a Communicant in any other Parish in this Diocese without such a certificate or Letter Dimissory from the Parish to which said Communicant last belonged.

Sec. 9. Any communicant, not under censure or ecclesiastical discipline, shall be entitled to such a certificate or letter on application therefor to the Minister in charge of the Parish to which said Communicant belongs, and in case of a vacancy in the pastoral care of a Parish, and in case of any person under discipline the application shall be referred to the Bishop of the Diocese, or in the vacancy in the Episcopal office, to the President of the Standing Committee, and the answer and decision of the Bishop or of the President of the Standing Committee, as above provided, shall be final and conclusive.

CANON VIII.

Of Deputies to the General Convention.

Section 1. The Convention shall, at its regular annual meeting next preceding the regular session of the General Convention, elect by the concurrent ballot of the Clerical and Lay Members, four clergymen and four laymen, who shall be Communicants of the Church and residents of the Diocese, to act as Deputies from this Diocese to the General Convention. In like manner the Convention shall elect four Clergymen and four Laymen as Provisional Deputies to act as hereinafter mentioned. The Deputies and Provisional Deputies shall hold their office during the term of three years.

Sec. 2. Any vacancy occurring among the Deputies or Provisional Deputies between the stated times of election may be supplied by any Convention during or prior to which such vacancy shall occur.

Sec. 3. It shall be the duty of the Deputies-elect to signify to the Bishop, on some day within three weeks of the meeting of the General Convention, and at least one week before such meeting, the acceptance of the appointment and their intention to perform its duties; in default of which, and in case of their inability or unwillingness to perform the duties of the appointment, all vacancies so occurring by declensions, sickness or death shall be filled by the designation of the Bishop, from the list of the Clergymen and Laymen elected as Provisional Deputies, and such person or persons so designated by the Bishop, being furnished with his certificate thereof, shall have all the power and authority of Deputies duly elected by the Convention.

Sec. 4. In case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, or of the inability of the Bishop to act, the power conferred upon the Bishop by this Canon shall be exercised by the President of the Standing Committee.

CANON IX.

Of the Standing Committee.

Section 1. At every Annual Convention an election of a Standing Committee shall be made; which Committee shall consist of four of the Clergy and four of the Laity, to be chosen by ballot, and by the concurrent vote of each order, each Parish having one vote by its delegates. Vacancies in said Committee, occurring by death or otherwise, shall be supplied by the concurrent vote of the Clerical Members and Lay Members of the Committee.

Sec. 2. In case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, the powers and duties to be performed by the Bishop in matters of discipline, shall be performed by the Standing Committee, except in those cases where such powers and duties are or may be specially delegated to or enjoined upon the Clerical Members of said Committee; in which case such powers and duties shall be exercised by said Clerical Members alone; provided that no sentence shall be pronounced upon a Clergyman but by a Bishop.

Sec. 3. The Secretary of the Standing Committee shall keep a true record of their proceedings and report the same annually to the Diocesan Convention. He shall preserve all books, Journals and papers belonging to said committee, and transmit the same to his successor in office.

CANON X.

Of the Diocesan Missions and Offerings.

Section 1. All members of the Church in the Diocese of Central New York constitute its Diocesan Missionary Society; and the Convention of the Diocese shall be the Diocesan Board of Missions.

Sec. II. For Missionary purposes the Diocese shall be divided into five districts, as follows:

First District—Jefferson and Lewis Counties.

Second District—Onondaga County, the City of Onondaga, and all the rest of Madison County except the townships including the Parishes of Cazenovia, Canastota, Chittenango and Perryville.

Third District—Broome, Chemung Chenango and Tioga Counties.

Fourth District—Onondaga, Oswego and Cortland Counties, and the townships of Madison County not included in the Second District.

Canon X.

Fifth District—Cayuga, Seneca and Tompkins Counties.

Sec. III. 1. At the next meeting of the Board of Managers after the Convention of this Diocese held in June, 1906, or as soon thereafter as convenient, and every succeeding fourth year an Archdeacon shall be appointed by the Bishop, with the advice and consent of the Board of Managers.

He shall be in priests' orders and shall hold his office for four years unless his incumbency be terminated sooner by resignation or otherwise.

He shall under the direction of the Bishop, give his entire time to the Missionary work of the Diocese. He shall receive a stated salary, together with his traveling expenses; the amount of said salary and expenses to be determined by the Board of Managers, and to be paid by the Treasurer of the Board of Missions from the Missionary Fund.

2. The principal officer of said Missionary District shall be called the Dean of the District. He shall be appointed every four years by the Bishop, from the Clergy of the District, after nomination in a regular Convocation of the same. Under the Bishop he shall have the oversight of all Missionary work in his District.

3. Each Missionary District shall annually elect a Secretary and a Treasurer, at its first regular Convocation after the Annual Convention of the Diocese.

4. If the office of Dean of any Missionary District become vacant, by removal or otherwise, the Bishop shall appoint a successor for the remainder of the term.

Sec. IV. 1. In the general Missionary work of the Diocese, the Bishop shall be assisted by a Diocesan Board of Managers, consisting, together with the Bishop, of the Archdeacon, the Secretary of the Board and the Treasurer of the Diocese, who shall also be the Treasurer of the Board, the five Deans, and five Clergymen and five laymen, one of each from each Missionary District, to be elected severally by the Convocation of the District entitled to this representation. The Bishop shall preside at the meetings, and in his absence the Archdeacon shall preside.

2. The Diocesan Board of Managers shall consult for the promotion of the Missionary work of the Diocese. It shall, each year, through its Secretary, present to the Diocesan Board of Missions, at its annual session, a report of the Missionary work of the Diocese during the Conventional year. The Board of Managers may appoint such committees as are necessary to attend to details of business arising during the interim between meetings of the Board.

3. At each Annual Convention the Diocesan Board of Managers shall submit to the Diocesan Board of Missions for its action, an estimate of the sum required for the Missionary work of the Diocese during the current year. Immediately after the adjournment of the

Canon X.

Convention the Diocesan Board of Managers shall meet and determine how much of the money voted by the Diocese for its Missionary work during the year shall be assessed to each District, and what part of it shall be given to the same for apportionment among its stipendiary Clergy. And this determination shall be published in the Journal of the Convention.

4. The Diocesan Board of Managers shall, through its Treasurer, prepare for publication in each Journal of the Convention, a table by districts, of all the Parishes and Missions in the Diocese, the sum assessed to each District to be raised for Diocesan Missionary work, the amount assessed by the District to each Parish and Mission for the same, and the sum actually given for this purpose by each Parish and Mission. It shall also contain the amount of Stipendiary Fund given to each district, together with the sum apportioned to each of its Stipendiary Parishes and Missions.

5. Other meetings of the Board of Managers shall be held at the call of the Bishop, or in a vacancy of the Episcopate, of the Arch-deacon. Eleven members of the Board, including three Deans, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business; but no action of the Board shall be valid without the approval of the Bishop..

Sec. V. 1. Each Missionary District shall hold not less than two stated Convocations yearly. At the first of these, which shall be held as soon after the adjournment of the Annual Convention as the District may determine, appropriations shall be made by it in aid of the Missionary work in the said District under the advice or direction of the Bishop.

2. Each Parish and Missionary Station seeking aid from the Convocation shall make written application through its Vestry or Committee, stating the facts necessary to a full understanding of the case, particularly the number of contributors and the amount pledged or secured in the Parish or Station for the support of the Minister.

3. Each Missionary District shall be represented in its Convocation by the Clergy canonically resident, and by two Lay Delegates from each of its Parishes and Missions.

4. Each Missionary District shall have power to assess upon its own Parishes and Missions whatever sum may canonically be required of it for the Missionary work of the Diocese, and all moneys raised or collected for Diocesan Missions shall be promptly paid by the Treasurer of the District to the Treasurer of the Diocesan Board of Managers, and by him paid to the Missionaries on the order of the Treasurer of the District.

5. At least two weeks before the Annual Convention of the Diocese, the Secretary of each Missionary District shall make report of the year's work of the District to the Secretary of the Board of Managers, including the items called for in Section IV, 4, of this Canon.

Canon XI.

6. Any missionary District may with the approval of the Bishop, undertake special Missionary work, provided it shall first have complied with all canonical requirements, and shall be free to make its own regulations and conduct its own Missionary work in all ways not conflicting with the provisions of this Canon.

7. It shall be the duty of every Clergyman in charge of a Parish or Mission to attend all Convocations of his District, and to report to the same the Missionary work done in his Cure.

8. Every Clergyman receiving a stipend from the Board of Missions shall make in writing, according to a form prescribed by the Board, a quarterly report of his work to the Dean.

9. No Missionary shall receive his quarterly stipend until he has made the required report to the Dean.

Sec. VI. 1. Offerings shall be made systematically in the Parishes and Missions of the Diocese as follows:

For the Communion Alms on the first Sunday in each month.

For the Board of Missions, Domestic or General, on a Sunday in Advent.

For the Christmas Fund, on Christmas Day.

For the Board of Missions, Foreign or General, on a Sunday after the Epiphany.

For the Bible and Prayer Book Society of Central New York, or the Bible and Prayer Book Society of New York, in the discretion of the Minister, on Whit Sunday.

For the increase of the Ministry, on Easter, or some other near and convenient Sunday.

For the Mission among the Deaf-Mutes in the Diocese, on the Twelfth Sunday after Trinity, or on the Sunday next before Advent.

2. Offerings for Diocesan Missions shall be made in every Parish and Mission in the Diocese on the third Sunday of each month, when one of the above named Sundays is not the third Sunday. All such offerings shall be forwarded promptly to the Treasurer of the District.

It is also recommended that the Minister of each Parish or Congregation, at the Episcopal visitation, ask an offering which shall be placed in the hands of the Bishop, to be used at his discretion for the benefit of needy persons, and which shall be called The Relief Fund of the Diocese.

CANON XI.

Of the Diocesan Expense Fund.

Section 1. In order to provide for the necessary expenses of the Diocese, it shall be the duty of the Treasurer of the

Canon XII.

Diocese to present to the Standing Committee on or before the fifteenth day of May in each year, an estimate of the amount of money that will be needed during the ensuing year to meet the current expenses and expenses of the Convention, adding thereto the liabilities of the Diocese chargeable to said fund, if there be any.

Sec. 2. It shall be the duty of said Committee, upon receipt of this estimate, to assess this amount upon the Parishes and Churches of the Diocese, at the rate of an uniform per-cent. upon the amount last previously reported to the Convention and printed in the Journal under the head of "Rector's Salary and Current Expenses" as defined in Canon VII, Sec. 4, not including any amount that may have been given to the Parish or Church, or its Minister, by the Missionary Board of the Diocese, or by any other Missionary organization. But no Parish shall be assessed less than one dollar. And it shall be the duty of said Committee to report to the Convention the schedule of assessments thus apportioned and when the Convention shall have adopted the same, with such amendments as it may deem necessary, it shall be binding upon the Parishes and Churches, and shall be printed as an appendix to the Journal.

Sec. 3. The Treasurer shall notify each Parish and Church of the quota thus assigned to it, and it shall be the duty of the Rector, Wardens, and Vestrymen of each Parish or Church, or the Minister and Trustees—if there be no Rector, Wardens and Vestrymen—to see that the amount thus due the Diocese, be forwarded to the Treasurer in quarterly installments, so that the whole amount be paid before the first day of May in each year.

Sec. 4. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer to present to the Secretary of the Convention, at the opening of each Session, a list of such Parishes or Churches as are in arrears to the Diocesan Expense Fund, with the amount of such arrears, that the same may be placed in the hands of the Committee on Credentials of Lay Delegates, and each such Parish or Church, shall be excluded from representation in the Convention, until such arrears are paid in full, unless the sum in arrears be remitted by the Convention itself, for reasons which are satisfactory to the Convention.

CANON XII.

Of Clergy Relief.

Section 1. All moneys raised or contributed for the Relief of Disabled Clergy and the Widows and Orphans of Deceased Clergy, shall be paid to the Corporation known as "The Trustees of the Christmas Fund of the Diocese of Central New York." And it shall be the duty of the Convention at each of its annual meetings to nominate by ballot one person to act as Trustee in the said corporation to fill the vacancy which by the by-laws of said corporation will then occur, and to nominate in like manner other persons to fill any other vacancies in the said board that may have occurred during the year since the last Annual Convention.

Canon XIII.

Sec. 2. In every Parish in the Diocese there shall be made annually, on Christmas day, or Quinquagesima Sunday, a collection for the relief of Disabled Clergy, and for the benefit of Widows and Orphans of Deceased Clergy. It shall be the duty of every Clergyman to give due notice of this collection to the Congregation, and of the Wardens of every Parish to forward the same to the Treasurer of the Christmas Fund.

Sec. 3. All appropriations for the Relief of Disabled Clergy except such as are provided for in Canon XXI of this Diocese, shall be made by the Trustees of the General Clergy Relief Fund, acting under the terms of an agreement entered into October 11, 1906, by the Bishop of the Diocese, the Trustees of the Christmas Fund and the Trustees of the General Clergy Relief Fund.

Sec. 4. All appropriations for the benefit of the widow or children of a deceased Clergyman shall be made by the Trustees of the General Clergy Relief Fund, acting under the terms of an agreement entered into October 11, 1906, by the Bishop of the Diocese, the Trustees of the Christmas Fund and the Trustees of the General Clergy Relief Fund.

Sec. 5. All moneys belonging to the Fund shall be loaned by the said Trustees upon security upon real estate to an amount not exceeding seventy per cent. of the appraised value of the property, inclusive of buildings, with proper insurance on the buildings, the appraisal to be made by an appraiser appointed by the Trustees for the purpose, or said moneys may be held and invested in securities of this State, or of the United States; and all securities or investments shall be taken or made in the names of said Trustees and their successors in office, as Trustees of the Fund; and they shall have the power from time to time to change such securities or investments.

Sec. 6. A statement of the proceedings of said Trustees of the Christmas Fund, exhibiting the condition of the Fund hereby entrusted to their charge, together with the items of receipts and disbursements, with the vouchers thereof, shall be reported to the appropriate committee according to Canon XIV, signed by said Trustees or a majority of them.

CANON XIII.

Of the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate.

Section 1. There shall be five Trustees appointed by the Convention to whom the management and care of the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate in this Diocese shall be entrusted. It shall be the duty of the said Trustees to appoint a President and Secretary; and no act of said Trustees shall be valid unless authorized by a resolution adopted at a regular meeting of said Trustees by a majority of the same and recorded by their Secretary in a book to be kept as the record of their proceedings, and to be opened to the inspection of the Convention. The said Trustees shall hold their office during the pleasure of the Convention; and all vacancies occurring in said

Canon XIV.

Board of Trustees shall from time to time be filled by the Convention.

Sec. 2. All moneys belonging to the Fund for the support of the Episcopate shall be loaned by the said Trustees upon securities on real estate to an amount not exceeding seventy per cent. of the appraised value of the property, inclusive of buildings, with proper insurance on the buildings; the appraisal to be made by one appraiser, appointed by the Trustees for that purpose, or said moneys may be held and invested in securities of this State or of the United States; or in any securities in which Savings Banks are authorized to invest the monies deposited with them under the laws of this State; and all securities or investments shall be taken or made in the names of the said Trustees and their successors in office as Trustees of said Fund; and they shall have power from time to time to change such securities and investments.

Sec. 3. The salary of the Bishop shall be paid quarterly, by the Treasurer of the Diocese, on the first days of July, October, January and April, in each fiscal year, and the Trustees of the Episcopate Fund shall remit the amount thereof to such Treasurer quarterly out of the income of the Fund, and the receipt of said Treasurer shall be a proper voucher for said Trustees in rendering their annual report to the Convention of this Diocese. Any excess of income over and above the amount of such salary shall be held and invested by said Trustees as an auxiliary and supplementary Fund, and applied as occasion may require; first, to make good any deficiency of income in succeeding years, and second, to make good any losses or deficiencies in the principal should any such occur; or third, to augment the principal should the Convention so order.

Sec. 4. With a view to the further increase of the principal of the said Fund, such portions of the contributions of the Diocese as may be given or appropriated for that purpose shall be paid by the Treasurer of the Convention to the order of the said Trustees, to be invested by them for accumulation and without diminution, until the further order of the Convention; and all moneys remaining in the hands of said Trustees for investment shall be deposited in some safe bank in this State, to the credit of the President and Secretary of the Board

Sec. 5. A statement of the proceedings of said Trustees, exhibiting the condition of the Fund hereby entrusted to their charge, together with the items of receipts and disbursements, with the vouchers thereof, shall be reported to the appropriate Committee according to Canon XIV.

CANON XIV.

Of the Fiscal Year and Financial Reports.

Section 1. The fiscal year of the Diocese shall begin on the first day of May annually, and end on the thirtieth day of April following. And the Treasurer of the Diocese and all Trustees having in charge any funds belonging to the Diocese shall annually make their reports to the appropriate Standing Committees on or before the fifteenth of May in each year.

Sec. 2. Standing Committees shall be appointed at each Annual Convention to consider and report to the Annual Convention next ensuing, as follows:

1. On the Accounts of the Treasurer of the Diocese, consisting of three Laymen.

2. On the Report of the Trustees of the Fund for the support of the Episcopate, consisting of three Laymen.

3. On the report of the Trustees of the Christmas Fund, consisting of three Laymen.

4. On the Report of the Trustees of the Parochial Fund, consisting of three Laymen.

5. On the Report of the Trustee of the Van Wagenen Missionary Fund, consisting of one Clergyman and two Laymen.

Sec. 3. It shall be the duty of each of these several committees to meet in each year at some time between the fifteenth of May and the meeting of the next Annual Convention, at the place where the Treasurer resides, or where the funds are held, and make an examination into all books, papers, vouchers, etc., relating to the respective funds held by the Treasurer or Trustees, and prepare a report to be presented to the Annual Convention next ensuing. An abstract of each report with such resolutions as may be proposed, and the reports of the Standing Committees constituted by this Canon shall be furnished to the Secretary of the Convention in time to permit him to cause the same to be printed, and sent to the Clergy and Lay Delegates, one week before the meeting of the Convention.

Sec. 4. All Special Committees appointed by one Convention to report to the next Convention, shall send their report to the Secretary of the Convention two weeks before the date of Convention, and the Secretary shall cause such reports to be printed, and each line to be numbered, and four copies sent to every Clergyman, one week before the meeting of the Convention. If any Committee shall fail to send its report to the Secretary in due time to have it printed, such report shall not be presented to the Convention without the consent of a two-thirds vote of the members present.

CANON XV.

Of Vacant Churches.

Section 1. Whenever a Church becomes vacant it shall be the duty of the Vestry to give immediate notice thereof to the Bishop.

Sec. 2. The Bishop shall appoint those of the Clergy in the Diocese, who can with most convenience discharge the duty, to supply such vacant Parishes as have been reported to him, at such times as may be deemed convenient and proper. It shall be the duty of such vacant Churches thus supplied to defray all the expenses incident to such occasional services.

CANON XVI.Of Elections.

Section 1. All the Officers of the Convention shall be elected by ballot. Election by ballot may be dispensed with by an unanimous vote of the Convention. And when an election is by ballot, a majority of the votes in each order shall be necessary to a valid election.

Sec. 2. To facilitate the stated election by ballot, the Secretary shall provide sheets of paper with printed headings, containing the titles of the various offices to be filled by ballot, for the use of the members of the Convention; and all such officers may be voted for at one balloting. No printed ballots shall be allowed.

Sec. 3. In all cases of failure or omission to elect officers by the Convention, the persons last elected shall continue in office until others be chosen.

Sec. 4. In case of vacancies in office, occurring during recess, it shall be competent for the Standing Committee, with the approval of the Bishop, to fill, ad interim, any position which the Convention, if in session, might fill.

CANON XVII.Of Attending the Meetings of the Convention.

Section 1. Whereas, the regular attendance of the Clergy and Laity at the meetings of the Convention is of essential consequence to the interests of the Church, this duty is hereby enjoined upon them.

Section 2. The necessary mileage of the clergy in travelling to and from the place of Convention shall be paid by the Treasurer of the Convention from the Diocesan Expense Fund, and the several amounts so paid shall be added to the assessment for the said fund. Provided, that no Clergyman shall have any claim for mileage whose Parish or Church is in arrears on its assessment to the Diocesan Expense Fund.

Section 3. No member of this Convention shall leave the same during its session without having applied for and received leave of absence.

Canon XVIII.

CANON XVIII.

Of the Trial of a Clergyman not Being a Bishop.

Whenever any Minister of the Diocese, not being a Bishop thereof, shall become liable to presentment and trial under the provisions of any Canon of the General or Diocesan Convention, the mode of proceedings in this Diocese shall be as follows, viz.:

Section 1. The trial shall be on a presentment in writing, addressed to the Bishop of the Diocese, specifying the offenses of which the accused is alleged to be guilty, with reasonable certainty as to time, place and circumstances. Such presentment may be made by the major part in number of the members of the Vestry of any Church of which the accused is a Minister, or by any three Presbyters of this Diocese entitled to seats in the Convention or as hereinafter mentioned. Whenever from public rumor, or otherwise, the Bishop shall have reason to believe that any Clergyman is under the imputation of having been guilty of any offense or misconduct, for which he is liable to be tried, and that the interest of the Church requires an investigation, it shall be his duty to appoint five persons, of whom three at least shall be Presbyters, to examine the case—a majority of whom may make such examination; and if there is, in their opinion, sufficient ground for presentment, shall present the Clergyman accordingly.

Sec. 2. A presentment being made in any of the modes above prescribed, the Bishop, if the facts charged shall not appear to him to be such as to constitute an offense, may dismiss it; or if it allege facts some of which do, and some of which do not constitute an offense, he may allow it in part and dismiss the residue, or he may permit it to be amended. When it shall be allowed in whole or in part, the Bishop shall cause a copy of it to be served on the accused, and shall also nominate twelve Presbyters of this Diocese, entitled to seats in the Convention, and not being parties to the presentment; and cause a list of their names to be served on the accused, who shall, within thirty days after such service, select five of them and notify their names in writing to the Bishop; and if he shall not give such notification to the Bishop within the said thirty days, the Bishop shall select five, and the Presbyters so selected shall form a board for the trial of the accused, and shall meet at such time and place as the Bishop shall direct; and shall have power to adjourn, from time to time and from place to place, (but always within the Diocese,) as they shall think necessary.

Sec. 3. A written notice of the time and place of their first meeting shall be served at least thirty days before such meeting on the accused, and also on one of the persons making the presentment.

Sec. 4. If at the time appointed for the first meeting of the Board of Presbyters, the whole number of five shall not attend, then those who do attend may adjourn from time to time; and if after one adjournment or more it shall appear to them improbable that the whole number will attend within a reasonable time, then those who do attend, not being less than three, shall constitute the Board, and proceed to the trial and a majority of them shall decide all questions.

Sec. 5. If a Clergyman presented shall confess the truth of the facts alleged in the presentment, it shall be the duty of the Bishop to proceed to pass sentence; and if he shall not confess them before the appointment of a Board for his trial as before mentioned he shall be considered as denying them.

Sec. 6. If a Clergyman presented, after having due notice, shall not appear before the Board of Presbyters appointed for his trial, the Board may nevertheless proceed as if he were present, unless for good cause they shall see fit to adjourn until another day.

Sec. 7. When the Board proceeds to the trial, they shall hear such evidence as shall be produced; which evidence shall be reduced to writing and signed by the witnesses respectively; and some officer authorized by law to administer oaths may, at the desire of either party, be requested to administer an oath or affirmation to the witnesses, that they will testify the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, concerning the facts charged in the presentment. If on or during the trial, the accused shall confess the truth of the charges as stated in the presentment, the Board may dispense with hearing further evidence, and may proceed at once to state their opinion to the Bishop as to the sentence that ought to be pronounced.

Sec. 8. Upon the application of either party to the Bishop, and it being made satisfactorily to appear to him that any material witness can not be procured upon the trial, the Bishop may appoint a commissary to take the testimony of such witness. Such commissary may be either a Clergyman or a Layman, and the party so applying shall give to the other at least six days' notice of the time and place of taking the testimony. And if the person on whom the notice shall be served shall reside more than forty miles from the place of examination, an additional day's notice shall be given for every twenty miles of the said distance. And both parties may attend and examine the witness; and the questions and answers shall be reduced to writing and signed by the witness, and shall be certified by the commissary and enclosed under his seal and transmitted to the Board, and shall be received by them as evidence. A witness examined before such commissary may be sworn or affirmed in manner aforesaid.

Sec. 9. The Board having deliberately considered the evidence, shall declare in writing, signed by them or a majority of them, their decision on the charges contained in the presentment, distinctly stating whether the accused is guilty or not guilty of such charges respectively, and also stating the sentence which in their opinion should be pronounced; and a copy of such decision shall be without delay communicated to the accused; and the original decision, together with evidence, shall be delivered to the Bishop, who shall pronounce such canonical sentence as shall appear to him to be proper, provided the same shall not exceed in severity the sentence recommended by the Board; and such sentence shall be final. Before pronouncing any sentence the Bishop shall summon the accused and any three or more of the Clergy, to meet him at such time as may in his opinion be most convenient, in some Church to be designated by him, which shall for that purpose be opened at the time to all persons who may choose to attend, and the sentence shall then and there be publicly pronounced by the Bishop. But the Bishop, if he shall be satisfied that justice requires it, may grant a new trial to the accused, in which case a new Board of Presbyters shall be appointed, the proceedings before whom shall be conducted as before mentioned.

Sec. 10. All notices and papers contemplated in this Canon may be served by a summoner or summoners, to be appointed for the purpose by the Bishop, and whose certificate of such service shall be evidence thereof. In cases of service by any other person, the fact shall be proved by the affidavit of such person. A written notice or paper delivered to a party, or left at his last place of residence, shall be deemed a sufficient service of such notice or paper—provided, however, that the service, if not personal, shall be a notice of at least sixty days.

Sec. 11. The accused may have the privilege of appearing by counsel; in case of the exercise of which privilege, and not otherwise, those who present shall have like privilege; which counsel shall in all cases be members of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

Sec. 12. The record of all proceedings upon a presentment of a Clergyman, shall be preserved by the Standing Committee; and for that purpose shall, after final decision be delivered to their Secretary.

CANON XIX.

Of the Chancellor of the Diocese.

The Bishop may nominate for the approval of the Convention a person skilled in ecclesiastical and civil law to be the Chancellor of the Diocese, whose office shall be to act as legal adviser and counsellor to the Bishop, the Standing Committee, ecclesiastical courts and the Convention, when called upon to do so.

CANON XX.

Of Parochial Limits.

No Parish of this Church shall be organized in any town, city or village where one already exists, without the consent of the Bishop and Standing Committee of the Diocese, and no edifice for public worship shall be erected by said Parish within one-half mile of the Church building already in existence.

Canon XXI.

CANON XXI.

Of the Retirement of a Minister from the Active Duties of his Office.

Any Clergyman of this Diocese, in good standing who has reached the age of sixty-five years, and desires to retire from the active duties of the Ministry by reason of disability shall, on the recommendation of the Bishop, if in his judgment such Clergyman shall be in need of such pension, be entitled upon his retirement, to receive a pension of $500 per annum, payable quarterly by the Treasurer provided he has been engaged twenty years in the work of the Ministry in this Diocese. The amount needed for such pension shall be added to the Diocesan Expense Fund.

Rules of Order.

For Conducting the Business of the Convention of the Diocese of Central New York.

- I. On the first day the order of business shall be as follows:
 1. After Divine Service, the President having taken the Chair, the Secretary of the preceding Convention shall call the names of the Clergy entitled to seats, and enter on the record the names of those who are present.
 2. The Standing Committee on Credentials shall then report, through the Secretary, the names of Lay Delegates duly elected and entitled to seats in the Convention under the Canons.
 3. Any irregular or defective certificates shall be reserved until a quorum shall have appeared.
 4. The names of the Lay Delegates reported by the Committee on Credentials as duly appointed shall then be called, and the result noted in the record.
 5. If a quorum be found in attendance: viz:—twenty Clergymen entitled to vote in the Convention, and twenty delegations from the Parishes, the President shall then declare the Convention duly organized for business.
 6. The Secretary shall then be elected, who may nominate an Assistant Secretary to be approved by the Convention.
 7. The following Committees shall then be appointed by the President:
 - I. On the Admission into Union with this Convention of Churches applying for the same—Consisting of One Clergyman and Two Laymen.
 - II. On Unfinished Business—Consisting of One Clergyman and Two Laymen.
 - III. On the Report of the Missionary Board—Consisting of One Clergyman and Two Laymen.

Canon XXI.

CANON XXI.

Of the Retirement of a Minister from the Active Duties of his Office.

Any Clergyman of this Diocese, in good standing who has reached the age of sixty-five years, and desires to retire from the active duties of the Ministry by reason of disability shall, on the recommendation of the Bishop, if in his judgment such Clergyman shall be in need of such pension, be entitled upon his retirement, to receive a pension of $500 per annum, payable quarterly by the Treasurer provided he has been engaged twenty years in the work of the Ministry in this Diocese. The amount needed for such pension shall be added to the Diocesan Expense Fund.

Rules of Order.

6. The election of the Treasurer of the Diocese.
7. The supplying of vacancies, if any, in the Board of Trustees of the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate; in the Board of Trustees of the Christmas Fund; in the Board of Trustees of the Parochial Fund.
8. The appointing of the following Standing Committees:
 - I. On the Constitution and Canons and Rules of Order—Consisting of Three Clergymen and Two Laymen.
 - II. On the Accounts of the Treasurer of the Diocese—Consisting of Three Laymen.
 - III. On the Report of the Trustees of the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate—Consisting of Three Laymen.
 - IV. On the Report of the Trustees of the Christmas Fund—Consisting of Three Laymen.
 - V. On the Report of the Trustees of the Parochial Fund—Consisting of Three Laymen.
 - VI. On the Report of the Trustees of the Van Wagenen Missionary Fund—Consisting of One Clergyman and Two Laymen.
 - VII. On the Certificates of Election of Lay Delegates—Consisting of the Assistant Secretary, the Treasurer and two Clergymen.
9. The appointment of the Deans of the Missionary Convocations and the supplying of vacancies, if any, in the list of Deputies to the Federal Council.
10. Unfinished Business.
11. Miscellaneous business.

THIRD AND SUBSEQUENT DAYS.

- III. On the third and any subsequent day, after Morning Prayer, the Order of Business shall be as follows:
 1. Reading and approving of the Minutes of the preceding day.
 2. The disposal of the Unfinished Business of the Convention in the order above prescribed for the Second Day; the business, if any, however, which was under consideration at the time of adjournment of the Convention to be first disposed of.

GENERAL RULES.

- IV. Every member who shall be present when a question is stated from the Chair shall vote thereon, unless excused by the House.

Rules of Order.

V. No motion shall be put or debated until it is seconded, and when seconded it shall be stated by the President before the debate; and every motion shall be reduced to writing when required by the President or any member.

VI. If the question in debate contains several distinct propositions, any member may have the same divided.

VII. When a question is under debate no motion shall be received, except to lay it on the table; to postpone it indefinitely; to postpone it to a certain time; to commit it, or amend it; and motions for either of these purposes shall have precedence in the order here named. But a motion to adjourn shall always be in order when no member is speaking, and shall be decided without debate; and if it be negatived shall not be renewed until some other business has intervened.

VIII. A motion to lay on the table shall be decided without debate; but any matter thus laid on the table may be called up again during the same session on the motion of any member who voted in the affirmative.

IX. On the question being put by the President it shall be determined by the sound of voices, for or against it; but any member may require a count of the votes, and tellers for that purpose shall be appointed by the Chair—or any three votes may, previous to a decision by count, require the ayes and noes to be taken, which shall be done by calling the names of the Clerical members and the Churches represented, and the votes shall be entered in the Journal.

X. Any five votes may require the ayes and nays to be taken by orders, and when so taken they shall be entered on the minutes.

XI. No member shall speak more than twice on the same question without leave of the House.

XII. A question being decided shall not be reconsidered during the same session without the consent of two-thirds of the votes of the Convention; nor without the motion for that purpose being made by one of the majority on the prior decision; nor shall any question be reconsidered more than once.

XIII. All Reports of Committees shall be in writing, and shall, upon reading or presentation of the same, become the property of the Convention without any motion for acceptance, and any report recommending action by the Convention shall be accompanied with a Resolution.

XIV. All Special Committees shall be appointed by the Chair, unless otherwise specially directed by the House; in which case they shall be appointed by ballot.

XV. No standing rule or order shall be suspended, changed or rescinded without one day's previous notice of a motion to that effect, unless by the vote of two-thirds of the persons present entitled to vote.

XVI. Before the final adjournment of any session of the Convention the Minutes of the last day's proceedings shall be read, corrected and approved.

XVII. Unless otherwise ordered by the Convention, it shall meet at 9 o'clock in the morning; take a recess from 1 to 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon, and from 6 to 7:30 in the evening.

worship of such Parish or Congregation and contributors to the support thereof for one year next prior to such meeting, or since the establishment of such Parish or Congregation, shall be qualified to vote at such meeting.

The presence of at least six persons qualified to vote thereat shall be necessary to constitute a quorum of such meeting. The action of the meeting upon any matter or question shall be decided by a majority of the qualified voters voting thereon, a quorum being present.

The officiating Minister, or if there be none, or he shall be necessarily absent, any other person qualified to vote at the meeting, who is called to the Chair, shall preside thereat. Such presiding officer shall receive the votes, be the judge of the qualifications of voters and declare the result of the votes cast at such meeting.

The polls of the meeting shall remain open for one hour or longer, in the discretion of the presiding officer, or, if required, by a vote of a majority of the voters present.

The meeting shall decide whether such unincorporated Parish or Congregation shall become incorporated. If such decision be in favor of incorporation, such meeting shall decide upon the name of the proposed corporation; what secular day of the week, beginning with the first Sunday in Advent, shall be the date of the regular annual election; whether the Vestrymen thereof shall be three, six, nine, twelve, fifteen, eighteen, twenty-one or twenty-four and shall elect by ballot from the persons qualified to be voters thereat, who have been baptized, one-third of the number of Vestrymen so decided upon to hold office until the first annual election to be held thereafter, one-third of such number to hold office until one year after such annual election, and one-third of such number to hold office until two years after such annual election; and shall elect from such qualified voters who are Communicants in the Protestant Episcopal Church, two persons to be Churchwardens thereof; one to hold office until such annual election, and one to hold office until one year after such annual election.

Sec. 2. Section thirty-one of said article is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Sec. 31. The Certificate of Incorporation.—If such meeting shall decide in favor of incorporation and comply with the next preceding section, the presiding officer of such meeting and at least two other persons present and voting thereat, shall execute and acknowledge a certificate of incorporation setting forth:

1. The fact of the calling and holding of such meeting;
2. The name of the corporation as decided upon thereat;
3. The county and the town, city or village in which its principal place of worship is, or is intended to be located;
4. The day of the week, commencing with the first Sunday in

7. The names of the Churchwardens elected at such meeting, and term of office of each.

On filing such certificate in the office of the Clerk of the County, so specified therein, the Churchwardens and Vestrymen so elected and their successors in office, together with the Rector, when there is one, shall form a Vestry and shall be the Trustees of such Church or Congregation; and they and their successors shall thereupon, by virtue of this act be a body corporate by the name or title expressed in such certificate, and shall have power, from time to time, to adopt by-laws for its govern*ance.

Such corporation shall be an Incorporated Church, and may be termed also an Incorporated Parish.

Sec. 3. Section thirty-two of said article is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Sec. 32. Corporate Trustees; Vestry; powers and duties thereof.—No meeting of the Vestry or Trustees of any incorporated Protestant Episcopal Parish or Church, shall be held unless either all the members thereof are present, or three days' notice thereof shall be given to each member thereof, by the Rector in writing either personally or by mail; or, if there be no Rector or he be incapable of acting, by one of the Churchwardens; except that twenty-four hours' notice of the first meeting of the Vestry or Trustees after an annual election, shall be sufficient, provided such meeting be held within three days after the election.

To constitute a quorum of the Vestry or Board of Trustees there must be present either:

1. The Rector, at least one of the Churchwardens, and a majority of the Vestrymen, or

2. The Rector, both Churchwardens and one less than a majority of the Vestrymen, or

3. If the Rector be absent from the Diocese and shall have been so absent for over four calendar months, or if the meeting be called by the Rector and he be absent therefrom, or be incapable of acting, one Churchwarden and a majority of the Vestrymen, or both Churchwardens and one less than a majority of the Vestrymen,

But if there be a Rector of the Parish, no measure shall be taken, in his absence, in any case for effecting the sale or disposition of the real property of the corporation, nor for the sale or disposition of the capital or principal of the personal property of the corporation, nor shall any act be done which shall impair the rights of such Rector.

The presiding officer of the Vestry or Trustees shall be the Rector, or if there be none, or he be absent, the Churchwarden who shall be called to the chair by a majority of the votes, if both the Churchwardens be present; or the Churchwarden present if but one be present.

At each meeting of the Vestry or Trustees each member thereof shall be entitled to one vote.

The Vestry shall have power to fill a vacancy occurring in the office of a Churchwarden or Vestryman by death, resignation or otherwise than by expiration of term, until the next annual election at which, if such vacancy would continue thereafter, it shall be filled for the remainder of the unexpired term.

The Vestry may, subject to the Canons of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, and of the Diocese in which the Parish or Church is situated, by a majority vote, elect a Rector to fill a vacancy occurring in the Rectorship of the Parish, and may fix the salary or compensation of the Rector.

Sec. 4. Section thirty-three of said act is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Sec. 33. Annual Elections and Special Meetings of Incorporated Protestant Episcopal Parishes.—The annual election of a Protestant Episcopal Parish hereafter incorporated, shall be held on the secular day in the week, commencing with the first Sunday in Advent, designated in its certificate of incorporation. The annual election of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal Parish or Church heretofore incorporated shall be held on the day fixed for such annual election, by or in pursuance of law, or if no such date be so fixed, then on the Monday next after the first Sunday in Advent. Special Meetings of any Protestant Episcopal Parish or Church heretofore or hereafter incorporated may be held on any secular day fixed by the Vestry.

Notice of such annual election or special meeting shall be read by the Rector of the Parish, or if there be none, or he be absent, by the officiating Minister or by a Churchwarden thereof, on each of the two Sundays next preceding such election, or special meeting, in the time of divine service, or if, for any reason, the usual place of worship of the Parish be not open for divine service, the notice shall be posted conspicuously on the outer door of the place of worship for two weeks next preceding the election or special meeting.

Such notice shall specify the place, day and hour of holding the election or special meeting. The notice of the annual election shall also specify the name and term of office of each Churchwarden and Vestryman whose term of office shall then expire, or whose office shall then be vacant for any cause, and the office for which each such officer is to be then elected.

The notice of a special meeting shall specify the matter or question to be brought before such meeting, and no matter or question not specified in such notice shall be acted on at such meeting.

The presiding officer of such annual or special meeting shall be the Rector of the Parish, if there be one, or if there be none, or he be absent, one of the Churchwardens elected for the purpose by a majority of the duly qualified voters present, or if no Churchwarden be present, a Vestryman elected in like manner. Such presiding officer shall be the judge of the qualifications of the voters; shall receive the votes cast; and shall declare the result of the votes cast. The presiding officer of such annual or special meeting shall enter the proceedings of the meeting in the book of the minutes of the vestry, sign his name thereto, and offer the same to as many qualified voters present as he shall think fit, to be also signed by them.

Only men of full age belonging to the Parish, who have been regular attendants at its worship and contributors to its support for at least twelve months prior to such election or special meeting, or since the establishment of such Parish, shall be qualified voters at any such election or special meeting. The action of annual or special meeting upon any matter or question shall be decided by a majority of the qualified voters voting thereon. The polls of an election shall continue open for one hour, and longer, in the discretion of the presiding officer, or, if required, by a vote of a majority of the qualified voters present and voting.

The Churchwardens and Vestrymen shall be elected by ballot from persons qualified to vote at such election, and no person shall be eligible for election as Churchwarden unless he be also a communicant in the Protestant Episcopal Church, nor be eligible for election as Vestryman unless he shall have been baptized.

At each annual election of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal Parish hereafter incorporated, one Churchwarden shall be elected to hold office for two years; and one-third of the total number of the Vestrymen of the Parish shall be elected to hold office for three years. At each annual election of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal Parish or Church heretofore incorporated, two Churchwardens and the total number of its Vestrymen shall be elected to hold office for one year thereafter, unless the terms of office of but one Churchwarden or of but one-third of its Vestrymen shall then expire, in which case one Churchwarden shall be elected to hold office for two years, and one-third of the total number of its Vestrymen shall be elected to hold office for three years. Each Churchwarden and Vestrymen shall hold office after the expiration of his term until his successor shall be chosen.

Sec. 5. Section thirty-four of said article is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

The Religious Corporations Law.

Sec. 34. Changing the number of Vestrymen of Protestant Episcopal Parishes hereafter incorporated.—If the Vestry of a Protestant Episcopal Parish, hereafter incorporated, shall, by resolution, recommend that the number of Vestrymen of such Parish be changed to either three, six, nine, twelve, fifteen, eighteen, twenty-one or twenty-four Vestrymen, notice of such recommendation shall be included in the notice of the next annual election of such Parish, or in the notice of a special meeting to be held not less than six months before the time fixed for holding the next annual election thereafter, and be submitted to such annual or special meeting. If such recommendation be ratified by such meeting, the presiding officer thereof, and at least two qualified voters present thereat, shall execute and acknowledge a certificate setting forth such resolution of the Vestry, the fact that notice thereof had been given with the notice of such annual election, or with the notice of such special meeting, as the case may be; that the meeting had ratified the same; and the number of Vestrymen so decided on. Such certificate shall be filed in the office of the Clerk of the County in which the original certificate of incorporation is filed and recorded, and such change in the number of Vestrymen shall take effect at the time of the next annual election thereafter.

If the number of Vestrymen be thereby increased, then, in addition to the number of Vestrymen to be elected at such annual election one-third of such increased number of Vestrymen shall be elected to hold office for one year thereafter, one-third of such increased number shall be elected to hold office for two years thereafter, and one-third of such increased number shall be elected to hold office for three years thereafter.

If the number of Vestrymen by such change be reduced, such reduction shall not effect the term of office of any Vestryman duly elected, and at such next annual election, and at each annual election thereafter, one-third of such reduced number of Vestrymen shall be elected to hold office for three years.

Sec. 6. Section thirty-five of said article is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Sec. 35. Changing date of annual election, number and terms of office of Vestrymen and terms of office of Churchwardens in Protestant Episcopal Churches heretofore incorporated.—If the Vestry of a Protestant Episcopal Parish, heretofore incorporated, shall, by resolution, recommend that the date of the Annual Election be changed to a secular day in the week, beginning with the first Sunday in Advent, or that the number of Vestrymen be changed to three, six, nine, twelve, fifteen, eighteen, twenty-one or twenty-four, and that the terms of office of the Churchwardens be changed so that one warden shall be elected annually, notice of such recommendation or recommendations shall be included in the notice of the next Annual Election of such Parish, or in the notice of a special meeting to be held not less than six months before the time fixed for holding the next annual election thereafter and be submitted to such annual or special meeting. If such recommendation or recommendations be ratified by such meeting, the presiding officer thereof and at least two qualified voters present thereat, shall execute and acknowledge a certificate setting forth such resolution of the vestry; the fact that notice thereof had been given with the notice of the annual election; or with the notice of the special meeting, as the case may be, that such meeting had ratified the same; the date determined upon for the annual election of the Parish; the number of Vestrymen so decided on, and the fact that the meeting determined to thereafter elect Churchwardens so that the term of one Warden shall expire annually.

Such certificate shall be filed in the office of the Clerk of the County in which the original certificate of incorporation is filed and recorded. If the meeting determined to change the date of the annual election, the next annual election shall be held on the day in the week beginning, with the first Sunday in Advent, determined on at such meeting, and the terms of the Vestrymen and Churchwardens which, pursuant to law, would expire at the next annual election, shall expire, and their successors shall be elected on such day.

If the meeting determine to change the number of Vestrymen and manner of electing Wardens and Vestrymen, there shall be elected at the first annual election thereafter, one-third of the number of Vestrymen so determined on, to hold office for three years, one-third thereof to hold office for two years, and one-third thereof to hold office for one year; and one Churchwarden to hold office for one year, and one to hold for two years; and thereafter at the annual election there shall be elected one-third of the number of Vestrymen determined on at such meeting and one Churchwarden.

Any Protestant Episcopal Parish, heretofore incorporated, which has changed the number of its Vestrymen and the manner of electing Wardens, pursuant to the provisions of this section, may make further changes in the number of its Vestrymen in the manner provided in section thirty-four of this act.

Sec. 5. This act shall take effect immediately.

Sec. 7. Section thirty-six of said article is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Sec. 36. Changing the qualification of voters and the qualifications of Wardens and Vestrymen.—If the Vestry of a Protestant Episcopal Parish heretofore incorporated shall, by resolution, recommend that the qualifications of voters and the qualifications of Wardens and Vestrymen be changed to conform in both cases to the requirement of sections thirty-three of this statute, notice of such recommendation or recommendations shall be included in the notice of the next annual election of such Parish, and be submitted to the meeting. If such recommendation or recommendations be ratified by such meeting the presiding officer thereof and at least two qualified voters present thereat shall execute and acknowledge a certificate setting forth such resolution of the Vestry, the fact that notice thereof had been given with the notice of such annual election, and that the meeting had ratified the same.

An Act to Amend the Religious Corporations Law.

Such certificate shall be filed in the office of the Clerk of the County in which the original certificate of incorporation is filed and recorded.

Sec. This act shall take effect immediately.

(2) An Act to Amend the Religious Corporations Law.

Became a Law April 19, 1900.

Section 1. Section eleven of Article one of Chapter seven hundred and twenty-three of the laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-five, entitled "An act in relation to religious corporations, constituting chapter forty-two of the general laws," and known as the religious corporations law, as amended by chapter three hundred and thirty-six of the laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-six is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Sec. 11. Sale, mortgage and lease of real property of religious corporations.—A religious corporation shall not sell or mortgage any of its real property without applying for and obtaining leave of the court therefor pursuant to the provisions of the code of civil procedure. The Trustees of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal Church shall not vote upon any resolution or proposition for the sale mortgage or lease of its real property unless the Rector of such Church, if it then has a Rector, shall be present, and shall not make application to the court for leave to sell or mortgage any of its real property without the consent of the Bishop and Standing Committee of the Diocese to which such Church belongs; but in case the See be vacant, or the Bishop be absent or unable to act, the consent of the Standing Committee, with their certificate of the vacancy of the See or of the absence or disability of the Bishop shall suffice. * * * The petition of the Trustees of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal Church * * * shall, in addition to the matters required by the code of civil procedure to be set forth therein, set forth that this section has also been complied with. But lots, plots or burial permits in a cemetery owned by a religious corporation may be sold without applying for or obtaining leave of the court. No cemetery lands of a religious corporation shall be mortgaged while used for cemetery purposes.

Sec. 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

(3) Form of Certificate of Incorporation

To all whom these presents may Concern:

instrument do hereby certify, that on the [Second] day of [June] in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and [ninety five], the men of full age, belonging to the Church or Congregation in communion with the Protestant Episcopal Church in the State of New York worshipping in [the School House of School District Number (3) in the Town of Verona, in the County of Oneida in the State of New York,] not already incorporated, met at their usual place of worship aforesaid, for the purpose of incorporating themselves under the Act of the Legislature of the State of New York, entitled "An Act in relation to Religious Corporations, constituting chapter forty-two of the general laws, in pursuance of notice duly given specifying the object of the meeting, and the time and place thereof which had been publicly read in the time of morning service, on two Sundays next previous to such meeting, by * [the Rector] at the usual place of worship or such Parish or Congregation, and which was also posted in a conspicuous place on the outer door near the main entrance to such place of worship.

And we further certify that at such meeting, not less than six men of full age, belonging to the Church or Congregation aforesaid, and not already incorporated, and duly qualified to vote at such meeting, met for the purpose aforesaid.

And we further certify that  [the Rev. John Williams, the Rector of the said Church or Congregation.] presided at the said meeting and received the votes.

And we further certify that the number of Vestrymen decided upon at such meeting was [three, six, nine, twelve, fifteen, eighteen, twenty-one or twenty-four.]

And we further certify that at the said meeting the following persons were elected Churchwardens and Vestrymen, for the term of office set opposite their names respectively, by a majority of the votes of the persons present at the said meeting qualified to vote, viz.:

A. C. for term of one year	Were Elected
C. D. for the term of two years	Church Wardens.
E. F. for the term of one year	Were Elected
G. H. for the term of two years
I. J. for the term of three years	Vestrymen

And we further certify, that by a majority of the votes of the persons present and qualified as aforesaid [Tuesday] in the week beginning with the first Sunday in Advent was fixed and determined for the annual election of the successors of the said Churchwardens and Vestrymen.

* Or by the officiating Minister: or by Alfred Bailey, belonging to the said Church or Congregation.

† Or the Rev. John Williams, the Rector of the said Church or Congregation being necessarily absent by reason of illness (or whatever may be the cause). Mr. Thomas Clark was called to the Chair, and, or there being no Rector, Mr. Henry Churchill, one of the Churchwardens (or Vestrymen) or Mr. Daniel Thomas, was called to the Chair, etc.

Form of Certificate of Incorporation.

And that it was in like manner determined that the said Church or Congregation shall be known in law by the name of [the Rector, Churchwardens and Vestrymen of St. Paul's Church, in the town of Verona, County of Oneida, and State of New York] and that its principal place of worship is [or, is intended to be] located in said [town city or village and county as the case may be] and State of New York.

In testimony whereof, we the said [John Williams] who was the presiding officer at the said meeting, and [Thomas Clark and William Smith], who were present and witnessed the proceedings, and voted at said meeting, and were selected and named to sign and seal this certificate, have hereunto subscribed our names and affixed our seals, the [second] day of [June], in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and [ninety-five].

[John Williams] [SEAL.]
[Thomas Clark,] [SEAL.]
[William Smith,] [SEAL.]

This certificate thus made out, and signed and sealed, must be duly acknowledged by the parties signing and sealing the same, before some officer authorized to take the acknowledgement, or proof of deeds or conveyances of real estate, to be recorded in the County where the Church or place of worship is situate.

Being thus signed, sealed and acknowledged the certificate must be recorded by the Clerk of the County or by the officer whose duty it is, or may hereafter be made, to record such instruments in the County in which the Church is situate.

Incorporation of Free Churches.

(1) An Act for the Incorporation of Societies to Establish Free Churches. Passed April 30, 1854.

The People of the State of New York represented in Senate and Assembly do enact as follows:

Section 1. Any seven or more persons of full age, citizens of the United States, and a majority of them being residents of this State, who shall associate themselves for the purpose of founding and continuing one or more Free Churches, may make, sign and acknowledge, before any officer authorized to take the acknowledgment of deeds of land to be recorded in this State and may file in the office of the Secretary of State, and also of the Clerk of the County in which any such Church is to be established, a certificate in writing, in which shall be stated the name or title by which such society shall be known in the law, the purpose of its organization, and the names of seven trustees of whom not less than five shall be persons who are not Ministers of the Gospel, or priests of any denomination, to manage the same; but such certificate shall not be filed unless with the written consent and approbation of a Justice of the Supreme Court of the district in which any such Church shall be intended to be established, or in the city of New York, of a Judge of the Superior Court of the said city, to be indorsed on such certificate.

Sec. 2. Upon the filing of such certificate, the persons named therein as trustees and their successors, being citizens of the United States and residents of this State, shall be a body politic and corporate, with all the rights, powers and duties, and subject to all the restrictions and obligations and other provisions, so far as the same may be applicable and consistent with this act specified and contained in the act entitled "An Act for the Incorporation of Benevolent, Charitable, Scientific and Missionary Societies," passed April 12, 1848, and the act amending the same passed April 7, 1849, except that the limitation in the first of the said acts of the value of the real estate that may be held by any society in the city or county of New York, incorporated under this act, shall not be applicable to any Church edifice erected or owned by such society, or the lot of ground on which the same may be built, and except that the provision in the first of the said acts, in relation to the personal liability of the trustees, shall be applicable only to the trustees who shall have assented to the creation of any debt.

Sec. 3. Any vacancies occurring in the said Board of Trustees shall be supplied by the remaining trustees at any legal meeting of the members; but there shall always be at least five members of the Board who are not ministers of the Gospel or priests of any denomination.

Sec. 4. The seats or pews in every Church building or edifice owned or occupied by any corporation organized under this Act shall be forever free for the occupation and use during public worship, of all persons choosing to occupy the same, and conducting themselves with propriety; and no rent, charge or exaction shall ever be made or demanded for such occupation or use; nor shall any real estate belonging to such corporation be sold or mortgaged by the trustees thereof, unless by the direction of the Supreme Court, to be given in the same manner, and in the like cases, as provided by law in relation to religious corporations.

Sec. 5. This act shall take effect immediately.

(2) Certificate of Incorporation of Free Churches.

We, whose names are hereto subscribed, male persons of full age, citizens of the United States, and a majority of whom are residents of the State of New York, do hereby certify that we have associated ourselves together for the purpose of founding and continuing a Free Church in the City [or town] of——, State of New York that the name or title by which such society shall be known in law was determined to be the Free Church of the——, in the—— of——. That the purpose of its organization is the ministering of the Word and Sacraments according to the doctrines and worship and discipline of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America. That the following are the names of seven trustees who are to manage the affairs of the said Church and body corporate, five of whom are not Ministers of the Gospel or Priests of any denomination, namely:

[Signed in duplicate by all, and to be acknowledged, not proved, and to be approved by a Judge of the Supreme Court of the district, and filed in the office of the County Clerk, and a duplicate in the office of the Secretary of State.]

Acts relating to the incorporation of the Trustees of the Episcopate, Parochial and Christmas Funds, and the Bible and Prayer Book Society may be found in any Journal of the Convention prior to 1896, and in the Journal of 1906.
